acrylic exterior House Paint
100% LONGER LIFE
FUNGI & MILDEW RESISTANT
KEEPS ON EFFORTLESSLY
The best news in painting in many years — amazing LUCO-TEX acrylic House Paint. You can paint immediately after a rain — without fear of spotting or blistering. LUCO-TEX dries in minutes — so quickly that you can apply two coats, if needed, without shifting ladders. Brushes as twice as fast — twice as easy. And — it's blister and peel resistant. Use LUCO-TEX on almost any exterior surface — wood, masonry, asbestos, metal. When you're through for the day — just clean your brushes in water. All-new LUCO-TEX takes the "pain" out of painting. $7.95

A horseshoe tournament will be conducted through July 30 at the playground. It will be a singles only tournament. Girls and boys are urged to participate. Three age groups include 8 to 12 year olds, 13 to 15 year olds and 16 to 18 year olds. City champions will be announced at a later date.

Palsgrove will participate in the drama festival at Deshler School Friday, July 31, at 2:30 p.m. A one-act play, "The Golden Rule," will be presented. Characters include Charlene Watkins, Dorothy Terry, Pamela and Patricia Jones, Herbie Henderson, Walter Watkins, Rence Smith, Patricia Williams, Kathy Blakely, Chuck Williams, Karen Graves, Billy Smith and Linda Henderson.

All boys and girls interested in participating in the Junior Olympics track meet, Aug. 8, should get an entry blank from the playground supervisors this week. Entry blanks for the AAU swim meet at Maryland Pool on Aug. 5 are also available at the playground. Dick Emrich has track and field practice daily at 4 p.m.

Lincoln Park

The Lincoln Park boys and girls are now working hard in anticipation of the drama festival which will be held at Schiller Recreation Center, 3:30 p.m., July 31. We will not reveal our skit until that time as it is to be a surprise. In the way of dramatics we are preparing a short scene on a circus theme which is to be part of the city-wide pageant.

We are continuing our work on baskets and pot holders. We are doing some painting of the stormy skies.

The traveling zoo will visit Lincoln on Thursday, Aug. 6, from 3 to 5 p.m.

Anyone interested in participating in a swim meet Aug. 5 should see Mr. Feen.

It was necessary for Jack Bernlohr to leave his job on the playground. Mr. Feen, a teacher from George Berry Junior High, replaced him.

Horseshoe tournaments will be held this week for eliminations. The winners of each age group will be sent to compete against other playgrounds.

Fairwood

Fairwood's softball teams had a busy week. Team 3 beat Shepard 6-3 and lost to Deshler. Team 1 beat Mohawk 7-1 and lost to Karns. Fairwood teams have two games for next week.

Southeast Lions

All boys and girls interested in participating in the Junior Olympics Aug. 15 should get entry blanks from the playground supervisors before that date.

Southeast Lions beat Fornof in basketball by the phenomenal score of 58-16. Everyone got into the game for the Lions including George Devlin, Robert Goodwin, Tommy Jenkins, Eugene Western, George Gilchrist, William Tinsley, Clayton and Gaylord Hicks and Robert Gilchrist.

The Junior Olympic swim meet will be held Aug. 5 at Maryland Pool. Anyone interested in competing should contact Don Pemberton.

The dance last week was rained out, but there will be another Friday if the weather permits. Members of the advisory council have been invited to help chaperone.

Members of the council are Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Teague, Mrs. Catherine Latham, Mrs. Magnolia Goodwin, Mrs. Alice Jennings and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Latham.

Southview

Entries in the Junior Olympic Swim Meet to be held at Maryland Park Swimming Pool Aug. 5 must be made with the playground directors before Aug. 3.

A horseshoe tournament is underway at Southview with competition in three classes for boys and girls — eight to 12, 13 to 15 and 16 and older.

The Southview intermediate team beat Karns No. 2, 20-4, while the junior team beat Mohawk, 41-15. Two games were rained out and are rescheduled for next week. They pit the junior boys against Fairwood No. 2 and the Junior Girls against Fornof.

A bubble gum contest was held on Tuesday and there was a wiener roast Wednesday.

On last Wednesday evening, July 22, from 7 to 9 p.m. another successful record dance was held. Jeanette and Mary Knight won the "freeze" dance contest and were awarded free cokes.

The supervisors would like to thank all the children for helping to make the dances successful, but would like to especially thank Mike Glick and Bill Yeager for their management of the refreshments.

Smith Road

A villainous duke, a brave hero, and a beautiful young princess are only a few of the characters to be portrayed in "A Melodrama," a play in which 12 children from Smith Road Playground will appear. Starring roles are held by Jim Klineline, Pam Gardine and George Tuvell.

The play will be one of many presented at the annual Drama Festival to be held this year at Deshler Playground, Friday, July 31, at 2:30 p.m.

Puppet making was the chief project in the arts and crafts program last week. The children used paper mache to make puppets of all sizes and shapes.

Boys and girls alike are eagerly awaiting the swim meet to be held Aug. 5 at Maryland Park Pool. Fifteen from Smith Road plan to compete in this city wide event.

Deshler

Sixty-two dolls were entered in Deshler Playground's Doll Show. Among the winners were Pam Miller, Elaine Wichouski, Debbie Griffith, Valerie Fleshman, Sibyl McCualsky, Linda Pemberton, Darlene Jacobs, Peggy Hensley, Sally Farmer, Claudia Yuasko, Kathy France, Shelly Miller, Kathy Jacobs.

Everyone is invited to attend the Drama Festival to be held at Deshler tomorrow at 2:30. Smith Road, Karns, Palsgrove, Fairwood and Deshler will participate. Those working on Deshler's skit, "The Three Bops," are Barbara Cencl, Sharon McKitrick and Barbara Moore.

Anyone wishing to compete in the AAU Swim Meet Aug. 5 may register at the playground before Aug. 3. Diana Lamp will be a Teen Queen at the meet and help give out the awards.

A playground horseshoe tournament is being played this week. The winners will go to the sectional playoffs at Schiller.

Religious Unity

The restoration preachers pleaded for the unity of the Lord's people through the return to the practice and principles of the New Testament. Since creeds of men had proved so divisive, they advocated the elimination of all human creeds and the restoration of the word of God alone as a complete and adequate rule of faith and practice. Unity in the religious world was not to be achieved by compromise around the conference table, but through obedience to the word of God.

The teaching, organization and worship of the church of Christ was not to be determined by tradition or the legislation of men in synods and councils, but by the "apostles' doctrine" which is found in the New Testament. Conduct in life it found was not to be measured by the teaching and example of medieval mystics and aesthetics, but the teaching of Jesus Christ.

Charles E. Mack Conducts Sunday Schiller Concert

The summer band concert series at Schiller Park is nearing a close with only three concerts remaining. Charles E. Mack will conduct this Sunday's concert.

Mack is the present conductor of the Franklin Post No. 1 Band, American Legion. Assisting him on the program will be Anna McClure, who will sing several solos.

Five thundering march numbers and selections from Victor Herbert's favorites will be highlights of the program. The concerts are sponsored jointly by the Department of Public Recreation and the Music Performance Trust Funds with the cooperation of the local musicians' union.

Four-Month-Old Boy Found Dead

A four-month-old Elsmere-st baby was found dead in his crib by an older brother, early Saturday, July 25.

David Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barber, 540 Elsmere-st, had died apparently of pneumonia, reported deputy coroner Dr. Carl E. Tetirick after a Saturday afternoon autopsy.

The child had been fed by his mother at 2 a.m., and was thought to be in good health at the time. His brother, David, 12, found the baby lying face down in the crib Saturday morning.

Round Lake Camp Attended By Several South Side Youths

The camp at Round Lake was the home-for-a-week for several area youngsters recently. These kiddies were Reuben Marcum, Ray Lamberson, Keith and Paul Fillinger. Mrs. Noah Marcum was the camp nurse.

Janice Grace is listed among those on an ice-cream diet at this time, caused by a tonsillectomy at St. Anthony Hospital last week.

We don't know the name of the bridegroom, sorry to say, but wedding congratulations are in order at this time for the former Miss Richter, of Barrett Junior High's teaching staff.

Will Remember

Regardless of the manner in which next year's golden wedding anniversary is celebrated, Mrs. F. Minor will always remember this year's 49th anniversary.

Mrs. Minor, 1155 Heyl-av, had the misfortune of breaking her arm a few weeks back, and the further misfortune of having it heal improperly. The Minors anniversary, was an event of July 28. A healthier 50th, next year!

These kiddies have birthdays to celebrate within the coming week. Jane Schodorf, 284 Sheldon, Aug. 5; Carol Frazier, 300 Sheldon, Aug. 4; David Metzger, 259 E. Jenkins, July 31; Linda Gardner, 1576 S. High-st, July 31; Timothy Dailey, 127 E. Morrill, Aug. 1; Marianne Allen, 1540 S. High-st, Aug. 1; Nancy Kirby, 123 Woodrow, Aug. 4; Paul Howell, 343 Frebis, July 26; Kenneth Springer, 409 Hanford, July 27; Eugene Page, 25 W. Innis, Aug. 3; Linda Schwartz, 280 Frebis, July 30; Judith Nichols, 322 E. Hanford, July 25; Janice Alexander, 26 W. Markison, Aug. 4 and Jon Leist, 1204 Oakwood-av, Aug. 5.

Visit Son

Visiting their sailor son and watching the Cleveland baseball team perform helped make a full day for Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hartman, Concord-st, July 21.

William Hartman, their son, was recently stationed on the St. Lawrence Seaway, aboard the U.S.S. Macon, with an overseas assignment in the immediate future, so his parents, sister and sister's family made the trip.

Roland and Nellie McDaniels, 1571 E. Gates-st, packed a lot of sightseeing into four days. Williamsburg, Va., Luray Caverns, Shenandoah Valley and Washington, D.C. were some of the spots visited in their midsummer vacation.

Fair Set

Burma Chapter, 471, OES, will hold its annual Fair, Thursday, Aug. 6, at the K of P Hall, 697 S. High-st. Supper will be served from 5 to 8 p.m., followed by the bazaar. The public is invited to attend. General chairman is W. M. Jean Barton, assisted by W. P. Orville Dart, A. M. Ruth Dennison and A. P. Lee Barton.

"Happy anniversary" today to Frank and Jean LeRue, and "happy birthday" Aug. 4 to Mary Long.

One of our readers has skin trouble on both her hands, so she wears white gloves with the fingers cut half off. She has exhausted all her own gloves, plus the discarded ones of her friends. Our appeal is for used white gloves, that could be worn while our friend goes about her household chores. The gloves help to keep the bandages clean, plus helping to keep the needed ointments on the lady's hands.

The person to call is Clara Frohnhoefer, HI. 4-4079.

See Chief

With two drivers to share the driving duty, four Columbusites covered nearly 5000 miles in a little less than two weeks, for a vacation, that included some of our country's renowned parks and scenic beauties.

The foursome were Mary and Frank Douglas, 1073 Berkeley-rd, and Lenora and Ollie Conners, 549 Acton-rd.

An amusing incident on the trip occurred when Ollie asked one of the inhabitants where he could go to see a "real" Indian. The gentleman took off his hat and revealed that he was an honest-to-gosh Indian chief! His hair was braided, and the braids tucked inside his hat.

The month's vacation that Earl, Alice and David Colegrove, 1458 Champion-av, have had this summer sounds extra special. Pretty postal cards from Alice were sent from Arizona and California.

David enjoyed seeing the Sante Fe trains; railroads are one of his hobbies.

While in California, the Colegroves visited relatives. Visiting Disneyland, Tia Juana, Mex.

Mrs. Paul Dearth, with her children, has been an Ohio visitor this summer. The former Moler-st resident now resides in California.

Gets Letter

An extremely interesting letter reached us from Costa Rica a short time back, which should prove interesting to quite a few South Siders.

Our correspondent was Eileen (Swisher) DiFranco, South Hi grad and a South Sider for many years. Eileen had just completed a flying trip from Costa Rica to Florida, where she had a reunion with her two brothers and her parents. The elder Swishers, residents of Siebert-st, had gone to Florida with their younger son, Ray.

While in Florida they were the guests of their older son. We particularly enjoyed the part of Eileen's letter discussing television, which must not have reached Costa Rica as yet.

Our correspondent says the family, excepting her, had missed it at first, but now they find enjoyment in listening to records, playing games or reading poetry aloud.

On Vacation

A much needed vacation, just lazying around, will be the way that our operator, Marie Long, is going to spend the two weeks away from her beauty shoppe. Marie, husband Merle, Helen and Fay Allison planned a trip to Cincinnati to see the cinerama presentation as one of their vacation projects.

Sunday night's Schiller Park Band concert will have Charles E. Mack as the conductor for the 8 p.m. presentation.

The last days of July bring birthdays to Charles Yunker, 74 E. Gates-st, who has his natal day today; Diana Leach, 99 Reeb-av, who will have her birthday tomorrow; and another July 30 celebrant, Maggie Burr.

We imagine Miss Christine Steroff, 275 E. Stewart-av, has many pleasant memories of her recent vacation spent in visiting the Southwestern states and Mexico. The young woman made the trip with three of her friends.

Scarcely rested from the four day jaunt that took the Irishman and ye Gadabout on a 1500 mile tour of Michigan, Lake Superior, Illinois, Indiana and back to Benton Harbor Mich., before turning south to Ohio, the "pooched pups" took another little trip last week to northern Ohio, then on to the northernmost town of West Virginia, there to visit ye Gadabout's aunt. Crossing the Mackinack Bridge and visiting the House of David's establishment were two memorable experiences of the first trip.

Michigan hosts were Jane and Howard Johnson. Friends of the former S. High-st resident will be interested to hear she's "still Jane!"

Purpose of the northern Ohio trip was to collect four little campers, Tom and Judy Lenox, Carol and Jimmy Dorsam.

A warm welcome to the Gordon family, now residents of Siebert-st, who made their home in Portsmouth before moving to Columbus this past June.

Church Loops Near Playoffs

Hungarian Girls Cinch To Win Championship

Playoffs are on the agenda in the South Side "Y" Church softball leagues this week. Only undefeated Hungarian E. & R. girls with a 11-0 season record are assured of a league championship in the present six league setup as the 38 participating teams enter their final two weeks of play. League award parties are scheduled at Y-Park Aug. 11 and 12.

Last week in the Monday Junior circuit shortstop Davis clouted four home runs for Southwood Church of Christ as they clobbered an under-manned Hungarian E. & R. crew. Castle, Moore, Reed, and Bailey also found the range for round trippers as Southwood put on a tremendous hitting display.

Frebis Church of God tied Southwood for second round honors with a win over Livingston Methodist in a well played game. Clayton Lawson took hitting honors while Eddie Filbin and Steve Bukey played well for Livingston.

In the final game on the card Bruce Trott and M. Denny with three hits apiece, led Gates-Fourth Methodist to a victory over South Congregational. Blackburn and Ailing were the big stick men for the Stewart-av, nine.

Tuesday's distaff action saw Hungarian E. & R.'s dolls complete the season with an unblemished record by downing St. Paul E. & R. Mary Komives pitched a four-hitter and struck out ten while Becky Miller shared the hitting spotlight with Judy Park of the Saints. Other games played by the fairer sex saw Livingston win a doubleheader from St. Paul, and St. John E. & R. with Beth Hoffman and Sandy Graham playing a big part in both victories.

In Class B Southwood nosed out Oakwood Methodist and Emmanuel Lutheran overpowered Church of God on Tuesday, while South Methodist trimmed Oakwood and Southwood came back to defeat Church of God in Thursday evening tussels.

Class A division play in the Wednesday Junior League saw Emmanuel take second round honors by outscoring St. John, 15 to 9, to earn their way into the championship playoff game with Ohio Avenue EUB, who appeared real sharp in their victory over Washington EUB. Dave Oty, Joe Middendorf, Jerry Edwards, Gary Kroft and Mike Hannah all proved very efficient in the slugging department.

In the Class B's only game Oakwood showed real hitting strength in blasting South Methodist. Every boy for Oakwood made at least two hits while Curt Evans allowed South only six bingles.

The one bright spot in South's losing cause was at the initial sack where J. Workmaster continued to exhibit exceptional skill.

There was no action in the Intermediate class because of forfeits but tonight's game featuring South Methodist versus Hungarian E. & R. should produce thrills galore as the two well balanced clubs clash for the second round laurels. Gordon Ball will be on the mound for South while Harold Barton will twirl for the green wave at 6 p.m. on Southwood Field.

Police Seek Clues In Car Hit-Run Death

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Cook and Son Funeral Home for James Emmett Lacy, age 61, who was killed in a hit-skip traffic accident last Thursday.

Police were without witnesses or clues this week in the death of Lacy, whose crushed body was found on Hosack-st, just east of High-st, early on Thursday. Relatives knew neither his address or occupation.

Death was due to a crushed chest and head, multiple abrasions and internal injuries, according to the coroner. The man was apparently run over by either an auto or a truck, according to police.

He is survived by his estranged wife, Henrietta of Columbus; two sons, James William of Ft. Atkinson, Wis., and Ralph of Columbus; a daughter, Mrs. Edith Reynolds of Columbus; and 13 grandchildren.

15 Homers Are Slugged In Slo-Pitch

Old Landmark, Don's Inn and Omar's emerged victorious last week in the Independent Slo-Pitch League.

Thomas Duckworth connected on two homers, and three singles in five trips. Ray Ellis garnered three singles and a double in five trips while Gary Phillips hit three doubles and a single in five chances.

Kelly's big man was Jim Moore with a double and two singles in five trips, Jerry Spires added a home run, a double and two singles.

Don's Inn victory came at the expense of the Olympian Club, 19-10. Bill Krigbaum homered and hit two singles for the winners while Joe Arder notched a triple and two singles in five trips.

In the other game, Omar's dumped the Landmark Kids 6-9 at Catalpa Park.

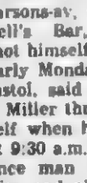
Two Elderly South Siders Take Lives

Two South Side men, both in their 70's, took their own lives by shooting themselves in the head, police report this week.

Dr. Carl E. Tetirick, deputy coroner, said that Roy Decker, age 70, of 239 E. Jenkins-av, killed himself at 11:15 p.m. Sunday with a .32- caliber pistol in the kitchen of his home. According to relatives, he was despondent about poor health.

Fred J. Miller, 72, of 1203½ Parsons-av, a bartender at Gay Bell's Bar, 1203 Parsons-av, shot himself in the right temple early Monday with a .38-calibre pistol, said police.

Miller threatened to kill himself when he went into the bar at 9:30 a.m. Sunday. A maintenance man took the gun from him and placed it in the bar's safe. Miller took the gun from the safe later and was found dead in his apartment at 2:30 a.m. Monday.



Police Search For Schiller Park Molester Sunday

The Schiller Park area was searched Sunday night by the police for a knife-wielding molester who unsuccessfully attempted to abduct three people in different incidents in the park.

A 21-year-old mother reported that the molester pressed a knife into her ribs as she was pushing her baby in a stroller through the park. She described him as tall and in his early 20's. The assailant fled when the mother stopped to talk to a passing couple.

The molester tried to lure a six-year-old boy into a car with a $10 bribe 20 minutes later, said police. The boy refused and the man fled.

Earlier, the man also fled when a 12-year-old boy turned down his offer of $10 to get into a car.

Westlake Has Edge In First Mayor Poll

Neither Candidate Has Majority Of Voters As Many Choose To Delay Their Decision

By Bill Rush

Surprisingly strong support for Republican mayoralty candidate W. Ralston Westlake in areas carried last election by Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner gave the City Council president a comfortable lead in the first week of the Hartley Newspaper poll.

From now until election, interviewers representing Hartley Newspapers will be contacting citizens in every section of Columbus attempting to measure the pulse of the voting public.

While this poll does not include a majority of the city's residents, all those interviewed have been selected at random and may be considered a cross-section of Columbus voters

The figures which will be presented during this survey are completely impartial and merely relay to readers the general opinion of those contacted during the survey

During the first week, seven wards around the city were sampled. Six of the wards are located in areas carried by Sensenbrenner in the past election. No exact comparison can be made because the number of city wards has increased from 19 to 33

While citizens who cast votes for unsuccessful Republican candidate Joseph Jones in the last mayoralty race went expectedly to Westlake's side, Sensenbrenner failed to hold many who previously supported him.

The actual voting for mayor went

Westlake	47.0%
Sensenbrenner	32.7%
Undecided	20.3%
Total	100%

Most of Westlake's support came from those who said they just didn't like Sensenbrenner. When asked why they would vote for Westlake, those interviewed responded.

Don't Like Sensenbrenner	58%
Like Westlake's Record	15%
Time For A Change	15%
Other Reasons	12%
Total	100%

Sensenbrenner, on the other hand retained his support on the basis of his past record as Columbus mayor. Those who said they would vote to reelect him gave the following reasons

Don't Like Westlake	00.0%
Like Sensenbrenner's Record	81.9%
Other Reasons	18.1%
Total	100%

It seemed quite obvious during the poll that a considerable number of votes hinged on how citizens felt about Sensenbrenner personally and not on the records of the candidates.

The poll points out that a majority of Westlake's support comes from persons who simply don't agree with the incumbent mayor. On the other hand, none interviewed said they didn't like Westlake.

Another fact uncovered while conducting the survey was that many Columbus voters are not familiar with Westlake. This did not seem to hurt him, however, with the many decidedly against Sensenbrenner coming to his camp without any question.

It should be pointed out that a large number of those polled hadn't made up their minds about the election this early. More than one-fifth of those contacted reserved their opinions until later

Although the poll was taken at random, the number of Republican voters was greater than the Democrats When asked what political party they would place themselves in, they said.

Republicans	45.7%
Democrats	32.8%
Independents	21.5%
Total	100%

While this might seem to favor Westlake, it should also be pointed out that a good many of these supported Sensenbrenner in the last mayoralty election. When asked how they voted last time, the response was:

Sensenbrenner	37.1%
Jones	25.8%
Misc. (Didn't vote, remember)	37.1%
Total	100%

This represents nearly a seven percent difference between those who voted for Sensenbrenner in the last election and those who said they will support him this fall. Those who switched their votes felt this way.

Don't Like Sensenbrenner	25%
Time For A Change	25%
Undecided	50%
Total	100%

SUMMARY: Westlake seems to have a comfortable lead at this time. A big share of his support comes from those against Sensenbrenner, but not particularly enthused about Westlake. However, it is still early. A lot of vote switching is yet to come and many now undecided will soon pick one camp or the other. Remember one-fifth of those contacted haven't committed themselves yet

Mountains and More Mountains In West

If your nerves are not steady or if you get a little dizzy at great heights, better take it easy on a trip through the West.

I'll readily admit that the palms of my hands were quite moist a number of times on our recent trip as we rounded another curve and looked out into space that went straight down for several thousand feet And to top it off it was not uncommon to meet another car on the curve . and with no guard rail

If you are the nervy type and want a real thrill take the mule ride down into Grand Canyon. And if you like a particularly thrilling ride over a side road, take the trip in northern California to the steam geysers. Here we drove some 21 miles, most of which seemed UP—and all the time, more than an hour, not seeing another car

The steam geysers will soon become the scene of a giant electric generating plant when industry attempts to harness the steam coming from an underlermined depth of the earth's bowels.

As we left Grand Canyon earlier in our trip we were thrilled by the sight of a snow capped mountain in the distance But as we continued north and through California, Washington, British Columbia, Alberta, Idaho, Wyoming and Montana, snow capped

FARMINGS SCRAMBLED OMLET

Once again, America is seeing that baffling, frustrating, almost maddening spectacle of the government taking money out of the taxpayers' pockets and using it to raise prices the housewives pay at the supermarkets or corner grocery.

This time, the subject is eggs, and that allied product, chicken for frying or stewing

It's no news to the housewife that egg prices lately have been the lowest in nearly 20 years. The U.S. Agricultural Marketing Service reports that in mid-April the average price received by the farmer for eggs was 28 1c a dozen—10.4c below the price a year ago Moreover, prices have been falling steadily since April. Prices of as low as 23c a dozen were not uncommon in this area's recent food price war

The Department of Agriculture has not stepped in. It announced early this month that it would start a weekly program of buying up frozen whole eggs in addition to the dried eggs it has been buying right along

No one supposes that purchases program is the best answer, however. Frozen eggs are greatly more expensive to store than, say, wheat And any former serviceman who has gagged over the morning's ration of dried eggs knows that the palatable life of these products is not very long.

Thus, the poultry subcommittee of the House Agriculture Committee will begin hearing testimony tomorrow on other possible emergency solutions to the price depression

What are the possibilities? Lobbyists for the farmers are suggesting federal production controls, price supports, other emergency measures. But as Herman I. Miller, poultry specialist for the Marketing Service, points out, 1.7 million farms produce the nation's eggs, and these are marketed in 25,000 outlets. Just to police production and sale effectively would require as many supervisors as we have egg farmers.

So here we go again. Once more, Americans are being pounded on the head with the lesson that modern farming, with its tremendous technological changes, demands a readjustment in traditional attitudes toward agriculture

Poultry farmers have been put in their present precarious position partly because they themselves are too efficient. The business has been revolutionized since World War II "Egg factories" sprang up throughout the country, replacing the old henyards, and egg production virtually exploded. Flocks now range up to a million birds. Mass hatcheries more scientific feeding, use of antibiotics—even the piping in of music to keep the layers happy—all add up to tremendous overproduction

Meanwhile, government price supports of wheat and corn have boosted the cost of feed astronomically. Feed constitutes 60% of the poultry farmer's costs, and feed prices have gone up 400% since 1939.

So we now have tax money used to keep feed prices high, and more tax money being used to boost egg prices so poultry farmers can buy tax-supported wheat to produce tax-supported eggs, and so on and on

Or, in other, simpler, wiser words, scrambling an omelet is a great deal easier than unscrambling it

BIBLE COMMENT

Life's Riches Must Be Aimed Toward God And Fellow Man

One of the most striking things about the teaching and various incidents in the life of Jesus concerns standards of value,aims and purposes in life. Those that are ordinarily accepted and acted upon are either definitely challenged or revealed as inadequate and lacking in comparison with life at its best.

Take, for example, the case of the successful farmer in Luke In our time, this New Testament farmer would probably be regarded as a commendable citizen He did what the average successful farmer would do Planned for larger things, built new and better buildings, and he showed sense also in planning to do what many successful farmers fail to do.

He was going to enjoy what he had built up. He wasn't just going to keep working, like those who have got the working habit and can't stop. What was the matter with that? A successful farmer could do it all without incurring any displeasure or adverse criticism on the part of his fellowmen.

But in the eyes of God, as Jesus said, he was a fool.

With all his success two things about him were wrong. He was a poor economist. He didn't take into account the uncertainty of his own life and the certainty of death And he didn't build anything really worth while with all his wealth and his success

As the parable says, he was not rich toward God. His treasure was all for himself. And Jesus added that everyone who acted that way was like him.

One might ask, what does it mean to be rich toward God? One thing is certain. It has a lot to do with one's fellow man The whole New Testament is a textbook in being rich toward God

If someone forbade you to spend your money for a newspaper, you'd understand vividly, and too late, what "freedom of the press" means.

Now Is Time; Catch Winner

WHOPPER CATFISH — Weighing 8 pounds, 1½ ounces, this "cat" was caught from Madison Lake by 14-year-old Junior Lindig, 92 Shady-av, London. To catch the largest fish of his life, Junior used a large chub minnow baited on a treble hook. Although a couple of other catfish, weighing eight pounds or better have been taken from Madison lately, this fish certainly rates as one of the largest caught there this year, according to Madison Lake fishermen.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors

By ROD COCHRAN

A report of good bluegill and bass fishing at Clark Lake, a state lake just northeast of Springfield, was turned in by Jack Elliott, 142 S. Center-st, West Jefferson. The bass are being taken on artificials in the evenings along about dark. Bluegills are hitting best in the evenings, and early mornings, too.

With the surge of spring fishing over, the panfish (bluegills and crappies) entries in the Hartley Newspaper Fishing Derby have tapered off. With a few months of active feeding behind them panfish are now at their prime. If last year's Derby is any indication, the winners of the bluegill and crappie divisions will probably be caught during the month of August.

Admittedly, the fishing is a little slower this time of year — but the average fish is bigger! Now is the time to go out during the cool of evening and catch a Derby winner.

Bluegill Hints Given

Bluegills are the quarry of the flyrod fisherman in Ohio. In other states trout attract the man with the long and graceful wand — but here in Buckeyeland the bluegill reigns supreme. The reason for this is that they will readily hit both dry and wet flies. For middle-of-the-summer fishing it's best to try dry flies only at dawn and dusk.

During these cooler periods you will usually find 'gills in shallow water feeding on the surface. Almost any floating fly tied on a number 10 hook will do the trick. Sponge rubber spiders are the favorite of many bluegill fishermen. Color of the fly does not seem to make much difference — the scrappy bluegill is not as selective as a trout.

Cane pole-and-bobber fishing was invented for bluegills. During the day try fishing a red worm in the deeper holes. Bluegills seek out this cooler water during the hottest hours. Once you locate a school, the action will be steady for a time. Set your bobber so your bait is at different levels in the water until you start getting bites, then fish at that level.

The same tactics go for flyrod fishing during daylight hours. Fishing in the deeper water will be most productive. You may have to weight your fly with a tiny split-shot or a little tin foil to put it down where you want it. Do not be afraid to make your wet fly dance along the bottom.

Crappies Big Now

Almost all fishermen know that crappies are springtime fish, but many of them do not know they provide good fishing in the fall. It is too soon to start the traditional fall-fishing for crappies, but these fish can be caught during August and early September. The action will be slower at this time of year, but the crappies you catch will be BIG. A few dandies are coming out of Hoover Reservoir. Summertime crappies are the kind that win fishing derbies!

Bluegill

First — Johnson Century reel and 100 yards Cortland Heart-O-Gold casting line; Second—Cortland 333 Moon-Glo flyline; Third — Hofmann's fly lures (selection of 12) and 200 yards of Cortland Plion spinning line.

Crappies

First — Johnson Century reel, and selection of eight Hofmann's "specialist" spin lures; Second — Cortland 333 Moon-Glo flyline; Third — Hofmann's fly lures (selection of 12) and 200 yards of Sunset Coral King spin line.

Grand Award of the Derby, winner to be selected by a panel of three judges, will spend a week fishing famous Pigeon Lake in Canada next year. The winner, and a guest, will spend the week at the popular Timberlane Acres fishing resort operated by Maurley Sutton, 155 Binns-blvd. A late report from Timberlane Acres reveals that smallmouth bass, walleyes and muskies are being caught there right now. Basis for selecting the Grand Award Winner will be the most outstanding and spectacular catch of the season.

As we drove into Crater Lake Park we had to stop and have a snow ball battle in June. We took pictures like mad not knowing that in the next few days we would drive for miles and miles through snow along the highways. In Glacier National Park the highway itself had been cleared with the result that in places the snow stood 20 feet high.

One of our mountain thrills came as we started east from Yellowstone Park and made our own way over a narrow road under construction along the Buffalo Bill Dam. Here we had to back up to make way for another car to go through a small tunnel. On our return home we learned that the day after we had passed this spot the whole side of the mountain gave way following some blasting. A lady driver had just passed through the tunnel and looked into her rear vision mirror to see the tunnel cave in.

After coming down off this last mountain in Wyoming, a gruelling task if I ever had one at the wheel of a car, I remarked to the man at our motel that it was quite a relief to be down on lower ground again. His reply: "You are really safer up there. We kill them down here."

And then there is the mountain of faces . . . Mt. Rushmore in South Dakota. This is a must if you are traveling West, but take enough time to relax and give a thought to what is behind these giant faces in stone. Here Washington, Lincoln, Teddy Roosevelt and Jefferson stand out in relief to remind eternity of what goes into the making of a free world.

Here and There

A very pleasant two days was spent in San Leandro, Calif., a suburb of San Francisco. Here we visited cousins George and Mildred Green and took time to see some of the highlights of Frisco, including Fisherman's Wharf, Chinatown, Aquarium, the Japanese Gardens, Golden Gate Bridge, and of course a ride on the cable car over hilly San Francisco streets.

San Francisco has been reserved for a special trip at some later time. It deserves more than two days.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Vegetables —Tomatoes, sweet corn, snap beans, peppers, cucumbers.

Fruits — Peaches, apples, grapes, watermelon, frozen lemonade.

Keep Tomatoes Cool—Not Cold!

This is a good time to buy tomatoes. Field tomatoes will be harvested until frost. The early crop is being harvested now, and the later crop will come into peak production in late August and early September. This year's production of tomatoes for the fresh market will probably run heavier than usual. This would indicate that you will have plenty of this versatile and nutrious fruit at reasonable cost for the rest of the summer.

Buying Tips — Look for tomatoes that are firm but well-ripened to get the best in flavor. Reduce waste by selecting the tomatoes free from blemishes. Uniform, or evenly colored ones are best. Color differs, depending on variety, but if the fruit is evenly pink or evenly red outside, it is likely to be uniformly ripe inside. If you are buying tomatoes to can, expect 15 to 20 quarts from a bushel.

Home Care is Important — Keep tomatoes in a cool, but not cold place. To maintain high quality for several days, keep vine-ripened tomatoes at 50 to 55 degrees F, in a place such as a cool basement.

If tomatoes have not reached the firm, ripe stage on the plant, keep them at room temperature until they develop full color. Then, store them at the cooler temperature. Do not put tomatoes in direct sunlight to ripen — they only burn.

Some folks make the mistake of storing tomatoes in the refrigerator. Any farmer or good gardener will tell you they lose their characteristic flavor and develop a flat taste under such conditions. These people know what a ripe tomato tastes like when it's first pulled from the vine. Refrigerate tomatoes just before serving, if you like them cold.

Production and marketing practices are improved each year in the attempt to bring you better quality tomatoes. Up-to-date growers follow rigid spray programs and prune to protect the fruit from sunburn. Plant breeders are working to develop crack-resistant tomatoes.

Growers and packers find it much easier to handle tomatoes that are firm and just turning color. But all of us prefer a ripe tomato. So many growers are picking at the nearly ripe stage and removing the field heat in 50 degree F. coolers which gives tomatoes longer shelf life. To give you more attractive and clean tomatoes, they are sometimes washed before they are packed neatly in 5 or 10 pound baskets.

Rural Mail Carriers Start Game Survey

Ohio rural mail carriers started conducting their second annual statewide summer game count beginning July 27, according to Bill Edwards, farm game biologist with the Ohio Division of Wildlife.

Rabbits, pheasants and quail will be tallied for a two week period.

More than 1,000 mail carriers took part last year in the voluntary game survey.

The results have been found to be accurate and were extremely useful in determining game population trends.

Edwards expressed the hope that an even larger number of rural mail carriers would volunteer to aid in this year's survey.

The findings of this summer survey will be combined with the findings of last year's survey to measure trends in game population and distribution throughout the state.

Now Is Time; Catch Winner

WHOPPER CATFISH — Weighing 8 pounds, 1½ ounces, this "cat" was caught from Madison Lake by 14-year-old Junior Lindig, 92 Shady-av, London. To catch the largest fish of his life, Junior used a large chub minnow baited on a treble hook. Although a couple of other catfish, weighing eight pounds or better have been taken from Madison lately, this fish certainly rates as one of the largest caught there this year, according to Madison Lake fishermen.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors

By ROD COCHRAN

A report of good bluegill and bass fishing at Clark Lake, a state lake just northeast of Springfield, was turned in by Jack Elliott, 142 S. Center-st, West Jefferson. The bass are being taken on artificials in the evenings along about dark. Bluegills are hitting best in the evenings, and early mornings, too.

With the surge of spring fishing over, the panfish (bluegills and crappies) entries in the Hartley Newspaper Fishing Derby have tapered off. With a few months of active feeding behind them panfish are now at their prime. If last year's Derby is any indication, the winners of the bluegill and crappie divisions will probably be caught during the month of August.

Admittedly, the fishing is a little slower this time of year — but the average fish is bigger! Now is the time to go out during the cool of evening and catch a Derby winner.

Bluegill Hints Given

Bluegills are the quarry of the flyrod fisherman in Ohio. In other states trout attract the man with the long and graceful wand — but here in Buckeyeland the bluegill reigns supreme. The reason for this is that they will readily hit both dry and wet flies. For middle-of-the-summer fishing it's best to try dry flies only at dawn and dusk.

During these cooler periods you will usually find 'gills in shallow water feeding on the surface. Almost any floating fly tied on a number 10 hook will do the trick. Sponge rubber spiders are the favorite of many bluegill fishermen. Color of the fly does not seem to make much difference — the scrappy bluegill is not as selective as a trout.

Cane pole-and-bobber fishing was invented for bluegills. During the day try fishing a red worm in the deeper holes. Bluegills seek out this cooler water during the hottest hours. Once you locate a school, the action will be steady for a time. Set your bobber so your bait is at different levels in the water until you start getting bites, then fish at that level.

The same tactics go for flyrod fishing during daylight hours. Fishing in the deeper water will be most productive. You may have to weight your fly with a tiny split-shot or a little tin foil to put it down where you want it. Do not be afraid to make your wet fly dance along the bottom.

Crappies Big Now

Almost all fishermen know that crappies are springtime fish, but many of them do not know they provide good fishing in the fall. It is too soon to start the traditional fall-fishing for crappies, but these fish can be caught during August and early September. The action will be slower at this time of year, but the crappies you catch will be BIG. A few dandies are coming out of Hoover Reservoir. Summertime crappies are the kind that win fishing derbies!

Bluegill

First — Johnson Century reel and 100 yards Cortland Heart-O-Gold casting line; Second—Cortland 333 Moon-Glo flyline; Third — Hofmann's fly lures (selection of 12) and 200 yards of Cortland Plion spinning line.

Crappies

First — Johnson Century reel, and selection of eight Hofmann's "specialist" spin lures; Second — Cortland 333 Moon-Glo flyline; Third — Hofmann's fly lures (selection of 12) and 200 yards of Sunset Coral King spin line.

Grand Award of the Derby, winner to be selected by a panel of three judges, will spend a week fishing famous Pigeon Lake in Canada next year. The winner, and a guest, will spend the week at the popular Timberlane Acres fishing resort operated by Maurley Sutton, 155 Binns-blvd. A late report from Timberlane Acres reveals that smallmouth bass, walleyes and muskies are being caught there right now. Basis for selecting the Grand Award Winner will be the most outstanding and spectacular catch of the season.

Spectator—

mountains became a common sight.

As we drove into Crater Lake Park we had to stop and have a snow ball battle in June. We took pictures like mad not knowing that in the next few days we would drive for miles and miles through snow along the highways. In Glacier National Park the highway itself had been cleared with the result that in places the snow stood 20 feet high.

One of our mountain thrills came as we started east from Yellowstone Park and made our own way over a narrow road under construction along the Buffalo Bill Dam. Here we had to back up to make way for another car to go through a small tunnel. On our return home we learned that the day after we had passed this spot the whole side of the mountain gave way following some blasting. A lady driver had just passed through the tunnel and looked into her rear vision mirror to see the tunnel cave in.

After coming down off this last mountain in Wyoming, a gruelling task if I ever had one at the wheel of a car, I remarked to the man at our motel that it was quite a relief to be down on lower ground again. His reply: "You are really safer up there. We kill them down here."

And then there is the mountain of faces . . . Mt. Rushmore in South Dakota. This is a must if you are traveling West, but take enough time to relax and give a thought to what is behind these giant faces in stone. Here Washington, Lincoln, Teddy Roosevelt and Jefferson stand out in relief to remind eternity of what goes into the making of a free world.

Here and There

A very pleasant two days was spent in San Leandro, Calif., a suburb of San Francisco. Here we visited cousins George and Mildred Green and took time to see some of the highlights of Frisco, including Fisherman's Wharf, Chinatown, Aquarium, the Japanese Gardens, Golden Gate Bridge, and of course a ride on the cable car over hilly San Francisco streets.

San Francisco has been reserved for a special trip at some later time. It deserves more than two days.

Prizes Offered Kids Helping In Concentrated X-ray Drive

A two-week attack Aug. 10-22 on tuberculosis in the city's peak TB area — the near East Side — will involve volunteer help from all parts of Columbus and will feature a special contest for children, under 15, from all districts of the city.

Youngsters from this area willing to help in the special Christmas Seal X-ray program will be eligible to win prizes as described below.

The near East Side X-ray area has only eight percent of the population but claims one-fifth of all new active TB cases in the city, society officials said.

The cruiser will park at 11 locations within the boundaries of Leonard-av and Broad-st, Taylor and Cleveland-avs, but the society is interested in finding early cases of TB from every section of the city and county. Everyone, regardless of place of residence, will be welcome during the daily 2 to 9 p.m. program.

First week's schedule is Monday, Aug. 10, Cleveland and Mt. Vernon-av; Tuesday, Aug. 11, multiple stops, Washington to Cleveland-av, Mt. Vernon-av to Buckingham-st; Wednesday, Aug. 12, Leonard and St. Clair-avs; Thursday, Aug. 13, 20th-st and Leonard-av; Friday and Saturday, Aug. 14 and 15, 20th-st and Mt. Vernon-av.

Those under 15 can enter the contest by registering in the coupon below as X-ray workers to deliver flyers and urge the adults in their neighborhood to get a chest-check.

Each worker will sign his name on a supply of "tickets" bearing the X-ray schedule which will be furnished by the TB Society. At the end of the 12-day program, names on the tickets will be counted. The worker who has gotten the most grown-ups to the cruiser will win a bicycle. Two hundred consolation prizes also will be awarded — all gifts of the Mt. Vernon Avenue District Improvement Association, sponsors of the program.

Just clip the coupon below and mail or take it to the Tuberculosis Society, 503 Oak-st.

Yes, I would like to be an X-ray worker for the East Side program, Aug. 10-22. Please send me a supply of tickets.

Those who are representing Karns in the horseshoe tournament are Emory McKetrick, Pat Parker, John Taylor, Rose Toppie, Mary Jane Rettenmier and Joan Epperson.

The second edition of the paper came out last week. The "Karns special" is edited by Barb Epperson and Sheron Smith.

The intermediate girls have challenged the intermediate boys to a game Friday, July 31, at Karns.

The main craft project this week is basketry. David Johnson and a number of other boys and girls are working frantically to finish their projects. They enjoy sitting by the wading pool and weaving them. This is necessary as the reed must be kept damp until the basket is finished.

LIBRARY NEWS

Laugh Books Top Requests At Parsons

Many patrons of the Parsons Avenue Branch Library are apparently looking for a good laugh this summer as an antidote to depressing headlines and day-to-day news of world crisis.

Three humorous books — Abigail van Buren's "Dear Abby"; Jean Kerr's "Please Don't Eat the Daisies," and Art Linkletter's "Kids Say the Darndest Things" — were among the most frequently requested nonfiction titles at the library this summer.

There were long waiting lists for all three books, although the Kerr and Linkletter books were actually published in 1957. Also asked for frequently were "Anatomy of a Murder," a fascinating analysis of the defense of a man who had taken the life of another; and "Around the World with Auntie Mame."

Leading the library non-fiction lists however, was "Exodus by Uris, with several others in close competition. These are "The Trial of Mary Todd Lincoln," by Rhodes; "Main Street, USSR"; "The Serpent and the Staff," by Yerby; "The Status Seekers" by Vance Packard; and "Dr. Zhivago," by Pasturnak.

Reservations for any of the above books can be made by calling the library at HI. 4-2674.

Seed and Fruit

The reformers of the 16th century said that the individual had the right to study the scriptures for himself. But those who sought to RESTORE New Testament Christianity said that the individual not only had the right, but the God given responsibility to study the scriptures and FOLLOW them to the exclusion of all other religious guides.

The word of God is the seed of the kingdom, (Luke 8:11). When it is sown in the hearts of people it will produce the same fruit today that it did in the first century. When the word of God, and it alone, is preached, the result will be Christianity as taught by the Holy Spirit through the apostles of Christ as written in the New Testament.

As sweet as rain on a thirsty acre

Ever walked across a field after a summer rain? Remember how fresh and new everything seemed. The stones along the roadside sort of shiny, the grass glistening in the sun.

In a way, prayer works that same kind of miracle on people. Worshipping at your church or synagogue with your family each week . . . sharing together the peace and serenity of an hour spent with God . . . gives new strength, new purpose to the days ahead.

You come away refreshed . . . in harmony with yourself, your family, and your God.

He restoreth your soul... Worship together this week

Leader—SPORTS

WHAM—Jack "Blondie" Lamont, the French Canadian giant, delivers a forearm blow to the back of Silent Montenaro's neck. He had tried to blind Montenaro before the deaf mute threw him out of the ring. As Montenaro tried to regain his sight the "Giant" came around behind him.

JONES PARK HASSLE

Nasty Tactics Costly To Gentleman Mingo

There was action aplenty over the weekend at the Jones Park Wrestling Arena on Groveport-pk.

In Friday's opening bout Gentleman Rocky Mingo dropped a decision to Ralph Tiger Waley as he was disqualified for "nasty tactics."

The Negro Hercules of the mat, Larry Daniels, who hadn't had a bout in nearly a year, wrestled to a 30-minute draw with Gorgeous George Birchem. Daniels did a great job and the fans loved him.

In the tag team Mingo and Birchem tangled with Daniels and Whaley. After a fall went both ways the action began to get a little rough.

The "Bad Boys" had doubled up on Whaley. When referee Ray Fleetfoot tried to intervene he was knocked to the canvas by Mingo, which made Mingo's second disqualification of the evening.

But he didn't stop there. He wrestled Fleetfoot into position on the canvas and stomped on his hand, which had just been stitched up last week because of an accident at work.

Mingo later said the reason he did it was that he was aggravated that Fleetfoot said he was injured and didn't go in the scheduled Texas Death Match. He wanted to make sure he was injured.

The fans also saw a special one-fall, 20 minute draw with All American Sonny Boy Karnes and Marion Franklin Wonder Jerry Reed. It was a clean, scientific exhibition.

In the bout that everybody wanted Jack Blondie Lamont defeated Silent Montenaro in a very unsportsmanlike manner.

Montenaro cannot talk or hear and Lamont began savagely to blind him by rubbing his eyes into the ropes. He also added a little eye gouging, tape rubbing, etc., to put Montenaro completely out of commission.

By his great natural ability Montenaro held him off for a while. But soon Lamont got him in a hammerlock with a front choke. Montenaro threw him over his shoulder and out of the ring.

He tried for a few seconds to regain his sight with the ref helping. Meanwhile Lamont crawled around the ring and came up behind and downed him with a forearm blow to the back of the neck.

In the tag match Lamont and Brenneman defeated Montenaro and Reed. In the third fall Lamont was again working over Montenaro. He and Brenneman were working him over in the corner when Reed jumped in to Montenaro's defense. He came charging across the ring at Lamont, then Blondie whirled Montenaro around in time to catch it in the jaw from Reed. Then Montenaro was pinned.

Next week Fleetfoot will go with Mingo in the "Texas Death Match" even if his hand is still bad. Ray has also challenged Lamont to an Indian-strap match.

To complete the card, Chuck Stanley will go against Brenneman and Daniels will tangle with Redman.

Saturday night's action will include a 10-round professional boxing match. The wrestlers turned boxers are Montenaro, former Golden Glove star, and Lamont, the French-Canadian giant.

Montenaro and promoter-manager Bob Rogers have agreed to put up $200, as has Lamont. Rogers says this will be one of the biggest events of the season.

In other action Frank Pickens will meet Redman and Reed will go against Stanley. There will also be a four-man tag team.

Defending Champs Club 185 Nearing Old-Timers' Crown

Bob Harper continued his torrid hitting pace to practically give defending champion, Club 185, the second round title in the Southside Old-Timers' League at Southview Tuesday night.

Harper had a perfect day at the plate with a four for four, including a three run double in the eighth inning that gave Club 185 a 7-5 win over first round champ, Freddie's Grill, in the feature game for their sixth in a row.

Three upsets were recorded and another near one. Only Southeast Club survived the test. They edged Southside Eagles, 16-15, on Herb Wolfe's pinch hit home run.

Bow-Wow Cafe was the victim of Plank's Cafe, 14-11, Don's Inn had little trouble with Deibel's Grill, 10-2, and Gaytimers defeated Arena, 10-7.

Club 185 needs two wins in its last three starts to cinch the second round. They would have to lose all three games to lose out.

Art Milbourne, Southeast Club's star outfielder, had a perfect day at the plate with five for five. Included were two homers and six runs driven in. Herb Russell, the OSU coach, hit two home runs for Plank's.

Other home runs were hit by Bill Armstrong and Bob Jenkins, Southside Eagles; Clyde Eaton, Southeast Club; Don Kirby, Deibel's; Ray Beery, Plank's; Charles Kountz of Arena.

Bud Koehler of Arena, Art Hartman of Don's, Bill Jenkins of Southside Eagles, Clyde Eaton of Southeast Club, Don Kirby of Bow-Wow and Ray Beery of Plank's had four hits apiece.

Don's Drops Old Landmark For Second Slo-Pitch Win

Don's Inn had to go into extra innings to cop its second win of the season in the South Side Slo-Pitch League, but the victory was one of the sweetest.

The lowly Dons toppled hard-hitting Old Landmark by an 11 to 10 count in an 11-inning affair, knocking the loop leaders into a first place tie.

Bill Woon pounded out two home runs, the last with the bases loaded in the final frame, providing the victory margin. Bill Kargbaum contributed a homer and two singles.

With Dick Kelley slamming out two doubles and three base-hits in six tries, Kelley's Inn trounced Omar Bakery, 22-7.

For the Inn, Pete Quillan had a homer, triple and two singles. Ray Beery knocked out a triple and three singles. L. Conley smashed two four-baggers and added a single.

Omar Bakery was paced by Odell, Willbank and Nixon.

In a third round game, the Landmark Kids walloped Olympian Club, 20-13. Starring for the Kids were Meier, Henry and Kette.

The Kids took it on the chin, when Old Landmark moved in, blasting out a 14-3 verdict.

Ike Boling went three for five for the winners. Honey Mouser had a four for four game. Don Kirby contributed a homer and a single. Ted Koetz added two doubles and Glenn Belcher a homer and two singles.

ENTERS FINAL WEEK

Four Church League Title Won

Frebis Avenue Church of God, Emmanuel Lutheran, St. Paul E. & R., and South Methodist won championships in four of the South Side "Y" Church Leagues last week with the intermediate crown still up for grabs as the teams enter their final week of play.

Church of God won the Monday night junior flag by downing the classy representatives of Southwood Church of Christ, 6 to, 2, in a well played game. John Evans hit a homer with a mate aboard and scattered six hits for Frebis while Southwood's battery of Jim Reed and Bob Castle gathered two hits apiece.

In exhibition games, South Congregational led by Ray Speakman's five safe blows, again tasted the sweet nectar of victory by downing Hungarian E. & R. and Gates-Fourth Methodist nosed out Livingston Methodist with a four run rally in the lucky seventh. Bruce Trott with four bingles led the Gates-Fourth hit parade while Kenny Hedrick and Steve Bukey carried the power bats for Livingston.

With the Class "A" section of the girls' league already won by Paul Barton's undefeated Hungarian E. & R. team, eyes turned toward action in the hotly contested Class "B" race which was won by Wanda Brown's South Methodist team with a final night victory over Emmanuel Lutheran 11 to 5. Elaine Nicholson and Rosie Needham produced the necessary batting power to spark South on to the crown. Marolyn Mullins and Kathryn Mason played well for the Lutherans. Other action in the Tuesday night league saw Linda Brining, Sandy Sharp and Linda Swisher in starring rolls.

In a game that all Southwood regulars predicted would be a real thriller, Emmanuel Lutheran showed tremendous team play in outclassing Ohio Avenue E. U. B. for the Wednesday night Class "A" junior laurels. Homers by Joe Middendorf and Jerry Edwards featured the Lutheran's attack while Tom Ellis, brother Jim and Bobby West played fine ball afield. Mike Ruby gathered two of the four hits that Ohio was able to get off Steve Toth.

In an exhibition game, St. John E. & R. found their hitting range by outslugging the once feared nine representing Washington Avenue E. U. B. 17 to 10.

The Saints battery mates Shannon and Fisher continued to sparkle in both the hitting and fielding departments. St. Paul E. & R. was presented the Class "B" title on a silver platter when Oakwood Methodist failed to have the necessary seven boys to field a team. In another Class "B" clash, South Methodist surprised St. Paul Lutheran, 14 to 4 as Chuck Rothwell had a perfect night at bat with five hits in as many plate appearances.

Hungarian E. & R. and South Methodist fought to an 11 all tie in their efforts to produce a champion for the second round in the Intermediate division. Danny Brobst, fleet centerfielder for South, hit two homers and two singles to grab the spotlight for the evening's action. Providing a champion is produced in this division, all star games are on the docket for this final week of play in a season that has produced real thrills for the 440 participants.

Developers Plan New Facilities

Developers of Hamilton Meadows, a new residential subdivision south of Columbus at Rathmell and Lockbourne-rds, announced today completion of arrangements to assure homes there of adequate sewer and water services.

Frank C. Struif, general manager of the project, said agreements had been signed with Franklin County Commissioners calling for sewer and water installations to be built by Hamilton Meadows and then deeded to the county to be operated as public facilities for the area.

The water supply and treatment plant is contracted to the Layne Ohio Co., (1100 W. Town-st) and will utilize deep wells for its source of water. Geological surveys indicate there is an abundant supply of underground water available.

The water system will include a completely integrated filter system with a 100,000 gallon storage tank for ready quantity at an elevation of 100 feet for pressure flow.

McGivern, Bass and Associates (4942 N. High-st) is putting in the sanitary sewer lines of sufficient size in excess of requirements. The Arobic system of activated aerated treatment of sewage is being employed.

A storm sewer installation of adequate capacity is being completed for the project by Cenci Excavating Co. (821 Alton-st).

Struif said that Hamilton Meadows, in order to avoid water and sewer problems that plague some areas, concluded the best solution was to install their own complete integrated facilities and deed them to the county.

Hamilton Meadows is one of Columbus' newest housing subdivisions. Located two miles south of the Columbus corporation lines, plans call for 600 homes to be built on a 205-acre Lockbourne-rd tract of farm land. Improvements are well underway and it is expected several "pilot" houses will be completed for showing next week.

Ohio Extension is the off-campus educational arm of The Ohio State University and the educational agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Yes, what becomes of your estate. Well, everyone knows Uncle Sam comes first and the larger the estate the larger the slice percentage-wise he gets. But Uncle Sam is generous, believing in sharing the wealth to the extent of tax free deductions on gifts to the Young Men's Christian Association.
And where could you do better than a gift to the South Side "Y" where we make it a business of "making BIG MEN out of small boys."
We need a lot more money to be able to complete our new "Y" building.

The Little Things That Make A Trip Pleasant

One of the most pleasant spots we visited in 9000 miles of travel through the west was Singing Springs Ranch at Agness, Ore. The place itself was pleasant but the treatment we received while there will perhaps stand out for a long time as one of the high spots of the whole trip.

Before we left Columbus we had heard of the trip up the Rouge River and so when we were within 60 miles of Gold Beach, Ore., we decided to take an extra day and include this in the itinerary.

The 32 mile trip up the Rouge is featured as "climbing the Riffles of the Rouge in a U.S. Mail boat." Actually the mail is delivered by boat each day up to Agness where trappers, woodsmen and Indians of the area stop in for their mail.

The large flat boats carry about 24 passengers and are powered by a large inboard motor that looks much like an auto engine. They have to be very powerful to make the uphill climb.

The trip is relaxing and abounds in scenic beauty but doesn't lack in some thrills especially on the way back as you look ahead and see the sharp drop as the current takes you down stream. In places the heavy steel strips on the bottom of the boat scratch across rock and a bath from the spray is not uncommon.

You have your choice of Singing Springs Ranch or Lucas Lodge for lunch. The price is a mere $2 per person, half price for youngsters under 12 and wee ones free. We, like most of those in our boat, chose Singing Springs.

As we drew up to their dock we were met by Mr. B. W. Griffitts, the owner, and one of his young men employees. Each passenger was individually greeted and welcomed.

At the top of the hill after a steep climb, a most lovely sight greeted us . . . attractively set tables under the shade trees, flowers everywhere and the low tones coming from the "singing spring."

Here we had one of the finest meals of the entire trip . . . a country style chicken dinner, tasty salad, vegetables, hot biscuits, homemade wild

South Side Youth Dies Of Wound

Little Tommy Diamond, 8, of 117 Stauring-st, died Wednesday following a valiant week long battle with a glass wound near the base of his skull.

Doctors at Children's Hospital massaged the South Side boy's heart last Thursday night in an effort to save his life after he was injured in a freak accident while playing across the street from his home.

Tommy was injured while playing "robot" with his sister, Debbie, 7, along a sidewalk near their home.

The pair had seen the game on a TV show the night before. It consists of walking around and falling stiffly, like a mechanical man.

"I'll play dead," Tommy said to his sister. He fell back into the weeds boardering the walk and his head hit a piece of plate glass which lodged between the skull and the neck.

His sister told police that when Tommy got up, a long, jagged piece of glass fell from the back of his neck and he began bleeding heavily.

The boy ran across the street into his home yelling, "I'm dying."

Hospital aides said that when the boy arrived at the emergency room almost all of the blood in his body had drained out of the gaping slash in the back of his neck.

His heart had stopped beating because of the lack of blood.

Tommy is an honor student in the third grade at Mohawk School.

Franklin County Fairgrounds becomes the mecca for thousands of visitors, entertainers and exhibitors for the 46th time next week.

Events and activities get underway Tuesday night, Aug. 18 and continue through Saturday with hardly a let up.

New features combined with traditional highlights are expected to make this year's fair bigger and better than any previous spectacle, according to fair secretary, Findley DeWolfe.

Free admission to the fairgrounds Tuesday and Saturday night will be offered after 4 p.m.

On tap are such favorite standouts as animal judging contests, night harness racing, a 4-H Club horse show and a tractor rodeo.

Last year's new features, the rabbit show, science fair display and flower and garden club exhibit are to be retained.

Arrangements for a home trailer display are being made, DeWolfe stated. In addition, an outside dance floor will be laid for entertainment of 4-H members.

Area village officials are once again expected to be targets of friendly fun when they are put on the spot in the Hilliard Jaycees dunk 'em machine.

Hilliard Optimists plan to operate a midget car for all between the ages of six and 60.

Optimist officials say it is "more fun than a barrel of monkeys."

A clown show and movies has been scheduled for all youngsters.

The fair will get underway a day earlier this year with a Western Rodeo troup slated to perform in front of the grandstand Tuesday night.

Wednesday will find judging contests galore going on at the fairgrounds. Post time for night harness racing is scheduled for 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Rabbits Judged

A rabbit judging contest will be conducted at noon Thursday. On tap at 1 p.m. is the 4-H Club horse show. A Rural Arts Talent show will be held in the Activities tent.

More judging is slated to take place Friday. In the afternoon, a tractor pulling contest will be waged at the grandstand. A 4-H Style Revue is scheduled in the Activities tent.

Saturday morning will find the FFA horseshoe pitching contest in full swing at 8 a.m. Youth organizations and a 4-H parade will fill out the morning agenda.

Parisian Hell Drivers will replace the harness races Saturday evening. Acrobatic drivers will be touring the track with 13 new Simcas. They will climax their act with an aerial ramp-to-ramp leap.

Harness racing purses for the four day program total $15,000. Eight races have been set for each day of the fair.

Striving to see that no one will be disappointed during the entire period are the hard-working officers of the fair: Ray Dellinger, president; A. E. Bogen, vice-president; DeWolfe, secretary; and Zail Kemp, treasurer.

Sex Offender Is Sentenced To Workhouse

Garland Russ, 18-year-old South Sider who confessed to five sex crimes last week, has been sentenced to two years in the workhouse and fined $900.

The young construction worker, who lived with his wife and child in a trailer park at 3433 S. High-st; was arrested last week after he bothered a woman at the Great Southern Shopping Center.

Three of the morals offenses happened in Schiller Park and involved an assault, molesting of children and indecent exposure.

Russ' arrest came after a near perfect description was obtained from a 12-year-old boy he attempted to abduct.

Poll Follows First Trend

Half Of City's Wards Touched In Mayor Survey

By Bill Rush

Winning of uncommitted votes assumed more importance for Columbus mayoralty candidates Democrat M. E. Sensenbrenner and Republican W. Ralston Westlake after the second week of the Hartley Newspaper public opinion poll.

Although the Republican City Council head maintained about the same margin over incumbent Mayor Sensenbrenner, his high percentage of support began to drop with more citizens joining the undecided ranks.

Westlake	42.1%
Sensenbrenner	27.1%
Undecided	30.8%
Total	100%

This represents a jump of more than 10 per cent in the undecided column drawing about equally from last week's support of both candidates. The figures during the first week, representing seven wards, were:

Westlake	47.0%
Sensenbrenner	32.7%
Undecided	20.3%
Total	100%

Persons interviewed over the past two weeks showed amazingly equal distribution in political parties. When asked with what political party they would place themselves, those interviewed responded:

Republicans	38.6%
Democrats	34.3%
Independents	27.1%
Total	100%

Interviewers continued to note that citizens aren't too well acquainted with Republican challenger Westlake. Many vote decisions were made on the basis of the person's feeling toward Sensenbrenner.

This may be one reason for the high number of undecided votes. Some people want to wait until they find out more about Westlake before they decide where to place their vote.

The big factor, nevertheless, is still the long wait before election day. A good many people aren't willing to commit themselves although they actually favor one of the candidates.

The biggest single statistic uncovered thus far has been the high percentage of Sensenbrenner support coming from persons who think his record outshines Westlake.

Asked why they would vote for Sensenbrenner, citizens replied:

Don't like Westlake	00.0%
Like his record best	73.5%
Other	26.5%
Total	100%

On the other hand, Westlake draws on those decidedly against Sensenbrenner for the biggest share of his support. Less than one-fifth of his votes come from people who say they like his record best. Only 13 per cent will vote for him because they think it is time for a change.

Asked why they would support Westlake, the breakdown was:

Don't like Sensenbrenner	50.1%
Like his record best	16.0%
Time for change	13.0%
Other	20.9%
Total	100%

When figures are compared with the last mayoralty election, Sensenbrenner shows an 11.5 per cent drop in support. Voters interviewed indicated they cast ballots like this last election:

Sensenbrenner	38.6%
Jones	23.6%
Misc. (Didn't vote, remember)	37.8%
Total	100%

While Sensenbrenner seems to retain most of his support on the basis of his past record, his biggest loss of voters is among those who are undecided on how they will vote this fall.

Broken down, the reasons why Sensenbrenner can't count on 11.5 per cent of those who voted for him last time are:

Undecided	44.2%
Don't like Sensenbrenner	24.2%
Time for change	16.2%
Like Westlake's record	8.2%
Other	7.2%
Total	100%

Summing It Up—Westlake still looks tough to beat. Although there is a large block of undecided voters, Westlake has to win fewer of these than Sensenbrenner to win. The big question now appears to be whether or not Westlake can swing these votes with his campaign. It appears that neither candidate has the election sewed up at this point.

Sensenbrenner Cites $180,000 Spent Since Annexation

Columbus Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner today shot back at grumbling residents of the Old Marion Area Township who have, for months, complained over service given the area since its annexation to the city two years ago.

In an exclusive report to the South Side Leader, Sensenbrenner outlined city aid to the area which, according to the mayor, has totaled approximately $180,000 since annexation.

The mayor's report came following an article in this paper last month concerning feelings by a number of residents over being "forgotten" and "ignored" by Columbus.

In answering complaints, Sensenbrenner said his office had received many telephone calls daily from single, widely scattered property owners who apparently are only interested in their individual problems.

He said the owners should join into concerted neighborhood efforts which would help the city plan a proper system and be able to determine ways and means of financing service to the area.

The complete text of the mayor's report is as follows:

The annexation of Marion Township occurred on three different dates. The first proceedings took place on June 20, 1955, and included the Frebis-Moler area, the property north of the railroad tracks and the property south of the tracks in the vicinity of Fornof-rd.

The next annexation of this area was June 18, 1956, and this included largely the lands west of High-st. The large annexation, which was commonly called the Marion Township Annexation, occurred Jan. 21, 1957, and included 71 acres, or 11.09 square miles of land.

The following sums of money spent for supervision and work by the Division of Engineering and Construction are for the period of time from Jan. 1, 1957, to July 1, 1959.

In the year 1957, the value of new street construction in this area was $79,735.00.

In the year 1958, the value of new street construction in this area was $610,300.00.

In the year 1959, to date, six streets in Hillgate Subdivision are being constructed, at an estimated cost of $108,700.00; and the city's share of the cost of improving Alum Creek Drive is $51,600.00.

Thus, the total cost of new street construction in this area, since Jan. 1, 1957, covering 36 streets which are 7.3 miles in length is $850,335.00.

As for maintenance costs, the City of Columbus, on Nov. 1, 1957, assumed and directed all maintenance activities concerning the public ways in the entire Marion Township area.

Previous to that date, maintenance work was performed on the first two sections mentioned, the sections that were annexed previous to the large annexation of 11.09 square miles.

The cost of bituminous surface treatment, which may be classified as both maintenance and betterment of the street and alley pavements, was $84,500.00, and consisted of 37 miles of pavement.

A list of macadam surface treated streets in the area, during the years of 1957 and 1958, is attached. This covered 11.3 miles at a cost of $34,500.00.

From the period of Nov. 1, 1957, to July 1 of this year, the approximate sum of $68,400.00 was spent for labor, materials

Fish Derby Extended One Week

The Fishing Derby at Schiller Park pond has been extended to Aug. 27, Park Director Tom Crawshaw announced today.

The derby, originally slated to end Aug. 20, has been extended an extra week because of the rescheduling of the city-wide playground pageant to Thursday, Aug. 20.

In keeping with the change of dates, the Schiller pond was restocked yesterday. In addition to "Sergeant Garcia," many more prize fish are now available for local fishing youngsters.

The "Sarge," which has been eluding anglers for nearly two years, is still the prize catch of the derby. His $10 tag will bring cash money to any young fisherman lucky and skillful enough to hook the huge channel catfish.

It is still not too late for boys or girls, age 14 and under, to become a member of the Southeast Lions Junior Fishing Club. Entry forms are available at Schiller, Neubeck's Confectionery, Hoermle's Appliances and the Corner Food Shop.

Anyone wishing to become a member should fill out the form, have a parent sign it and take it to Schiller Park where any of the playground supervisors will enroll the youngster in the club.

On the final day of the derby, a big party will be held for club members. A drawing will be held during the event with valuable prizes awarded members. Grand prize will be a new bicycle.

Members of the club will be eligible for these prizes whether they have caught any tagged fish or not.

GO OMER, GROW! — Southern Kiwanis Club will bring their "Do-It-Yourself" crop of sweet corn into town on Wednesday, Aug. 26, as part of a new and big, annual Kiwanis "Corn and Chicken Nite." The corn was especially planted by painting contractor Omer Bohl, and grown on the family farm. In charge of the dinner at Oakwood Methodist Church are Bohl, attorney Bob Horowitz, insurance man Otto Meier and helpers. Shown here, L. to R., Bohl, Henry Maser, Horowitz and Al Braverman.

South Kiwanis Hosts Appetites

A long standing tradition celebrating healthy South Side appetites will be inaugurated by Southern Kiwanis Club on Aug. 26.

The Kiwanians will dish up local garden produce with heavy handed enthusiasm in the first of an annual series of mid-summer feasts called "Chicken 'n Corn Nites."

They report that "everybody is going." The place: Oakwood Methodist Church, 684 Oakwood-av. The time: 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Special pricing of tickets makes the affair extra appealing for families with small children. Family style serving will assure that an abundance of all the good things will be hot on the stoves in Oakwood Methodist kitchen. It's to be an "all you can eat" dinner, Southern Kiwanians promise.

South Side reputations for good cooking will be put in the hands of two of the community's most experienced; pastries will be South Side baked; and the corn, tomatoes, etc., already are well on their way to the dinner —courtesy of Kiwanis Director Omer Bori who made special plantings on the family farm near Canal Winchester.

A scouting and foraging party under the direction of Attorneys Bob Horowitz and James Nelson and Otto Meier, already have the frying chickens under their collective eyes.

The constant attention to his less than 20 guests was well received by all. I asked Mr. Griffitts, "How can you afford to do so much and give such a good meal for so little?"

He replied: "My wife and I have traveled much all over the world. We were many times impressed with the things that were left undone for guests. We made up our minds we would like to retire to some place like this and live the rest of our lives enjoying the opportunity to do things for people."

The world needs more people like the B. W. Griffitts.

Free Ice Water

Maybe you've read or heard of the famous Wall Drug Store out at Wall, S. D.

Seems that back in 1931 Ted and Dorothy Hustead, just out of school, started their drug store. Business was at a new low in the depression.

Some hundreds of people were traveling through to the Black Hills though and Dorothy suggested to Ted that they place a sign along the highway and offer free ice water to people if they would drive an extra block off the route to their store.

The idea clicked. Druggists had been giving away free ice water for years but none had advertised it. By 1950 they were dispensing as many as 5000 glasses of free ice water each day, but merchandise was moving too.

Today the Wall Drug Store sign may be seen on any highway in the country, or even throughout the world. The store has expanded by leaps and bounds and is today unique in many respects. It too, is worth dropping into when you are in the Badlands.

and equipment for the various maintenance activities, which include pavement repairs, weed mowing, snow and ice control and other miscellaneous items.

Thus, the total expenditures for new street construction, street betterment and maintenance, from Jan. 1, 1957, to July 1, 1959, which work was supervised and directed by the Division of Engineering and Construction, were $1,003,236.

In the Division of Sewerage and Drainage the following projects have been accomplished in Marion Township in an area identified as Franklin County Sewer District Marion No. 3. This extends from Refugee-rd north to Williams-rd on the south and from the N & W Railway on the east to the Scioto River on the west. These developments are as follows:

No. 1—Marion No. 3 Subtrunk Sanitary Sewer which consisted of 14,032 lineal feet of 18 inch to 36 inch pipe at a contract cost of $330,585.00.

No. 2—The South Scioto Sanitary Pumping Station with force main constructed at a cost of $237,625.00. This particular project presently provides an outlet for sanitary sewage from the Great Southern Shopping Center (certainly a benefit to the Marion Township area) and is so designed that it will receive flow from a 42 inch subtrunk proposed for future construction in Williams-rd.

No. 3—Development of the Southfield Addition (221 housing) which included approximately 16,800 lineal feet of sanitary and storm sewers. Even though the sewers in this Addition were not financed directly by the City the project was constructed under the City supervision and was possible only because of the availability of the aforementioned subtrunk. Certainly no one can deny that this project has been an improvement.

No. 4 — Clarfield Addition Sanitary Sewer project for which bids will be received on Sept. 1, 1959. The engineering and establishment of this project followed the receipt of an assessment petition. It will total approximately 1800 lineal feet of sanitary sewer laterals at a cost of about $13,000.00.

No. 5—On July 13, Ordinance No. 1006-59 was approved to provide for engineering planning, which is now under way, to accomplish the construction of an extension of the Marion No. 3 Subtrunk from Watkins-rd north to the vicinity of Refugee-rd. This project will serve about 300 acres and will include 6300 plus lineal feet of 18 inch to 27 inch at a cost of about $100,000 and should be in service by spring.

The same engineering study will also result in detailed design plans for another 18 inch to 21 inch subtrunk extending about 3900 feet from the vicinity of Parsons-av and Glendower-av generally eastward to the vicinity of Eagle-av where it will provide an outlet for a future lateral sewer system to serve approximately 225 acres provided assessment petitions are received for the area. Presently a petition for the 76-acre Greenhill Acres Subdivision is the only one on file from this area.

No. 6—Scioto Village subdivision development along the west side of High-st between Marion Lane and Southgate-dr (extended). The 14,339 lineal feet of eight inch to 36 inch sanitary and storm sewers in this 214 unit subdivision were paid for privately but the improvement certainly represents a benefit.

No. 7—Hillgate Subdivisions No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3, located along Parsons-av from below Hilock-rd northward to Alcott-rd, involve the construction of an additional 23,409 lineal feet of eight inch to 36 inch sanitary and storm sewers to serve 372 units. While this is a private development, the Marion No. 2 Subtrunk made the improvement possible.

No. 8 — Amsterdam Village Subdivision on the east side of High-st between Ziegler-rd and Southgate-dr included privately financed construction of 4,720 lineal feet of eight inch to 30 inch sanitary and storm sewers to serve the 114 units.

At this time, we have petitions only from the 76 acre Greenhill Acres subdivision and a 20 plus acre area south of the proposed Stockbridge School. This is a very small portion of the Marion No. 3 Sewer District as you can note from the attached map. We have received many telephone calls daily from single, widely scattered property owners who apparently are interested only in their individual problems and are not joining into concerted neighborhood efforts which would help us to plan a proper system and be able to determine ways and means of financing.

Upon annexation the city took over numerous street lighting projects which were under contract by the township or county with the Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Company. The Division of Public Lands and Buildings renewed these contracts and is maintaining a number of lights on Champion-av just north of Marion-rd; lights in the vicinity of Stambaugh and Groveport; lights on Lockbourne just south of Marion-rd, and lights in the vicinity of Derring just east of High-st.

The Division of Electricity of the City of Columbus does not have power lines in this general area and any increase in street lighting would have to be contracted for with the Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Company.

It would be desirable to install street lights on the various side streets and it is anticipated that in the future this can be accomplished.

The Division of Water has laid approximately 22,000 feet of six inch to 12 inch water mains in Marion Township since its annexation to the City of Columbus at a total cost of $135,000.00.

There is approximately 3,200 feet of six inch water mains now under construction and the estimated cost of this expenditure is approximately $11,000.00.

Plans have been completed for approximately 6,500 more feet of water mains in Marion Township and it is expected that these will be laid by early spring. The estimated cost of this is approximately $36,000.00.

The total amount of work completed and proposed in the Marion Township area since annexation is approximately $180,000.00.

The Division of Traffic Engineering installed at the Marion Franklin High School speed limit and advanced warning signs and crosswalks were painted on Koebel-rd.

Playground News

Smith-rd

In Spite of the high temperatures last week, the athletic program at Smith-rd playground has progressed successfully.

Softball, track, horse shoes, and swimming have been the major events.

Eugene Gartin was victorious in the first round of the sectional horse shoe tournament in a junior meeting with Fornof. After the sectional championships are decided a city wide tournament will be held.

The Junior boys' softball team won over Deshler last week. The sectional softball champions also will soon be decided.

Several boys from Smith-rd were entered in the swim meet at Maryland Park Pool last week. Mark Weiss and Jerry McNamara were among those who participated.

Plans are now well underway for the city-wide pageant to be held at Central High School on Aug. 20.

Representing jugglers in the circus theme will be Nina Mininni, Carol Evans, Judy Shoaf, Mike Quinn, Ed Federer, George Thomas, Sharon Riffle, George Tuyell, Jim Kleinline, and Carol McCracken.

Preparations are also continuing for the Junior Olympic track and field meet to be held on Aug. 15 at the Ohio State University stadium. Many will enter from Smith-rd.

Palsgrove

On Wednesday, Aug. 5, the 1959 Miss Palsgrove was chosen. This year's winner is Miss Patricia Williams who resides on Miller-av with her parents.

Pat had as her attendants the second and third place winners. Second place went to Miss Dorothy Terry, of 674 Kelton-av, and third place went to Miss Francine Graves of Miller-av.

Other contestants were Karen Graves, Sonja Spencer, Barbara Lane, Marsha Foster, Sharon King, Norice and Linda Thompson. All of the girls made lovely beauty contestants.

Many parents, friends and neighbors were guests and seemed to enjoy the affair very much.

Mike Gardon and Reginald Drew are still in the running for junior and intermediate boys horseshoe champions. Both boys won in their age divisions in the playground tournament and are now engaged in the city-wide competition.

Robert Diggs won in the senior division in the playground and represented Palsgrove against Blackburn in the first round.

Palsgrove is looking forward to Saturday and the Junior Olympic Track meet at OSU Stadium. We expect to take between 35 and 45 boys and girls to the meet for participation in the events.

Everyone is welcome to the Family Night festivities on Aug. 21. The date has been changed from Aug. 13. More details of events and activities in next week's publication.

Livingston

Livingston softball teams emerged victorious on all fronts during the week's past action. The senior boys downed Smithrd 14-2 behind George Simmon's three-hit pitching. Big John Jennings cracked a two-run homer and Jim Parker hit his fourth home run.

Dan Brown, Gene Harper, and Smokey Haslett had two hits apiece.

The next day the senior boys blasted Fairmoor 18-6 with Parker getting his fifth homer and Harper getting 4 for 4. Lyn Herd and Brown had two hits. Doug White was the winning pitcher.

Deshler fell next 18-17 on last inning hits by Parker, Jennings, and Harper. Pinch-hitter Keenan Reese tied the game with a double. Doug White hit a grand slam homer in this championship game.

Livingston Intermediate defeated Shiller 11-10 on consecutive last-inning home-runs by Mike Duncan and Joe Cook. Duncan tied the game with a long drive to right center and Cook followed with a drive to the same spot.

Mohawk was the next victim by a score of 29-4 under a barrage of home-runs.

Pitcher Harold Winton had 6 hits including 5 homers. Paul Pate, Bob White, Mike Freeman, Cook, and Duncan all hit three homers apiece.

The junior boys edged Krumm 5-4 with Roger Harper, Charles Borton, Bobby Brown, and Ralph Baker contributing timely hits and then bested Douglas 24-8. Paul Dodd, Robert Nallie, Charles James, Carl White, Lloyd McClendon, Harper and Brown were outstanding for Livingston.

The intermediate girls won over Palsgrove 23-12. Joyce Brown, Charolette Vinson, Lucille Dickerson, Jackie Featherstone, Eloise and Evelyn James all hit home-runs. Sylvia Held and Waverly Blakely were outstanding fielders.

Livingston's record is as follows: Senior boys, 4 wins 1 lost, Intermediate boys, 3 wins 1 lost, Intermediate girls, 4 wins, 1 loss, Junior boys 3 wins 1 loss, giving Livingston a combined league record of 14 wins and 4 losses. In over-all season play Livingston stands 20 wins and 7 losses.

The adult team beat Blackburn's adults 6-3. Mr. Mosely, Mr. Grant, and Mr. Nallie sparkled along with Carl Hicks and Mike Jennings.

Lincoln Park

The boys and girls at Lincoln Park enjoy Story Time so much that we now read in the morning and in the evening.

Sharon Lee Raynard would listen to Cinderella everyday if she could. Terry Terflinger enjoys the little plays in our playground manuel so much that we have worn them all out and must now make up our own. These must include many unusual sounds which are supplied by Terry and the other boys and girls.

Baskets are still the most popular craft. Some of the older girls have also enjoyed making jewelry out of shells and glitter.

Shirley Fields made a cute pin that looked like a most glamerous smiling mouth.

We are all continuing work on our pageant costumes. Sharon Gallagher and Debbie Smith are making dancing girls costumes. Nancy Fink is making her brother Billy a hobo costume.

The first edition was received with enthusiasm and they are planning the second edition.

Barb Epperson and Sheron Smith have completed the third edition of the "Karns Special."

With the help of Ted Hunter, Marshal Martin, Marc Burst, Jerry Robison, Mike Woodward and others, a broad jump pit has been completed and is now being used to get ready for the Jr. Olympics.

A great deal of thanks goes to all those who helped to clean and paint the shelter house, especially Ronnie Wagonbrenner, John Pharr, Barb and Jean Epperson, Marilyn Roberts, Mike Mays, Mary Jane Rettemnier, Anant Stokes, and Stevie Smith. Everyone pitched in and there are many others to thank. It was greatly appreciated.

Southeast Lions

The Southeast Lions Junior softball team finished their league play undefeated Monday, Aug. 3, by defeating Karnes Juniors 7 to 12. In a practice game Friday, the Junior Lions, although minus their hard hitting outfielder, William Goodwin, defeated Southview 12 to 0.

The senior boys softball team defeated Lincoln Park Tuesday night 16-0, thus taking over the number one spot and assuring themselves not less than a tie for first place. They are slated to play their last league game against Schiller Park next week.

The inter-sectional basketball games have offered many thrills to the South East Lion fans. Both our senior and intermediate teams remained undefeated this week by peppering Karnes seniors and Fornof's intermediates.

Deshler

We are proud of our horseshoe winners, all of whom have reached the quarter finals. The tournament will finish this week.

A second record dance is planned for Friday, Aug. 21. The Eliquintas will be asked to sing again. All teen-agers in the South Side are invited.

The junior Jet games this week were high-lighted by a double no-hitter by Leo Gleich who pitched for the Orioles, and Larry Armstrong who pitched for the Jets. The Jets won 1-0.

The Rangers are in first place in the National League and the White Sox are in first place in the American League.

All boys—get your model planes, boats and cars ready for a model plane contest Thursday, Aug. 13 at 3:00.

last year or were in the elementary schools of the South Side last year are already registered and are ready for opening day.

"New pupils," says Mr. Olbert, "can do themselves a favor by being registered during the weeks before school starts. In past years there have been pupils who came in on the first day of school and spent that day standing in line waiting for their turn to register.

"Then they came to school the next day one day behind their classmates in the business of the class. They can avoid all this by registering early, and do themselves the favor of starting even with their classmates.

"They can also do the school a favor by early registration, as that saves the principal, vice-principal, secretary, and some teachers the task of taking care of late registrations.

BENEFITS BOATERS—Universal boat licensing is included in the new Ohio boating law. Effective Jan. 1, one license will take you on any waters in the state.

Boaters Welcome New Watercraft Regulation

Ohio's new boating law, also called the boat-numbering act, will be a boon to Buckeye boaters.

Starting Jan. 1, 1960, all boats, even rowboats, will have to be licensed, but the important feature is that one license will take you on any water in the state. Fees will range from $1 to $10, the lowest being for rowboats.

Sailboats and outboard motors with less than 25 cubic inches of piston displacement will be $3, and those with more than 25 cubic inches, $4; sailboats with outboard motors over 25 cubic inches, $7; and sailboats with inboard motors and inboard motor boats with less than 100 horsepower, $10. There is a $30 fee for boat dealers and 25 cents is added to each license as a vendor's fee.

You will be able to purchase the new licenses at places that presently license boats: Ohio Division of Parks' offices, Muskingum Conservancy District, and several cities, including Columbus. These offices will be designated as agents of the division of Watercraft, an administrative unit created to carry out the provisions of the new law.

For those boaters who have been keeping an eye on federal watercraft legislation, this bill in Ohio will implement the Bonner Act that was passed in 1958. This act encourages the states to do away with multiple boat licensing, and clears the way for the licenses of one state to be honored in all other states.

Safety Laws Enacted

Safety provisions were written into another new Ohio act. Specified are certain types of lights for boats at night, bans flashing lights except in an emergency to attract attention, forbids sirens on private boats, sets up rules for prevention of collisions, similar to rules of the road for automobiles, fixes minimum ages for boat operators, prohibits persons under the influence of alcoholic beverages, narcotics, drugs or opiates or those mentally or physically incapacitated from operating watercraft, lists penalties for killing a person while violating any law applying to the use or operation of watercraft, sets forth regulations for water skiing and types of life preservers.

This legislation was necessary, of course, because of the mushroom-like growth of boating as a family outdoor sport. Boat trailers make every garage or carport a possible dock, and the widespread interest that boating is now enjoying is almost unbelievable. As waterways became more crowded, enforced safety regulations were inevitable. And boaters will not mourn the passing of the old-fashioned, entangled mess of multiple licensing.

Safety Note Given

While on the subject of boat safety, we might pass on the item that came to our attention about kapok life preservers not floating in water that is mixed with gasoline or oil. When there is a boating accident, particularly in the case of a larger boat, there will often be a gasoline or oil slick on the water just when you need them most, is the time, reportedly, that kapok fibers float like a rock.

The Gadabout

Priscilla LaRue Lanex
Hi. 4-1851

A popular South High grad of 1959 is preparing to leave Columbus and is readying herself for a new life in a strange land.

Betty Sue Edwards, of 602 Thurman-av, is the blonde charmer who, with her family, will be departing to take up life in Japan.

She and her folks, T/Sgt. and Mrs. Harry W. Allen and little Marilyn K. Allen, will leave Columbus the latter part of August. The foursome will drive to California, where they are due Sept. 13.

Go By Plane

From California they will make the rest of the trip by plane. The flight will take three days.

The uprooted Columbusites will be living in a town that is 15 miles from Tokyo.

Betty Sue, who had expected to be an OSU frosh this fall, will avail herself of the university privileges at the army post where T/Sgt. Allen will be stationed.

A few weeks ago, some 50 of Betty Sue's friends honored her with a farewell party. Kay Hussey and Suzanne Windmiller were two of the hostesses for the bon voyage party. For friends of the South High grad who would like to write her at her soon-to-be address, here 'tis: Betty Sue Edwards, C/O T/Sgt. Harry W. Allen, 6000th Support Wing, A.P.O. 925, San Francisco, Calif.

Items Noted

Our notes reveal a special Columbus-Cincinnati attraction this past week, for three items are involved

Joyce Hannah, 232 E. Welch-av, visited relatives in the Ohio river city. The Chambers gals spent last weekend, visiting Cinerama, etc. Ardis and her daughters, Kay and Lynn, reside at 21 E. Whittier-st.

Visiting her old home town from Cincinnati was Virginia (Vago) Gnadt. Virginia's family was with her.

Our sympathy to Erma Leonard and to the Love family, at their time of grief.

Has it been a year already? Cause for the wonderment is noting that it's birthday time for "Dickie" Moore, whom we were kidding a year ago about her name, "Loah." Aug. 13 is Loah's birthdate, as it is for doll lady, Mrs. I. L. Bier, 742 E. Gates-st.

The "flu" bug that's making the rounds these days made life miserable for three folks we know: Gertrude Ramey, 35 Marilla-av, Evelyn Cramer, 1603 S. High-st, and Susie Short, 152 Welch-av.

Repeat Vows

Warmest wishes for happiness go to Joyce Farrell and Woodrow Spriggs, as they repeat their wedding vows Saturday, Aug. 15, 7:30 p.m. at the South Methodist Church.

Schiller Park's Aug. 10 Concert was conducted by Robert Motzer.

Birthdays in the set that still tells "their age" for this week . . . Lawrence Pack, 1646 S. 4th-st, Aug. 12; Timothy Pfautsch, 1314 City Park, Aug. 13; Susan Truax, 67 Hanford-st, Aug. 16; Robert Furbee, 1522 S. High-st, Aug. 17; Sheryl Kirk, 1431 S. 3rd-st, Aug. 18; Larry Wray, 1647 Parsons, Aug. 14; Kevin Metzler, 18 W. Markison, Aug. 13; Toby Allen, 1540 S. High-st, Aug. 18; Michael Gates, 1571 S. High-st, Aug. 17 and Sue Ann Steffens, 473 E. Welch-av, Aug. 9.

Year To Go

Just one more year to go, for that golden, 50th, anniversary. Such is the case for Mr. and Mrs. Henry Green, 973 Seymour-av, who celebrated their 49th anniversary Aug. 7.

On Aug. 8, the Greens welcomed their daughter, son-in-law and granddaughter, from Watertown, New York. The trio, Mr. and Mrs. James Botting and Amy Jane, will be Columbus visitors until Aug. 15.

Just had a short phone chat with Clara Hirschmann before the former South-Sider returned home to Renova, Pa. Clara, Harold and their two daughters were staying with the Alberts and Kusons, on Reeb-av.

One of the accomplishments while here was to see about getting the older Hirschmann daughter settled for nurses' training at Mt. Carmel Hospital, after she completes her senior year of high school in 1960.

Sorry to hear that Clara's mother, Mrs. Joseph Albert had broken her wrist in an auto accident.

That economy-size package of bubbling personality, Ida Lachawsky, will soon be a year older, as of Aug. 16. Ida lives at 766 Gilbert-at.

Wedding Set

Aug. 16 will be the wedding day for Lila Babbert, 3176 S. High-st, and John Marshall, of Coshocton.

Singers, dancers, actors, backstage help all, the Independent Players of Columbus are hoping for a large tryout group Sunday, Aug. 16, 2 p.m. and 7 p.m., at club headquarters, 527½ W. Broad-st. An updated version of "The Merry Widow" will be given Nov. 6 and 7. Work on the production will be started soon.

David Blair was hospitalized in Grant Hospital and will have a lengthy period of convalescence.

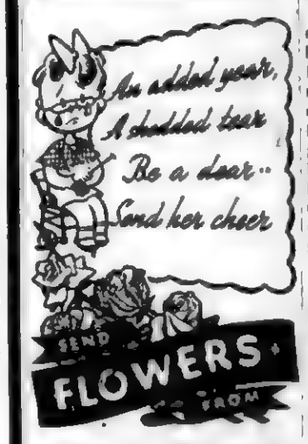
Guests Honored

Two of the younger members of Southwood Church of Christ were honor guests at a "Destination Unknown" gathering recently. Roger Brown, who is entering the Marine Reserve Training, and Richie Hugoniot, who furthers his education at a Bible College this fall, were the young lads.

The "Destination Unknown" at which the two young men were honored was held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Ellis Weaner, 308 Southwood-av.

Dorothy Jolly was in White Cross Hospital undergoing radium treatment last Saturday when we wrote these words. She was expected to be at her home, 1730 S. High-st, the early part of this week.

Group Work



A group that does so much fine work for the shut-in section of the population is planning a picnic for shut-ins Saturday, Aug. 15. The group is the Capital City Chapter International Mailbag Club, Inc. The picnic will be held from 4 to 8 p.m. at Schiller Park.

The chapter will provide the transportation for the event, as well as a potluck supper and entertainment.

Other occasions that the Mailbag Club plans during the year include an anniversary party, a guest night, a bazaar and Christmas party. Birthdays and Easter time are remembered personally.

Shut-ins who would like to attend should call Esther Leslein, HI. 4-7709, or reach her at 724 Thurman-av. Any women interested in the work of the Mailbag Club are also cordially invited to attend the picnic. There are openings for new members in the group.

All Star Contests Highlight 'Y' Action

All-star games and playoffs in the torrid Intermediate division shared the spotlight in South Side "Y" church league action last week.

Frebis Avenue Church of God, champs of the Monday night Junior Loop, showed that championship spark in the last three innings and went on to defeat the All Stars, 9 to 6. John Evans, ace moundsman for the Frebis nine, continued his fine hitting and along with Terry Osbourne furnished the batting punch needed. Bob Castle, Jack Davis and Ray Speakmon led the stars' attack.

In the girls' section, South Methodist scored a victory over the Class "B" All Stars to continue their spectacular late season drive. Fine defensive play on the part of South's infield, plus effective hurling by Elaine Nicholson were very important factors in the team's triumph.

Other Tuesday action saw Hungarian E&R score a 9 to 5 win over South Methodist to take second round honors. The decision by Hungarian's Green Wave made it necessary to schedule another game between the two teams for the league championship because the Methodists had long ago taken first round laurels.

Champions of both the Class "A" and Class "B" Wednesday junior circuits met their waterloo in All-Star games. Harry Osborn guided the Class "B" selections to a 14 to 0 victory over St. Paul E&R and the Class "A" top picks scored four runs in the bottom of the seventh to nose out Emmanuel Lutheran, 9 to 8.

Jim Ellis, Fred Huston and Mike Hunter hit homers in the latter contest which was thrill packed from start to finish.

Tom Flocken hurled a nifty three-hitter and helped his own cause by reaching base on each of his four plate appearances. John Whitacre, Class "B" star's shortstop, looked real good both afield and with the bat.

With the intermediate crown waiting the winner, Hungarian E&R and South Methodist battled to an 11-all tie in a game called after seven innings by agreement.

The Green Wave obtained only six hits but blended with walks and hit batsmen proved to be enough to earn the tie. Another game was scheduled for Monday, with league award parties on tap for both Tuesday and Wednesday nights at Y-Park, thus writing finis to a very successful season.

Decker Cops Park Firsts

Hayden Decker, youthful area auto racer, copped three of the nine top events in the Capitol City Racing Association one-quarter midget program Sunday to lead a field of 23 cars in the association's weekly runs at Jones Park.

Decker took the day's feature race, first semi-final event, and one heat sprint, to nab his greatest day behind the wheel of his swift little midget car.

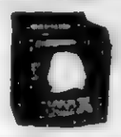
In copping the feature, Decker nosed out Bobby Molli and John Crowell in the day's closest contest.

Molli, winner of the day's second heat race, would have been the day's only double winner had he been able to overcome Decker. As it stands, Decker's win makes him a triple winner—only the second in three months of Capitol City racing.

Other winners during the day were Lenny Waldo and Johnny Jones in heat events, Mike Wyrick and Tom McDonald in the two novice races, and Marvin Barker in the association's second semi-final event.

The association will continue its program Saturday and Sunday with a card of 10 races planned for each day.

SLATE DINNERS



St. Mary's Church, 684 S. Third-st, will sponsor a fish fry on Friday, Aug. 14, and a beef and pork dinner Saturday, Aug. 15. The public is invited to attend.

Franklin County Fair Gets Underway Tuesday

New Yeast Award Will Be Offered

Home baked breads and rolls —traditionally the test of a good cook—will be in the spotlight at the Franklin County Fair.

There, local women will compete for a Best-of-Show Yeast Baking Award offered by Standard Brans Incorporated, makers of Fleischmann's Yeast. Any yeast-raised bread, sweet bread, or roll—in any class— is eligible for the award of $10.

These baked products, done beforehand by the contestants, will be judged according to prepared point system, with emphasis on flavor, shape, color, crust, and crumb. Contestants may enter yeast baking done from original or favorite recipes. The winning product will be chosen by the fair judges.

In these days of pre-cooked and hurry-up foods, it's interesting to make note that the past few years have seen an increase in home baking. According to a recent survey, there is a growing interest in baking, with more and more women trying their hand at yeast breads and rolls.

A tractor pulling contest will be held Friday afternoon in front of the grandstand. The contest will be divided into four classes with a $25 first prize in each division.

Women's work competition will be open in 14 categories. Among them are canning, jam and jelly, pickles, breadstuffs, cake and candy, clothing, household furnishings and ceramics.

Several of the buildings on the fairgrounds will furnish a new look as part of a "Fresh-up, Paint-up" campaign.

Admission to the fairgrounds is 50 cents. Exhibitor, family and membership tickets cost three dollars.

Men worry what the future will have in store, women worry over what the store will have in the future.

STARTS DAY EARLY

Rodeo To Open Annual Fair

Look up your ten gallon hats and boots, the McKinley Rodeo is coming to the Franklin County Fair.

Kick-off attraction for the big four-day fair, the Western Rodeo will start festivities rolling Wednesday night with an entertainment-packed program in front of the grandstand.

Rodeo is entertainment for all ages. There will be saddle bronc riding, bare back bronc riding, bull riding, calf roping and many other thrilling events to hold everyone interested and tense until the performer safely finishes his dangerous attempt.

The show is full of color with the grand entry featuring a magnificient wardrobe, banners, and beautiful saddle horses as all participants gallop past the grandstand.

Several acts are featured including fancy roping, big horse catches, roman riding, trick riding, educated horse and an educated mule act.

Highlight of the evening will be the Dance of the Rangeland, when four couples riding beautiful horses and wearing glittering costumes square dance on horseback.

Keeping things always on the move will be the clown, a trouble-maker from start to finish of the performance.

About 30 professional people travel with the McKinley Rodeo, showing at some of the larger fairs in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, and Michigan.

Parisian Hell Drivers To Roar Saturday Night

Those zany international merchants of death, the Parisian Hell Drivers, now on their first tour of the United States, will appear on the race track before the grandstand as the feature attraction of the Franklin County Fair at 8 p.m. Saturday night, Aug. 22.

The Parisian Hell Drivers will present a 28-event thrill program, topped off with an aerial ramp-to-ramp leap of a 1959 Simca convertible.

Thirteen 1959 Simca cars will be used by the daredevils and their use will make the first time these little foreign cars will be seen in action in this area. The Simca cars are a French importation and are smaller than the standard American auto.

Featured driver of the Parisian Hell Drives is "Dapper Dan Fleenor, a tall Texan, who is noted for his uncanny ability to balance a speeding car on two wheels for a long distance. Other stunt drivers have been able to hold a car in such a position but none as long as this Texas leadfoot.

Feature event of the 28-thrill program will be the ramp-to-ramp leap. The little sports car will be projected through the air a distance of 86 feet while another car passes beneath the flying convertible.

Other thrilling stunts listed on the program are precision driving over elevated rampways, deliberate crash roll contests, criss-cross daredevil driving, the T-bone crash, and the aerial divebomber crash of a stock passenger car into a car parked on the raceway.

Because of the size of the smaller Simca cars, many new stunts have been worked out and will be seen during the program.

With contests waging through the nation, the Parisian Hell Drivers have one of their own. The stuntmen are working for a $1,000 prize as well as their weekly salaries. This amount of money goes to the stunter who holds the most points at the end of the season earned by safely performing dangerous stunts.

A big attraction at each year's fair is the Dunk Em machine sponsored by the Hilliard Junior Chamber of Commerce. An electronic machine which dunks without warning, it has been the hot seat for well-known county figures over the last two years. Among those sent to the drink have been County Commissioner D. J. Kunz and Sheriff Stacy Hall.

In addition to the many exhibits and activities, there will be a midway filled with rides and amusements. The ferris wheel, merry-go-round and other happy rides crowned with bright lights will add glamour to the fair.

Junior Fair Auction Has Top Animals

Some of the finest livestock that finds its way to the Franklin County Fair will be offered at public auction Friday, Aug. 21.

The Junior Fair Livestock Auction, open to any 4-H or FFA exhibitor, annually offers prize winning animals to anyone willing to bid the top price.

An idea of Canal Winchester's Clyde Herron several years ago, the Junior Fair Livestock Auction has grown by bounding strides over the past two years with more and more top quality livestock being consigned for sale.

Youngsters are finding that buyers and other people looking for good meat animals are likely to pay a top price at the fair auction and are becoming increasingly more eager to offer their animals for sale.

The auction is under the direction of a committee of 10 adults and four junior members selected by parents, advisors and members of the 4-H and FFA Clubs in Franklin County.

All persons consigning stock to the sale receive every cent of the bid price except one percent which is retained to defray costs.

All animals will be market graded before the sale. Steers will be sold individually. Hogs and sheep will be sold in groups at the discretion of the sale committee.

READY FOR SHOW

ROSES OF SHARON—Whether or not she will enter the Rose of Sharon in the Franklin County Flower Show has not been decided yet by Mrs. Robert Brush, of 125 S. Columbia-st, Hilliard. Her husband is president of the local Garden Club. Theme of the County Fair event this year is "Our Favorite Pastime." Ten prizes, ranging from $5 to $10 will be awarded. All entries must be placed in position by 11 a.m. Wednesday, Aug. 19.

Saturday Matinee Feature Of Fair Harness Race Bill

County Fair harness racing in big league style is an annual feature of the Franklin County Fair.

Blessed with one of the finest racing ovals in the nation, the Franklin County Fair raceway is kept in top condition by the Hilliard Raceway which holds an annual meeting on the site.

Purses for the four-day program, with eight races each day of the fair, total $15,000.

All the features of a modern raceway will be utilized during the fair. This will include the mobile starting gate, photo finish and pari-mutuel wagering.

Four of the top paying races are part of the state-subsidized Home Talent Stakes. Each of the four races offer a $1,200 purse and will be contested on the first two days of the fair.

With the exception of Saturday's special matinee program, all races will be under the lights with reserved seats on sale in the grandstand.

Besides the Home Talent races, there is a 17 pace and trot, 22 pace and trot, 19 pace and trot, 25 pace and trot, FFA pace and trot and a special pace and trot for non-winners in 1959.

Members of the speed committee for the Franklin County Fair are Robert Reece, co-chairman, H. F. Cunningham, co-chairman; Waldo Walker, George Hoeflinger, and Dave Wetterman, secretary.

Two top cattle shows will be held during the Franklin County Fair. They are the Jersey District Show and the South Central District Guernsey Show.

Rodeo Auto Thrill Show Added To Feature List

Franklin County's Annual Fair unfolds Aug. 19 for four big days of activities and fun at the fairgrounds located at Hilliard.

Promising to surpass peaks of entertainment and education of former years, this summer's event actually gets underway a day earlier with a Western Rodeo in front of the grandstand Tuesday night, Aug. 18.

Still maintaining the good old country atmosphere blended with the industrial influx, the fair will bring together thousands of Franklin Countians out to learn something and having a lot of fun doing it.

Three special days are on the program with Thursday designated "Franklin County Fair Day," Friday set aside for "Farm Machinery Day," and the traditional Saturday "Youth Day."

Included as always on the bill are four harness racing programs with all but Saturday afternoon's races slated under the lights. The Franklin County oval is regarded as one of the best fair tracks in the nation, used by the Hilliard Raceway each year for harness racing meets.

Replacing the races Saturday evening will be the Parisian Hell Drives, the original imported car thrill show. Thirteen 1959 Simca cars will be used by the daredevils, marking the first time that these little foreign cars will be seen in dangerous stunts in this area.

The fair is always the high point of the year for hundreds of Franklin County 4-H members who bring their projects for grading with hopes of continuing to the Ohio State Fair.

Directing activities of the Franklin County Agricultural Society is Ray Dellinger, Brown Township farmer, serving his first term as the organization's president.

Co-ordinating activities will be Fair Secretary Findley DeWolfe. Last year's president A. E. Bogen is the society's vice president, while Zail Kemp is treasurer.

Anyone Can Become Fair Society Member

Any resident of Franklin County over 21-years-of-age may become a part of the Franklin County Fair by purchasing a three dollar membership ticket.

The ticket gives the holder a right to vote at the annual election of members to the Franklin County Agricultural Society's 21-member Board of Directors.

The membership card also allows the bearer free access to the grounds during the fair and makes him eligible to seek election to the board of directors.

A new plan to elect members of the Franklin County Fair Board will go into effect at this year's fair.

Instead of waiting until November, members of the agricultural society will cast ballots at the fairgrounds on Friday of the fair. Voting booths will be open in the secretary's office from 4 to 8 p.m.

Members may declare their candidacy for board positions by filing a petition containing 10 or more signatures with the secretary seven days before the election. Those holding membership tickets prior to 12 noon on the election day will be eligible to vote.

Terms of seven of the directors expire this year. They are Bailey Bradley, Brown Twp.; Robert Reece, Norwich Township; E. O. Clime, Franklin Township; Robert King, Norwich Township; Charles High, Norwich Township; Jean Dill, Hamilton Township; and Art Price, Norwich Township.

Membership tickets are on sale now and may be obtained by calling the fair secretary at TR. 6-7235. They will also be on sale at the gate during the fair.

FIGHT OUTSIDE RING

Battle Royal Ends In 'No Contest' Ruling

The long-awaited battle royal between the sensational Cherokee Indian, Ray Fleetfoot, and the meanie of the mat, Gentleman Rocky Mingo, ended in a near Bedlam riot outside the ring Friday night in the feature at Jones Park.

Promoter Bob Rogers called the bout a "no contest" when both contestants refused to abide by the referee's ruling that both grapplers re-enter the ring to continue their fighting.

Rogers, perturbed at the outcome of the match, disclosed this week that he has rescheduled the two arch rivals for a Russian Royal bout for this weekend. The peculiar contest will be decided when one opponent picks up his rival and completely throws him over the top strand of rope of the ring.

The popular Jones Park promoter promised that the contest will be an "anything goes, no holds barred event that will decide which contestant is the better man."

In other action Friday, Chess Brenneman and Chuck Stanley fought to a 30-minute draw, and Silent Montenaro defeated Glenn Redman in two straight falls.

The biggest crowd in Jones Park history witnessed Saturday night's card in which Jerry Reed bested Chuck Stanley and Sonny Boy Karnes whipped Frank Pickens in the night's two semi-final events.

In the main event — a 10-round boxing match — Montenaro squared off against Blondie Lamont. Seconds in the contest were Randy Birchem for Lamont and Reed for Montenaro.

The first round got off with a bang when Lamont knocked down the Silent One for a nine count during the first 30 seconds of the bout.

The next two rounds were marked by dirty tactics on the part of Lamont, but the fourth frame saw Montenaro revenge the foul play administered him by bashing the huge French Canadian with a round-house right.

Lamont fell to the canvas and was counted out amid the cheers of the happy Jones Park throng.

In the four-man tag event which followed, Fleetfoot and Reed were pitted against Pickens and Stanley.

Following a fall apiece by each team, Pickens and Stanley began to double up on Reed. Seeing his partner abused by the point of strong wrestling ethics, Fleetfoot entered the ring and a four-man free-for-all began.

Referee Sonny Karnes, perturbed at Fleetfoot for coming to the aid of his friend, forfeited the match to Pickens and Stanley. The two winners, however, protested Fleetfoot's illegal entry with such vigor that Karnes reversed his decision and gave the match to the Indian and Reed.

This weekend's action will find Irish Ken Kelsey pitted against Karnes and Brenneman going against Birchem and Rocky Mingo squaring off with Larry Daniels in Friday's three semi-final events.

A four-man tag match will follow with the team of Mingo and Birchem pitted against Daniels and Karnes.

Saturday night will find Pickens meeting Fleetfoot, Birchem against Montenaro, and Lamont versing Reed in the three semi events. The tag event will pit the blond baddies, Lamont and Birchem, against the park favorites, Fleetfoot and Reed.

Both nights' cards will go off at 8 p.m., rain or shine, according to Promoter Rogers.

South Sider Leads Park's Golf Tourney

A South Side youth has surged back into first place in the hot race to represent Columbus in the International Miniature Golf Tournament Sept. 12 and 13 at Asbury Park, N. J.

Bumped out of the leader's spot in early July, Don Jagerski, 686 Jenkins-av, has now regained the honored position, according to averages released today by tournament headquarters at Norwood's Amusement Park, 2025 E. Main-st. Last week's leader, Charles Kisson, 1502 Argus-rd, now is in second place.

Trailing them are Charles Kiefer, 674 S. Champion-av, Jim McNerney, 656 Berkley-rd and Marv C. Crosten, 2205 Wickliffe-rd.

Tournament officials stressed there is still time for new entries into the contest to complete the required 12 rounds on the championship course before the competition closes.

The winner of an expense paid trip to represent Columbus at Asbury Park will be decided by the lowest average for 12 games.

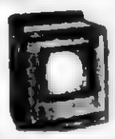
Leaders in the junior division for those under 16, where a Schwinn bicycle will be awarded the winner, remain unchanged. Fergus Theibert, 2668 Columbus-av, holds first place, followed by Larry Franz, 1586 Kent-st, Jerry Dolph, 707 Linwood-av, Jack Spiers, 601 Rhoads-pl, and Bill Newcomb, 1563 Argus-rd.

BUILDS GARAGE

Roy Daniels, 166 Woodrow-av, has been issued a permit to construct a two-car concrete block garage at the same address.

REMODELS DWELLING

Earl Dickerson, 481 Forest-st, has been issued a permit to remodel a concrete block dwelling.



Harbor Hills Goes After Sixth Win This Sunday

The Harbor Hills Polo Club will attempt to make it five wins and no losses on the home field this Sunday when they meet the Dayton Polo Club.

An added attraction will be a bare-back riding exhibition between the half-time chuckers by two youngsters, Carol Geyer and Freddy Wade.

Game time will be 4 p.m. The field is located one mile southeast of Hebron.

OH, FOR THE GOOD OLD DAYS!

If you are one that has memories of the "good old days" you will be interested in the following item we are reprinting from the Shelby (Mo.) Sun:

Life may begin at 40.

If you are "some" past that mark you may remember—

When a small town could support two blacksmith shops.

Air conditioning in the bathroom was two small half moons in the little house at the end of the path.

It took six flat irons to do the family washing.

Dad brought milk home from the neighbors in an open bucket.

When "shorts" was something you fed a hog and not a covering for your posterior.

When you had to wind the Victrola after each record was played.

When you were given a half-teaspoon of kerosene with sugar to knock a cold.

When you ran two miles to watch an airplane make a landing in a farmer's corn field.

When President Hoover started the first government give away by giving flour and commodities to the needy.

When the Sears Roebuck catalog served a dual purpose.

When the baby diaper was always a three-corned affair.

Sleeping three in a bed and next morning arguing which one produced the wet spot.

When you had to crank the Model T and hold the choke at the same time—and when changing tires meant that—not just changing wheels.

When the school principal could and did "whop" the behinds on misbehaved kids—and still keep his job.

When a farmer could grow any crop of his choosing (and got whatever he could for it).

Remember? Those were the good ol' days!

MAYOR CANDIDATES HAVE SOMETHING IN COMMON

TWO SAFE BETS—Two things about the next mayor of Columbus are known for sure—he'll be a Hilltopper, and he has an interest in glassware. Council President W. Ralston Westlake, at the left, practices the old craft of fusing and etching ruby glassware. Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner, incumbent candidate, with November in mind, looks into the crystal ball, one of hundreds of glass items in his home collection. Turn to page 9 for an at-home story on the Sensenbrenners. The Westlakes will be featured next week.

Throng Of 25,000 Expected As County Fair Hits Mid-Stride

Beauty Queen, Burro Racing Highlight Jammed Agenda

Franklin County Fair time is in full swing. Over 25,000 fair-goers are expected to crowd the Fairgrounds at Hilliard during the four-day stand that began yesterday.

Tonight's agenda will be highlighted by the appearance of the state's representative to the Miss America contest, 18-year-old Carole Annette Weiler, of Circleville, recently crowned Miss Ohio.

She is expected on the fairgrounds around 8 p.m., according to fair secretary, Findley DeWolfe.

Crowning of the Junior Fair King and Queen was deferred until tonight, so that Miss Ohio may do the honors. The beauty titlist will also show spectators how to dunk county officials at the Jaycee Dunk-'Em machine.

New Items Set

Other attractions recently arranged for fair viewers will be a classy burro race. Directors of the County Agricultural Board will vie for first place honors, hoping the stubborn animals show some enthusiasm, Saturday.

Pony races have also been scheduled. As yet no one has volunteered to ride them.

Fairground sight-seers will also have an opportunity to have a charcoal portrait of themselves made. Mrs. Mary Jane Alfred, of Hilliard, has consented to apply her talents to the multitude of faces sure to be on hand.

On Tap

Also on tap is probably two attractions youngsters have only seen on TV sets—a 155-year-old covered wagon and a 53-year-old horse drawn fire truck. Both were loaned by the Franklin County Historical Society.

The wagon and truck are being displayed to create an awareness in rural areas of the importance of early farm machinery.

A boat show has been planned by Les Redifer, of Parsons-av. Rush Motors has made plans for an automobile exhibition.

FFA members have set up a shop tent, DeWolfe said. Included in the project will be the building of hog troughs, feeders and general farm construction.

Civil Defense will have a display on the grounds. A Red Cross station will be on hand to treat cuts and bruises.

Members of the Hilliard Fire Department are set for any and all emergencies. The department's entire equipment has been moved to the fairgrounds.

Noble Allen ambulance service is scheduled to be on the grounds to help at the races if the need arises.

Youngsters Fed

Happy days should really be in store for youngsters of the Franklin County Children's Home. They and members of bands slated to play during the fair will be fed free of charge through courtesy of the Tip-Top Bread Co., Fred J. Smith Packing Co., and Coca-Cola and Pepsi-Cola Bottling Companies.

Council of Churches, who are planning on sending 40 calves to Costa Rica, will have two of the animals on display.

A bigger and better merchants tent has been set up, DeWolfe says.

Pari-mutuel wagering on the harness races, a pony-hitch on the grounds and a Spud-Nuts concession—all this in addition to rides, contests, horse shows, livestock auction, style shows and Junior Fair Day, promises to provide a lively and engaging time for all.

South High To Receive TV Lessons

South High School this week was included in three Columbus high schools which will receive television lessons in English via Ohio State University's WOSU-TV station.

Other city schools slated to receive class instruction from the new educational media are West and Linden-McKinley.

Also included in the university's Greater Columbus Area Educational Television Project are 18 rural schools in Union, Licking and Franklin Counties, and Crestview, Linden - McKinley and Linmoor Junior High Schools.

The projects will be the first in the nation where both urban and rural areas are combined.

In announcing the new television study, Richard B. Hall, director of radio and television broadcasting at Ohio State, said the project will cost $180,000.

Purpose of the project is to study the effectiveness of television in classroom teaching.

The two-year study, scheduled to get under way when school opens in September, was made possible by grants totaling $45,000 a year from the Ford Foundation's Advancement of Education.

Miss Fleming Awarded Alpha Gamma Title

Marguerite Fleming, a former South High School teacher, was granted the "Distinguished Citizen" award at the Alpha Gamma Delta convention held recently in French Lick, Ind.

Registration Deadline Set

New pupils who expect to enter South High School this fall must register at the building before school opens Sept. 9. This does not refer to regular transfers from Barrett, Mohawk and Roosevelt junior high school whose registrations were completed.

H. D. Swain, principal, has announced that the school office will be open Monday, thru Friday, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Failure to register properly before the opening of school on Sept. 9 is a serious handicap for the new pupils.

25% of Voters Undecided

Poll Shows That Many Are Now Confused

By Bill Rush

As the Hartley Newspapers public opinion poll moved into the third week one thing seems certain . . . there are a lot of people in the city who have definitely not made up their minds about the election for mayor of Columbus comes Nov. 3.

A state of confusion and a genuine interest in "waiting to see what may develop" continues to be encountered by the poll takers as the poll this week extended to 20 of the 33 wards in the city.

Percentage remained very nearly the same as last week with a slight decline in the number of undecided voters, a resulting slight gain for both Mayor Sensenbrenner and Westlake.

The vote at this point now stands as follows:

Westlake	44.5%
Sensenbrenner	30 %
Undecided	25.5%

Persons interviewed in the above figures gave their party affiliation as follows:

Republicans	32.5%
Democrats	38.5%
Independent	29 %

Asked why they favor one or the other candidates the figures reveal that those voting for Sensenbrenner say:

Don't like Westlake	00.0%
Like Sensenbrenner's record best	76.6%
Other reasons	23.4%

Those supporting Westlake do so for these reasons:

Don't like Sensenbrenner	50.1%
Like Westlake's record best	14.5%
Time for a change	16 %
Other reasons	19.4%

Numerous persons who have been willing to talk about the poll have been high in their praise of the present city administration under Sensenbrenner. Of those who say they will vote against him few are willing to comment on any reason other than they just don't like him. The mayor continues to get most of his support from people who do like his record while a much smaller number say they prefer Westlake because of his record in city government.

The figures to date show that of those people who voted for Sensenbrenner in the last election 63.4% say they will definitely vote for him again. The mayor may be able to count on a good portion of the other 36.6% because about half of them say they aren't sure at this time.

Undecided	50 %
Don't like Sensenbrenner	23.8%
Time for a change	14.2%
Like Westlake's record	3 %
Other	9 %

Summing it up — While the vote favors Westlake there is every evidence that those who haven't committed themselves hold the answer to the election. Over one fourth of the voters appear to put a label of "politics" on a lot of things that are being thrown out for campaign consumption. It appears that these 25% are really looking for something on which to base their vote. What either candidate does in the next few weeks to remove some doubt will probably have a lot of influence on the outcome of the campaign. It is evident that neither candidate can become over confident.

Hospital's New Drive Launched

Children's Hospital this week announced the launching of its drive for $350,000 in research money for the establishment of a new children's research building.

The hospital disclosed that letters and brochures have been sent to groups interested in medical and scientific research, asking for funds for the new building.

The hospital has $180,000 from a federal grant-in-aid.

The Children's Hospital Investigative Laboratories Division, CHILD, has shouldered the job of getting $350,000 in matching money.

Under terms of the federal grant, the building must be under contract by Dec. 31.

The proposed new research building is designed with three floors with 20,000 square feet of space. It is to be built adjacent to the hospital.

The Mike Rollins leukemia research laboratory will be one of the sections in the new building. Donated funds for this prgoram, in memory of the young Marion boy whose stories published shortly before his death, have now reached $6000.

The brochure sent out by the hospital describes work already accomplished by Children's researchers in leukemia, the RH factor, staphylococcus and other problem areas.

Plans for the future include work on congenital defects, meningomyelocles, infant salvage and other major childhood and infant problems.

MOOSE TO PICNIC

McDONALD TO DIRECT

St. Stephens Plans Fall Boxing Program

In keeping with their ever-active program of serving youth in the community, the St. Stephen's Settlement House this fall will sponsor a program of boxing to youngsters in the South Side area.

William Santonich, St. Stephen's director, has purchased a regulation size boxing ring to carry out the Settlement's plans, and has had the ring installed in the basement of the Barthman-av establishment.

Other equipment available to the young men of St. Stephen's this fall will include a regulation punching bag and a regulation speed bag.

Members of the Olympian Club, local service organization, are currently donating their services in readying the Settlement's boxing room for action.

Work parties meeting twice weekly to plaster and paint are under the direction of Olympian members John Maloney and Robert Mix. The job entails the scraping and sanding of the walls, washing the ceiling, patching the plaster and painting.

Santonich related this week that the program, once under way, will be under the supervision of Steve McDonald, a member of the Columbus Police Juvenile Division.

REDICK TO DECIDE

Schiller May Get Old Statue

Schiller Park this week was selected as a possible cite for a century-old, 1000 pound bust of George Washington.

Ray S. Dietz, superintendent of the Columbus Division of Parks and Forestry, said the bust was salvaged by his department when the portion of the old Washington Brewery was torn down.

The four foot high stone carving was originally a part of the brewery until the firm ceased operation.

Dietz said it was recommended to his department that the bust be placed in Schiller since the park once carried the name "Washington Park" during World War I.

Proposed cite of the bust is the sandstone ledge on the north side of the park's lake.

Final approval of the permanent cite will come from Floyd Redick, city service director, who is currently on vacation, Dietz added.

Dietz, along with George Toby, landscape architect for the division, originally selected the Schiller cite, and are currently having a series of photograps taken of the park grounds for Redick upon his return.

City Spent Over $1,898,945 In Marion Area Since 1957

Our apologies to Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner and the city administration!

Last week this newspaper carried a story in which the mayor outlined all the projects that have been forthcoming in the Marion area since annexation started in 1957. A sub-headline stated that the amount spent to date was $180,000. This represented but a small portion of the total spendings, being but one item from one department.

A recapitualtion of the figures shows that the city actually has spent a total of over $1,898,945.00 in the Marion area since the annexation program started.

The total cost of new street construction in the area has been $850,335 and represents 7.2 miles covering 36 streets.

Maintenance and betterment of alleys and streets over 37 miles of pavements cost $84,500. Macadam surface treatments amounted to $34,500. Other maintenance items including weed control, snow and ice control etc., amounted to $68,400.

The total expenditures of the Division of Engineering and Construction in the area amounted to $1,037,735.

In the Division of Sewerage and Drainage a total of $681,210 has been spent on projects to date with numerous other projects now under way.

Numerous street lighting contracts were assumed but no exact figures are available on what has been spent by that department.

The Division of Water has either completed or has in process expenditures totaling $180,000.

Several other projects were outlined by the mayor but no exact figures as to cost were available.

The total expenditures in the Marion area to date exceeds $1,898,945.

THIS IS TIGHT MONEY

Recalling political hysterics of a short while back, it is well to take a look at some current figures from the Commerce Department:

—Personal income in the U. S. A. soared to record sums in April — $3.2 billion above the month before.

—Most of the increase — $2.7 billion — was in wages and salaries largely because jobs increased by more than a million. There were 65 million at work.

—Total personal income for 1958 was $354.4 billion. The estimate for this year is $374 billion. At the present rate of increase, it will be considerably larger than that.

—These are hard dollar increases since the cost of living index has held stable now for nearly a year.

The generally favorable trend has dampened political ardor for "recession busting" measures which would spend more billions, just to get the money in circulation, and thus would cause more deficits and more inflation.

We are witnessing an example of the strong recuperative powers of the free American economy, when given a chance free of additional government interference.

A principal reason for the upward trend in jobs and business is the relative stability of prices, inspiring new confidence in the future. The continuing fight against inflation is the thing to watch. Upon its success largely depends the prosperity of the country.

BIBLE COMMENT:

Being Christian More Than Just Church Member

A generation or so ago one often used to hear a distinction made between churchianity and Christianity. It is a distinction that one seldom, if ever, hears made today.

The reason is probably that churches in general have approached more nearly to the Christian ideal. Sects and sectionalism are less emphasized.

In the wide range of Protestantism the so-called "ecumenical' movement, effective in the organization of National and World Councils, has done much to ease, or obliterate, harsh boundary lines in emphasizing a common source and elements of a common faith.

Denominational labels are less significant. Methodists, Presbyterians, Congregationalists, Anglican and Episcopalians are emphasizing to the world that they are Christians first of all.

That is as it ought to be. But there is still a need of a distinction between churchianity and Christianity. In the wide range of religious movements one may observe a tendency for movements to become much diverted from the principles and convictions with which they began.

Churches need testing against the basic essential truths that they profess. There is a real sense in which churchianity may not be Christianity; and there is a possible actual discrepancy in the fact that church membership is not always the accompaniment, or evidence, of Christian life and character.

Individuals, as well as churches, need to check themselves against the life and teaching of the Master.

Integrated methods of producing and marketing eggs are resulting in reduced unit costs for many firms in the egg industry, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

COWBOY KING SET FOR FAIR

TOP ATTRACTION—Roy Rogers and his wife, Dale Evans, will be top attractions during the first four days of the Ohio State Fair which opens Aug. 28. Rogers and his troupe were the main fair attraction in 1956 when the present record of 342,272 paid attendance was set.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Fruits—Cantaloupe, apples, grapes, peaches, plums.

WISE BUYER CAN SAVE

A homemaker who is trying to make pennies count in food purchases will fill her grocery bag with many fresh fruits and vegetables during the rest of August. Supply, quality and prices are in her favor.

A vegetable often overlooked is squash. It's at peak of season, economical and nutritious. You can choose from Zucchini, summer straightneck, white scallop, acorn and many more. Choose the fresh tender ones, free from blemishes and fairly heavy for size. It's a quick cooker. Cook only until fork tender (10-12 minutes) in a small amount of water. It combines well with sharp grated cheese.

Tomatoes remain in heavy supply. The quality still varies as the shift is made from early to the late crop. With a little shopping patience you can find good ones to use fresh or in quantities to can. Time, too, to can or freeze green beans and corn if you still want more for winter use.

Potato prices have leveled off after last week's drop. It's likely you will pay a little more for potatoes in the weeks ahead.

Ohio peaches available this week include Fair Haven, Halehaven, South Haven and White Cumberland varieties. Elbertas are here from other states.

Summer apples are more colorful now. You'll find such varieties as Duchess, Early McIntosh, Wealthy, Carmen and Rambo on fruit counters this week. Quality is excellent and prices lowered. These apples make delicious pies and sauce.

Cantaloupe from local sources are beginning to appear and prices will be lower as volume increases. Local farmers say the peak of cantaloupe harvest will come during the week of Aug. 17.

Pork Good Buy—More and more pork is being marketed and prices are reasonable. Note pork bargains on shoulder steaks and roasts, and some stores will feature that popular whole pork loin—ideal for chops or roasts.

Chuck roasts and chuck steaks of beef continue to be specialed as summertime puts biggest demand on the popular cuts that require less cooking. Variety meats give much in food value at low cost.

Eggs—The supply of small eggs is increasing weekly as young birds begin to lay. When available, the small size should be the better egg value. If large eggs are more than 16 cents higher than small sized eggs, the smaller size is the better value.

MORE PENNY SAVERS

In shopping for canned and frozen foods, a little background on supplies will help you make thrifty choices. Frozen vegetables in heaviest supply include spinach, broccoli, French fried potatoes, green beans, cauliflower and asparagus. With the 1959 packing season at hand, watch for "specials" on both frozen and canned items.

Changes In 1960 Reserve Program Are Announced

Principal changes in the Conservation Reserve program for 1960 have been announced by the Franklin ASC County Committee.

Land owned by a state, county, town or local government will be ineligible for the program. This rule is already in effect for Federal Land, according to the committee.

Land which has changed ownership, since Dec. 31, 1956, is ineligible to enter the 1960 program. An exception to this stipulation is if the land has been acquired through inheritance.

If land under a 1960 Reserve contract is sold, the contract generally may be assumed by the purchaser only after it has been in effect for three years.

According to the committee, the program this year will essentially be the same as the 1959 one.

Penney Salesmen Lists Men As 'Easy To Serve'

PENNEY SALESMAN—Frank Wallace, salesman in J. C. Penney's Men's Department, fixes a mannikin's wardrobe prior to opening his department for business on a typical day at Great Southern Shopping Center's popular store.

"A man who knows what he wants makes you only a clerk."

These are the words of a man who knows, Frank A. Wallace, 106 E. Welch-st, head clothing salesman in the Men's Department at Great Southern Shopping Center's J. C. Penney Store.

"The toughest customer is your best customer," Wallace related. "You know you've done a good job if you sell the man who doesn't know what he wants."

A native of Union, W. Va., Wallace has been in Penney's Men's Department since February. In the clothing business 15 years, he came to the popular South Side store from Washington D. C., where he was associated with Stewart Brothers—also a clothing firm.

In defining customers, Wallace believes "men know what they want generally, and are the easiest to please. You can suggest color and fittings to a man and he will usually go along with it."

"Women, however," the personable salesman added, "are another story. Women buying for their husbands and boy friends usually don't know the correct sizes or what they want. The gals are definitely our toughest customers."

Wallace stated that in the clothing business he has been trained that pleasing the customer comes first—and the dollar second.

"The customer has to be satisfied or he'll never come back. If you don't place good business and service to the customer first and the dollar second, a clothing salesman will never be a success," he added.

Wallace rates the back-to-school season in September the busiest season for a clothing salesman, with Easter a close second.

An average day at Penney's finds him handling approximately 200 customers per day, with the hours of 7 to 9 p.m. the busiest.

Wallace's two joys in life are his work and his son, Bill a University of Virginia pre-medical student.

With three more years to go in his studies to be a doctor, Bill hopes to join his father by 1962 when he's ready to enroll in Ohio State University's College of Medicine.

Concerning his work, Wallace declares that his admiration for the Penney organization is almost as great as that for his son.

"This is the best company I have ever been associated with," the tall salesman stated. "Earl Wilson (Penney manager) is really tops as a manager too," Wallace concluded. "He doesn't miss a trick."

State Auditor Relates Highway 40 History

U. S. Route 40, referred to by many as Main Street, the United States, follows the same basic geographic path it did 150 years ago, according to Auditor of State, James A. Rhodes.

The National Road today spans the U S from Washington, D. C., to Oakland, Calif. It is a part of a system of highways that started in the mind of Albert Gallatin, U. S. Secretary of the Treasury at the start of the 19th century, Rhodes said.

This goes back to the period just before Ohio was admitted to the union as the 17th state.

Just A Youngster

Gallatin was a youngster in his teens when he came to this country from France. It wasn't long after his arrival before he decided he wanted a career in public life. Prior to serving in the cabinet of President Thomas Jefferson, he was a member of the U. S. Congress.

The European born Secretary of the Treasury suggested that one-tenth of the net proceeds of the sale of Ohio lands be set aside for the construction of the National Road.

Under the proposed plan it was stated that the road was "to run from the Atlantic Coast across Ohio and as western territory opened, it would be the duty of respective states to carry on the road."

Congress in 1802 reduced the reservation for highway construction to one-twentieth of the net proceeds from the sale of lands, Rhodes pointed out.

There were delays of one sort or another from time to time as the road threaded its way west, he said. "President Jefferson unsnarled some of the red tape in 1806 when he signed a bill that appropriated $30,000 for the preliminary survey."

With federal funds available, Rhodes commented, construction soon got underway. "But there were many obstacles and stoppages in the work of opening the Northwest Territory to settlers."

The War of 1812 brought construction to a near standstill, according to the auditor. By 1816, work again was under full steam.

The public was taking such an interest in the project that by the time the road reached Wheeling, W. Va., in 1820, Congress made another appropriation for a new survey which would carry the road on to St. Louis, he said. A specification under the new act called for a "straight line" 80 feet wide.

Public sentiment for expansion of the nation's highways ran high, Rhodes stated. "But it lagged with the coming of the railroad and the canal system. Interest wasn't revived until the advent of the motor age."

A winter crop on the garden will greatly reduce soil erosion during the winter and will add organic matter to the soil when it is spaded or plowed under in the spring, say Ohio State University extension horticulturists.

It's a cheap feller that only prays when he gits a bellyache.

"OLD MARION AREA" NEWS

Train's Derailment Causes Eyes To Pop

Just what would you think if you got out of bed some Sunday morning and looked outside and saw a train on your street, where you were sure there was no railroad track, the night before when you retired?

Well, the folks on Fairwood-av, north of Koebel-rd, and this experience recently.

Seems as though when the engine came to the end of the spur line, it just kept right on going, and got onto Fairwood-av. The temptation was great that morning for those folks to stay home from church and see just how the workmen got that train back on the track.

They did have the satisfaction of seeing a crane come in and start to put the engine back where it belonged, before they had to leave for church.

Guests of Butchie were Mitchell Malloy, Danny Strawser, David Boren, Jan Johnson, Kenny England, Patty Arkley, Nancy Smith, Patricia Smith, Bobby Lyan and Dennis Brumfield, and Bobbie Gerano. Mitchell Malloy was the lucky one of the group. He won two prizes. Danny won one and David won one. Bob and Dolly June Brumfield and Bertie England helped Betty and Walter Gerano to look after the tiny tots who attended the party.

Enjoy Vacation

Bill, Jeanette and Johnny Foreman are enjoying a relaxing three-week vacation. They are taking short trips and then back home to plan another. They spent some time at Hamilton Lake, Ind., at the Cold Springs Resort and then on to Ida, Mich. to visit Jeanette's sister and her family, Rev. and Mrs. Weigant. On Wednesday of this past week, they spent the day at Lake Hope. Peggy Boren accompanied them on this one-day excursion.

Bobbie Knapp has returned from a week at Camp Parry.

I found out the name of some more of our boys who are at Camp Douglas, Wis. They are Melvin and Jerry Williams, Jimmie and Dick Stevens, and George Knapp.

The Roger Boren family are spending a few days visiting friends in Xenia, O., this week.

Fascinating Dolls

If you have a few spare minutes and want to be fascinated by some beautiful dolls, just stop at Wanda Ricketts doll shop on Obetz-rd, and see her collection of hand-dressed dolls.

She recently completed an order for 75 dolls for a local store, and I had the privilege of seeing all 75 dolls. Each one was an individual character of its own, with no two dolls alike.

I still marvel at what she can do with just scraps of material and with her it is a pleasure to do. A collector of dresser dolls would have a problem, I'm sure, of picking just one doll, for when you see them, you just wish you had a place for lots of them, they're so beautiful.

She is now dressing a collection for herself in the history of costumes, and has another collection of Bible characters started. She takes great pleasure in showing her dolls, so don't hesitate to stop, for you'll receive a cordial welcome.

Helen Daniels was hostess to a large outdoor party on Saturday evening at her home. The evening was spent chatting and dancing.

Larry Joe Crawford celebrated his 10th birthday on Monday, Aug. 17. He was honored with a party on Monday afternoon.

Miss Barbara McKelvey was guest-of-honor at a bridal shower on Saturday even[illegible] home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Darst. Mrs. Shirley Ennis was the hostess. Fourty-four guests were present and Barb received many lovely gifts.

She is the fiancee of Dan Darst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Darst.

The Youth Choir will have a meeting and games [illegible] Smith home, 300 Williams-rd, on Thursday evening at [illegible]. At 9 p.m. they will all go to the Little Acres swim pool for a private swim party and wiener roast. Parents are to call for their youths at 10:30 p.m. at the pool.

Lay Cornerstone

Sunday, Aug. 16, was a big day for the congregation at the South High EUB Church, when they had their cornerstone laying after the morning service.

For most of the people attending it was their first time to take part in such a memorable event, and for those of us who had the privilege of placing an item in the cornerstone, it will be an honor long to remember.

The congregation of South High Church has planned a church picnic for next Sunday, Aug. 23, to be held at the new EUB camp, near Logan, O. It will be an opportunity to view the camp ground and have a picnic supper with a short vesper service to follow.

Rev. and Mrs. William Snider and Melva Strawser are attending the annual Ohio Southeast Conference at Portsmouth First Church. Mrs. Strawser is the delegate from South High Church.

Jim Strawser is nursing a broken toe that he received at the swim party last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Keller are happy parents and grandparents at this time. They now have their daughter, Nancy Bartholomew, and her family at home after a time of duty with the armed forces. Nancy and her husband will be establishing a new home here again, and can start living a normal civilian life.

Dolly June and Bob Brumfield and their children, Bobbie Lynn and Dennis, have moved into their new home on Alcott-rd.

Sharron Pearrell spent a few days this past week visiting relatives in Gallipolis, O.

Barbara and John Pabst were hosts to 40 guests from the WSWS ladies and EUB men on Tuesday evening at their lovely new home near Lithopolis, O.

The horseshoe players from South High Church have joined a league at Schiller Park and will be pitching their best on Monday evenings.

Mrs. Louise Kreuzer, Hazel Kreuzer and Jean Holsten just returned on Saturday from a five-week vacation trip to Sunnyvale, Calif. They visited with Mrs. Kreuzer's sister, Garnet Denney and her family. Mrs. Denney is recovering from a car accident which occured when she suffered a heart attack, and has an injured leg which will be in a cast for several months. They report that it was a very hot trip and bought a car cooler for the return trip.

Vicki Hess was one of eight finalists out of 170 contestants in the Miss Central Ohio Beauty Contest at Buckeye Lake on Sunday afternoon.

Vickie will be a senior at Marion-Franklin and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hess on Woodrow-av.

Congratulations are in order to Dave Boerner, of the Hartley Newspapers over his promotion to editor of the Rural-Urban News. Dave, who has been a reporter in the area during the past three months, succeeds our old editor, Richard Pavlik, who now will devote his time solely to the South Side Leader.

A 1950 graduate of Ohio State University's School of Journalism, Dave is the former editor of the Lantern, OSU's daily paper, and also has been associated with a Buffalo, N. Y., daily.

Looking wonderfully rested after a short vacation spent in The Plains,O. is Irene Clark, 1042 Lockbourne-av. Another vacationing South Sider is in Florida, and we were so glad to know that she could make the trip, tho it was a terrific physical exertion for her, we're sure.

Glee Oleta McNutt, of Whittier-st, was thoughtful enough to remember us with a postal from Orlando, Fla. She went to Florida to visit her son Lawrence, and his family. The junior McNutt had been stationed in Okinawa for quite awhile, so Glee had not seen him for quite awhile. Seeing her three little grandsons was another joy for the warm-hearted Southsider.

Tho it has been a year since Mrs. McNutt broke her hip, she still finds it necessary to use a crutch for outdoor use. Future plans for the Whittier-st. resident include a trip to Japan in March, hinging upon her physical ability to make the trip.

She still is active in her work for the shut-ins. She told us she has many gifts ready for the Christmas season, even

ASKS FAVOR

Being badly scalded is painful enough, but living alone, unable to get about makes the burns even harder to bear. For this reason, we ask our kind-hearted readers to take time to send a cheery card to Mae Skinner, even tho technically, she's not a South Sider. Mrs. Skinner's address is 399 Oak-st, Apt. 27. (She has no idea we're asking for a card shower for her, incidentally.)

She told us how wonderful the Meals on Wheels organization has been to her, while she's been helpless and invalided.

Rev. and Mrs. Ellis Wesner, with their two youngsters, spent a portion of their vacation period in their home state of Indiana visiting with relatives.

Mt. Carmel Hospital lists two folks we know about as patients, at this writing. John Colville, well-known to many in our area, is one of the patients. Mrs. Lambert, of S. 3rd-st, is the other ailing person.

Loraine Sailor, 657 Moler-st, is a member of the Jolly Joe Club who is having a birthday today, Aug. 20. The Jolly Joes are meeting at 7:30 tonight in the home of Alvina Healey, 1404 Dolon-av.

Steve and Brenda Cook were four and one respectively, Aug. 19. The little blondes are two-thirds of the family of Ron and Marie Cook, 1412 S. 6th-st. Our grown-up "gettin' older" department includes Bob Chapman, Fred Bier and Marge Grissom.

Daughter Visits

Wilma Barton, busy tho she was with redecorating and getting ready for her year as president of South High's PTA, took the time to tell us of the visit of her daughter, son-in-law and grandson. We appreciate her thoughtfulness, but then that's typical of Wilma! Jackie and eighteen month old Chucky arrived in Columbus first, and Lt. Charles Dersom flew in later, from Vacaville, California. The three will be in Columbus for a month, alternating their visits between the Bartons and Dersoms.

Golden wedding congratulations are in order today for Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Phillips, 1732 S. 4th-st. An open house earlier in the week commemorated the event.

The open house was held in the home of a son, Alden Phillips, 4095 Beechbank-rd. The couple also has two other sons, Raymond and Paul Phillips.

Mrs. G. H. Gruber, 653 Stanley-av, has recently had her daughter and two grandsons as guests. Wilma Farmer of E. Lansing, Mich., is the daughter. The grandsons are Mike and Jeff.

History Repeats

Last year we wrote about two Little Leaguers who played on the same team and shared at this early date.

Aug. 23 as a birthdate. The boys, Joe E. McGrath, 353 Siebert-st, and Joe E. Poeschal, 37 Stewart-st, were elated when their Braves team won the Schiller Championship in 1958. In their case, history has a chance of repeating itself, for once again, they are teammates on the Dodgers team of the Little League.

The birthday celebrants are keeping their fingers crossed this year again, for the Dodgers are first-round champions. Oh yes, our baseball enthusiasts will soon be teen-agers, to mention their birthdays again.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Frebis Sr. will probably find Columbus a little lonely from now on. Two of their children are heading east and south from Ohio's Capital City.

Esther Albrecht, of Deckebach-rd expects to be able to join her soldier husband any day now, in Ft. Dix, N.J. The Albrechts have four youngsters. Carl Jr. and Jean Frebis will be leaving Columbus about the same time, with their three youngsters, to make their home in Daytona Beach, Fla.

The Frebis clan had a full scale reunion last Sunday, in the home of Irene Drumm, of Beech-st.

The choir of Southwood Church of Christ will meet this Saturday at 2:30 at "Wolfe's Den" at Buckeye Lake for an outing and supper. (We'll hasten to explain that's the name of the folks' cottage at Buckeye Lake!)

Largest Crowd Ever Attends Swan Club Fete

The 1959 Swan Club family picnic, held at Catalpa Park, Aug. 16 was again a great success. Picnic chairman Newt Hahn and his committee of Jim Pilkington, Paul Junk, Lou Robbins, Ray Lamberson, Dick Kane and Carl Haag, provided a program which was great fun for all present.

The annual outing provides games and prizes for the grown ups as well as the children. Each member is allowed to bring one guest family as well as his own and this year's turnout was the largest so far.

To make the day complete, fine refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed in the evening.

Sunday Blue Law Hits Two South Siders

Two South Side merchants were found guilty of violating the city's Sunday blue law last week when they waived objection to a technicality that would have dismissed charges against them.

Included in 11 cases of the Sunday violation were James Gates, 1429 Ellsworth-av, assistant manager of the Super Duper Market, 1770 Parsons-av, and Meyer Hoffman, 73 N. Roosevelt-av, manager of the Bargain Surplus Store, 1908 E. Livingston-av.

The two area men were among four who did not object to the technicality that affidavits did not contain a clause stating that the accused had knowledge that they had committed a crime.

Seven other city merchants stood by the technicality and had suits against them dropped.

Sentencing for those found guilty will take place in Municipal Court today.

Only Few Weeks Remain In Fishing Derby

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

As the Hartley Newspapers Fishing Derby goes into its final weeks, some nice fish are being entered.

To name a few: William Hughes, 3585 Rosewell-dr, largemouth bass; John P. Devore, 383 S. Ohio-av, largemouth and walleye; Herb Kroninger, Rt. 1, Sunbury, largemouth and smallmouth bass; Kenney Geyes, Galloway, largemouth; Jim Schneider, 240 Maplewood, largemouth; Jim McComas, West Jefferson, smallmouth; Percy Harbage, West Jefferson, smallmouth.

Bluegill Entries Scarce

The bluegill division is the only one not attracting entries in recent days. This is difficult to understand. Bass and walleyes get temperamental when the weather gets hot and sultry, but bluegills keep chompin' up the calories right on through the summer. Particularly during early morning and evening periods it is not hard to catch these scrappers on either red worms or small, floating artificials. Farm ponds are especially good places to try for bluegills right now.

O'Shaugnessy Fishing Drops During Repairs

Fish, fishermen and fishing took a nose dive last week at O'Shaughnessy Dam, popular area fishing spot. It seems the city is repairing boards at the dam, and this necessitated dropping the water level about three feet. After the repair work is completed it will take one or two weeks for the water level to climb back to normal.

Fishermen claim that the sudden drop of the water disrupted the fish, and bass fishing, at least, has been miserable the last few days. Phil McGinnis, 640 S. 18th-st, who was fishing O'Shaughnessy when part of the drop occurred, believes it will take some time before the fish will re-establish themselves in holes, rock crannies, etc. About the time fishing should be improving, the rising water will start the shift all over again.

Even though fishing is probably not up to par above the zoo these days, it is a good time to investigate the area to find the good fishing spots. Rock ledges will be exposed that are completely hidden in normal times. Brushpiles and stumps will also be visible. Making a rough sketch or map of these will enable you to find good fishing in the future.

To A Boy, This Time Of Year Flies For Fishing

Horses and people may not realize it yet, but it's that time of the year again. At least it is according to the Division of Wildlife.

And what did an ingenious Toledo boy do when it got around to that time of year?

Well, on a recent fishing trip with his parents to Harrison Lake, in Western Fulton County, Richard Zeiter wasn't having very much luck.

He suddenly realized that it was that time of the year, put it to advantage and ended up with a dozen hand-sized bluegills. He was the only angler to catch anything, the division reports.

What time of the year is it? Why, horse fly time, of course. Take it from there as to what the Toledo boy's idea was.

In using glass ovenware, reduce the temperature 25 degrees from that suggested by the recipe.

Jet's Kenny Hamlin Rates Final Raves

South Siders are considered the city's most avid baseball fans, and have been for years, and although Columbus' local ball orchard rests on the Hilltop, on any given night a good majority of Jet fans from the South Side can be seen cheering the local charges on.

With the likes of Joe Christopher, Tommy Burgess and Nino Escalera getting most of the raves due to their fine play all season, a little fella hustling around the short-field position has gone virtually unnoticed.

Kenny Hamlin, boyish-looking 24-year-old shortstop for the Jets this year, has more than added his share of spark in the Jets current drive into the first division.

Unnoticed by many because of a miserable start at the plate during the first three months of the season, Hamlin has swatted the ball at over a .300 clip during the past 46 games to raise his season's average over the .250 mark.

Although not considered a power hitter, the smooth swinging University of Western Michigan graduate is second on the club runs-batted-in and third in home runs.

Only in his third year of professional ball, the Detroit, Mich., native has already this year blasted more homers (9) than in his first two years put together.

His play around short caused many Pittsburgh Pirate officials to rate him an equal with the Bucs' Dick Groat in the field this past spring training season. His antics in the short-field with the Jets this season haven't given those men-in-the know any reason to alter their opinions.

Born in Detroit June 18, 1935, Hamlin stands 5'10", bats right and throws right. Obtained from Mexico City in early August of last year, his play both at bat and in the field, helped spark the Jets into the 1958 International League playoffs.

Signed in 1957, the Irish-English descendant appeared briefly in two games with the Pirates before being assigned to Lincoln of the Western League.

During that first year in pro ball, Kenny hit a modest .254 and played a bang-up game in the field.

When the '58 season opened, the personable Jet spark plug was sent to Mexico City where he upped his average to .261. Although he played in only 85 games south of the border prior to his being brought up by the Jets, Hamlin led the league in triples with 12.

The 34 games he spent with Columbus at the tail end of last season saw Kenny bang out 43 hits in 146 at bats for a mark of .295—Highest since entering pro ball.

With approximately 25 games remaining on the Jet schedule this year, a fast finish by Hamlin could find his average up around the .270 mark by the final day.

This 20 point jump won't seem so remarkable when a look at the record shows him third on the team in hits, walks and stolen bases.

These figures, along with his homerun and RBI totals, have almost all been tabulated during Hamlin's hot streak the past two months.

If he can keep up the fine work at the plate to go along with his outstanding job in the field, Kenny Hamlin will be sure to be getting his share of raves and notices so long overdue him this season.

Lincoln Park Brothers Set 'Shoe Pace

Lincoln Park's strong brother combination of Ronnie and Sonny Bobo continued to set the pace in the City Recreation Horseshoe Tournament this week.

The two young South Siders took their first two doubles events with ease to advance into quarter-finals of the tourney. The pair are the only brother combination in horseshoe competition this year.

Noise from other athletic circles at Lincoln Park was also heard this week as the playground's Girls Senior Softball team dropped a 38-16 slugfest to Schiller Park.

Despite the lopsided score, the Lincoln girls showed marked improvement both at bat and in the field.

In Lincoln Park Jet Baseball competition, the Dodgers and Cardinals continue to lead the park's two softball leagues.

Leading the eight and nine-year-old league by four full games, the Dodgers are followed by the Jets (6-6), the Reds (5-7) and the Tigers (2-9).

With seven straight wins under their belts, the Cardinals are followed by the 10, 11 and 12-year-old league by the Braves (5-2), the Indians (3-3), the Yankees (2-5) and the White Sox (0-7).

This weeks action will pit the Reds against the Jets and Dodgers against the Tigers in the younger league, with the Yanks tangling the Cards and Indians meeting the Braves in the senior circuit.

Club 185 won the second round championship of the South Side Old-Timers League Tuesday night at Southview by defeating Deibel's Grill, 5-4, in the feature game.

The defending champion must meet Freddies Grill, the first round winner, in the near future for the league title. One set of games remains to be played.

In other games, Gaytimers, behind the excellent pitching of Bob Close, defeated Southeast Club, 9-2; Freddies lost to Plank's Cafe, 12-8; Arena swamped Don's Inn, 7-1, and Bow-Wow Cafe had little trouble in handling Southside Eagles their 17th straight loss, 16-3.

Ivor Boling and Tom Duckworth had five hits for Bow-Wow. One of Boling's hits was a homer. Duckworth had two triples.

Tony Oddi, manager of Gaytimers, had a perfect night with four for four, one being a homer. Other players getting four hits were Honey Mouser and Buck Santinich of Bow-Wow, Herb Russell of Plank's and Pat Purcell of Freddies.

Three hits were collected by Joe Engle of Bow-Wow, who is also the president of the League, Paul Junk of Deibel's, one a solo homer; Ed Potenza of Gaytimers, Don Yoakem, Bob Duffy, Don Lang, and Ray Lett of Planks; Bill Richards of Freddies, Bob Felker of Arena and Jack Kearns of Arena.

Home runs were hit by Fred Jaconette of Club 185 with two on that won the game, Jack Phillips of Bow-Wow, Herb Russell of Plank's and Will Benner of Freddies.

Ball Fires Two-Hitter In Church YMCA Play

By Howard Henry

Last week's abbreviated play in the South Side "Y" Church Softball Leagues brought to a close a 15 week program that has proved very successful thanks to the men and women of our community who have served in the capacity of managers, coaches and umpires.

In the only two games played last week, South Methodist won over Hungarian E. & R. 5 to 3 to cop honors in the Intermediate Division and Emmanuel Lutheran Wednesday night Junior Kings, defeated Frebis Church of God's Monday champs, 13 to 7 in an exhibition game.

In the former tussle, Gordon Ball, ace twirler for South Methodist, was in rare form as he pitched a nifty two-hitter to best Harold Barton in a real A-1 pitchers duel.

Barton's one bad inning caused his downfall as he seemed to lose his control and issued four walks and three hits in what will go down in the record books as the Green Wave's unlucky sixth. But this we will admit, Steve Butsko's boys didn't give up because a walk, error, hit and sacrifice fly in the seventh, produced three runs before Ball closed the gates of mercy and got the next two men to face him on a fly to centerfield and a top to Floyd Lemmon at second.

Emmanuel Lutheran's powerhouse proved too much for the classy Frebis Church of God nine as the two junior champions clashed in an exhibition game. Only in the third inning were the Lutherans held hitless and their batting averages went skyward as they sprayed 13 hits to all sections of Southwood field.

Jim Ellis and Mike Christ led the hitting spree with three hits apiece while the power was supplied by Joe Middendorf and Jerry Edwards as each hit a round tripper.

NO-HIT BATTERY

GRAPPLERS APPLAUDED

Ray Fleetfoot Battles To Draw With Karnes

Due to the absence of Irish Ken Kelsey Friday night, Ray Fleetfoot and Sunny Boy Karnes went to a 30 minute draw. This match received the biggest applause of the Jones Park season.

Larry Daniels, the Negro Hercules, won by disqualification over Gentleman Rocky Mingo. In the battle of the "meanies of the mat" Chest Brenneman came through with a victory over Gorgeous George Birchem with a Boston Crab.

In the tag match, the team of Mingo and Birchem defeated Karnes and Daniels. The referees were Glenn Redman and Silent Montenaro.

In the third fall Mingo and Birchem were doubling up on Daniels. The referees had their hands busy trying to keep them out of the ring at the same time.

Daniels finally got close to his corner and tagged Sunny Boy but Montenaro and Redman did not see the tag. Mingo made short work of Daniels.

Bob Rogers, promoter, ordered a rematch and will put in different referees.

Saturday night saw Jack "Blondie" Lamont lose by disqualification to Jerry Reed, the Marion Franklin Wonder.

Fleetfoot made short work of Frank Pickens, the champ. Montenaro and Birchem went to a 30 minute draw.

In the tag team match Jack Lamont and Gorgeous George Birchem, paired for the first time, went against Jerry Reed and Fleetfoot.

Lamont and Birchem made short work of these two, winning two out of three falls. As expected, the tactics were not sportsmanlike.

Promoter Rogers said he had never seen "so much filth in my life out of two men."

After the tag match was over, a gentleman weighing approximately 210 pounds, jumped into the ring in street clothes, jumped Lamont and threw Birchem out of the ring by the head of the hair.

The young man's name is Lowell Palm. He has been in training for approximately three weeks. He personally asked for a tag team partner and guaranteed the people he would make short work of the blond bad boys. His partner will be Ray Fleetfoot.

Coming up this Friday night the blond meanies will go back to work again and try to stretch their winning streak when Birchem and Lamont take on Daniels and Karnes.

Fleetfoot will take on Brenneman with two other supporting bouts.

Saturday night brings a young gentleman who hasn't wrestled in this territory for quite a long time, Sunny Boy Hiles. He will wrestle Pickens.

The grudge match which has been boiling for a few weeks will put the iron worker, Chuck Stanley, against Glenn Redman. Reed will take on all comers. Also there will be a four-man tag team.

Don's Raps Kellys; Wins 2nd Round

Don's Inn exploded for 44 runs and 65 hits Saturday to slaughter powerful Kellys in a crucial double header which gave Don's the third round championship in the South Side Pitch Independent League.

Kelley's, first round champs, completely fell apart under the two-game onslaught despite the fact they scored 15 runs in the second game. Scores of the two-killings were 16-4 in the first contest and 38-15 in the second.

In rapping 28 hits in the opener and 42 safetys in the second game, Don's set a new league record for both runs and hits for double header action.

Larry Fallon rapped 10 hits in the day's action, including one home run. His brother, Jay, blasted three homers and a pair of doubles and singles to aid the attack.

P. Woodward, B. Wonn, F. Schefer and P. Krigbaum also fattened averages during the day with Woodward rapping two homers, three doubles and a single; Wonn blasting a homer and two doubles; Schefer knocking a pair of homers, doubles and singles, and Krigbaum smashing two homers, double and a single.

With league action entering its final week, the league now posts three individual round winners. Kellys took the first, Old Landmark the second, and now Don's the third.

Championship playoffs will begin Aug. 28.

GRANDPA MAYOR—An extensive collection of glass paperweights, including antiques and rarities, are shown to his grandchildren by the mayor. Patti, 5, and three-year-old Doug are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sensenbonner.

COFFEE BREAK—Late news developments are always followed carefully in the mayor's household. Mrs. Sensenbrenner pours coffee during a relaxing moment, and the two catch up on the latest.

Career 'Rules Roost' In The Mayor's Home

By Betty Daft

The home of the mayor, 335 Guernsey-av, is tailored to fit the needs of Columbus' first family, and the pattern of the Sensenbrenners' living determined entirely by its official and social obligations.

Remodeled and enlarged according to Mrs. Sensenbrenner's design and specifications, their home is one of quiet elegance and beauty, a fitting residence for the mayor of the All-American City.

Collects Glassware

The mayor's large collection of beautiful glassware is displayed to advantage throughout the house. Wall cupboards in the dining room and built-in cabinets, cupboards and drawers in his study are filled with prized pieces.

Some are of value as antiques, some as rarities and others are valued just as highly for sentiment.

Cut glassware in intricate and unusual design dominates the collection.

Always active in civic and church affairs, the couple has extended their activities to include the responsibilities they feel the office implies.

Calendar Crowded

Days start early at the Sensenbrenners, with a 7:30 a.m. radio broadcast, via telephone from his home, three mornings a week.

"A hurried breakfast," according to Mrs. Sensenbrenner, "is many times the only meal we have at home together during the day."

Official appointments and speaking engagements for the mayor, luncheons, teas and addresses to women's organizations for Mrs. Sensenbrenner, constantly crowd their calendar.

Believing that the people have every right to know them personally, each of them accepts "as many invitations as we possibly can."

They were guests of Chicago's mayor last month for the ceremonious opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway, and a meeting with Queen Elizabeth of England.

From there, they traveled to the mayors' conference in California. Mayor Sensenbrenner was appointed to the advisory committee of the Mayors Association of the United States, and chairman of United States Mayors for the Columbus Day and Sister City programs.

Church Influences Lives

The mayor has taught the Fidelis Sunday School Class at Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church since it was organized in 1938. The class had grown to 300 members, and was believed to be the largest in the state, by 1948.

Membership continued to grow, and the group merged with the Married Couples class. Sensenbrenner continues to teach every other month, and L. W. McAllister, principal of the new Westmoor Junior High School teaches on alternate months.

The mayor is also an elder at Hoge, and was president of the board of deacons for many years.

Mrs. Sensenbrenner, also active at Hoge, organized its junior church program many years ago.

One of their sons, Edward, will enter the Pittsburg-Xenia Seminary in preparation for the Presbyterian ministry in the fall. He was graduated from Ohio State University with a master's degree and a commission in the U. S. Army, and served two years with the Army in Alaska.

Another son, Richard, is a resident of Ogden-av. He attended Ohio University and is now associated with the personnel department of the State Highway Department.

City's Great Growth

"The city grew more during the first four years of my administration than during its entire 120 years of history. And the annexations gave it one of the greatest potentials of any city in the nation.

"Without surrounding municipalities to smother its growth, Columbus has a true future.

Believing, "The greatest natural resource in America is the youth of the land," the mayor has been active in Scouting since 1914. He holds the Silver Beaver award, is vice-president of the Central Ohio Area Boy Scouts of America and general chairman of the area for the golden anniversary of Scouting to be observed next year.

He is a past Scoutmaster of Camp Chase Post troop, and formerly worked with Troop 1, at First Presbyterian Church.

He is also a member of Big Brothers Association and was formerly vice-president of Camp Fire Girls.

He is a past president of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club.

Looking forward to the fall, and a quickening of tempo during the mayoralty campaign, Sensenbrenner said, "I don't quite see how I could be busier."

MAYOR ON THE MOVE—A tight schedule of official appointments keeps Sensenbrenner on the go. He leaves his home at 335 Guernsey-av, at his usual rapid rate, with a farewell wave.

AT NORWOOD'S PARK

Readers To Be Offered Bargain Rides At 'Nickel Day' Event, September 12

TOOT, TOOT! Hard to say who's having more fun here—the engineer or the kids. This kiddie train, powered by a real steam engine, is one of the 19 popular rides at Norwood's Amusement Park, where Hartley Newspapers will hold Nickle Day, Sept. 12. The train is piloted by James P. Kenny, former New York Central engineer.

A special back-to-school treat has been arranged for all readers of the Hartley Newspapers.

It's the Hartley Newspapers' Nickel Day at Norwood's Amusement Park on Sept. 12, the first Saturday following Labor Day.

On that day all 19 rides at the popular East Side recreation center (on E. Main-st at Alum Creek) will be turning for only a nickel, compliments of your Hartley Newspapers.

The outing has been arranged so the more than 70,000 familes who read the seven Hartley Newspapers — The Hilltop Record, West Rural-Urban News, S.E. Rural-Urban News, West Side News, South Side Leader, Eastern Review and Reynoldsburg Record may enjoy a weekend treat before autumn sets in.

Norwood's, an established Columbus organization, is now in its 18th season of serving the recreation needs of the community. The amusement park features rides for all ages, including the carrousel, Ferris wheel, Sky Ride, Dodgems, Caterpillar, plus a special section of rides for the wee folks.

Playground News

Lincoln Park

Seventy-five players of the Lincoln Junior Jet Leagues went to Columbus Jet Stadium Aug. 11 and watched the Columbus Jets play the Rochester Red Wings. This night was made possible by our own Braves' coach, P. E. Gilliland.

The players, coaches, parents and supervisors wish to personally thank Mr. Gilliland.

Ronald Bobo, 17, is still in the running for the City Playground Horseshoe Championship.

The boys and girls are continuing their hard work for the City-wide circus pageant which will take place Aug. 20, at 7:30 at Central High School. We are all looking forward to seeing the production and also to participate in it.

Palsgrove

Friday night is family night. The schedule for the evening is as follows:

6:00-6:30 — "Get Acquainted Time."

6:30-700—Awards of Achievement.

7:00-7:45—Relay Races and Contests.

7:00-7:45—Father-Son Basketball Game.

7:4[illegible]—Refreshments.

8:00-9:30—Social Dance for teen-agers and adults.

Awards will be presented to boys and girls who participated in various events during the season such as football teams, [illegible] special events, and other areas.

[illegible]pecial award will go to one boy and one girl between the ages of eight and 15 years for good sportsmanship, participation, and courtesy on the playground.

Karns

[illegible] of Jet play, Jim Moriarity did it again. He pitched a no-hitter for the Braves for the second time in a row. The [illegible]s won 13-0 over the Cardinals in the fight for first place. The Cardinals had previously been unbeaten. The Braves are now sole holders of first place in the National League.

The Yankees put back the Jets 5-2 to remain unbeaten and in first place in the American League. Pat Parker was the winning pitcher. The Yankees are coached by Don Parker and assisted by Marshal Martin and Pat McCoy.

Family Night will be held at Karns, Wednesday, Aug. 26. Plans include picnic supper 5-6, father-son baseball game from 6-7 and a dance from 7-9:30. Music for the dance will be provided by the policeman's orchestra.

The park will close on Thursday, Aug. 20, at 5:30 so that we may attend the annual pageant held at Central High School. The theme this year is the "Circus." Karns and Deshler are working together. Admission is free and everyone is invited to come and see the circus which starts at 7:30 at Central High.

Smith-rd.

Smith Road Playground will be closed Thursday, Aug. 20, at 5 p.m. to prepare for the pageant to be held later that evening.

Parents and friends are invited to attend the city-wide event, free of charge, at Central High School auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

The main point of interest last week was Saturday's Junior Olympic track and field meet at OSU stadium. Those who participated from Smith Road were Larry Ray, Ed Federer, Gene Gartin, Mark Wiess, Jerry Gay, Michael Armstrong, Paul Stecker, Terry Falter, Jerry Falter, Sherry Falter, Mike Quinn and Kyle Ray.

The junior boys' softball team had an active and successful week. The team defeated Southview 14 to 5 but lost to Karns by a narrow margin of 4 to 3.

Poll Follows Same Trend

Real Battle For Mayoralty Looms In Coming Weeks

By Bill Rush

With all but seven of the city's 33 wards polled, W. Ralston Westlake continues to hold a steady lead over Mayor Sensenbrenner in the Hartley Newspaper pre-election survey.

Biggest factor, however, continues to be the large number of undecided voters who have not yet cast their lot with either candidate. This figure represents over one-fourth of the voters contacted.

Although this should be considered when attempting to formulate the possible outcome of the November election, it should not be taken too seriously with 10 weeks remaining between now and election—plenty of time for everyone to make up their minds.

Westlake	43.1%
Sensenbrenner	29.6%
Undecided	27.3%

These same people gave Sensenbrenner the mayoralty at the 1955 election by a virtual 2-1 margin. When asked how they voted then, those interviewed replied:

Sensenbrenner	45.0%
Jones	22.7%
Don't Remember, Etc.	32.3%

Over one-half of those who supported Sensenbrenner in 1955 have indicated they will back Westlake this fall. The remaining votes are still up for grabs by either side. It would appear, however, that since they went to Sensenbrenner in the last election, a good many will come his way again.

Here's what happened to votes Sensenbrenner carried in 1955, but can't count on this time:

Undecided	46.6%
Don't Like Sensenbrenner	27.6%
Time For A Change	13.8%
Like Westlake's Record Better	1.7%
Other Reasons	10.3%

When these figures are taken into consideration, Sensenbrenner's chances become a little brighter. More than one-half of the votes definitely lost by the Mayor belong to those who just don't like him.

Therefore, the undecided voters must be waiting to judge each man by either his record or his platform. Here Westlake's chances to win additional votes do not appear too good since Sensenbrenner has lost only 1.7 per cent of his support to citizens who feel his opponent's record is better.

On the other hand, a great majority of the votes Sensenbrenner has retained are on the basis of his record. When asked why they would vote for Sensenbrenner this fall, his supporters said:

Don't Like Westlake	00.0%
Like Sensenbrenner's Record Best	77.9%
Other Reasons	22.1%

Summing It Up—Columbus' next mayor will be decided between now and election day. At this point, neither candidate can claim with any certainty he will win. If it is to be decided on the basis of past records, Sensenbrenner would seem to have the edge because many voters are unfamiliar with Westlake. It should be pointed out, however, that these same voters are not so enthused about Sensenbrenner's record that they are willing to commit themselves to him now.

Mrs. Coterel Elected Beck PTA President

Mrs. Edward Coterel last week was elected president of the Beck-st School PTA for the coming 1959-60 school year.

Assisting Mrs. Coterel will be Mrs. Ellsworth LeFever, first vice president; Neal W. Greenfield, principal and second vice president; Mrs. James Genoozis, secretary; and Mrs. Sam Glines, treasurer.

South Side Couple Celebrates First Homecoming In Four Years

Homecomings aren't always celebrated at football games. The Ray Phillips family, 1336 Bruck-st, held theirs Friday.

For the first time in four years the Phillipses saw their daughter, son-in-law and three grandchildren.

For the first time Friday they saw their two new grandchildren.

S/Sgt. John M. Anderson, a veteran of 10 years in the Air Force, and his wife, Ann, a native South Sider, touched "home" soil for the first time in four years when they stepped off their plane.

With them were their five children, twins Janet and Jane, 5, John, 4, May, 2, and Tommy, 8 months.

The Phillipses have never seen May and Tommy, and managed to view their first grandson, John, only a few times before the family moved away.

Prior to the happy homecoming, the Andersons were stationed at an Air Force base near Tokyo for four years. To get home they flew non-stop to San Francisco, then from Frisco to Port Columbus.

Anderson has accumulated a 40-day leave from the Air Force and expects to spend "at least 30-days" visiting in Columbus.

Following their month's stay the family of seven will leave for Tindal Air Force Base in Florida where John will assume a new assignment.

"It sure is good having them all home again, Phillips smiled. "You never really appreciate your children until they're away for awhile."

South Sider Helps Attempt To Up-Grade Traffic Courts

Columbus drivers who tempt the fates with foolishness on the streets soon may discover they tempt unrelenting authority of the Columbus Traffic Court.

Local magistrates are expected to renew the unending fight for both pedestrian and driver safety with new vigor and little sympathy for wrong doing.

It may begin very soon—perhaps as soon as next week, when South Sider Otto Meier returns from Miami Beach, Fla.

Meier, 229 E. Jenkins, is attending a two-day conference at the Southern resort—called by U.S. Attorney General Tom Clark as a first effort "to upgrade traffic courts" in all major American cities.

In his position as chairman of Columbus Traffic and Safety Committee, Meier will share Columbus traffic problems with men from Baltimore, New York City, Chicago, etc., and will —specifically—study the role of the traffic court in bringing increased safety to local streets.

"Traffic courts are on trial across the land," Clark has said. "They now are the weakest link in accident prevention programs."

His research shows that the "average American's" sole concontact with courts of any kind is likely to be the traffic court.

His solution: up-grade the courts. Replace the weakest link with a precisely observant court that builds respect and demands exact understanding of existing regulations (and the reason for specific regulations).

"Judicial processes must be understood," he has said.

The conference—now in progress—will outline a hard-hitting program calling for intensified citizen support. The objectives:

- Stimulate interest in American judicial systems.
- Emphasize that traffic courts are an integral part of our systems.
- Point up the need for improved traffic courts because they are vital in establishing favorable community attitudes.
- Develop citizens' actions to improve the courts in important details.

Safety for both pedestrian and driver is the far-sighted objective.

Local Steel Firms Watch All Available Inventories Dwindle

Current Five-Week Strike Could Show Affects Soon

By Richard Pavlik

South Side industries, while not yet pulled down by the five-week old steel strike feel that "another month of this and the construction industry will really be hurting."

Manufacturers, who daily watch their stockpiles dwindle, are for the most part proceeding on schedule.

Typical reaction to the strike comes from the Columbus Pipe and Equipment Company, on Markison.

"It makes us very busy temporarily," said Harry Brinkman, plant controller, "but we expect to feel the effects of the strike in six to seven weeks. Our stockpile is getting spotty. Everyone seems to be running out of small parts."

Brinkman said that Columbus Pipe does not expect a layoff, but that the next month to month and a half will tell the story. The firm employs 80 workers.

A spokesman for Buckeye Steel Casting Co., on Parsons-av, said customers have begun to request delays in delivery dates.

"We have ordered a few layoffs to prevent accumulation of excess inventories," he said, but added that the company has ample supplies of pig iron and scrap to operate another several weeks.

The Brown Distributors, 753 Marion-rd, hasn't felt the affects of the strike yet, according to E. E. Barnett, Brown general manager.

"We distribute between 1500 to 2000 tons of steel per month," Barnett stated, "and although we're beginning to run low of spot sizes we've managed to hold our own."

"If the strike goes beyond October," he added, "then I'd say it will seriously affect us. Right now our stockpile is beginning to dwindle, but beyond that we're okay."

The Tarrier Steel Company, Hanford-st, reports the strike has affected general contractors; but as yet has not altered operations of the Columbus plant.

Louis Ruscilli, president of the Ruscilli Construction Company on Stimmel also reports no ill effects from the current lack of steel.

"Some parts are hard to fill," Ruscilli stated, "but so far we're both accepting and filling all orders."

Hardest hit, apparently, has been the Howard S. Sterner Company, of 12 S. 3rd-st.

"Suppliers are ready to discontinue in another week or so, and if they do, it means the same for us," said H. S. Sterner, company president.

"We've never had a layoff in the six steel strikes previous to this," the executive added, "and we don't expect one now. One thing for sure — we sure are getting sick and tired of it."

Sterner, who said his firm's stockpile is depleated, not promising delivery until after the strike is over.

Although many contractors and distributors foresaw the strike early in the year and prepared for it by ordering to meet present demands, Sterner believes many "big steel poducers did not live up to agreements in making shipments in the beginning of the year."

"This is why our stockpile is depleated," the president continued. "We're continuing to take orders, but we can't fill them."

It's true that everyone anticipated the strike," Sterner concluded, "but I think I'd be safe in saying that no one has any idea how long it will last."

Barrett Adds 11 New Instructors

Eleven new teachers and the completion of a new fire escape will highlight the opening of Barrett Junior High School's new school year Sept. 9.

The new teachers, and their individual departments of instruction, are:

Henry Munch, industrial arts; Stanford Ruggles, industrial arts; Miss Phyllis Clagett, physical education; Harry Nachtigall, mathematics; John Byrd, special class; and James Fugate, Jerry Glick, Donald Leopard, Harry Sells, James Stanley and Mrs. Katherine Stephans, self-contained class.

The 11 new instructors replace Mrs. Nancy Hammond, Miss Patricia Monnette Russell Liechty, Adrian Hanes and Walter A. Cope, who will all be away from the building this year for personal and professional reasons.

The increase in the number of teachers coming into the building over the number leaving will make it possible to provide classes for the 1150 pupils expected in the final total enrollment for this fall.

Mrs. Jane Norman, who finished last year as a substitute at Barrett, will be in the building this school year on a full time basis.

Head Custodian William Kropfhauser, who came to the building last June from Reeb Avenue Elementary School, has been assigned to the school this summer and will continue on this fall as a member of the Barrett staff.

The one change in the building itself comes in the elimination of the old silo-type fire escapes with their ancient-looking spiral slides.

The old escape equipment has been replaced by modern fire safety devices.

The first day of school for the local South Side institute is slated for Sept. 9, with teachers meeting a day earlier.

SLATE RECORD HOP

St. Leo's CYC will sponsor a Record Hop on Sunday night, Aug. 30 from 8 to 11:00 p.m.

The affair will be held in St. Leo's school hall, corner of Bruck-st and Frebis-av. Price of admission is 50 cents per person.

A CAT'S EYE VIEW REVEALS

Local Library Pet Show Was A Success

By Tabby Katt

I hate to be catty . . .

But!!! I was one of the few entrants in the fourth annual pet show at the Parsons Branch Library last Wednesday who didn't win some sort of an award. Honestly, I'm so mad I'd like to take a king-size cat nip out of judges, Miss Julie Warner, Miss Joann Fuleky and Miss Sue Ott.

It doesn't faze me a whisker that they are assistant librarians. What do they know, anyway, about feline feelings and pussycat pulchritude?

I was so mad there once during the show that I spit right in the face of a particularly obnoxious collie dog. He was nosing around me with his false air of conviviality and acting so much the hypocritical part of man's best friend. Worse yet, he won a prize!

It was all I could do to keep from scratching him across his snooty snoot. And, as long as my claws were extended in rage, I took the following notes:

Besides us eight cats, there were 26 dogs (ugh!), three rabbits, five parakeets, three canaries (yum, yum), four turtles, a mouse, and even a crawfish.

We were all there on the lawn beside the library. And you know who the loudmouths in the group were!

Since we pets aren't allowed to wear the blue ribbons because our owners grab all the credit, I'll just list the owners and the ribbons they won.

DOGS: smartest—Wesley Kolarik, 1318 Mooberry-st; best dressed—Violet Gay Hendricks, 793 S. 17th-st, and Molly Manning, 672 Forest-st; most unusual — Patty and Hal Haynes of 441 Stewart-av.

BIRDS AND FOWL: smartest and most colorful (two ribbons) —Anne George, 297 Deshler-av; most speckled—Grace and Sam Matchett, 1148 Hunter-av; most unusual — Connie Theado, 806 S. 17th-st.

TURTLES: first prize — Karen Sue Stewart, 686 Kossuth-st; second prize — Richard and Charles Marshall, 435 Siebert-st.

Westlake Home Life Featured

CROWD OF 300 EXPECTED

Schiller Hosts Fishing Party

An expected throng of more than 300 Fishing Club members will jam the area around Schiller Park's bandstand tonight for the annual Grand Awards Party, sponsored jointly by the Southeast Lions Club and City Recreation Department.

In climaxing a summer of fun fishing in Schiller Park's lake, the youngsters will vie for over 100 prizes, including the top award of a 1959 Schwinn bicycle.

The evening's festivities are slated to begin at 6:30 with refreshments and entertainment. In the event of rain the party will move indoors into the Schiller auditorium.

Prizes will be given to young anglers skillful enough to hook one or more of the 100 tagged fish stocked in the lake this summer.

Other awards will be given to members of the club regardless of their fishing skills.

The grand prize drawing will highlight the evening's fun, with the Schwinn bicycle going to the lucky member present.

Sgt. Garcia, the huge channel catfish, which managed to elude Schiller anglers last summer, repeated his fete again this year. The big catfish has been offered as the top prize for tagged fish the past two years, with a $10 price going on his head since entering the lake in May, 1958.

Tom Crawshaw, Schiller director, extended an open invitation to all parents of Fishing Club members to come and join in the fun.

IS HE HOOKED?—This seems to be what David Kemmerling, eight, 836 Mohawk, is asking his fishing buddy, Frank Carrell, nine, 202 Stewart-st, during a recent afternoon of fishing at Schiller Park Lake. Both boys are entered in the annual Southeast Lions Club Fishing Derby, currently in session at the lake, and running through Aug. 27. The Lions restocked the lake this week with additional 50 tagged fish to make angling easier for contest contestants, aged 14 and under. Incidentally, as Carrell's pole indicates, "this one got away."

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors
By ROD COCHRAN

Here's How To Catch A Bowl Of Turtle Soup

A snapping turtle is a hard-nosed creature that looks like he's a leftover from the age of dinosaurs.

He is a rough hombre, has a disagreeable personality and plays for keeps. Most outdoorsmen are acquainted with the snapper—either they are confirmed turtle hunters or they have observed turtles from a distance. The best way to make his acquaintance is by way of a bowl of turtle soup.

The problem of such a meeting, of course, is how do you get such an ornery critter out of his hole in the bank and into the pot? Probably the oldest way known to man is to simply reach a bare hand into muskrat holes, under logs and brushpiles, and pull them out. This takes a special breed of turtle hunter—to my way of thinking one with about a dozen extra fingers.

Seriously, I have talked to a numbers of such hunters, and I never saw one with any missing appendages. These hunters fear muskrats and minks more than turtles or water snakes. Several showed me scars; souvenirs of brushes with muskrats.

Catching Technique Described

The trick to feeling for turtles seems to be to extend your arm along the top of a hole and then bring your hand down deliberately to feel along the bottom of the hole as you withdraw your arm. Turtles, they say, loaf in these places with their heads facing outward into the stream or lake. Therefore, you will feel their tail end first. The accepted procedure is to grab a turtle by its tail, pull it out, and pop it into a burlap bag. Presto! You have a tasty meal on the hoof.

There are easier ways, however, of catching turtles. Bank lines and traps are the traditional gear for those of us who do not like the idea of staging a boxing match with a snapping turtle on his home grounds. A bank line is simply a stout piece of cord with a large hook attached to one end. These are tied to snags and trees along a streambank so that the hook dangles three or four inches below the water. A big chunk of tough meat is an ideal turtle bait.

Turtle traps work on the same principle as a minnow trap, a funnel leads the quarry into the trap. Traps are also baited with either meat or fish. Mesh sizes of turtle traps must not be smaller than four inches on a side to comply with state regulations.

Block Floats Work

The newest idea in the ancient art of turtle soup making, is to use floating blocks of wood, a short line and hook. This gear is easy to make, and is ideal for catching turtles in farm ponds. You simply bait up your blocks, and toss them in a pond. They float around willily-nilly as wind changes, and pretty well fish an entire pond in the course of a couple of nights. A 12-inch length of two-by-four makes the proper sized float, and if you catch a turtle you will find the block up close to the shore. A hooked turtle returns home.

Very soon after farm ponds were common on central Ohio farmlands, fishermen began helping with pond management by catching bluegills and bass. Turtles are another by-product of ponds, but few are ever harvested. It has been largely a matter of the owner not taking time to build a trap, and not wanting to feel for turtles. Floating lines have changed this—they are easy to make and they catch turtles.

Good Fried Or In Soup

The next step, how do you dress, or should it be undress, a turtle? The first thing is to separate the bottom shell from the top shell and from the body of the turtle. This is after the turtle has been killed, of course. Then you remove the four legs, neck and tail, which are skinned. That's all there is to it—the meat is usually soaked in a salt or vinegar solution overnight. Turtles weighing under 10 pounds are very excellent eating when fried—brown the pieces like chicken and then add a little water and cook in the oven until tender.

A CATCH!—Al Staffan, Route 1, Galloway, lifts a snapping turtle from his lair under an old stump in a farm pond. Turtles are a by-product of small ponds that few people realize exist. Note the block of wood and short length of cord that caught this snapper.

Making turtle soup is a personal thing; something that I would not try to dictate. The best soup seems to be made by cooks when they are in a creative mood—when they bring together combinations of vegetables and spices that could never be duplicated.

There is not even a definite length of time to cook turtle soup. A few mouldy characters I know claim it is best simmered on a wood cook stove in a northern fishing camp. After it has aged for a week, and has been warmed up six times something magical happens that makes turtle soup the best thing a man could ever eat.

We'll have to admit we generally don't tune in on programs such as Red Foley's "Ozark", but we'll be listening one of these nights, to watch the son and grandchildren of one of our South Side neighbors. Cleo Harden, 540 E. Markison, will be the proud parent who will get to watch her family perform on a national hook-up.

Cleo called and told us she had just returned from a visit with her son, Doug, and his family in Arizona. Doug has an hour show of his own in that state, featuring his band and his two children. Oren 15, plays guitar and sings, and Patti 17, is the vocalist.

Patti has been on TV since she was 12, so is really a pro. When Doug appears on Red's show, he'll leave his band behind, appearing with his two children as the "Harden Trio."

While Cleo was visiting the younger Hardens, the plans were for the Trio to sing a hymn on Red's show.

Birthday Greetings

Late August, early September birthdays are the big event for these youngsters . . . Mary Oxley, 1272 S. 4th-st, Aug. 30; Joseph Brooks, 36 W. Neff, Aug. 26; Joan Erwin, 1716 S. 6th-st, Sept. 1; Dwight Jordan, 1638 S. High-st, Aug. 28; Renee Jividen, 197 Frebis, Aug. 30; Rita Williams, 322 Morrill, Aug. 29; Ronald Paul, 264 E. Jenkins, Aug. 30.

Moler-st, Aug. 29; James Dayton, 248 Morrill, Aug. 27; Franklin Hott, 266 Markison-av, Aug. 29; Mary Vallette, Aug. 27; Alva Holley, 46 Woodrow-av, Aug. 29; Carl Adams, 1315 S. 4th-st, Sept. 2; Linda McCance, 98 Woodrow, Aug. 28; Diana Harlor, 84 E. Moler, Aug. 27.

Adult birthdays include Helen Scheiderer, Aug. 22 and "Woody" Moore Sr., Aug. 22.

Marge and Harlan Grissom will chalk up another wedded year on Aug. 29. Bill Hoptry has an August birthday, but we're not sure of the date.

Son Weds

Attending their sailor son's wedding in Elizabeth, N.C., gave Bus and Virginia Leonard, 515 Forest, an opportunity of visiting a few of the well-known spots south of Columbus. Doug Leonard and Mary Lou Werner, 2801 Watkins-rd, exchanged their vows Sunday, Aug. 16.

In addition to the Leonard family, Mrs. Don Werner and Ardella Rhea were present at the wedding which was held in the City Road Methodist Church. The bridegroom was able to show his family some of the sights at Portsmouth, Va., where he is currently stationed. His own ship was in the process of being repaired, so he was not able to take them aboard his own "floating home."

On the return home from the wedding the Forest-st residents stopped at the Luray Caverns; visited the antique auto display and drove on the Skyline Drive as three vacation features. A combination picnic, shower and reception was held in honor of the newly-weds last Sunday, Aug. 23 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. "Bud" May, 7194 Worthington-Galena-rd.

August 25 is the birthdate of the young sailor, who finds August a very eventful month.

Birthday Combination

A mother - daughter birthday celebration is forthcoming at 1620 S. 4th-st, the Rausch household. Jean, the mother celebrated on Aug. 23, while daughter Sharon Lee had her 10th birthday on Aug. 26.

Marlow Rausch, the husband and father, will be home on Aug. 30 from Grosse Ile, Mich. where his Navy duties have taken him, to make the double celebration a complete one. Marlow also made phone calls on both birthdays to each celebrant.

A broken wrist is the unhappy experience of Dennis Coffman, 1156 Faber-av. Janet Elkins, 504 Cedarwood, is now home after an appendectomy hospitalized her for a while. Another ailing youngster is Janice Weaver, 1718 S. 3rd-st. Mrs. Schrader, of Sheldon-av, is in Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Twenty - two members of Bethel 5 attended a Job's Daughter conclave in Cleveland, not too long ago.

Little Steven Lee Thomas, 1409 S. 5th-st, celebrated his Aug. 22 birthday with a party, to which his neighborhood playmates were invited.

Get well wishes to Mrs. A. K. Graumlich, who has been a patient in Mercy Hospital.

Openings Announced

We know September is nearly on us, when we receive this phoned item . . .

The Ladies Swanette Bowling League has openings for bowlers for the Thursday, 1 p.m. league, that starts on Sept. 3.

Any woman who would be interested in joining this group is urged to contact the secretary, Thelma Gleich, at HI. 4-0054. We just wish our schedule weren't so full, then we could make a few "poodles" ourself!

Margaret Boettcher and her two children, June Lee and Kenneth Wayne, were the guests of the Hannahs, 332 E. Markison-av, not so long ago. The threesome were visiting from Richmond, Va.

Larry Koehl, 1616 Berkeley-rd, would probably appreciate cheery cards at this time, after undergoing surgery at Doctor's Hospital. The young man is a senior at Marion-Franklin High School.

Mrs. Ben Wohlstein, 886 S. 18th-st, was one of the Columbus attendants at the Davison, Mich., Baha'i Summer School.

A combination shower-reception will welcome newly-wedded Nelda and Bob Ross, at the Southwood Church of Christ, Monday, Aug. 31, at 8 p.m. Senior campers of the church are currently attending Round Lake.

Enjoyable Vacation

Deep sea fishing and all that goes with a Florida visit made the two week vacation of Clair, Mary and Danna O'Hara an enjoyable experience.

The residents of 2426 Lockbourne-av, accidentally found themselves at Woody's Southwind Motel, a property of Mr. Woodyard, (of the local funeral home) while in West Palm Beach, Fla.

The O'Haras reported that four other Columbus families were occupants of the Columbus-owned motel while they were in the Florida city. One of the vacationing families was the Bloom family of Stewart-av.

Clair and Mary now are awaiting the clang of the school bell, for both are teachers. Clair does his teaching at Clarfield and Mary instills the 3 R's at Scioto Trail.

The Eberts clans, 366 Sheldon-av, seem to be taking their vacations in sections this summer. Papa Howard, Mike, Mo, Howie and Bill spent their relaxing days traveling the Smokies, and visiting the caves and caverns to be found in the Southland. Marg Eberts and girl friend, Judy Brown, flew to Washington and got to see many of the noted spots in that section of the country.

The flying was a thrill, naturally. Fred Bier, of Eberts' Pharmacy, also "did" the caves and caverns this year as his vacation project.

Southwood's PTA executive board meets today at 1:30 p.m. for a pre-school session.

Mrs. Maude Whelan, 502 E. Gates-st, is now home after a two-week stay in Mt. Carmel.

New residents of 261 E. Gates- st, are Mr. and Mrs. Don Hough and their three children. The Columbus newcomers moved into our area on Aug. 22, from Circleville, O.

The 80th birthday of Mary Casey, 83 S. Hague-av, was cause for celebration for the woman's large family, and from the sounds of it, the home of Catharine Wolfe, 503 E. Gates-st, must have been bulging at the seams on Aug. 14.

We don't know the number of children Mrs. Casey has, but there are 20 grandchildren and 35 great-grandchildren. Forty-seven persons attended the gala affair.

Besides the honor guest there were Mrs. Margaret Hershiser; Mrs. Wanda McDaniel and family; Mrs. Stella Casey; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Casey and family; Mr. and Mrs. John Casey and family; Mr. and Mrs. Julius Vargo and family; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sutton and family; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stuart and family; Mr. and Mrs. William Chinn and family; Mr. and Mrs. James Wolfe and family; Mrs. Mary Lou Dean, Miss Patsy Jedlicka, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolfe.

Those missing the festivities included Tom Casey, stationed overseas in Germany, who is a grandson, as is Charles Ward, a South High grad who has been in the Navy for 19 years.

A granddaughter, Dottie Jo Compton, now lives in California. Grandson Bob McCann, formerly of 296 E. Gates-st, lives near Cincinnati, O.

Lee Ross, of 90 Mithoff-st, will celebrate his 63rd birthday Saturday, Sept. 5. The occasion will also mark the Ross' 37th wedding anniversary.

Ross is a retired fireman, formerly operating out of Engine House No. 14.

Armida Padilla 10, of 637 E. Gates, will be a welcome sight Sunday when she arrives home following four weeks at Camp Wyandotte.

Red Haired Robber Nets $70 In Local Holdup

A red-haired, freckled faced robber who ordered "Let's have your money" used a snub-nosed revolver as his final argument Monday in robbing the CBS Carryout, 660 Parsons-av, of $70.

Owner William H. Nelson, 56, of 843 Heyle-av, told police the robber appeared to be in his early twenties.

INFLATION ADDICTION—AN EPIDEMIC

Imagine an epidemic of alcoholism or drug addiction sweeping the United States.

Something similar is taking place. Inflation, an economic disease, is ruining the financial health of Americans and their nation.

Economists have diagnosed its causes and prescribed remedies. Communications media have funneled their warnings and recommendations to the public. But not enough people have realized the epidemic's seriousness to force concerted action to stamp it out.

The nature of the disease is partly responsible. Like alcoholism and drug addiction, inflation causes a deceptive feeling of well being. When one jolt wears off, its victims want another jolt, not a cure. Everything will be fine, they think, if they can just get another wage raise or more help from the government.

No one or two people can halt this epidemic. To be cured, inflation's victims (and let's face it—that's us) must realize what is happening and want to be cured. That will take fact-facing, will power and backbone enough to break the self deceiving habit of demanding something for nothing — whether it be more pay without more production or more government spending without more taxes.

If life gits you down, buck up, don't back up.

Yep, the seamy side of life is hard to hide.

When two turtle doves start cooin' one is soon a dead pigeon.

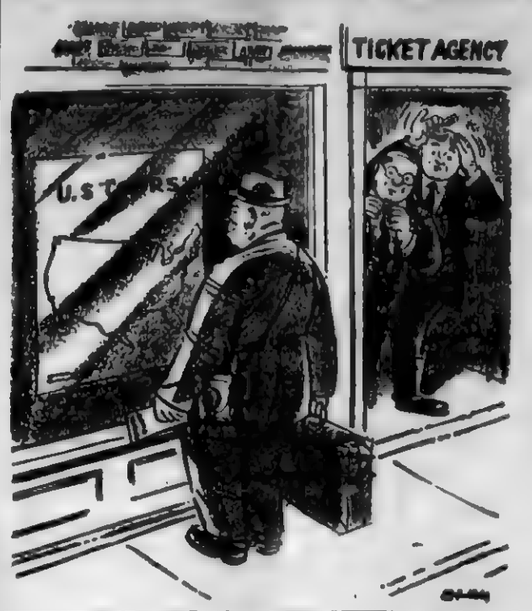
Nope, there just ain't no substitute for a home.

STRAC Display Coming To Fair

The U.S. Army's Strategic Army Corps—more popularly know as "STRAC"—will be unveiled to area residents for the first time in an official exhibit to be displayed at the Ohio State Fair Aug. 28-Sept. 4.



Coming to Columbus by motorcade from Washington, D. C., the huge exhibit shows the Army's methods to cope with small, limited conflicts as well as all-out atomic war and forecasts weapons of the future projected to the year 1975.

. . . Elm Street, out Route 62, or wherever you may be, you see electricity lending a hand to handymen. One reason why you can count on having all the electricity you need when you need it — for fun, or work, or brighter living — is the Electric Company's continuing program of expansion. In the past three years, 84 million dollars were spent for new equipment and better service. In the next three years, we expect to spend another 51 million dollars. These investments will help you live better electrically.

BIBLE COMMENT

Bible Has Many References About Life's Relationships

The Bible has a great deal to say about living with friends and foes. To live with friends would not seem to present any problem, though there is an art of friendship which is not always cultivated or which may be one-sided only.

Friendship depends upon mutual confidence and regard.

To live with enemies, real or imagined, is not so easy. If no real dangers are involved, there may be upsetting disquiet and disturbances of mind. But if you had been a Jew in Hitler's Germany, or if you were a Roman Catholic or Protestant in today's Communist China, there would be nothing imaginary about your enemies, or the dangers confronting you.

There are many references to enemies in both the Old and the New Testaments. More than 300 enemies are listed from Genesis to Revelation. Many of these enemies undoubtedly were of the same sort that have beset others in later times.

The unyielding attitude of those whose religion enforces an implacable attitude toward "enemies" undoubtedly makes one-sided concession. The great hope seems to be that world sentiment may bring more tolerant and placable action to bear.

It is possible that much of the Biblical counsel concerning enemies as more personal than national or communal reference.

"Agree with thine adversary quickly," or "A soft answer turneth away wrath" may be wise counsels for daily living and peace of mind.

Abraham Lincoln remains a conspicuous example of the strength in action of a man immersed in what the Bible has to say about getting on with enemies.

Main Federal To Open Two New Offices

Richard Scott

Main Federal Savings and Loan Association will celebrate an unusual double grand opening of two new branch office buildings Sept. 14-19, according to Harold Esper, president.

This is believed to be the first instance of an Ohio Savings and Loan dedication of two new offices in the same community in the same week.

The new East Side building at 891 S. James-rd, will be of contemporary modern architecture and will provide a comfortable, living room atmosphere for all transactions. This office will be managed by Richard Scott, who won a Florida trip in a radio contest last Easter, but hasn't been able to get away yet because of building activities.

Main Federal's brand new third office in Central Point Shopping Center will be in charge of James Gatterdam.

Special opening week programs designed to acquaint local residents with the two new savings and loan facilities, will be announced soon.

Sex Offender Gets Hearing For New Trial

A charge by convicted sex offender Garland Russ that he was induced by fear and threats to plead guilty has led to the scheduling of a hearing for a new trial Monday at 9 a.m. in Municipal Court.

Russ, 18, of 3433 S. High-st, was fined $900 and sentenced to two years in the Columbus Workhouse, Aug. 6th when he pleaded guilty to three sex charges.

His attorney, Arthur Spielmann, claimed this week that Russ was promised psychiatric help if he would make a confession and plead guilty, that he should have been advised by the court that he was entitled to legal representations and that he should have been given a sanity examination at Lima State Hospital.

Spielmann also claimed that the teenage father of a two-month-old child was induced by fear and threats to plead guilty to charges of assault, molesting a child under 16, and indecent exposure.

GLOVES CHAMP VS. GRAPPLER

Westenburger, Birchem Tangle In Special 10 Round Boxing Match

Something new in the way of grudge matches will highlight Saturday night's Jones Park card this weekend as champion boxer takes on a veteran wrestler in a 10-round fistic match.

Jimmy Westenburger, 135-pound former Golden Gloves champ who made an impromptu appearance last Friday night, will square off against 200-pound Randy Birchim, longtime Jones Park meanie.

Westenburger, a spectator at the park, entered the ring during Friday's tag team event and floored Birchim with a right uppercut as Dandy Randy was in the process of putting one of his illegal holds on an opponent.

In the near riot that followed, both Westenburger and Birchim shouted threats at each other while restrained by police and spectators.

Rogers, who met with both parties this week, annouced the scheduled special attaction Tuesday. The match will be governed by the Marquis of Queensbury rules, which, of course, means Birchim will have to abide by recognized boxing standards.

Birchim's big advantage in the bout will be his weight. The blond grappler is expected to carry a 65-pound advantage over his cocky, young opponent.

Other matches slated for Saturday will find Ralph Whaley tangeling with Sonny Boy Karnes and Jerry Reed squaring off against Bill McDonald in two semi final events, with a four man tag team to follow.

Friday's action will pit Chuck Stanley against Glenn "The Clown" Redman in a special "Texas Death Match" that will find no holds barred.

Semi final matches will feature Poncho Villa batteling Blondie Lamont and Sonny Boy Hiles taking on Chest Brenneman. A four man tag event will follow.

In last weeks action, Friday night saw the Negro Hercules, Larry Daniels, defeat Lamont with an Argentine Backbreaker in 15 minutes 45 seconds, and Karnes decision Birchim in 20 minutes 15 seconds with a body press in the night's two semi events.

In the tag match, Daniels and Karnes squared off against Birchim and Lamont in a rough and rowdy event.

Following a fall by each team, Westenburger entered the ring and the rest is history. The slight boxer caused a near riot by bopping Birchim, and, following repeated outbursts by the crowd, was removed from the park by special police.

The match was eventually won by Birchim and Lamont following restoration of order when Dandy Randy pinned Karnes.

Saturday night's card saw Redman and Stanley battle to a bloody "no contest" decision when both grapplers carried their fight outside the ring. Neither man reentered the designated fighting area before the count of 20, therefore rendering the final ruling.

In the night's second semi-final event, Sonny Boy Hiles made short work of Frank Pickens with a stomach stretch.

In the tag event, Reed and Hiles decisioned Redman and Pickens in a hotly disputed match. With a fall going to both teams, Redman once again used unconventional tactics to pin Hiles and thus seemingly take the third fall.

Referee Chuck Stanley, however, witnessed Glenn's method of using the ropes to work his pin and refused to count the final fall. So enraged was the youthful grappler that he pounced on Stanley and repeatedly mashed him about the head.

Because of this unsportsmanlike action, Stanley disqualified Redman and awarded the match to the team of Reed and Hiles.

As an added attraction, Jerry Reed took on all comers prior to the main event and defeated his three takers, Lowell Palm, Jim Greedey and Jan Silvers.

The kitchen is the scene of 20 percent of home accidents. Grease, food and liquids spilled on the floor and the use of unstable articles, such as rickety chairs and stools to stand on to reach high places, are the main causes of falls in the kitchen.

A Tip To The Seamstress

When sewing, if your measurements don't agree with those of the patterns, choose the size that will give you the best fit in the blouse. It's usually easier to alter the skirt pattern than the blouse pattern, say extension clothing specialists at Ohio State University.

Fine Team Balance Gives Jets Fine Record

With the current International League season rapidly drawing to a close (the Jets have only 20 games yet to play), the time has come to objectively summarize the talents of the finest Columbus baseball team assembled during the past nine years.

Not since the days of the 1950 Red Birds has this city had a team in such a fine position to cop the Little World Series honors in late September.

Rollie Hemsley's charges of almost a decade ago, then representing the American Association, knocked off Baltimore's International League champs four games to two to take the minor league's top position.

Only twice, in 1954 and last year, have Columbus teams been able enough to make their individual league playoffs. Both times the teams finished in fourth place at the end of the season's regular schedule. Both times the two teams were knocked out of the running early in the playoffs.

The 1959 Jets, currently in their hottest streak of the season, could finish higher in the standings than any other local team in the past nine years. Hensley's squad copped third place the year the old Red Birds took all the marbles.

Reason for this year's fine showing on the part of the city's local heroes is the fine team effort, and perfect hitting-pitching balance assembled by Manager Cal Ermer.

Christopher (highest average) Escalera and Thorpe give the Jets the finest trio of fly-chasers put together at one time since the founding of the new International League team in 1955.

Burgess (tops in homers and rbi's) and Jaciuk give the team its best hitting and fielding depth around the first base slack since the days of old Red Bird Mo Mozelli.

Hamlin and Javier post the best double-play combination in the league this year, and give the Jets their finest keystone combination since entering the league.

Leo Rodrigues, the old reliable, continues to do his always fine job around the hot corner.

Veterans Hall and Baich gave the Jets near-major league caliber catching the first 110 games of the season. With Hall's injury idling him the remainder of the schedule, Marcus Cobos was recalled by the Ermermen and backs up Baich to give the team a reliable one-two punch from behind the plate.

Personable Spook Jacobs remains the team favorite and, although demoted to a part-time role this year, still gives the Jets the best infield depth they've ever experienced.

The fine twirling of Jackson and Gibbon 27-11 between them) makes the loss of the old Daniels-Douglas combination of last year a thing of the dark, dark past. Lines and Levenguth round out the team's "big four," and are backed by such able spot-starters as Blackburn, Raydon and Giehl.

Williams and Jimenez handle the relief chores left vacant by Green and O'Donnell.

To pick out any one individual star who has "carried" the team all year would be impossible. The brilliant comeback from the depths of last place two short months ago points this out.

If the team continues its fine showing and finished second or third in the standings, the final raves will have to go to the team.

Only with such a combined effort on the part of the 20 men on the roster has such a fine showing been made possible this year.

Nolan Leads SS Old Timers With .688 Mark

Nolan, whose 33 hits in 48 at bats give him a 17 point bulge over runner-up Ray Berry, of Planks, joined Freddie's near the end of first round play, but still is eligible for the league's top batting honors.

Third spot in the league race is currently held by Bill Richards, also of Freddie's, with a .607 mark.

Pat Purcell, Freddie's, tops all batters in official trips to the plate with an even 90.

The Cleveland Indians have won three pennants in their 58 year of organized ball — 1920, 1948, and 1954.

Hardy Cops Capitol City Feature At Jones Park; Scherer Retires

TOP DRIVER—Gary Hardy, eight-year-old South Sider, wheels his "Little Outcaste" quarter Midget racer around the far turn at Jones Park to cop the Capital City Association's feature event. Hardy, who leads all QM drivers in points for the current season, also took three second places in Sunday's competition.

Gary Hardy, 8-year-old midget auto driver, won the feature event at the weekly Capitol City Quarter Midget Association races Sunday to boost his season point total ahead of all competing drivers for this year.

The youthful South Sider placed second in three of the rear heat races to add valuable points to his season total. He has been racing since he was five.

Dale Scherer, "veteran" Columbus driver, received the most coveted of all Quarter Midget awards at the conclusion of the day's races when he was awarded the Outstanding Sportsmanship trophy.

Scherer retired from QM racing following the days events because he turned 16-years-old last week. Age limit for QM drivers is 15.

The personable young teenager picked up his last victory in QM competition before leaving the barricaded track for good by copping the days third heat event.

Winners in the card's other events were Johnny Jones, first heat; Johnny Crowell, second heat; Scherer, third heat; and Hayden Decker, fourth heat.

Bobby Butler took the day's first semi final event, while Dennis Browning copped the second. Hardy edged both drivers to take top honors in the feature.

Kellys Vs. Don's Saturday; First All-Star Team Selected

The long-awaited three-way playoff to decide the first champion of the new Slo Pitch Independent League will get underway Saturday when Don's Inn and Kellys square off at Southwood Field at 2 p.m.

The three teams met at coin flipping ceremonies this week to decide the two game playoff, with Old Landmark lucking out with the bye.

With the regular season drawing to a close last week, managers of all six teams selected the first all-star team in the history of the South Side.

The all-stars will meet the league champions Sept. 11 in the final tilt of the season, with Joe Ardner and Harry Sells directing the stars attack.

Olympian Club: Jim Contoeta, John Maloney and Bob Bender.

Old Landmark: Ivor Boling, Tom Duckworth and Ted Koetz.

Omars: Tom Blaum, Gene Taylor and Tom Hall.

Landmark Kids: Duck Henry, Don Woodward and Dick Meier.

Umpires for the special contest will be Dick Keiba and Jess Willard.

Last weeks final games, which ended regular season play, saw Landmark down Olympian 13-6, Dons best Omars 13-12 and Kellys edge the Kids 11-10.

The victory by Dons was their seventh straight win of the year, longest streak compiled by any team.

Final seasons records for the three top teams were Kellys (11-4) Landmark (10-5) and Dons (7-8).

3 Parties Highlight 'Y' Season

Trophies, Short Talks, Music, Dancing, Movies and plenty of eats highlighted the three award parties recently held for players in the South Side "Y" Church Softball program.

Robert Madden, Ed Becker and Rowland Hepner, members of the South Side Branch of the Board of Management YMCA gave talks stressing the importance of sportsmanship in all phases of life and presented trophies to the team and individual sportsmanship winners.

Frebis Church of God, St. Paul E & R, Emmanuel Lutheran, Livingston Methodist and South Methodist were awarded the leagues highest honor, the team sportsmanship trophy, as the result of grading by officials throughout the entire season.

Individual sportsmanship winners were as follows: Junior League — Girls League — and Intermediate League.

Championship teams were also recognized and presented trophies by "Cap" Hoover, Jim Wagner and Roger Dumaree, of the South Side "Y" Staff.

A top notch singing trio from Frebis Church of God, a Square Dance, with Jim Wagner as caller, slides of a Canadian canoe trip, and films featuring the tableau Cleveland Browns football team, were on the agenda as entertainment while Harry Osborn, Bud McLaughlin and Howard Henry served as toastmasters for the parties, that the boys and girls who attended will carry in their memories forever.

SS Eagles Win First Of Season

The longest losing streak in the Southside Old - Timers League history came to an end Tuesday night at Southview Field when the Southside Eagles won its first game in 18 starts by trimming the Gaytimers, 11-8 as the season came to an official end.

Freddie's Grill, first round winner and second round champion, Club 185, will meet for the 1959 title at Southview Field, diamond number one at 6 p.m.

Club 185 continued on unbeaten in the second round with its ninth straight victory, the longest string of the season, by edging Arena, 13-12 on Bruno DelCol's infield single to drive in the winning run.

In other games, Freddie's Grill defeated Southeast Club, 9-5; Deibel's Cafe edged Bow-Wow Cafe, 14-11; Plank's Cafe trounced Don's Inn, 20-2.

Bill Groezinger was the iron stickman in the league as the Club 185 third baseman collected four hits, one a solo home run. Tom Duckworth of Bow-Wow and Jack Hall of Arena had four hits also.

Home run hitters were Clyde Eaton and Lloyd Stout of Southeast, Buck Santinach and Don Kirby of Bow-Wow, Bob Zack, Paul Junk, Wheaties Whalen, Nick Popovich Ray Lamberson of Deibel's, Bob Yerian and Jack Kelley of Eagles, Emil Almay and Glen Belcher of Gaytimers, Don Kelly, Tom Ucker, Ray Lett of Plank's and Fred Jaconette of Club 185.

Candidate's Home Is Heart Of Business, Political Careers

BRAINS AND BRAWN — It takes artistic skill to trace the intricate etched patterns, back-breaking work to fire the glass and a lot of know-how through every step, to produce ruby glass. Westlake is shown loading a tray of pieces into the kiln.

WESTLAKES AT HOME—W. Ralston Westlake, president of city council and Republican candidate for mayor, poses with his wife and daughter, Marilyn, in the family living room. Their dachshund, Heidi, joins the group.

COUNCILMAN AT WORK—Preparations for Monday night council sessions and all the other paper work included in council president's duties, are carried out in Westlake's bedroom. The downstairs room will soon be converted into a study.

By Betty Daft

Life at the home of W. Ralston Westlake, Republican candidate for mayor, has as many facets as the pattern in his ruby glassware . . . family living is fused as closely to business affairs as the glowing color to crystal.

Home is the heart of his business and political careers, as the base of operations for the glassware factory behind the house, motel next door, the conduct of council president's duties and his mayoralty campaign.

Everybody Helps

Each member of the family has a hand in every step of the glassware production from the time the blanks arrive from the factory until the ruby red pieces are sold at a state fair.

The motel is operated the same way with the bell signalling the arrival of a guest, answered by the person nearest the door.

And now, each has made the concession and adjustments needed to free Westlake's time for attention to council affairs and his campaign, and to make house-room for his office.

A downstairs bedroom, converted into an office with the addition of a card-table desk, typewriter and tape recorder, will soon be remodeled into a conventional study.

Member cooperation and concern with the family's economic welfare has welded them into a compact, united group, each concerned with the others' problems, all working for the common cause.

Active membership in St. John's Lutheran Church and interest in church affairs is a second strong, common bond.

Takes Wares to Fairs

Westlake, his wife, Helen, and daughter, Marilyn, left Aug. 12 for Illinois State Fair, to display and sell their glass products.

The family group, familiar figures at fairs throughout the country for many years, is reduced now by two. A daughter, Diane, is now Mrs. Fred Corcoran of 880 Wedgewood-dr. A son, Dave, is recently married and lives at 45 W. Ninth-av.

The number of fairs they visit is also sharply reduced. This year, because of Westlake's political duties, they will visit only the Illinois, Indiana and Ohio State Fairs

The family cherishes the close contact they have with hundreds of families, regular fair visitors. Many visit their booth year after year to purchase the little red mugs, and have their newest babies' names engraved on them.

Westlake's father, the late Milton Westlake, councilman for 10 years and county commissioner for eight, also operated fair booths, selling the ruby ware.

He purchased the glassware from a Bohemian manufacturer and then engraved the pieces.

Young Ralston worked fairs with his father during the summer season while he was still in high school. Imperfections in the pieces and high cost of the ware decided him to search for the secret process.

Develops Secret Formula

He experimented for a year and a half, using his mother's oven and his father's garage as a laboratory and workshop. "I finally found the combination of chemicals that changes the glass to the glowing ruby-red," he said.

"The secret process involves many intricate steps, with room for error at every turn. Each piece, painted by hand with the chemical combination, is baked at intense, 1300 degree heat, cooled for a full day, washed separately in a chemical bath and then sealed again in ovens for fusing.

"To my knowledge, I am now the only man in the country able to produce genuine ruby glass."

Westlake explains that factories cannot turn out the ware economically enough to justify its production because, "Each step is a hand process; it doesn't lend itself to mass production.

"Much depends on experience with the work. The ovens have no temperature controls; I judge by the kiln's color when the heat has reached the needed point."

Follows Father's Footsteps

Fitting his footsteps closely into those of his father, Westlake has followed his lead in ruby glassware interest, as well as in the political picture.

Milton Westlake is still remembered 20 years after his death, for his record during 10 years as a councilman and eight as county commissioner.

Ralston Westlake is now serving his fourth year in city council. He was elected president of the group after the death of Wesley Llewelyn.

The Republican party endorsed him as candidate for mayor in January.

Discussing his decision to try for the office of Columbus' mayor, Westlake said, "Many people have asked me to run. Their mounting requests were matched by my increasing desire to do something about a number of situations."

Food Markets This Week by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Fruits—Muskmelon, watermelon, peaches, apples, grapes, plums.

Meats and Poultry—Chuck roasts, sausage meats, smoked picnics, fryers, eggs, ice cream.

OHIO PRODUCE ON PARADE

During the coming week all of us will have the opportunity to see Ohio-grown foods at their best. The abundance of luscious fruits and colorful vegetables from local farms will be on display at the Ohio State Fair. But it's equally true in the stores and on roadside stands—abundance, high quality, and the lowest prices of the season.

Ohio melons are coming to retail outlets by the truckload now. Muskmelons of all varieties—old favorites as Honey Rocks, Pride of Wisconsin, Golden Delight, and many new hybrids are available. Cutting quality is generally good.

This week is peak season for local watermelons. Modern farmers follow rigid dusting and spraying programs—some irrigate. Watermelons weighing from 35 to 45 pounds or more are being picked in Ohio sandy bottom lands. To select a ripe one, look for a velvety appearance and a deep color. Growers say "thumping" a melon is still the best way to tell a ripe one. "It's ready when it thumps dead—one that's still green will ring."

Peaches—Luscious ripe peaches vie with melons for desserts and salads. Fairhaven, Halehaven and South Haven are among the Ohio varieties now available. Elbertas are still coming from other states.

Apples—Less apple harvesting is done during the rush of the peach crop. However, there are good supplies of summer varieties as Wealthy, Duchess and Maiden Blush. Harvest of Jonathans will start next week.

Bartlett pears harvest has started in Ohio orchards. Growers say the crop is big this year. That's true of the pear crop throughout the country, which likely means bargain price on pears . . . you may want to can a few.

Tomatoes—Quality generally seems to be improved, with tomatoes showing few cracks and good color. Keep tomatoes in a cool, not cold place, to enhance flavor. Don't delay canning and juice making much longer.

Sweet corn is still plentiful and quality generally is improved as the late varieties are now ready. Peppers—both green and yellow, sweet and hot—are plentiful. All sizes of cucumbers for pickling or for salads are in season. And don't neglect to include squash in the menu—you can choose from a big display of summer varieties at a low price.

OHIO STATE FAIR

The Cooperative Extension Service in Agriculture and Home Economics will have an exhibit at the 1959 State Fair. Frebis-Av Lot Sold By City Products Corp

The sale of the property located at 745 Frebis-av to Samuel Shinback, president of The Bron-Shoe Co., 269 E. Broad-st was announced Tuesday by George G. Marburger, division manager of City Products Corp.

The transaction involved 15,000 square feet of building space and approximately 2½ acres of land.

City Products Corp. will continue to occupy the premises until the end of the year, at which time operations will be transferred to its other plants in the city.

The strength of faith—a parental bequest no money can give Something so priceless you give it away

Art Linkletter, famous TV personality, tells this story about faith. A little boy, busy with crayon and sketchbook, was asked what he was drawing.

"Just a picture of God," said the boy casually.

"Nobody knows how He looks," said Linkletter.

"They will," replied the boy, "when I get through."

What he lacked in ability, that boy made up in faith. The faith of children, once firmly founded, is a lasting faith. This is why it's vitally important that parents start early to give their children a faith to live by.

Only you can do this job as well as it must be done. No other provision you make for your family will ever take its place.

Worship together this week, every week, at your church or synagogue for a happier, more satisfying life all year long. Perhaps you don't know what God "looks" like now . . . but you will . . . when you get through.

Build a stronger, richer life...worship together this week

Westlake Proves Early City-Wide Mayoralty Poll Favorite

With all voting wards accounted for, Republican candidate W. Ralston Westlake looms as the best man to beat in the Columbus mayoralty race coming this November.

During all five weeks of the Hartley Newspaper survey, Westlake has maintained an average lead of 15 percentage points over Democrat incumbent M. E. Sensenbrenner. This week's results, reflecting all city wards is no different.

Westlake	43.3%
Sensenbrenner	27.9%
Undecided	28.8%
Total	100 %

This represents only a minor change over the figures in the first week of the poll. Perhaps the most significant change is the increase in the number of undecided voters. Here's how things looked five weeks ago when the survey was started.

Westlake	47.0%
Sensenbrenner	32.7%
Undecided	20.3%
Total	100 %

Because of the high number of undecided votes, the Hartley Newspaper Mayoralty Poll will be discontinued for several weeks while the political stew simmers. A further sample will be taken closer to the election date to find out if there has been any switch in public opinion.

Broken down by wards, challenger Westlake holds a 16-4 edge over the Mayor with 10 wards undecided. Westlake holds slim edges in eight of the 10 uncommitted wards. Both candidates fare equally well in three additional wards.

SECOND — Traditionally Democratic South Side ward bounded by the Scioto River and 18th-st on the west and east and Thurman-av and Livingston-av on the south and north respectively.

FIFTH — Near East Side ward south of Broad-st between Wilson-av and Bexley.

11TH — Located on the Hilltop, represents the area south of Sullivant-av between Belvidere-av and the old Sullivant Avenue Airport.

31ST — A Hilltop ward located between Clarendon-

Marion Area Fire Station Near Ready

A big boost in fire protection for the old Marion Township area will be recorded on Tuesday, Sept. 15 when the city dedicates its new fire station at Southgate rd and Parsons av.

The $150,000 station, designed by the architectural firm of Brown, Brubaker and Brandt, will be completely staffed and put into operation around Oct. 1.

Present plans call for the city to place three pieces in the installation, including a 750-gallon pump truck and a squad car. A 1,600 gallon tank truck will be shifted to the unit from the station at Lockbourne and Refugee rds.

About 27 men will man the installation in three shifts. These men were sworn in by the city fire department Monday and began a month-long training program.

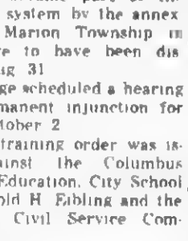
In addition to the new station installation of water lines and hydrants on Marilla and Coltenrds has increased fire protection in the area. Plans are also ready for laying of water lines on Williams rd from High st to Eight st.

Injunction Halts Firing Of Custodians

A temporary injunction restraining the Columbus Board of Education from firing seven maintenance workers at Marion Franklin High School was granted Monday by Common Pleas Judge Joseph M. Harter.

The workers, all of whom were employed by the school before it became part of the Columbus system by the annexation of Marion Township in 1957, were to have been dismissed Aug. 31.

The judge scheduled a hearing on a permanent injunction for 9 a.m. October 2.



The restraining order was issued against the Columbus Board of Education, City School Supt. Harold H. Eibling and the Columbus Civil Service Commission.

The petition pointed out that the seven had been employed by the former Marion Township Board of Education as far back as 1952. Each is a custodial worker.

The action was brought by Henry Crabtree, 61, of 1805 Sudan-av; Walter Fisher, 48, of 216 Stockridge-rd; Mrs. Frances Darst, 59, of 45 Benfield av; Mrs. Treva Sharon, 46, of 1204 Molerd; Harry Beggrow, 60, of 1625 Koebel-rd; Paul Fisher, 46, of 1054 Marion-rd; and Ralph Krumm, 54, of 3354 E. Deshler av.

Attorney Edward T. Roth last week was named by County Prosecutor Earl W. Allison as an assistant prosecutor and assigned to grand jury cases.

Roth, 39, 942 Faculty-dr, served in the prosecutor's office from 1953 to 1957 under former prosecutors Frank Kearns and Samuel L. Devine.

Since 1957 he has been engaged in private law practice at 63 S. High-st.

Board To Ask Levy Renewal

Columbus Board of Education Tuesday decided to seek renewal of the 7.6 mill levy due to expire Dec. 31, 1959, at the polls on Nov. 3.

The levy provides about one third of the board's operating income, and is used to pay salaries and operating expenses.

Dr. Harold Eibling, superintendent, emphasized that, "This is not an additional levy and would not increase the tax rate -we are merely asking people to continue at the same level."

The board has already voted to submit a $29,850,000 bond issue to voters on Nov. 3, to finance its five-year building program.

The problem is based on findings of a survey completed in July which charted the foreseeable building needs for the next five years.

Registration should be completed before the opening of school, Wednesday, Sept. 9, Caskey emphasized.

The school office will be open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. for registration.

Schools Set For Record High Enrollment

NEW STOCKBRIDGE SCHOOL NEARS COMPLETION

FINISHING UP—Workers hurriedly finish tieing together loose-ends for the opening of the new Stockbridge Elementary School Wednesday, Sept. 9. The school, located at 3350 S. Champion-av., will have a capacity of 400 pupils. Construction cost for the new building is $229,938. The Columbus Board of Education awarded contracts for 1250 feet of sanitary sewer at the school Tuesday, with the low bid of $5,117 going to the Southeast Excavating Company. Stockbridge is one of three "bonus" buildings to be erected this year. Besides the new South Side building, Georgian Heights and Pinecrest were not included in the original construction program that was proposed to voters in the 1956 bond-issue campaign. Through he judicious use of bonds, however, all of the proposed projects were realized, and the three additional buildings were made possible.

Seven New Buildings Join System Next Week

By Betty Daft

School doors will swing wide next Wednesday, Sept. 9, to admit an expected enrollment big enough to make the Columbus Public School System the second largest in Ohio.

Total enrollments are estimated to reach nearly 80,000 as compared to 75,884 when the school census was taken last October.

Seven new buildings, to be opened for the first time next Wednesday, bring the total operated by the Columbus Board of Education to 121. In addition, an eight-room annex is being constructed to the old Main Street Elementary School.

School bells will ring for elementary students at 8:45 a.m., with the tardy bell sounding at 9 a.m. Junior and senior highs open at 8:30 with tardy-time set at 8:45.

Pupils will report for half-day sessions Wednesday, with the first full day of school set for Thursday, Sept. 10.

Kindergarten students will not report until Monday, Sept. 14.

EVENING HIGH

Evening High School, operated at Central Hi School building, will register former students Thursday, Sept. 10, 7 to 9 p.m. New students may register Monday, Sept. 14, 7 to 9 p.m.

Classes will begin Tuesday evening, Sept. 15.

Evening Vocational Trade Extension School will accept student registration in Room 1, Central High School, 7 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 16.

Classes will begin the week of Sept. 21.

All youngsters who have moved to Columbus, or changed school districts during the summer, are requested to register at their new buildings before school opens.

Staff members are on duty and will accept registrations at the schools any weekday from 9 a.m. until noon, and from 1 p.m. until 4 p.m.

NEW SCHOOLS

Among the seven new schools added to the Columbus system in Hartley Newspapers' area are Johnson Park Junior High School, 1130 Waverly-av, built at a cost of $1,265,267.75 to house 900 pupils.

Georgian Heights Elementary, 784 Georgian Heights-av, $180,801, 300 students.

Westmoor is the only one of the new group to be finished in all respects. The other six, although not completely finished, will be ready for occupancy and a nearly normal instruction program by next Wednesday.

They will all be completed shortly after school begins.

Georgian Heights, Stockbridge, and Pinecrest Elementaries are "bonus" buildings, not included in the original construction program proposed to voters in the 1956 bond-issue campaign.

Through judicious use of bond funds, all the proposed projects were realized and these additional buildings as well.

New report cards will be used at all grade levels this year, with the chief difference noticed in elementary cards. The

NICKEL DAY AT NORWOOD

Super Round Of Fun In Store For Hartley Newspaper Readers

A super round of fun is in store for those lucky readers of the seven Hartley Newspapers who latch on to this special back-to-school recreation bonanza: Hartley Newspapers' Nickel Day at Norwood's Amusement Park Sept. 12.

On that day, the first Saturday following Labor Day, all 19 scintillating rides at the popular East Side recreation center will be at the service of the more than 70,000 readers of Hartley Newspapers for only a nickel. Rides will operate from 1 to 11 p.m.

The inflation-busting spree is yours, courtesy of the seven Hartley Newspapers — Hilltop Record, West Rural-Urban News, S. E. Rural Urban News, West Side News, South Side Leader, Eastern Review and Reynoldsburg Record.

Now open for its 18th season, Norwood's offers all ages, and all members of the family a series of rides tailor-made to please your enjoyment standards.

Teenagers and adults who'd like to go driving without giving a toot about the endless traffic jams will find Dodgems one of the most popular of Norwood amusements, entirely to their liking. The electrically powered midget cars are equipped with sturdy bumpers so drivers can maneuver around the Dodgem enclosure without fear of dented fenders or injured pride.

Norwood's also features a special selection of rides especially paced for the wee folks, including the familiar carousel, miniature tram, airplane, fire engines, and many similar children's delights.

And best of all, every one will be running for only a nickel during Hartley Nickel Day, Sept. 12 at Norwood's Amusement Park.

NO NEED TO FEAR—Sunday drivers, dented fenders, or injured pride when you man the wheel of the ever-popular Dodgems at Norwood's Amusement Park. The Dodgems and all other rides will be yours for only five cents on Hartley Newspapers' Nickel Day Saturday, Sept. 12.

Moose Women Hear 'Gadabout'

Women of the Moose Chapter 206 will hold the regular meeting Thursday night, Sept. 10. At this meeting it will be the publicity chairmen's chapter night.

The publicity committee assisted by Mrs. Elizabeth See mueller will present as its speaker Mrs. Priscilla LaRue Lenox who writes a column for the South Side Leader called The Gadabout.

Diocese Sets Opening Date For Schools

Parochial elementary schools in the Columbus Diocese will begin their school year Wednesday, Sept. 9, with secondary schools scheduled to open Thursday, Sept. 10, and St. Mary of the Springs Academy on Tuesday, Sept. 8.

An enrollment of 24,883 students has been registered in the diocese's 61 elementary schools for an increase of 1,604 over last year, and 6,195 in high schools. Last year's high school registration was 620 fewer.

St. Cecilia Parish will open the first and second grades of its new elementary school, and St. Philip the Apostle School will admit students in grades one through four this fall.

Principals and teachers will meet Wednesday, Sept. 2 and Thursday, Sept. 3, for further planning.

A school lunch workshop is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, Sept. 11 and 12.

Holiday Brings Early Deadlines

Everyone else gets a day off on Labor Day, so the staff of Hartley Newspapers will also take a one-day vacation next Monday.

Because of this, editorial and picture deadlines for all papers with the exception of the Eastern Review have been advanced one day. All club and organization news for the six other newspapers must be submitted by 12 noon Saturday.

Classified advertising deadlines will remain the same: Tuesday at 10 a.m. for the Rural-Urban News; Tuesday at 12 noon for Hilltop Record, West Side News and South Side Leader, and 12 noon Wednesday for the Eastern Review.

South Changes Mark New Year

H. D. Swain, principal of South High School, looked forward to the opening of the new school year next Wednesday as a time "to begin again."

"Each new school year provides us an opportunity to begin anew," the graying principal stated, "and we look forward to it for just that reason."

Lounging behind his desk following a full day's work planning schedules and dictating reports, Swain looked ahead to the coming year by outlining changes in the South High teaching staff and the school's curriculum.

"We're going to add in the neighborhood of 500 new students to the school this year," he stated. "This will give us a teacher-pupil ratio of about 30 to 1. Although not an ideal ratio, we feel our 58 teachers will continue to up-grade the educational standards of South Side students in the manner they deserve."

Swain said the school's enrollment this year will total "about 1500."

Three new teachers have been added to the South staff this year to replace a trio of educators who have left since last June.

Mrs. Charlotte Swisher, English; Eugene Pierce, science, and William Wilt, speech and drama, will replace William Gosnell, who transferred to Central; John Keller, who recently has gone on active duty with the Air Force, and Don Phillips, who accepted a position at Ohio State University.

Of utmost importance in the coming year, according to Swain, will be the indoctrination of the school's new educational television classes and "special" grouping by section classes.

Last year South slated homogeneous groupings in tenth and eleventh grade English and history classes.

This year the school's entire curriculum will be grouped in much the same way by "taking the upper 10 or 15 per cent and putting them in one class, taking the lower 10 or 15 per cent and putting them in another, and finally taking the remain-

SSBIA Auction Nets Largest Amount Ever

Joe Ronson, secretary of the South Side Business and Industrial Association, announced this week that the organization's recent auction netted the largest amount yet in the history of the sale. Many thanks were expressed to both donors and buyers for participating in the annual money raising affair of the association.

At Tuesday night's meeting of the association, the group agreed to once again sponsor a local football team. The team will participate in a new league this year, comprised of many larger teams which promise to form the nucleus of a better all around league.

BIBLE COMMENT

Bible Holds Many Books Of Religion

There is great value in recognizing that the Bible has great passages, outstanding in interest and in moral and spiritual value, and in the effect that they have had on human life and conduct.

One of the most serious errors in reading the Bible is to treat it as if it were all one book. The conception of the Bible as the source of religious authority, as the voice of God speaking to man, verbally inspired, and uniform in every part, has led to citing of texts with little reference to their context or original reference.

But the worst aspect of this error was that it obscured the plain statement of the Bible itself. For the Christians, the life and words of Jesus have an authority beyond all else.

There are highlights of truth and authority in the Bible, a book of many books, coming out of various circumstances and conditions over a period of hundreds of years of time, that are not found in some other portions of the many books.

This does not mean that other portions of the Bible are lacking in authority and truth. But it does mean that many portions of the Bible are to be read and understood in relation to their own time.

The Bible in its many books is never so great, so interesting, and so rewarding as when we read it in the light of what it is.

Public Peek At Holly Hill Set Sunday

Six model homes at Holly Hill, a development of the Ernest G. Fritsche Co., will open to the public Sunday afternoon.

Located at the site of the former Sullivant Avenue Airport, the new planned community was officially opened in a ribbon cutting ceremony Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Michael V. DiSalle, wife of the governor.

The model home area is laid out in a landscaped plaza, with paved walks running from home to home. Entrance to the area is under a huge marque, carrying out the builder's theme "Theater of Living."

All model homes are completely furnished and range in style from a basementless home to a "split level." All other ranch styles are with full basement, and many have attached garage or carport. Prices start at $13,800.

New Lowe Bros. Store Offers Latest In Paints

A new store, complete with new manager and new products has highlighted a section of the central portion of the Great Southern Shopping Center the past three and one half months, giving customers the finest in modern paint supplies.

The new Lowe Brothers Store, opened May 15, relies on its manager, Forest Knight, to make its name known in the huge shoppers mart.

Knight, who resides with his wife and three children at 2657 Azelda-av, has been associated with Lowe Brothers since 1957. Prior to coming with the paint firm he was employed with North American.

A native of Columbus, Knight was born in Avon Lake but came to Columbus with his parents when only a year old.

He attended Mifflin High where he met his wife, Denise. Married 11 years, they now have three children, Karen, 8, Gary, 6, and Jeff, 2.

The personable manager rates High Standard genuine Shingle N Shake exterior paint as the store's leading seller, with Mello-Tone and Mello-Gloss placing close second and third.

Knight added that the store also carries a complete line of art supplies, wallpaper and unfinished furniture, along with such floor finishes as tile, wax, etc.

"I like it here," Knight concluded. "The hours (10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 to 9 on Saturday) aren't bad, and the working conditions are perfect. Especially since the new air conditioning unit was put in a few weeks ago."

Food Markets This Week by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Meats and Poultry—Pork loins, bacon, chuck roasts, fryers, medium eggs.

Fruits—Melons, apples, peaches, grapes, bananas.

MORE PORK IN AUTUMN MONTHS

What's ahead at the meat counter? Marketing specialists say you will find slightly greater supplies of meat available the remainder of this year. Pork will provide most of the increase. Some increases are expected in beef and lamb, too. This situation may mean a little break for you at the cash register.

Pork prices have already dropped some and will probably decline seasonally this fall. Hog production is on the upswing. Twelve per cent more pigs were saved this spring than in the spring of 1958, and producers intend to increase farrowings again this fall. Consequently, pork supplies will increase further and pork will probably be a "good buy" for at least the next 12 months.

Beef—While beef supplies are running about the same, or maybe a little greater than last year, population increases are such that there is actually about the same amount of beef per person. Marketing experts say production of higher grades of beef will continue somewhat above last year. In other words, the proportion of better quality beef in retail counters will be higher.

Veal supplies may be even lower since farmers are holding young stock back for further feeding and to add to breeding herds.

Supplies of lamb, on the other hand, will probably run ahead of a year ago for the next few months. You'll likely buy lamb, during the next few months, for less than you paid for spring lamb in May.

LOCAL FRUITS, VEGETABLES

Recent hot, dry weather conditions have brought about an uncertainty as to current and near future supplies of fresh local grown produce. This we know—harvest dates are earlier and quality, generally, is variable.

Quality of peaches will likely be quite variable with poor peaches very seasonably priced, but good quality ones at a premium. So you will need to buy carefully, especially those you freeze or can. Look for peaches that are fairly firm with background color cream-white to yellow.

There are plenty of tomatoes available for canning and juice making. There'll be plenty of sweet corn until frost. Quality is varied as are prices. You can expect to find yellow spots (sunburn) on many tomatoes, caused by the intense heat.

Telephone Vets' Barbecue Set Sept. 13 At Oak Park

Member of the Columbus Council of Kingsbury Chapter of the Telephone Pioneers of America, their families and friends, will gather at 2 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 13 at Oak Park on Sunbury-rd, for a chicken barbecue.

General chairman is Merle H. Dennis, staff supervisor in the plant department of Ohio Bell Telephone Company's southwest area. Dennis said a program of round and square dancing, activities for children and prizes is being arranged.

The Pioneers is an ogranization of veterans of more than 21 years of service in the telephone industry. Kingsbury chapter includes members in all areas of Ohio served by Bell System operating organizations. The Columbus council includes members in this area in these operating organizations: American Telephone and Telegraph Company, Western Electric Company, Bell Laboratories and Ohio Bell.

Columbus Council has a membership of 880 among employes of the four Bell System operating organizations in Columbus. Dennis said his committee expects an attendance of about 250 at the Sept. 13 event.

Thomas W. Phalin, 2545 Dorset-rd, is the new president of the Columbus Council. Vice president is Roy J. Miller, 230 Binns-blvd. Miss Ann Louise Griffin, 866 Bryden-rd, is secretary.

Beulah Park Races Start On Saturday

Beulah Park's fall meeting of 35 days is all set for the opening on Saturday, Sept. 5 with Robert Y. Dienst serving as president and general manager.

His father, Robert J. Dienst, who had served in these capacities since 1937, died suddenly a few days ago. The son immediately announced that operation of Beulah Park would continue along the same lines followed for many years by his father.

All indications point to another fine session. More than 700 stalls have already been assigned and it appears that the jockey colony will be one of the best in recent seasons. Action is scheduled to start at 2 p.m. on Saturdays and holidays with a 2:15 opening slated on weekdays. There will be nine races on the daily programs.

Highlight of the meeting, as usual, will be the 15th running of the Ohio Championship, with $10,000 in added money. This mile and a sixteenth test will be offered on Saturday, Oct. 3, closing day of the meeting. Nominations for the race will close two weeks earlier, on Saturday, Sept. 19.

Cancer Ray Schedules Session September 9

Wells H. Teachnor Cancer Ray will meet at noon Sept. 9, at the home of Kathleen Greer, 609 Binns-blvd. Those attending are requested to bring a box lunch.

Hostesses are Margarite Martins and Bartell Kanuth.

Plans are to be made for the St. John's Lutheran Church Congregational dinner to be catered by the Ray on Oct. 18.

Browns' Milt Plum Still Rates No. 1

The who's who in the Cleveland Browns' training camp this summer lists three men in the coveted quarterback category—Milt Plum, Jim Ninowski and Bob Ptacek.

With the six-game exhibition season now half over Coach Paul Brown still lists the first string job up for grabs.

Plum, last season's regular, found himself sitting the bench much of the first six weeks of camp while Ninowski, sophomore from Michigan State, attempted to guide the team.

Ptacek, a Berea (O.) and Michigan standout, has been moved to the defensive backfield where Brown feels he has a better chance of helping the team.

Ninowski failed to live up to expectations during the Brown's three losses to Pittsburgh, Detroit and San Francisco. Although considered less mobile than Plum, the strong-armed Michigan native was considered a better passer.

Since the retirement of the fabulous Otto Graham four years ago, Coach Paul and other football "experts" have attempted to find the cool, long-throwing type of quarterback that could match Otto's many feats.

Unfortunately, an Otto Graham, Sammy Baugh or Sid Luckman does not come along every year.

Since Graham's retirement, Brown has faulted all the great man's successors. In 1956 George Ratterman was not mobile enough and Babe Parelli lacked confidence. In '57 Tommy O'Connell, despite the fact that he led his team to the crown, was considered too small, injury prone and not fast enough to rank as a "good" Brownie quarterback.

Last year, Plum sparked the team with his versatility to a divisional tie with the New York Giants. A bad game in the playoff and a couple of sub-par performances during one regular season caused concern among the Brown's brass that Milt could not be counted on as a steady performer this year.

Ninowski was handed the job this season, but apparently has left much to be desired. Now, once again, Plum has re-inherited the job.

In fairness to the likeable ex-Penn State star it must be pointed out that Plum was second in the NFL last year in passing, had the third highest percentage in completions and was second only to Tobin Rote of Detroit in yards gained running by a quarterback.

In 1957, Plum's rookie year, he took over for the injured O'Connell during the last three games of the season and helped spark the club to the divisional crown. So impressive was his performance that he even shared the quarterback job with O'Connell during the team's championship game with Detroit.

Bobby Layne, former Detroit ace now with the Pittsburgh Steelers, is generally considered the top quarterback in the league's Eastern Division, and second only to John Unitas in both divisions.

Yet Layne has been known to have off games and even off years, as witness the Lions' showing in 1956. The point also must be made that it took Layne nearly four years before he became a regular in the NFL. During that time he floundered with the Chicago Bears and now defunct New York Bulldogs before finally sticking with the Lions.

This corner cannot fault Plum because the Browns lost the playoff to the Giants last December or because he doesn't fit the mold created for Brownie quarterbacks by Otto Graham.

The 24-year-old flinger's record speaks for itself. On it, it would seem Plum deserves the right to be classified as the Browns' No. 1 man. No. 1, at least, until someone can take it away from him.

Plum has never been known to lack confidence, but one wouldn't be surprised if he did when he arrived in Hiram six weeks ago to find he had been demoted to No. 2 man after helping lead his team to one divisional title and a tie for another in his two years as a pro.

Ninowski may yet become the Browns' top gun, but until that time, Plum still rates No. 1 in our book.

Little League Makes The Grade By Way Of Adult Supervision

Baseball's old timers, suffering from high humidity and abundant old aches, will take something from the game when they go. The Stan Musials, Ted Williams', etc., will be missed. They are fiery, competitive gentlemen who do many things excitingly well.

There can be only one pleasant thought on the matter: there's plenty of room at the top for the youngsters, plenty of room in the scrap books for new records, a lot of games ahead, and Gus B. Pfan's season-ed baseball eye will follow many a boy from sandlot to stardom.

A small, budding part of baseball's future transpired last Saturday afternoon down at Marion-Franklin's Red Devil Field.

The Southern Independent Little League climaxed five-year development program by fielding two teams of all-stars drawn from the regular season eight-team league.

Perspiring mothers and dads, well adjusted to unpredictable victory and defeat—but not to junior's miscues—capped a seven-game season with renewed vigor on behalf of individual stardom. They were rewarded.

Base hits rang soundly all over the place, strike-outs were logged by a series of good pitchers (the dreadful heat took a toll), and fielding gems sparkled at exciting moments; there were cut-off plays on attempted double steals, smart back-ups of over thrown balls, nice out-field play and some infield finesing of attempted drag bunts.

Southern Independent takes its place alongside other good adult-supervised organized vacation play. It's educative, too. The boys are becoming accomplished ball players.

League champs were the Splashers from Crystal Pool. They've won two years in a row. Runner-ups were the Milo Roc Recreation team coached by George Bobst.

The Splashers were once again helped by veteran pitcher Fritz Eckert, who throws no-hitters and does other things well. He struck out 86 and walked only 10 this year in seven games. Coaches were Dick Nicely and Charles Eckert.

The Milo Roc's compiled a respectable 6-1 record with a well-balanced club. Marc Miller, a lefty, helped his, the Deweese Cleaners, team to a 5-2 season with 74 strike-outs and 20 walks. Marc's dad, Harold Miller coached.

Other teams were the Little Vets from Post 25 VFW, the Tops, coached by Sheldon Johnson, The Yankees, coached by Ray Vanover; the Hawks, coached by Bob Miller; and Pipers, coached by Roger Chester.

The coaches, and league organizers, Nisely, Miller and Eckert, already are pointing and planning to next year.

This year, they dressed eight teams with uniforms—made possible by solicitation of local businesses, euchre parties and scrap drives. Next year they hope to start an "umpires and coaches school."

Boys who become too old for Little League eligibility, will be enrolled for a month-long training program, that will increase their knowledge of the game and fit them for junior high school teams, and eventually—?

There's always room at the top. And, as Columbus' favorite Hank Gowdy reminded some of the boys this week: "Play hard . . . all of the time . . . the best you can . . . at whatever you do."

It takes technical know how, practice, experience in game conditions, and criteria furnished by batting averages, competition, league standings, and all star team rosters to help the way.

The kids are coming.

The Cleveland Indians entered the Am. League in 1901.

PLATES FIRST RUN

Kellys Down Dons 12-10 In Playoff

Kellys Inn downed the tough Dons Inn 12-10 last Saturday at Southwood Field in the playoff game of the Slo Pitch Independent League last Saturday, thereby qualifying to meet Old Landmark Cafe for the league championship Sept. 12.

Dick Kelly led the victors' attack by banging out five straight hits, including a home run, two doubles and two singles. Jim Moore went four for five and Ray Barry went three for five to aid in the attack.

SLATE CLASSES

The Hearing and Speech Center of Columbus, 209 S. High-st, is now forming both daytime and evening classes for adults with stuttering problems. Applications should be filed with the center.

Stanley Downs Redman In Bloody Grudge Match

Friday night saw Chuck Stanley defeat Glenn Redman in their grudge Texas Death Match with a sleeper hold in 35 minutes. Both boys were covered with blood and the bout was rough and tough.

Also both boys suffered head lacerations.

Poncho Via made a big hit with the fans when he defeated Jack Blondie, Lamont with an abdominal stretch in 15.39. Also Sunny Boy Hiles defeated Chest Brennemen, 20:10.

In the tag team it was very rough and rugged and the team of Lamont and Brenneman defeated the team of Hiles and Via.

Saturday night Ralph Whaley came in to defeat Sunny Boy Karnes in 8:04. Tiny Bill McDonald, 260 pounds, defeated Jerry Reed with an Argentine back-breaker. It was Reed's second defeat in all of his pro wrestling history.

In the ten round boxing match the west side, Wonder Jim Westenberger won by a TKO in the sixth round as his opponent Wayne Powers threw in the towel and was unable to continue.

Gorgeous George Birchem, who was scheduled to fight Westenberger, did not appear. Judges had it a draw until the sixth.

In the tag match Reed and Karnes were the happy victors when the Referee disqualified Whaley and McDonald for the third fall.

Friday night's action will bring the Negro Hercules Larry Daniels against Bill McDonald.

What may be one of the greatest wrestling exhibitions in some time in these parts will match Ray Fleetfoot and the well liked Sunny Boy Hiles.

The popular Mexican Poncho Via vs. Chest Brenneman.

There will be a four-man tag team also.

Saturday night will be a night for the debut of three young talented professional wrestlers. Little Country Boy Westfall, weighing 265 pounds will meet Poncho Villa. The young boy from Obetz, Jim Geedy, will take on Ralph Tiger Whaley.

Also the jumping jack, Lowell Palm vs. Chest Brenneman. And there will be a four-man tag match.

Bob Butler Sets Track QM Record

Bobby Butler, 12-year-old East Side boy, set a new track record Sunday at the weekly Capital City Quarter Midget races, as he won all three heat events and the feature race.

The association managed to run six of their usual 10 events in spite of the rainy weather. The wet track gave some of the drivers trouble in getting traction but seemed no problem at all to Butler as he wheeled his blue No. 94 over the finish line each time.

Sunday's results:

First Heat — Bobby Butler, Dennis Browning, Lenny Waldo.

First Semi — Bobby Butler, Dennis Browning, Johnny Jones.

Novice — Kay Hardy, Johnny Bailey.

Consolation — Bobby Butler, Johnny Jones, Marvin Barker.

Feature — Bobby Butler, Kay Hardy, Johnny Jones.

Races will again be held Sunday and Labor Day at 2 p.m. at the Capitol City Q.M. track at Jones Park, 3800 Groveport-pk.

South Side YMCA Forms Two Leagues

The South Side "Y" in cooperation with the Schiller Park Staff has organized and in operation two adult Inter Church Horseshoe Leagues at the Schiller Courts on Monday and Tuesday nights.

Robert Birmingham of South Methodist is serving as president of the league with Gilbert Lewis of Southwood Church of Christ filling in the post of secretary. Kenny George, John Wine and Ed Daily are members of the rules committee. Howard Henry, of the South Side "Y" Staff is serving in an advisory capacity.

Present plans call for one round of play with a tournament and, or league roundup tentatively scheduled.

The 1954 Cleveland Indians set a new American League record by winning 111 of their 154 games.

Twigs Open New Local Thrift Shop

The Children's Hospital Thrift Shop Board Tuesday opened its second Thrift Shop at 1814 S. Parsons-av.

Proceeds will go to the Children's Hospital.

The chairman of the Thrift Shop Board is Catherine Chambers Woodward who lived in the south end of Columbus for many years.

The Thrift Shop Board functions under the Twig Executive Board headed by Mrs. Charles Copeland.

The board opened the second shop to provide additional funds for the ever increasing needs at the hospital and to provide more funds for the new wing which will be opened early in 1960.

The new South Side location will offer for sale all types of used clothing for men, women and children. Also all types of household articles, bedding, dishes, lamps, furniture.

All merchandise in the shop is donated by Twig members and friends of the hospital. All sales personnel are volunteer Twig members.

The manager of the new shop will be Mrs. William Zitzke, 619 Obetz-rd. Mrs. Zitzke has had many years experience as assistant manager of the shop on S. Fourth-st.

The shop will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. every day.

Tubby Tyler says he's afraid to go on a diet as he'll have to tighten his belt or lose his pants.

The Gadabout

Priscilla LaRue Lenox

HI. 4-1051

In typical "Ida Lachowsky" style, the postal received from her shows no pretty scenery, just the appropriate animal saying "Greetings from one skunk to another!"

The vacationing resident of 766 Gilbert-st is apparently eating her way through Arkansas, for she reports she bought a 50-lb. watermelon for a dime!

Two other postals, scenery type, tell us that Ray and Margie Speakmon, 830 S. 3rd-st, were in Arizona and heading for Las Vegas. We don't know how far west our South Side friends were planning to go.

Our third card came from a young lady with beautiful brown eyes. Diane Schodorf, 284 Sheldon-av. Her postal had a beautiful scene of Sarasota, Fla., the kind of picture that makes you want to start travelling!

"Meetin" time again . . . . why not ask the publicity chairman of your group to send the year's schedule to ye Gadabout? Your meeting will thus be publicized with no further effort on the chairman's part. Several groups do it in this manner . . we appreciate having the news and they're happy too.

Publicity chairman for Trudean Guild 10 tells us that group will meet Wednesday, Sept. 9, at 8 p.m. at 68 E. Welch-av, home of Fran Paulus.

The workers for Ben Franklin Hospital are gathering rummage for a rummage sale, Sept. 23. Anyone wishing to donate to the group may call Marge Hoptry, HI. 3-6415; Mary Eichel, HI. 3-3423 or Dona Hampton, HI. 3-2716.

Mrs. Hogan, 139 Mithoff-st, has been a patient at Mercy Hospital, but should be home by now. Another ailing Southsider, Mrs. Jerry Chattos is hospitalized at Mt. Carmel, room 213. Her home address is 1613 S. 8th-st. Mrs. Vesta Brown, 552 Southwood-av, is in Doctor's Hospital, room 201 S. W.

NEW ADDRESS

Another Brown, Roger, also of 552 Southwood, has a new mailing address these days. He would love to hear from his friends and neighbors, we're sure. Send the correspondence to Pvt. Roger Brown, 1635813, Plt. 153, B. Co. 1st Rec. Trn. Bn., M.C.R.D., Parris Island, N. C.

Another lad in service, Jack Cooper, is now in California, after spending his furlough in Columbus. He will start a tour of duty in the Far East in the near future.

School starting and a birthday . . . how much more exciting can life get? That's the prospect for these youngsters . . . Dianna Blakeman, 395 Welch-av, Sept. 3; Robert Henry, 343 Welch-av, Sept. 3; Debra Dailey, 1732 Bruck-st, Sept. 6; Raymond Jordan, 66 Reeb-av, Sept. 7; Stephen Fejes, 269 Markison-av, Sept. 8; George Shively, 1752 S. 6th-st, Sept. 4; Robert Hoderfield, 263 E. Jenkins, Sept. 5.

GUILD MEETS

Trudeau Guild 12 will meet Tuesday, Sept. 8, at 9:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Paul Barton, 341 Innis-av.

Tho we never got to know Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nader, 970 Wilson-av real well, we knew three of their five chidren through school, etc. so it is with a special warmness that we wish them "the best" for their 50th wedding anniversary, recently celebrated.

A family dinner at Blacklick Woods included the five children and 17 grandchildren. An open house the next day, Aug. 23, took place at the family homestead, where they have resided for 42 of their 50 years together.

The Friendly Page Hobby Club will be holding a rummage sale this Saturday, Sept. 5, from 7 a.m. on, at the St. Stephen's Community House, 379 Barthman-av. Profits from the sale will be used to furnish Christmas boxes for shut-ins. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lemmon are the ways and means chairmen.

As we promised Mrs. Gleich, the secretary of the group, here is the reminder about the Ladies Swanette Bowling League that gets under way Thursday, Sept. 3 at 1 p.m. All interested bowlerettes should contact Thelma Gleich, at HI. 4-0054.

It used to be possible to send birthday wishes to Edna Ann Baughman at 1575 S. 6th-st, where her folks still reside. Now, since she's Mrs. Walter Smith, they have to go a little further!! The young newly-weds resides in Bradbury, O. Another recipient of natal greetings is Gerry Ross, 746 Thurman-av, for her Sept. 4 birthday.

WEDDING HOSTESS

Mrs. Ray Cooper, 2296 Summit-st, was the hostess for a wedding shower on Thursday, Aug. 27 for Mrs. Robert Wilson. Mrs. Wilson, the former Judy Purcell, is now a resident of 417½ Deshler-av.

About 40 people attended the La Rue family reunion in Pa. on Aug. 23. The Columbus contingent included Frank, Jean and Bryon La Rue, Gasper LaRue and the Lenox section of the family.

The Columbusites were saddened to learn that the "original" Frank LaRue was again hospitalized for a recurrence of a malignancy. Ye Gadabout has really been "gadding" this summer, no doubt about it!

A young friend, Joan Crabtree, asked us to use this media to help her high school-age bowling team to perhaps acquire a sponsor. Any interested person should contact Joan at HI. 4-7914.

We don't know the outcome of the tests taken by Tillie Houghton, but we do know she has been in Grant Hospital. Should she be obliged to stay longer, we hope to pass along the news to her friends and neighbors. Mrs. Houghton's home is at 515 Welch-av.

PVA MEETS

The PVA of Orient State Institute will meet Sunday, Sept. 6 to lay plans for their fall and winter fund raising.

A week-long honeymoon spent in the eastern section of the country followed the Aug. 29 wedding of Beverly Sabine, 1343 S. 3rd-st, and Joseph Daroczy, formerly of Budapest, Hungary. The marriage took place at St. Paul's E. and R. Church.

Two coming projects will highlight the business portion of Trudeau Guild 10's Sept. 9 meeting, to be held in the home of Mrs. William Paulus, 68 E. Welch-av, at 8 p.m. A rummage sale, the unit's own project, will be held on Sept. 23.

The Kickoff Dance which will be held on Sept. 25, at Valley Dale, is a co-operative endeavor of most of the Trudeau Guild units.

In charge of the rummage sale are Mrs. William Hoptry, 280 Southwood-av, and Mrs. Harold Eichel, 1341 S. 3rd-st. Any person desiring to donate rummage for the sale may do so by contacting Mrs. Hoptry at HI. 3-6415, Mrs. Eichel at HI. 3-3423 or Mrs. Hampton, unit chairman, at HI. 3-2716, for pick-up of the donation. All profits of Trudeau Guild projects go to patients of the Benjamin Franklin Tuberculosis Hospital.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. George Hart, 625 Reinhard-av, son, Aug. 23, at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gearheart, 458 S. Champion-av, daughter, Aug. 23, at Mercy Hospital.

Gals Invade Man's World Of Collecting Live Bait

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

"Some of these nightcrawlers will make the round trip from Canada to Columbus and back before they wind up on a fisherman's hook," Mrs. William Krack, 262 N. Central-av, told me as she showed a double handful of squirming worms.

"Mom" Krack operates most of the business at Bill's Baits, a bait store located in back of her home. Her husband Bill is not physically able to conduct the business, and the vendor's license is in "Mom" Krack's name. This makes her probably the only grandmother in the state running a bait store—she has three children and 16 grandchildren.

This is not the only unusual feature of the store—a daughter-in-law, Gail Krack, Lewis Center, helps collect bait at times. A cousin, Viola Werner, 862 Stimpfle-av, has also collected bait and can be found almost daily working in the store peeling out soft craws, counting nightcrawlers and the like.

The most unlikely job in the world for a girl would be sorting out and boxing a dozen hellgrammites, but you can see it every day at Bill's Baits—it's all live, no film. Here are three women who reach in tanks after minnows, soft craws or hellgrammites as casually as most gals put their hands in dishwater.

The situation at Bill's Baits is a case where women have invaded a man's world and have done a good job of it. Fishermen do not mind buying bait from women, and, in fact, find it enough of a novelty to keep coming back.

Bait Called Bargain

Bill Krack started in the bait business nine years ago at the corner of Central and W. Broad. In 1953 he moved the store to the rear of his house, and has been there ever since. With his experience in the business he has some interesting observations about supplying bait to fishermen. He believes that anglers get a bargain when they buy live bait. Nightcrawlers sold for 20 cents a dozen more than 20 years ago and today the going price is 25 to 30 cents. Bill feels that bait prices are lagging in the inflation race. "This is why some bait dealers are having a tough time right now," Krack stated.

Another comment: fishermen "stampede" to bait stores to buy THE bait, and it is usually something new every year. This year artificial nightcrawlers are "hot." It appears that fish find them as irresistible as fishermen, for they have produced some fine stringers of bass and catfish. "Even though fads come and go in the artificial department, there will be a market for live bait as long as fishermen go fishing," Bill added.

Getting back to the nightcrawlers that come to Ohio for a visit, "Mom" Krack explained that they buy their worms at this time of year from wholesalers who get them in Canada. Then, many fishermen vacationing in Canada buy nightcrawlers here and take them north. There are few retail bait outlets in Canada even though the source of supply is nearby. It is difficult for anglers to purchase small quantities of bait in most of the north country where fishing is good. The Kracks buy their nightcrawlers from a man who imports half a million 'crawlers at a time.

In the spring when nightcrawlers are easiest to catch in this area, they buy a lot of worms from neighborhood youngsters. All in all Bill said they buy bait from 15 to 18 different collectors in the course of the year. The vast majority of minnows, hellgrammites and soft craws come from "bait pickers" who collect bait seasonally as a profession. Some propagated minnows, however, are purchased in the spring during crappie fishing time.

Collect For Fun Of It

The women collectors go bait picking more for the fun involved than anything else. Tramping around streams, seining minnows and picking craws at night would be far from sport for most gals, but squirming, wiggling "things" hold no fear for the Krack women.

Bill Krack recently returned from Hot Springs, Ark., where he took the baths and did some fishing at two favorite lakes of mine. He fished Hamilton Lake and caught some big bass and went over to Ouachita for a couple of days and fished out of Spillway Landing, which is operated by my friend John Bono. The fishing in this area is little short of fabulous, according to Bill, and I can certainly vouch for the fine sport to be had there.

In a mechanical age the bait business is still a hand-labor operation. A lot of money has been spent in trying to mass-produce live bait—artificially producing soft craws and the like. Bill Krack claims there is no known way of propagating night-crawlers. Earthworms can be raised but they are in short supply right now. Live bait is still regulated by nature, and it may always be so. But it's a fascinating business and one that is vital to fishing—if you want to know more about it, stop in and chat with the gals at Bill's Baits.

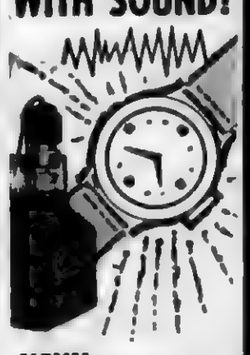
Autumn Signs Showing Up At Parks

Park goers are reporting splotches of red and yellow showing up in the foliage at the Columbus Metropolitan Parks. Poison ivy, that scourge of summertime fun, is turning a rich crimson color. Flowering dogwood is starting to turn pink. Once in a while an acorn will plunk down on the forest floor.

Autumn is an exciting time, when pawpaws ripen, and when purple ironweeds and bright yellow goldenrods are in full bloom. Many people in this area watch the march of the seasons in Blendon Woods and Blacklick Parks.

Grapevine is Slow

The fishing grapevine apparently slows down about this time of year—we've just received word from Bill Bose at Clendenning Lake that Jack Artrip, 50 W. California, tangled with a nice catfish there. The "cat" weighed 8½ pounds, according to Bose.



Western Campers Return

Perhaps typical of the growing army of campers are the Art Cunninghams of 75 Darby-dr. With a tent trailer, new this year, the Cunninghams tackled a two-week camping vacation that took them 5,000 miles. Three days were spent at Yellowstone Park, and two days each at Grand Teton, Colorado Springs (Pike's Peak) and the Black Hills. No trouble was encountered on this "new" type of vacation. The camping area at the east gate of Yellowstone was full when the Cunninghams arrived, so they had to drive about 60 miles to the north gate. There was camping space available at all other parks where they stopped.

South Side Trio Admits Thefts

Three South Side teenagers who admitted numerous burglaries and auto thefts were sentenced to Mansfield Reformatory last week in juvenile court by Referee Marion Sher-

Court Probation Officer Jack Bader said the sentencing will be reviewed before the youths are taken to Mansfield.

The trio had all previously served time at the Boys' Indus-

Poll—

av and Hague-av bordered by Valleyview and Sullivant-av.

In addition to these areas, a strong Westlake movement is noted in the recently annexed Marion Township area which will figure in the voting for mayor the first time this fall.

Sensenbrenner's only gain seems to be in the usually Republican 20th ward on the North Side. This includes the area between Arcadia-av and Acton-rd running inside of Calumet-av and the Olentangy River in Clintonville.

In order to win this November, it is generally conceded that Sensenbrenner will have to capture a fair block of Republican votes. This he does not appear to be doing. Here's how those professing to be Republicans have cast their votes thus far:

Westlake	61.3%
Sensenbrenner	11.8%
Undecided	26.9%
Total	100 %

On the other hand, Westlake appears to have made a sizeable inroad on the Democratic vote:

Sensenbrenner	51.6%
Westlake	25.2%
Undecided	23.2%
Total	100 %

The independents also give Westlake more than a 2-1 edge although there is a high percentage of undecided votes:

Westlake	42.0%
Sensenbrenner	20.6%
Undecided	37.4%
Total	100 %

SUMMING IT UP — There has been only a slight change in the poll figures since the survey was begun five weeks ago. This seems only right. Neither candidate has made an all-out effort to capture votes. City Council has been adjourned and things are generally quiet on the political scene. It appears that if Sensenbrenner is going to win, he must soon launch a strong re-election campaign. Whether Westlake will campaign or try to quietly slip in also remains to be seen. Remember, there are still more than enough undecided votes to swing the balloting either way.

West Winds Vocalize

TEACHERS' MEETINGS SET

Teachers' convocation will be held Tuesday, Sept. 8 at Veterans Memorial Building at 10 a.m. Dr. Harold Eibling, superintendent, will speak.

Teachers will report to their respective schools at 1 p.m. for faculty meetings and completion of plans to receive the pupils.

"Classes," according to Swain, "will be put back to back. In other words, all three sections will have their same classes at the same time. If a student in the upper class is having difficulty, it won't be any problem to reschedule him in the 'average' class, and vice versa."

The personable principal stated that South will be among the four city schools to also add a new course—General Science II. The course is intended to be an advanced science subject, taking the place in the schedule for students who have no desire to go on to chemistry and physics

Swain said the new science course will be offered to students who have previously had credit for one year of general science and biology.

"I'll be happy to get back," the principal concluded. "We're all hoping to provide the educational opportunities that our boys and girls need. It'll be an interesting year."

Fishing Derby Members Catch Party, Prizes

The second annual Fishing Derby at Schiller Park was concluded last Thursday night when the prizes for tagged fish caught were awarded. The South East Lions Club treated the club members to a party and made awards along with the drawing of the name for the grand prize winner who was given a Schwinn Bicycle.

Prizes consisting of fly rod, reel and line were awarded to Ray Henderson, Jim Yates and Ray Anderson for catching tagged fish. Jerry Holbrook was the lucky boy receiving the bicycle and 40 other boys and girls were the winners of many other prizes such as fishing tackle, flashlights, footballs, basketballs, baseball bats and giant size model airplane kits.

Smiley the clown and his helper "Junior" drew the prize winning names from the hopper, and "Sergeant Garcia" the big Channel Catfish, with a prize of $10.00 on his tag, is still swimming merrily about in the lake.

KINDERGARTEN BOUND

THE LAST GOOD-BYE—Little Linda Venrick, 362 Siebert-st, gives a hesitant good-bye wave to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Venrick, before joining some 30,000 Columbus youths in the first day of school Wednesday. The experience was unique for Linda though, as yesterday marked her first trip to kindergarten classes at Siebert Elementary School—an experience she'll never forget.

CSSO To Hold Election Tonight

$50 A Plate Dinner Sparks Fund Drive

The spiritual enthusiasm of persons who closely work with the Diocesan Child Guidance Center's program for emotionally disturbed youngsters is being matched this week by the lucky holders of "400 Club" tickets.

An ticipation is being sparked by chances of winning a $5000 car and mink stole, and lesser prizes, and also the exceptional company at the dinner party at Scioto Country Club.

The date is September 11. "400 Club" members are those persons who will pay $50 a plate for the chances and opportunities, and thus give the Guidance Center (1) an important financial boost in its efforts to help children, and (2) an important push in its program to utilize Hill Burton Funds (a hospital building loan fund sponsored by the government).

The Diocesan Child Guidance Center hopes to build soon by matching two-thirds total cost of the Hill Burton fund one-third, which cannot be used to buy land. The expected $20,000 realized next week from the party fun will have a place in the budget.

The car and coat will take half, the rest goes to the program of guidance and building.

The Diocesan Child Guidance Center, 1000 Bryden-rd, is the selfless dedication of Sister Francoise; is directed by Magrs. Lawrence Corcoran, Kappes and Applegate, and lay persons from representative Columbus professions.

It is given valuable assistance from the city's "Guides," 300 women belonging to 30 groups who work on behalf of fund raising and similar objectives.

The Center's work is professional medical, psychological, and social assistance to youngsters (and parents of the youngsters) whose problems have attracted school or court authorities. Both parochial and public schools can refer disturbed youngsters. The Center also tests babies referred for adoption from St. Ann's Hospital. Parents can also voluntarily seek help.

The unique $50 tickets can be obtained from Norman Altman, Jr., Altman-Coady Contractors, Fairwood-av. A Champagne Hour will precede the dinner. Holders of winning tickets, who already have two big cars, will be given a less inconvenient award; so too, those with small closets.

AN EVENTUAL YEAR—Howard Henry, president of the Council of South Side Organizations, sits behind his desk at the South Side YMCA going over last minute plans for the council's annual chicken and corn dinner and election slated for 6:30 tonight at the Optimist Lodge in the South Side "Y" Park. Harry will turn his gavel over to either W. W. Neno or Michael Lower, the council's two presidential candidates, following the election.

City Officials Hosted At Chicken-Corn Dinner

Columbus' two November mayoralty candidates, plus a list of 20 other top city officials will flock to the Optimist Lodge at the South Side "Y" Park tonight as guests to the annual Council of South Side Organizations' Chicken and Corn Dinner and election.

Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner and his election opponent, W. Ralston Westlake, will head the list of city officials at the council's opening meeting of the fall season.

Slated to start at 6:30 p.m., the program will begin with an invocation and will be followed by the dinner, election, introduction of guests, presentation of special awards, election results, installation of new officers and the annual CSSO president's report.

Highlight of the evening will be the election of new officers.

Those selected by the council's nominating committee to head the CSSO for the 1959-60 year are:

President: W. W. Neno, Marion-Franklin Civic Association; and Michael Lower, principal of George C. Beery Junior High School.

Secretary: Howard Henry, South Side YMCA.

Treasurer: Howard Storch, South Side Business and Industrial Association.

Executive secretary: James L. Wagner, South Side YMCA.

Howard Henry, outgoing president of the council, praised the work of the nominating committee this week by stating that "any man elected will be a good one. The nominating committee, made up of past presidents of the council, really did a bang-up job."

Besides Sensenbrenner and Westlake, the following city department heads are expected to attend the annual CSSO function:

Walter Strickfaden, city fire chief; John L. Gallagher, traffic engineer; Robert N. Tucker, superintendent of the division of electricity; N. J. Barack, director of public recreation; Floyd Redick, public service director; Ray Dietz, superintendent of parks and forestry; James H. Blodgett, superintendent of the subdivision of sewage treatment; and representatives of the South Side Leader.

Henry stated that top city officials were invited as guests to the dinner as an "expression of our appreciation for their service to our community."

In defining the function of the CSSO, Henry stated that "the council is not a pressure group. The primary function of the CSSO is to work for the betterment and development of the community, and also to keep our city officials informed of the problems and happenings on the South Side."

"We appreciate the open door policy that prevails in our relationship with the city." Henry added, "and this goes from the mayor on down."

In listing the achievement of the council during the past year, Henry named such events as the First Annual South Side Community Night at Jet Stadium May 20, the erection of lights at Schiller Park, and the annual Fourth of July celebration as the top projects accomplished by the council.

In concluding, Henry extended his deep appreciation to Miles "Cap" Hoover, executive secretary of the South Side YMCA, and Jim Wagner, assistant executive secretary, for their guidance and understanding "which greatly helped to make my job as president of the council this past year an extremely rewarding one."

Smith-rd Playground Boasts 'Honest Group Of Youngsters'

With the end of the City Recreation Department's playground season last month, rewarding are the experiences and memories of many of the supervisors who guided the city's youth from June till the end of August.

Only city playground in the Old Marion Area this summer was located at the Smith-rd Elementary School, and the "findings" of the two supervisor's will make many a local resident proud.

Working with youngsters was one of the most rewarding experiences you can find, declared Barbara Hill and Jerry Robison, directors at the City Recreation Department supervised Smith Road Playground.

Robinson was coordinator of sports and boys' activities at the playground while Barb led all girls' activities, primarily crafts and girls' softball.

A senior in the College of Journalism at Ohio State University, Barb spent her second summer as a playground director. Having worked at another playground last year, she found "Smith Road kids much nicer and more cooperative. They're the most honest group of youngsters I've ever seen."

Robinson, who spent his first year as a playground supervisor, enthusiastically spoke of the parents of the 100-150 children attending the playground daily. "The kids' parents cooperated 100 percent out here. And we had no major trouble — just the ordinary things like small accidents, etc."

Barb, who lives at 91 W. 10th-st, will return to her native New York City after graduation and go into advertising. Jerry, married for two years will be graduated from the College of Law at Ohio State in June. Born at Maumee, he plans to begin his law practice in the surrounding Toledo area.

Both supervisors considered their summer work worthwhile background for the future and eagerly took part in planning events.

Sports programs at Smith Road included track, baseball, and horseshoes. The playground's biggest project, also directed by Robinson, was the physical fitness program. Standards for boys and girls were established by the City Recreation Dept. according to ages in both track and field events. As the child met the standards, he received a certificate showing that he also had qualified in that special event.

Barb and Jerry both participated actively in playground events. As Robinson stated "Playing right along with the kids stimulated interest. They feel you're one of the gang instead of an overseer."

By knowing what they're doing and enjoying it, the Smith Road supervisors won the respect and faith of children and parents alike, who willingly showed an interest in the playground's activities.

NEW LIGHTS ERECTED

SCHILLER PARK ILLUMINATED—Eugene Preston, a lineman for the city electricity department, erects the last of nine new lights installed last week at Schiller Park. The lights an issue of grumbling by various local organizations during the past year, were erected at key points throughout the park to thus heighten the total illumination of the popular South Side park.

Classes Planned For Stutterers

Both daytime and evening classes for adults with a stuttering problem are now being formed by the Hearing and Speech Center at 209 S. High-st.

Persons interested in classes must first make an appointment to receive a speech evaluation at the center. Both daily and Saturday appointments are available.

Enrollment is limited to 15 persons. Appointments for examination can be made by calling CA. 1-1398. The center is a United Appeal service affiliated with United Community Council.

City Postpones Dedication

Dedication of 'Columbus' new fire station at Southgate and Parsons-avs has been postponed until Sunday, Sept. 27. Original plans had set the dedication for Tuesday, Sept. 11.

The new station, which will give a big boost to fire protection in the old Marion Township area, will house three pieces of equipment.

Pentomic Guard Units Pared To Three Here

Local National Guardsmen on Sept. 1 began to reorganize according to the "pentomic" structure of the modern U. S. Army.

In the Columbus area, the reorganization (first major change in the Guard since World War II) means after 17 years on its own the 166th Infantry Regiment will rejoin the 37th Buckeye Division.

Under the new plan, Ohio's famed 37th will now have five "battle groups" in place of the traditional regiments. Each battle group is self-sufficient and designed to disperse troops and to avoid atomic weapon casualties. Each is a self-contained, mobile striking force, explained Maj. Gen. Loren G. Windom, state Adjutant General.

Complete switchover to the new operation is not expected to be complete before the end of the year, Windom said. The modernized setup may mean the replacement of some of the weapons kept in the armory. Jeep-mounted recoilless rifles and bigger mortars, in particular, are anticipated.

South Side Engine House Gets Reprieve

Columbus Fire Chief Walter G. Strickfaden this week denied rumors on the South Side that the engine house at Thurman-av and Fourth-st would be closed shortly after the opening of a new engine house at Parsons-av and Southgate-st on Sept. 15.

Strickfaden said that under the Capital Improvement Plan, the engine house at Thurman and Fourth is scheduled to be torn down and another engine house built either on the same property or in the vicinity.

It was rumored the past week that South Siders were planning to circulate petitions protesting the closing down of the engine house, contending it would leave the area west of Parsons and south of Fulton-st unprotected.

St. Mary's Dads Slate Fall Dance Sept. 12

St. Leo's PTA Sponsors Games Party Sept. 15

St. Leo's PTA will sponsor its first luncheon games party this year, Tuesday, Sept. 15, at 1 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. John Row and Mrs. Robert Burkey are co-chairmen. The menu will be: meat loaf, mashed potatoes, lettuce and tomato salad, coffee and dessert.

MOOSE ELECT QUEEN

Mrs. Irene Breakall has been elected to represent Columbus Chapter 206, Women of the Moose, as State Queen of Sponsors at the state convention Sept. 11 to 13 in Mansfield. In her court from Columbus will be Mrs. Bessie Pugh and Mrs. Wilma Spring.

SPEAK UP FOR TAX REFORM NOW

In November, the House Ways and Means Committee will begin hearings on "constructive reform of the federal tax system." Nothing could be of more importance to every American citizen.

It's not too early to begin thinking about the sort of tax reform you want —the prescription you believe will be in the best interest of the entire nation.

One widely heralded prescription is sponsored by a Democrat, Rep. A. S. Herlong, Jr., of Florida, and a Republican, Rep. Howard W. Baker of Tennessee. Their identical bills (H. R. 3000 and H. R. 3001) call for gradual easement of individual and corporate income tax rates, establishment of more realistic depreciation rules, moderation of capital gains taxes, and reduction of estate and gift tax rates.

The sponsors say their proposals, if enacted into law, will remove tax blocks to economic growth, increase the supply of venture capital, provide new and better job opportunities for our growing population, and smother inflation with growth.

This approach to tax reform has been endosed by many civic and business groups. It's up to the voters to express their views, too.

BIBLE COMMENT

Simplicity Is Prominent In Writings

The word "simplicity," is given prominence in the writings of Paul.

How many of us find it possible to give more than passing thought or observance to this virtue?

In this era of speeding autos, and a speeding economy and society, such a word seems obsolete, indeed.

Paul insists that everything, even giving, should be done with simplicity. To the Corinthians he commends "simplicity and godly sincerity" motivated by the grace of God in contrast with "fleshly wisdom."

In our lives we see "fleshly wisdom" often supplanting "simplicity and godly sincerity."

But how do we keep our balance in this atomic age of military horrors, whirling budgets and pseudo-sophistication?

Best we recall the words of Paul and judge what meaning they have for us.

If we find that we are losing sight of God's love, if our homes, jobs and thoughts are becoming too complicated, turn over well the word, "simplicity."

This single word implies a concentration on divine help and understanding. It should bring home the belief that God is with us at all times. False, vain and greedy actions can have no place in the structure of the man motivated by this one, clear and emphatic concept.

Four Races Are Buildup At Beulah

Beulah Park, off to a start which indicates that even last fall's fine record may be surpassed, has a number of fine features coming up which promise to bring out top performers in every division of the sport.

Huge Caravan Being Organized To Attend Billy Graham Meet

A caravan of as many as 1000 people from Columbus and Central Ohio will go by bus to Indianapolis on Sunday, Oct. 11 to hear internationally famous evangelist Billy Graham and attend anniversary services of Cadle Tabernacle.

H. Max Good states that enough buses have been engaged to provide transportation for up to 1000 persons. Good has free tickets for the event in Indianapolis. Details on price of the excursion and departure and arrival times may be obtained by calling him at HU. 9-9761 or TR. 8-3325.

Billy Graham has a wide following throughout this area as is true all over the world.

His biographers point out:

"It is posible that Billy Graham might have become the kind of evangelist he is even though he had not been born, reared, and educated in the South, but it is unlikely. The South into which he was born was definitely more religious than average U. S. God was the first consideration of the majority of its youths.

"Evangelism tent - meeting, repentance - provoking, conversion-producing kind of evangelism was sure of a large, responsive following. Born on a dairy farm, on which his father still lives, Billy Graham, "the oldest of four children, was taught to memorize scriptures at the age of ten. By the time he had graduated from high school in Charlotte, N. C., he was dutifully if not notably religious.

Billy Graham

"The nearest thing to a purpose in his life was to be a baseball player, but that purpose was changed to one in the ministry under the preaching of Mordecai Ham. As a result of that conversion, he attended Bob Jones University in South Carolina, and graduated from Florida Bible Institute, now known as Trinity College in Tampa, Fla. He later graduated from Wheaton College, in Wheaton, Ill.

His first great crusade success was in the fall of 1949 in Los Angeles. It was scheduled to last there weeks, but it ran eight. His tent auditorium, seating 6000, had to be enlarged to seat 9000. There were more than 2700 "decisions for Christ," among which were Stuart Hamblem, and Jim Vaus, underworld wire tapper.

"Other crusades in Boston, London, Toronto, in Europe and Asia—all contribute to Mr. Graham's amazing ministry, which has been called "The phenomenon of the mid-twentieth century." Though only 38 years old, he probably has preached to more people, face to face, than any other minister in Christian history.

HARTLEY NEWSPAPERS TV HIGHLIGHTS

By Betty Shepherd

"Is there anything quite as over as vacation?" My 15-year-old came forth with this statement the other day after surveying the stack of dirty clothes, remembering his unfinished summer reading, and hearing this writer groan over unpaid bills and a desk of office work waiting to be tackled.

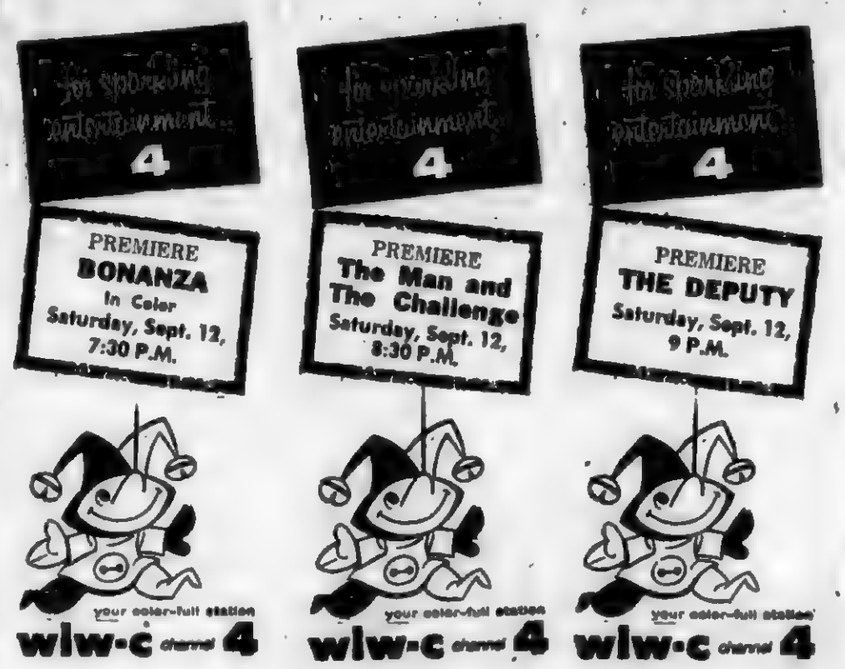
I agreed with him, but also reminded him that merely a matter of time would take care of most of these annoyances, but that it would take much more than the tick of a clock to erase our happy memories . . . that we would not soon forget such sights as the blazing sunrise and the path of moonlight over ocean waters; the gleam of candles on the brass of the huge chandeliers in the Capitol Building, and the charm of the gardens in back of the Governor's Palace at Colonial Williamsburg; or the precision of the drill of the white-middied plebes at Annapolis.

Our two week's holiday encompassed much background of our nation's history, besides bringing us up to date on current affairs. Vistavision and television were a part of it. We cannot go further without remarking about the wonderful movie, "The Patriot," which is shown free of charge to all visitors to restored Williamsburg. This half-hour film is a "must" for those who wish to get the "feel" before they explore the area where much of our American heritage was born.

Such revolutionary patriots as George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and Patrick Henry are brought to life, along with the town where the spark of liberty burst into flame. This film, by the way, is being released to schools across the nation this year, and before long will be cleared for TV.

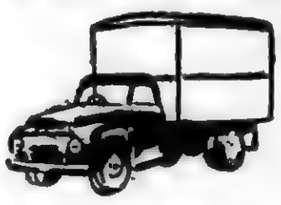
Television played its part in bringing us up to date on the current goings-on. We happened to be in various places just as today's news was being made, but with the tourist's luck, we "just missed" some of it. However, by seeing it re-capped that night on the TV screen, we felt that we had had a front seat.

For instance . . . we arrived in Washington following a torrential downpour which brought six inches of rain to some parts of the city and completely flooded Rock Creek Park; we were in Gettysburg when the President was taking a "breather" and playing some golf on his farm; Vice-President Nixon and his family vacationed at Virginia Beach while we were there; we drove to Newport News to see the launching of the "National Defender," the largest oil tanker in the world; and we hit Richmond a few hours after "Kookie" (Ed Byrnes of "77 Sunset Strip") was mobbed by 4,000 teenagers.



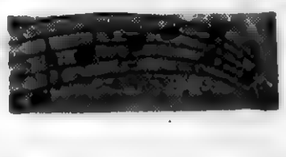
We returned home refreshed and ready for the onslaught of fall TV. "Total Television" is NBC's way of announcing its new season's programming. From Dave Garroway who will open the store every weekday morning to Jack Paar who will close up shop at night, there will be something for every palate. The most dynamic and creative minds in this dynamic and creative business have put their best foot forward.

This next week a number of the new shows start. Channel four will have "Lock Up" on Tuesday nights; "Staccato" on Thursdays; "People Are Funny" is moving to Fridays, followed by "The Troubleshooters." Friday Night Specials" open up with "The Last Quarter," an appraisal of the upcoming Khruschev visit and world and domestic issues.



"Bonanza," full-hour colorcast, comes on Saturdays, followed by "The Challenge;" and Sunday, Sept. 13 finds "Riverboat" setting sail with "Sunday Night Specials" in the time where Steve Allen used to be. Steve is moving to Monday nights beginning Sept. 28. "Laramie" premieres on Tuesday, Sept. 15, along with the beloved "Fibber McGee and Molly" and Fibber's inimitable closet.

Channel six will program "High Road" with John Gunther on Mondays; "Bronco" with Ty Hardin on Tuesdays; and "Glencannon" on Fridays.



Channel 10 is looking forward to "Tightrope" on Tuesday nights; the continuance of "Playhouse 90" on Thursdays; and "Pro Football" on Friday, Sept. 11 in a pre-season game between the New York Giants and the Chicago Bears.

Last Saturday, Sept. 5, was an outstanding day for Walter and Margaret Miller, 1400 S. Sixth-st. A wedding anniversary was one of the special occasions. The other thrill was attending the Naval Recruit Graduation Ceremonies held at Great Lakes, Ill., where their son, Steve, received a Certificate of Honor and an engraved mounted plaque for his selection as Honor Man of his company.

The proud parents were invited to be present on the reviewing stand. Also attending the ceremonies were Steve's sister, brother-in-law and nephew and Linda Chamberlain.

Two other area boys (one who is also a South High graduate) are also in the graduating group, Ted Martin and Steve Eichhorn are the two lads.

Wrong Address

A pleasant chat with the paternal grandmother of the new baby revealed a wrong address listed in the Leader's birth column last edition so we'll pass along the correct address.

The son of Don and Martha Becker, born Aug. 24, is now home at 280 Kossuth-st, instead of the erroneous address. The little one has a sister, Cindy, who is a big girl of six years.

A heart attack that hospitalized Carl Minor, 620 Mithoff-st, now has responded to treatment enough to allow him to return home. While he is in the recuperating stage, cheery cards would be so thoughtful to send.

We didn't know that Sept. 1 was her birthday or we would have mentioned Marie Long's natal day ere this. Belated wishes, Marie.

New Activity

That busy Emily Ocker, 777 Siebert-st, has added another activity to her full schedule. She will be instructing beginners in the art of knitting at the YWCA from Sept. 30 to Nov. 18, from 10 to 11:30 a.m. We're wondering how many ribbons the Fleur de Lis Needle Club has garnered at the various fairs this year? Emily belongs to that group also.

Looking further at the YWCA's schedule to see they're teaching bridge, flower-making, French, how to make hats, practical speech, piano and tailoring in the daytime hours. The evening courses offer bridge, cake decorating, dance instruction, flower arrangement, home management, legal aids, public speaking, sketching and painting and sewing.

Many other activities are listed in the schedule which should appeal to all types of talents and inclinations.

Several Trudeau Guilds from the South Side are in the county-wide organization. The president of all the guilds, Mrs. Howard Merritt, is a South Sider, who lives at 384 Reinhard-av.

Lawrence McNutt, 380 E. Whittier-st visited an ailing sister in Louisville, Ky., not too long ago.

Our "mature" birthday list has several occupants for this week . . . Frances Rumsey, Kathy Melsop, Bernard Lenox and Irene Clark are four in the adult section. Kay Chamber, 121 E. Whittier-st and Barbara Craggs, 514 Cline-st both share Sept. 11. Rose Ann DiGiola, 3216 Parsons-av, will eat her birthday cake on Sept. 13. Nan and Jim Buchan celebrate Sept. 14 as their wedding anniversary.

We have tried, unsuccessfully, to contact the parents of Rosalyn Kirkel at various times this summer to get fuller details of her South American trip. Miss Kirkel, 950 Wilson-av, a June graduate of South High School, visited Recife, Brazil where she has relatives. She was planning to visit Rio de Janeiro, the Amazon and to go on a safari. Ohio State University is her next big address.

New Treasurer

Mrs. Joseph Patone, 1680 Reinhard-av is the newly elected treasurer of Iota Tau Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi. Mrs. Walton Barnhart of Southway Post 144, has been named as the scholarship chairman in the Ohio American Legion Auxiliary by Mrs. John Wolfe, 12th district president.

Mrs. W. F. Minor celebrates a birthday on Sept. 13. 1155 Heyl-av is Mrs. Minor's home address.

Every time ye Gadabout and family travelled South on Rt. 23, we'd see the signs about Adena, home of Thomas Worthington, in Chillicothe. We were always intrigued but did not stop until a recent weekend. If any reader is interested in things historical, we recommended a visit to this beautiful home.

One of the women making the 50c tour with us compared it quite favorably with the homes of Washington and Jefferson. Since the Ohio Historical Society makes such tours regularly, all over Ohio, it sounds like a good group to get more information about, doesn't it? Headquarters for the O.H.S. is at the Ohio State Museum, Columbus 10.

Walton, Mary and Rosemary Barnhart, 185 Frebis-av, and two of Mary's sisters had a pleasant trip to Harmon, W. Va. over the Labor Day weekend.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estella B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Fruits—Pears, apples, cantaloupe, grapes, peaches.

Vegetables—Cucumbers, green beans, potatoes, squash, tomatoes.

ALL GOOD THINGS COME IN "PEARS"

Pears come to us every fall laden with their juicy goodness. This year they're coming in abundance, particularly the favorite Bartletts. Atcually, pear season is from July to April, but we can usually expect the peak period to hit during September and October.

California, Washington and Oregon produce about four-fifths of our pears, since the mild summer climates in the valleys of these states are ideal for growing the European varieties. Common ones are Bartletts, Bosc, Comice and Anjou. Other types available are the sandy textured varieties as the Keiffer and Seckle, grown locally.

The Bartlett is the leading variety and the first one you see each season. This year you can expect Bartletts galore. Both the local and the total U.S. crop is big. California reports the biggest Bartlett crop on record. At the present you can find very fine Bartletts in our markets from Ohio, Michigan and New York orchards.

Pears Picked and Packed Unripe—Unlike many other fruits, as peaches, pears develop their best flavor when ripened off the tree.

When buying pears (Bartletts now) for immediate use, pick out some that are golden yellow. They'll be rich flavored, juicy, just right for eating. For later use select those that are still green in color, firm, but not hard. Keep them at room temperature in the brown paper bag you bring them home in, and they'll be beautifully golden in two or three days.

Or, if you want to keep them a week or more, refrigerate them while they're still green and take them out two or three days before you want to use them. Once pears are fully ripe, keep them in the refrigerator.

When buying pears in quantity for canning, figure on 10 to 12 quarts from a 25-pound bag or 20 to 25 quarts from one bushel or a 50-pound bag.

Particularly Good Eating—Like most fruits, pearl are good just as they are—

• Pick up a pear, unpeeled but chilled, to eat for anytime snack. It contains a natural sugar which is good for you as well as vitamins A, B, and C.

• There are the pear-cheese combinations for snacks, salads, or desserts. Sharp or blue cheese are so good.

• Pears topped with mint ice, lime sherbet or peppermint ice cream make a luscious dessert.

• Pears "take" to spices such as ginger, cinnamon, nutmeg and cloves, when spiced fruit is the order.

• To prevent discoloration, sprinkle any citrus fruit juice over fresh peeled or cut pears.

Television Supervisor Lists Seven Advantages For Educational TV

STUDIES TV—Anna B. Lentz, left, South High School teacher, confers with Julia R. Gump, supervising principal in the audio-visual department for the Columbus Public Schools, and Dr. William H. Ewing, associate director of WOSU programming and coordinator of the Greater Columbus Area ETV project to study effectiveness of televised instruction.

Despite industry, science, and medicine's successful use of television, educators ask "can it work," TV Specialist Charles Hettinger told South High School Teacher Anna B. Lentz, participating in WOSU's workshop designed to give teachers a good look at the medium.

The TV Supervisor for the Pittsburgh Board of Education, in describing television as "the most unique invention since the printed page," bluntly said "We've been using textbooks for years and there's yet to be any challenge of reading."

The South High teacher, a resident of 1758 King-av, was among 75 Central Ohio classroom and television teachers attending the first such workshop at Channel 34's studios. Educators were shown every facet of television production before they took part in planning how best to use the medium in education.

Hettinger listed TV's seven advantages for pupils and the teachers: 1) classroom courses which the school doesn't offer; 2) meeting a school's special needs; 3) supplement to courses; 4) quality instruction; 5) in-service teacher training; 6) expanded student interest; and 7) increased interest after parents see how children are taught.

Nine consultants appeared on the program arranged for Central Ohio educators who will take part in the Greater Columbus Area ETV project to ascertain effectiveness of televised instruction and teachers in WOSU-TV's in-school program which will reach 30,000 students this year.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors

By ROD COCHRAN

Thursday, Sept. 10, 1959 South Side Leader—7

For Vacation Plans, Get This Free Book

With the coming of Labor Day, schools begin to open and the Hartley Newspapers Fishing Derby ends. (Winners will be announced next week) Sunburns and poison ivy attacks are healed, and the summertime vacation period is pretty well over.

Now is the time to look back and see how much you enjoyed your vacation, and make plans for an even better one next year.

The best vacation aid I have ever seen is a little book called "Happier Vacations," a free publication that is being made available to readers of "Inside On The Outdoors." To receive your complimentary copy just send a request to "Happier Vacations," the Coleman Company, Wichita 1, Kansas. Don't forget to include your name and address.

This 40-page book was prepared by George and Iris Wells, professional travelers by their own admission, and authors of numerous books and magazine articles on camping, traveling and vacations.

Chapter titles range from "About That Budget" to "Tips For Compact Car Packing," to "Camping: Adventure and Economy." Information is included on picking hotels and motels, keeping kids happy in a car, closing up the house, and outdoor cookery.

Vacations Popular All Year

The central theme running throughout the book is that a happy vacation is a well-planned vacation. This guide will serve as a "dream book" all winter long to help you choose where you want to go next vacation, and will help you enjoy yourself once you get there. Winter vacations are becoming more popular all the time, especially during the Christmas holidays when children are free from school for a time. If you are going to take a trip this winter, you need this book immediately.

From my enthusiasm about this travel guide you might get the idea that the authors are cousins of mine or something. This is not the case at all. It is just that I am completely impressed with a fine job of presenting so much valuable information in compact form. In the course of a year I see a lot of material, some of it free and some for sale, that tells you how to go camping, where to go hunting and fishing, how to spend your vacation, etc. But from the standpoint of reliable information, brief and easy to read, this publication tops them all.

The Coleman name, of course, is well known to outdoorsmen and campers who use gasoline stoves and lanterns. The company is to be congratulated for publishing such a fine booklet and sharing it with readers of this column.

Spirit And Color Spell Formula To Tribe Success

Regardless of their finish in this year's American League pennant race, the 1959 rendition of the Cleveland Indians must go down as one of the most exciting and colorful teams in recent Tribe history.

When General Manager Frank Lane took over the reins of the ball club at the beginning of the 1958 season he promised to turn the then colorless Lake Erie gang into a crowd-pleasing aggregation.

In achieving his goal, Trader Lane swapped the likes of such favorites as Early Wynn, Roger Maris, Ray Narleski, Don Mossi, Hank Foiles, Al Smith, Larry Doby, Dub Daley and Vic Wertz to name just a handful of established stars of the Tribe past.

Despite the growls of loyal Indian fans (and there were few), Lane did not condone his actions. Instead he let his trades speak for themselves. Minnie Minoso, Vic Power, Tito Francona, Pim Persaill, Billy Martin, Woody Held, Jim Baxes and Jack Harshman all blended talents this year to give the colorful contender Cleveland has lacked for so long.

The 1954 Indians, despite their record 111 victories, were not a colorful team. Not since the Lou Boudreau, Ken Keltner, Joe Gordon area of 11 years ago have Cleveland fans been treated to such zany, colorful, clutch-winning performances as have the fans of this season.

Sunday's double win over Detroit typifies the 1959 squad. Behind three runs in the bottom of the ninth inning of both games, the Indians came back to win. Piersall's single with two on gave the Tribe a 15-4 win in the opener, while Power's sacrifice fly climaxed a 7-6 win in the nightcap.

Cleveland sent eight pitchers to the mound in the opener to tie a Major League record, while Manager Joe Gordon used 22 players to win the wild contest.

Vic Power, perhaps the most colorful player in the league this season, gave fans added thrills in both games to bear out the type of play and players Lane has succeeded in getting in Indian stripes the past two years.

In the first game Vic pulled an old Yogi Berra trick by hitting a pitch out while in the process of being purposely walked. Unfortunately for Power, the ball he hit went right to the second baseman, Frank Bolling, who turned it into a double play. But hitting into a double play is beside the point in this case. Swinging at a pitch out is the thing that brings fan reaction. And that fan reaction keeps turn stiles clicking.

In the second game, Power who has stolen home three times this year, pulled an early Bobby Avila trick by booting the ball out of Catcher Red Wilson's hands in a close play at the plate. This art, and in today's modern brand of ball it surely is an art, has been chiefly lost since Pepper Martin's days with the old St. Louis "Gas House Gang."

Piersall and Martin, although both only part-time players this season, have given the Tribe the "hungry," competitive brand of ball so long lacking in Cleveland. Held's long ball (28 homeruns) has never before been attained by a Cleveland shortstop.

Minoso's constant hustle and timely bat, Colovito's tape-measure home runs, and Francona's sudden burst (.391 average) after two years of riding the bench with Baltimore and Detroit have all added in making fans flock to Cleveland's Municipal Stadium.

No longer does the Tribe brass rely on the merits of a Bobby Feller or a Herb Score to bring the fans out to the park. They don't have to anymore. A Feller or a Score can pitch only one day in four. A team of nine colorful, highly spirited performers can play every day.

As Lane, himself, said earlier in the month, "If anyone had told me at the beginning of the season that we'd be a contender and finish first or second this year without Score, Martin and Piersall playing up to par, I would have told them they were crazy."

No truer words were ever spoken, yet despite the shortcoming of the controversial trio, the Tribe remains a contender.

Regardless of who wins the top honors in the American League this season, the team to beat for crowd pleasing appeal is still the Indians.

The long ball, clutch hitting and pitching, color, spirit and desire—this is the formula for Cleveland success.

Santanich Vows Landmark 'Won't Go Out To Get Beat'

By Rick Pavlik

"I don't go out there to get beat."

These are the words of Big Buck Santanich, manager of The Old Landmark Cafe team that will square off Saturday against Kelley's Inn for the South Side Slo Pitch Independent League championship.

"We beat Kelleys two of the three times we met them during the regular season," the personable player-manager added. "Both times we won we had our whole team down for the game. There isn't any reason why we shouldn't be able to win again if everyone shows up."

Buck Santanich

Landmark, winner of the league's second round championship, and Kelley's, first round winner, will tangle at 2 p.m. at Southwood Field.

Don's Inn, second round winner, lost out in its bid to meet Landmark for the title two weeks ago when they dropped a 12-11 decision to Kelley's in a playoff.

In the three regular season meetings of the two rivals, Landmark took its pair by 17-7 and 7-6 (in 10 innings) scores. Kelley's copped the first meeting of the two clubs in the first round by a 13-9 count.

"Anything can happen," Santanich went on, "but Landmark doesn't go out to get beat. Kelley's is a good team and the rivalry between our two teams is a good friendly one. All the players grew up in the same neighborhoods, so winning this big one will give us an extra thrill."

In breaking down his team by position, Santanich stressed the fine defensive play by his trio of fleet outfielders—Ivor Boling, Tom Duckworth and Desi Defourney.

"They're three of the fastest in the league," Buck added. "In both our victories over Kelley's their defensive play played a definite role in our winning."

"Boling in particular has been the defensive backbone of the whole team. He ranks with Ray Beery of Kelley's. He's really a great athlete."

In praising the merits of his team, Buck stated that the average age per player on Landmark was "around 40, which makes us the oldest team in the league."

In listing the ages of his players, Santanich cited Buff Haley (46) as the "daddy" of the team, and Young Tom Duckworth (23) as the "baby."

Ages tagged onto other Landmark players by their manager were:

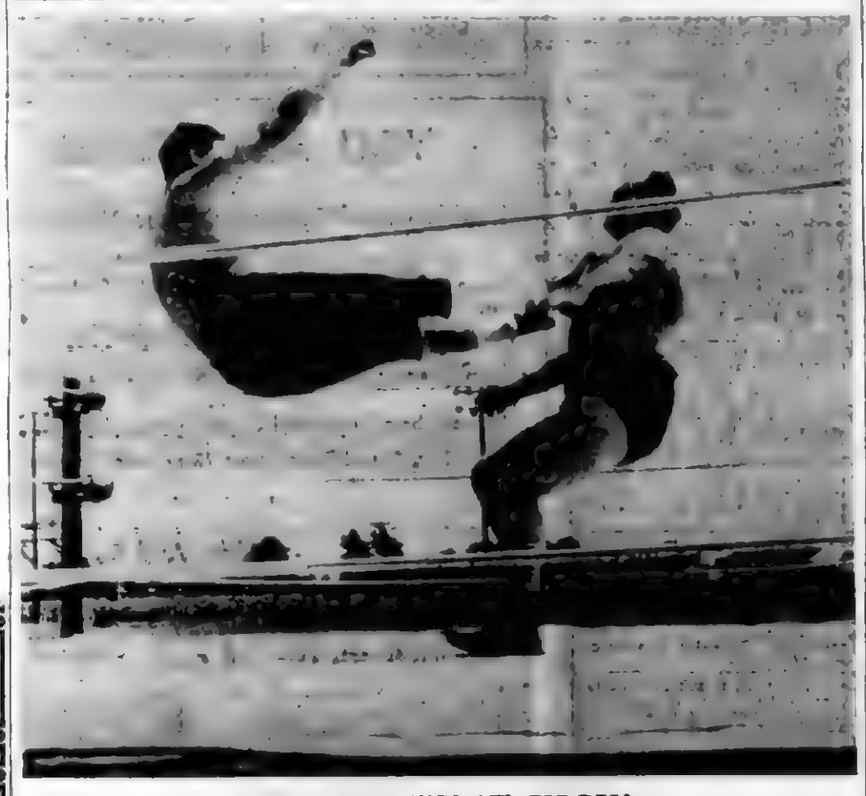
Santanich, who lays claim to being "only 41," added that he guessed at all the ages, but believed he didn't miss by much.

In the hitting department, Buck will count on Koetz (the team's highest batter), Ellis, Belcher and both Duckworths to apply the majority of the Landmark power.

"These boys are the ones who have really come through with the big hits game after game," Santanich declared. "We'll count on them again Saturday."

The manager didn't add, however, that he is also the team's second highest hitter.



Winner of the league title will be presented a two-foot high trophy donated by Beery Sporting Goods.

"You can bet we'll be out to collect it (the trophy) too," Santanich concluded. "In fact we may even try to talk Beery's into donating a runner-up award so that Kelley's can get one too."

LEAD KELLEY ATTACK

Frank Howard Recalled From Spokane By LA

Frank "Chico" Howard, slugging outfielder for Spokane of the Pacific Coast League, was recalled by the Los Angeles Dodgers this week in an attempt to aid the second place National League challengers in their bid to overtake the league leading San Francisco Giants during the Septembre stretch drive.

In his two years in professional ball, the 6'6" slugger has starred at Green Bay and Victoria, besides the Pacific Coast Club. This will be his third try in the big time. He appeared previously at the end of 1956, and earlier this year.

LONG WAY TO GO YET

TRAVELER PAUSES—Sixty-four-year-old Steven Haver, a retired coal miner, pauses on West Broad-st for a short rest during his 900-mile journey. He is walking from his recent home in Pennsylvania to his birthplace of Joplin, Miss. "I just want to go back home and rest," he says, obviously weary of many hard years in the mines. He has 40 cents in his pocket, an old walking stick and a small bag containing his only possessions. He has no relatives.

The Diehler's Rate Superior In Contest

The Diehler's, a variety band under the direction of Mrs. Eileen Diehl, consisting of eight youths, ranging in ages from 11 to 15, received a superior rating when competing with more than 1,000 young people in the All-Ohio Youth Talent Contests at the Muskingum County Fair at Zanesville this last week.

The Muskingum County contests this year attracted entries from every part of Ohio and were recognized as being an Ohio-wide event and not a local program in the Zanesville area.

Martha Arnett, a junior member, won a superior rating for her accordion solo.

In addition to the superior rating for the entire band number, the same members were split into two additional groups known as "The Jokers" and "The Straights" and each of these groups also won a superior rating.

Mrs. Diehl's guitarists, Tom Dauer and Roy Arnett, were picked as outstanding talent over the four-day event and were invited to return to the evening event of the 113th annual Muskingum County Fair to be in an All-Ohio Talent Revue, featuring 25 acts in which they were awarded a trophy by the Ohio Music Merchants Association.

The Diehler's appeared at the Ohio State Fair, Sunday, Aug. 30, at the Outdoor-Stage and again Wednesday, Sept. 2, in the Little Theatre.

Everybody Knew About Wrigley's Gum...or

How To Have A Going-Out-Of-Business Sale

A NUMBER of years ago, William Wrigley, the chewing-gum maker and ball-club owner, decided that everyone in America knew about his gum and that there was no further need to advertise it.

So he quit advertising.

He also almost lost his gum business. As well known as his gum was — when he was advertising it—it was quickly forgotten by millions of people. Other gums were being advertised, so people bought them.

Mr. Wrigley got on the stick at once, put his advertising back to work, and saved his business. His son still has it — and profits enough to keep his ball club going.

WRIGLEY NEVER made the mistake, however, of thinking his advertising was a "favor" to the newspapers, magazines, and other media in which he placed it. He was in the business of making sales, not extending favors. Yet this is an error often made by some retail merchants. They feel that everyone knows they are in business, and their advertising is only a favor to the newspaper.

Actually it is no favor at all — any more than it is a favor when customers buy what advertisers have to sell.

ANY TALK, however, of who gets favored the more, covers up a much more vital fact. The absence of vigorous, continual local advertising does as much to drive people to go off somewhere else to shop as the siren lures of distant merchants.

Advertising — thought-out advertising—is news, and people look for such news where they can find it. Trade always goes to the active merchandiser and the consistent advertiser of genuine values. No "favors" are involved.

THE MERCHANT who thinks everyone knows him too often gets around to advertising only when he has a going-out-of-business sale. It has happened many times.

Open Letter Explains New Classes

In an open letter to parents of Barrett Junior High School students, Principal Kenneth Olbert this week explained the purpose of the schools three Special Classes.

"Children in Special Classes have an unusual opportunity to receive special help in the academic work," Olbert stated. "Teachers of these classes are especially trained and selected for their assignments."

"In addition, the class size is kept smaller than the regular class, thus providing each pupil with a better learning opportunity. As a result, it is our aim to help these boys and girls strive to bring their academic progress — and their reading in particular — up to the level of the regular program."

"These pupils," observed Olbert, "will receive the benefit of a special grading system, geared to their particular capacities. Upon completing three years at Barrett, these pupils may become eligible for a Special Certificate of Promotion."

"As may already have been noted, pupils in Special Classes are dismissed at 2:47 p.m. daily. It is felt that such a program is best suited to the needs of these children."

Olbert concluded his letter by inviting all parents to call the school at any time for an appointment, should they care to visit any of the classes.

William Neno Elected CSSO President

Mayor Sensenbrenner Installs New Officers

William W. Neno, popular representative from the Marion-Franklin Civic Association, has been elected president of the Council of South Side Organizations.

Neno, former CSSO representative to Columbus City Council and past council public relations chairman, won the majority of votes over opponent Michael Lower at the CSSO's annual dinner and election at South Side "Y" Park last Thursday evening.

Lower is principal of George C. Beery Junior High School.

Other new officers installed at the yearly ceremonies were Carl Beyer, first vice-president; Paul Stecker, second vice-president; Howard Henry, secretary; Howard Storch, treasurer; and Jim Wagner, executive secretary.

The newly elected officers were installed by Columbus Mayor Jack Sensenbrenner, who along with 14 other city officials, was hosted at the annual event.

Howard Henry, past president of the council, summarized the past year's events by thanking in particular those members of the council who cooperated in making the first annual South Side Community Night at Jet Stadium and the annual Fourth of July Celebration at Southview Field the most successful projects ever planned by the CSSO.

"Records are made to be broken," Henry stated, "and you can bet we will be out there next year trying to build up even a better program for the fine people of our good ol' South Side."

In summarizing the year's achievements, the retiring president listed:

- The spending of $902 as trustees for the Schiller Coke Fund towards the purchase of gymnastic equipment for Schiller Recreation Center.
- Helping to underwrite the community service ad in the South Side Leader for one year.
- Reporting to city council or individual city department heads the need of flasher lights at W. Whittier-st railroad crossing.
- Reporting the condition of the Lincoln Park shelter house roof.
- Reporting the need of pedestrian lights at High-st and Southgate-dr, (which were installed) and the need of lights at Jaeger-st and Stewart-av
- Renewing the request for additional street lights in Schiller Park, (which were installed).
- Went on record for the umteenth time as being in favor of destruction of the fire trap housing units on Greenlawn.
- Encouraged the pursuing of the previously planned Southview Recreation Park

In closing, Henry thanked members of the council for their fine cooperation which they have given him during his term in office.

Following his installation, Neno asked for devoted cooperation on the part of CSSO members for the civic well being of the South Side.

One of the highlights of the evening was the surprise presentation of a recognition plaque to John H. Blodgett for his community service as Superintendent of the Columbus Disposal System.

Miles "Cap" Hoover, executive secretary of the South Side YMCA, made the presentation on behalf of the council.

Bike Rider's Toe Amputated

South Side bike riders take note!

The next time you want to hitch a ride with your buddy and decide to ride double, just remember what happened to Clarence Fisher, Jr., 9, of 923 Studer-av.

As thousands of other youngsters returned to school last week, young Clarence had time to ponder over the last time he rode double.

Propped in his bed in Children's Hospital, Clarence looked down at the cast on his foot. One of his toes has been amputated and another broken because of a mishap on Labor Day when he was riding double.

As he explained it from his bed, he was seated behind a friend on the friend's brand new bike.

Another boy on a bicycle "started to hit us and we dodged and I slipped and fell," Clarence said.

As he fell, his foot became lodged in the spokes of the rear wheel. One of his toes was almost torn off and later had to be amputated. Another toe was broken.

The boy's mother, Mrs. Ruth Edmonston, knows her son's accident could have been worse—had a car struck the boys on the unwieldly, over-loaded bicycle.

Riding double is one lesson Clarence won't have to be taught again.

"I'll never do it again," he said. If they could take one look at Clarence's foot, other prospective double riders might come to the same decision without the aid of one sad experience, a cast and a bed in Children's Hospital.

Maj. Imrie Buried In Green Lawn

Prominent South Side resident Maj. Norman Allan Imrie, 72, of 26 Parsons-av, was buried Friday in Green Lawn Cemetery. He died last Wednesday following surgery in Grant Hospital.

A former Columbus newspaperman and a renowned lecturer, Maj. Imrie was a graduate of Berea, Ky. College and the University of Chicago. He took graduate study at the University of California, and took his first professional position as head of the English department at Berea in 1910.

A former downtown newspaper editorial writer and a veteran of World Wars I and II, Maj. Imrie was born in London, Ontario, Canada. He came to the United States at the age of 18 for study and later became a naturalized citizen.

In 1920 he became an instructor of history at Culver Military Academy, serving nine years, during which time he also engaged in Chautauqua and Lyceum lecture work.

In 1927 he was a member of the American Legion Good Will Tour of Europe.

Maj. Imrie, who was associated with the downtown paper from 1934 to 1940, was formerly a director of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce and president of the Columbus Safety Council. He had been public relations representative for the Ohio State Highway Department.

His wife, Gwendolin, is employed at the Republican State Headquarters.

A sister and three brothers also survive.

Services were held at the Schoedinger Funeral Home.

New Site Set For Purchase Of Auto Tags

A more convenient location to purchase auto tags and drivers' licenses has been recently set up at 1843 Parsons-av.

Bob Geis, a South Side resident, stated that the new location, just east of Innis, will also handle title transfers, temporary licenses and will provide notary service.

Hunting and fishing licenses are also available at the new agency, Geis said. Parking space has been provided at the rear of the agency, he noted.

Geis and his wife, Muriel, 469 Forest-st, will operate the new agency.

GOODWILL FIRST RATE CITIZEN

Founded in a Boston Slum area at the turn of the century, non-profit Goodwill Industries utilizes discarded clothing and household articles in its program of rehabilitating handicapped people.

The handicapped are given an opportunity to learn, while earning, then to move into normal industry or commerce whenever possible.

Since its inception in 1902, Goodwill Industries has expanded, until today there are 121 Goodwills in cities throughout the U.S. It is also operating in Canada, Australia, Mexico, Peru, Uruguay and Pakistan.

More than 32,000 persons were helped by Goodwill in 1958. They were provided vocational training, employment and rehabilitation services. Twenty-one million dollars in wages and salaries was paid, of which $16,500,000 was to persons receiving training and sheltered workshop employment. About 20 million hours of employment were given these workers.

More than five million homes in thousands of communities contributed no longer needed but repairable articles of clothing and household goods. Millions of other homes benefited by being able to buy remade articles at low budget prices.

Goodwill employees, who might require public assistance if not employed, paid some $1,800,000 in income taxes, state and federal, and social security payments in 1958.

In its own field Goodwill Industries keeps alive the spirit of self-respect and independence which has always been this country's most important product. It deserves a vote of confidence from every American.

BIBLE COMMENT:

One Man's Conversation With Angel

Ghosts, spirit, miracles. It all sounds like superstitious mumbo jumbo, sometimes even to the most churchly of us.

Consider the story that a man in Pittsburgh, Pa., swears is the truth:

"One day when I was three years old, I was standing at the window of my parents' apartment.

"Suddenly my grandmother appeared to me. She was standing in air, dressed in a long whitish robe with a light blue sash. Rising from her back were enormous wings.

She spoke to me, saying, 'Be a good boy.'

"She added that there was a small tricycle in her closet for me, a gift that nobody knew about.

"After she vanished a neighbor with a telephone brought my mother news that grandmother had died a few minutes before—at the time I spoke to the angel.

"When they cleaned out my grandmother's home they found a tricycle in the closet for me."

Childish illusion? A dream? Such things have been documented and sworn by many to acutily have happened.

Such accounts must give us pause when we imagine that a man's hand reaches only to the finite and that his eye sees only to the horizon.

How long since you've read the Declaration and Independence? The constitution of the United States? Other great documents? Refresh your knowledge . . . read them at your Columbus Public Library.

"You must begin - not from where you would like to be - but from where you are." And with the help of books from your Columbus Public Library you can get where you would like to be.

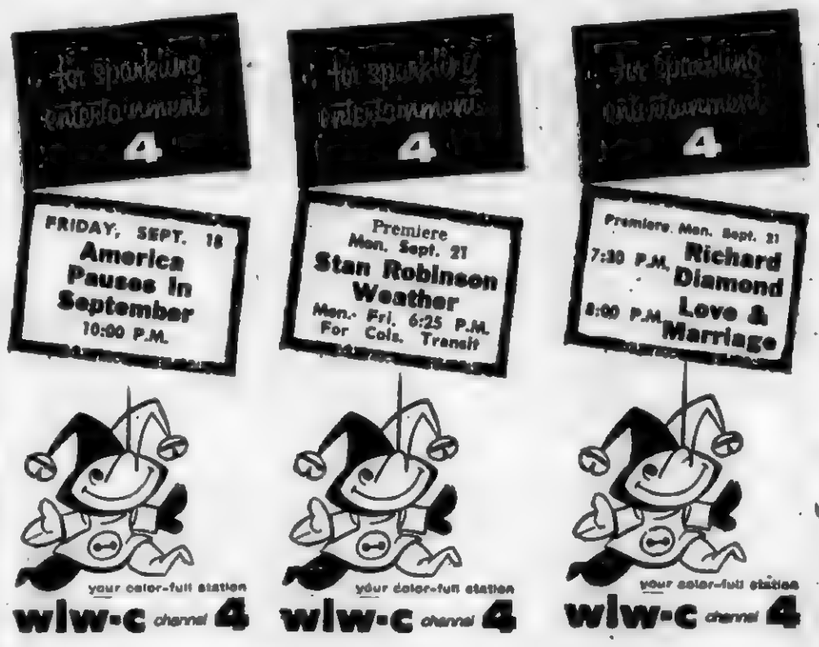
HARTLEY NEWSPAPERS

TV DIAL-oques

By Betty Shepherd



The Columbus police may be looking for you! If you are a safe, courteous driver, and "do unto other motorists and pedestrians as you would like to be done unto," you may be cited as a "WLW-C Driver of the Week" sometime during the coming months.

Any day now you may be asked to pull over to the curb by Sgt. Ken Miller or Patrolman Steve MacDonald and given a ticket. If you are, don't get upset for the "ticket" will be for safe driving and your entire conversation during the proceedings will be recorded on a Dictette recorder carried by the officer.

Five persons a week will be cited in just such a manner beginning Monday, Sept. 14, one of whom will be selected as the "WLW-C Driver of the Week." That driver will be a guest of Hugh DeMoss on his 6:30 news show on Channel 4 on Tuesday nights (the first appearance will be Sept. 29) and will be announced on "Falcon Playhouse" the next morning. The conversation which was recorded as the citation was given, will be played back on the air. An announcement will also be made on WLW-Radio.

The "Driver of the Week" will be a continuing feature on WLW-C, added to the station's already expanded public service programming.

Speaking of public service, two other programs of local interest coming up in the immediate future on WLW-C are the "Morning Mirrors" for Wednesday, Sept. 16 and 23. Channel 4's audience will go shopping—for on the 16th the Junior League's annual Bargain Box will be spotlighted . . . "The largest and most glorified rummage sale in town."

And on the 23rd, the Bambino Shop run by the Women's Board of Children's Hospital will be featured. If you don't already know about that attractive shop on E. Broad-st (where new and beautiful gifts or all kinds may be purchased) it will pay you to make a special visit. All proceeds go directly to the hospital. Another first for our city—did you know that when the present construction is completed, Columbus Children's Hospital will be the largest hospital of its kind in the nation?

On the network TV scene we are dizzy from schedule changes and "rave" notices about upcoming shows. Added to the regular programming are the numerous NBC and CBS specials about Eisenhower and Khrushchev. The Soviet Premier will be followed closely around our nation by the TV cameras, and all of us will have ample opportunity to see and hear this most vital of public events.

One of the early spectaculars of NBC and WLW-C will be the hour-long special on Sept. 16 when "America Pauses in September." The weather must have even gotten to the TV script writer, for the title started out to be "America Pauses for Summer's End." Since summer seemed endless this year, just last week it was changed to the September bit.

This promises to be a real "goody," because such name stars as Burgess Meredith, Art Linkletter, Gene Nelson, the Kingston Trio and the entire cast of "Holiday on Ice" will sing and dance all the way from the luxury Queen of Bermuda to the campus of the University of California at Los Angles.

Another one to mark on your calendars is "A Toast To Jerome Kern" on Sept. 22. This special, 90-minute musical extravaganza will be based on famous Kern melodies and will be seen live and in color on Channel 4.

Collegiate football kicks off on Saturday, Sept. 19 with Channel 4's NCAA game between Louisiana State and Rice at 3:45 p.m. The Buckeyes will be seen in training via film on the season's opener of Woody Hayes' sport show on channel 10 on Sept. 17. Several members of the team will appear as guests on the show.

Darren McGavin premieres on two different networks this week. He will star as Grey Holden, captain of NBC's "Riverboat" setting sail on WLW-C Sundays at 7, and also as Mike Hammer in Mickey Spillane's series by the same name on WBNS-TV Saturday nights at 10:30.

Two other specials for Channel 4 and 10 will be the hour-long "Loretta Young Show" to open her fall series on Sept. 20. This marks the first time that she has offered a full hour drama in the 247 teleplays she has either introduced or starred in during her six seasons on TV. "The Road," filmed in France, concerns the torment of a proud and lonely woman who is concealing a tragic secret behind a mask of careless gaiety and sophistication.

Channel 10's welcome mat will be out for "The Old Redhead," when Arthur Godfrey returns after an absence of four months to star in a special variety show on Wednesday, Sept. 16.

Old Marion Area News

By Elizabeth Smith
HI. 3-1184

Lucy Sanford from South High EUB Church was elected treasurer of the Columbus District EUB Youth Fellowship at a youth rally held Sunday in Burgess Avenue Church. Over 200 youths and their advisers were present for the afternoon song fest, elections, and devotional period, followed by a fellowship hour.

When we read of so much juvenile delinquency in the headlines of our newspapers, and then attend a meeting of this nature, planned and carried out in its entirety by the youth themselves, it leads me to believe that not enough notice is given to the good Christian groups of young people.

Campaign rallies for officer candidates are a sight to see, with speech making, poster sign carriers, balloons or candy kisses for the audience. Parades and songs boost particular candidates. And then that moment of silence when the elected officer's names are announced and they are called to the front of the sanctuary for a very impressive and religious installation ceremony. Here officers of the year are challenged to do an outstanding job in their new offices. What better place for our young people on Sunday afternoon, than in a meeting such as this? And it is parents duty to urge our youth to take part in these services.

"I don't get much news from the east side of the "Old Marion Area" but when I do it seems to be of the exciting kind. A few weeks ago it was a train heading down Fairwood-av. This week I had a call about some horses on Bulen-av, that escaped and took neighbors on a merry chase, from Watkins-rd to Clarfield School, and back up Fairwood-av to Koebel before they were rounded up.

The annual reunion of the George Fisher family was held recently with over 35 in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fisher now residing in Montana are the parents of a baby girl, Cyrila Diane.

We have had two deaths in our immediate neighborhood this past week. Sympathy of the neighborhood is extended to both bereaved families.

Mrs. Edna Smeltzer of 3420 S. High-st, died Sunday, Sept. 6, in Doctors Hospital. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Rutherford Funeral Home. Burial in Union Cemetery.

Charles Deible, of 3692 Linwood-av, had a heart attack while at work at the Buckeye Steel Castings Co. Tuesday, Sept. 8. He is survived by his wife, four daughters, and three sons. Funeral services were at 9:30 a.m. Friday in St. Ladislas Church. Interment was at St. Joseph Cemetery.

Mrs. Albert Roseberry and Grandma Roseberry have just returned from a six weeks stay at their cottage in Port Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scheiderer and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckley and sons spent the holiday weekend at Carter's Cave in Kentucky. With a riding academy, swimming, and other activities available they had an enjoyable holiday.

Danny Coon of Colton-rd recently sprained his ankle on a fishing trip, and it has been painful starting to school, with lots of walking to do.

Our congratulations to Rev. and Mrs. William Snider on their 9th wedding anniversary celebrated Sept. 9.

Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Beehler of Michigan visited last week with the Paul Fisher family. Mrs. Beehler is the former Mildred Geier of this area. Their daughter Marsan accompanied them. She had just returned from England where she had been an exchange student.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Smith (Barbara Bish, and Sonny Smith) spent the past week visiting with their parents. Sonny is in the service and stationed at a camp near Scranton, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burgoon of Alcott-pl, have been visiting in Elkhart, Ind.

The Youth Fellowship of South High Church will have charge of Sunday evening services this week. Young people who attended Camp Otterbein this past summer will give their Camp Echoes service. Color slides of the past two Fall Retreats will be shown. The evening offering will go to the youth department, to help pay the expenses of their Fall Retreat, Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 26 and 27 at Y Park. On Sunday afternoon these same youth will take part in the retreat planned by the Youth Council of the South Side Churches. It will be held at the Y Park with a pot-luck supper and candlelight vesper.

Ken Evans, builder of the new South High EUB Church has promised the congregation that they can hold services in the new building Oct. 11.

The family of Sgt. James Harvey has just learned that he is convalescing after lung surgery, performed in Germany. He spent 16 days in the hospital, and will not be allowed to do any special duty work for two months. Jimmie is the husband of Marie Harvey, who lives on Williams-rd.

Our sympathy goes to Everett Hess and his son and daughter in the loss of his wife and their mother, Rhoda. Her death was very sudden, early Tuesday morning, after being taken to the hospital late Monday night. Rhoda and Everett are well known by many of our readers and several of us were honored to help them celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary last January. Rhoda will be missed by all her church and neighborhood friends, for whom she was always doing kind things, sewing for, or helping anyone in need. Rhoda and Everett resided at 581 E. Moler-st, and had been long time residents of the South Side.

Miss Mary Lee Griffith was guest of honor at a bridal shower at the home of Karleen Tope on Williams-rd. Mary Lee received many lovely gifts for her new home. Her wedding to Mr. David Strawser will take place Saturday evening. The ceremony will be performed at Hope E.U.B. Church with the reception to follow at the Walnut Hill Fellowship Hall. Mary and Dave have purchased a new home on Alcott-rd.

The membership committee of Marion-Franklin PTA met at the home of their chairman, Mrs. Paul Berger Wednesday evening. Those on the committee and attending were Mrs. Jack White, Mrs. William Neno, Mrs. Louis Buel, Mrs. Ralph Donley and Mrs. Richard Smith PTA president for the coming year. This committee has planned a vigorous campaign for the coming year, and hope to see more parents take an interest in its high school students.

Our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Darst (former Barbara McKelvey) who were married on the afternoon of Sept. 5 at Hope E.U.B. Church by Rev. William Snider. Danny and Barbara are now at home at 543 Wilson-av.

David Boren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Boren on Colten-rd, celebrated his fifth birthday Saturday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wedebrook, of Portsmouth, O., here to celebrate for the occasion. David had the thrill of having three TV personalities say "Happy Birthday" to him. Flippo, Casper and TV Kindergarten all sent greetings to him. David started to kindergarten at Scioto Trail School Monday.

Mrs. Marie Kelley of Obetz-rd, has been named store manager for the Penney's store at Great Southern Shopping Center, during their Ladies Day Celebration this Friday and Saturday.

The men's horseshoe pitching team from South High Church is leading the Monday night league at Schiller Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Chapman were hosts to the E.U.B. men and WSWS ladies at their new home on Amsterdam-av Tuesday evening. The men served refreshments to the ladies.

Now this is the kind of a column I enjoy writing, but it takes a lot of help from you readers calling with the news. My thanks to all of you who helped make this week's column. Let's keep it going now; with just a few minutes of your time, I make a column for you and your friends at home, and away from home, to read. Don't forget my phone number is HI. 3-1184.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Meats and Poultry — Stewing chickens, fryers, ham, fresh pork roasts, medium eggs.

Vegetables—Potatoes, squash, carrots, sweet potatoes.

Fruits—Apples, grapes, pears, peaches, canned fruit.

IT'S TIME FOR CHICKEN POT PIE

Stewing chickens are coming. And what's better when the weather starts to turn cool than an old-fashioned chicken pot pie with a savory brown crust?

September and October is the season for it. Large supplies of heavy hens are coming to market and prices are expected to continue lower than average for stewing chickens through the fall months.

Why large supplies? Right now, broiler chicken producers are busy making room for their growing flocks. They are selling the older breeder hens. In the markets, breeder hens are "stewing chickens" or "heavy hens" of five pounds and over. When you buy that stewing chicken you'll probably notice yellow fat showing through the skin over the back and breastbone. That is the way it should look. It's likely to mean good flavor and juiciness. The tip of the breastbone of your stewing chicken will be firm and fairly stiff rather than soft and flexible like the breastbone of a fryer.

Cooking Tips — Has it been a long time since you cooked a stewing chicken? Remember, the meat doesn't have to fall off the bone in order to be tender. For a 5-6 pound hen, allow two to two and one-half hours simmering time. Fork tender is tender. You can usually count on getting about 2/3 cup of cooked boned meat from each pound of ready-to-cook chicken.

Try these— Stewing isn't the only way to cook a stewing chicken. It can be put in a covered roasting pan and roasted to tenderness in the over. In a 350 degree oven it takes about 2½ hours for a five-pound hen. Unlike roasting a young chicken, a cover on the roasting pan is important. This keeps the steam in the pan — and the chicken cooks more quickly than it will without a cover and will be juicier, too.

Cooking a stewing chicken gives you a chance to use spices and herbs, too. Bay leaf, celery tops, whole peppercorns and thyme make a good start to flavor accents. Or, if you're cooking that chicken in the oven, you may want to treat it as you would a pot roast. Add carrots, potatoes, onions and mushrooms during the last part of the cooking time.

The weather will turn cooler, so keep these economical stewing chickens in mind as you do your food shopping.

The 1959 Ohio potato crop is now being harvested and is reported to be excellent in quality. Early indications are that there will be an ample supply at budget prices. They will be an especially good buy during the next two months before they are put into storage.

You may want to watch roadside markets for a few more late tomatoes. Recent rainfall has improved the quality.

South Sider Held In LA BankRobbery

A South Side father of three sons is being held under $25,000 bond in City Prison this week following his arrest last week by the FBI for a Los Angeles bank robbery.

Luther Brown Watts, 36, of 666 E. Livingston-av, waived a hearings before US Commissioner Robert Newlon and was bound over to the US District Court following formal charges by the FBI.

E. D. Mason, special agent in charge of the FBI's Cincinnati office, said a letter which Watts received from a Columbus physician led to the arrest.

The robbery netted Watts $1375, agents said.

Born and reared in Columbus, he formerly resided at addresses on Fourth-st and Mohawk-st.

His wife and family arrived in Columbus with Watts from California only last week. They had moved to California last November.

Wrestling Continues 4-5 Weeks

"There will be wrestling regardless of temperature from now on — bring blankets — we'll be freezing it thru for the next four or five weeks," Jones Park Wrestling Promoter Bob Rogers stated this week.

Appearing this Friday night will be the All-American Boy, Sonny Boy Karnes, going against Country Boy Westfall (265 pounds).

In the tag match it'll be Daniels and Hoover against Lamont and Birchim. "This is where the blond-headed baddies will go down in defeat," Bob Rogers stated.

In the special Labor Day show, 15-year-old sensation (135 pounds) Nancy Weiric made her wrestling debut against the masked outlaw. The outlaw, another gal, weighs 145 pounds—"and is mean as a snake," says Rogers.

Saturday night the young Obetz sensation, Jim Geedey, will tangle with Glenn "The Clown" Redman.

The statement was made by Jack Blondie Lamont that Chuck Stanley, the wrestling iron worker, was the man who injured his leg and put him out of the wrestling profession for two months.

Lamont challenged Stanley and said that there would be a bed reserved in Mt. Carmel Hospital for him.

These boys will tangle tomorrow night!

Ralph Tiger Whaley will take on Sonny Boy Hiles. A big four-man tag match will follow. Jerry Reed is now a member of the U.S. Marine Corps, stationed in California.

Ray Fleetfoot will be out of the ring for two or three weeks with an arm injury.

NEW LOOK—T. Kline Hamilton, president of Diamond Milk Products, and F. Michael Harrell, general manager, present the new Diamond Quality-Chekd advertising and merchandising program and the new line of Diamond Quality Chekd milk cartons to company employees at a kick-off meeting.

Diamond Milk Gives Area New Look In Dairy Products

There's a "new look" in dairy products in Central Ohio. Diamond Milk Products, largest home owned milk service is introducing a completely redesigned line of package.

"All our cartons are new and different from anything the public has seen before," said T. Kline Hamilton, Diamond president. "They are brighter and much more eye appealing. They express the latest in modern package styling."

Diamond's new line of cartons came about because of the local company's affiliation with the nationally famous Quality-Chekd Dairy Products Association. This is a voluntary group of more than 100 outstanding independent dairies operating in 35 states. Quality-Cheked maintains research laboratories and test kitchens in Chicago, and member dairies are subjected to additional rigid quality control.

The new Diamond Quality-Chekd containers were designed by Walton Landor and associates of San Francisco, Calif., one of the nation's top package designers. In the carton design, Landor and his group combined the "Big red check mark" with the new Diamond ensigna and "Diamond Joe" well known company trade character.

The completely new line of redesigned cartons as well as the other Quality-Chekd advertising and merchandising program were introduced to Diamond employees and families at a company dinner at the Southern Hotel.

Two South Side Girls Run Down By Stolen Auto

Two young South Side girls were the victims of a hit-skip auto stolen by two North Side teenagers last Thursday, but escaped with only minor injuries.

Barbara Hawthorne, 9, of 669 Kelton-av, and Dorothy M. Teery, 8, of 674 Kelton-av, were treated and released from Children's Hospital after the speeding auto hit them after making a wide left turn onto Mooberry-st, from Lilley-av.

Police, working on strength of descriptions supplied by witnesses to the accident, nabbed two North Side youths on foot in the 1500 block of Indianola-av.

Juvenile Bureau officers said one of the boys—who, records show, was found guilty of auto theft a few weeks ago—admitted shorting ignition wires to steal the car from the vicinity of North High School.

Letters To The Editor

Makes Plea For Another Disposal Plant

Dear Editor:

A plea for help for the residents of the South Side is being made at this time against the obnoxious odors coming from the Sewage Disposal and the Columbus Rendering Plant on W. Frank-rd.

These odors come up as far as Livingston-av and are most detrimental to the health of South Side citizens.

We have contacted county and city health officials who tell us they are investigating, but we still are getting the odors.

We residents of the South Side certainly think we need another disposal plant to help carry the load since one plant for a city the size of Columbus now seems almost preposterous.

We certainly hope someone takes the South Side into consideration.

Yours for a better and healthier community.

The Gadabout

Priscilla LaRue Lenox

HI. 4-1851

Oh, for a candid camera to catch the expression on an unknown woman's face when "Bertie" Blackburn started pushing the u.w.'s grocery cart at a grocery store.

But the mystery lady thoroughly understood when Bertie apologized and explained why her thoughts weren't in Columbus. A few hours before Mr. Blackburn's grocery shopping she had received a message from Denver, Col., that informed her the stork had landed in that high altitude city and made her a first-time grandmother not once, but twice.

Yep, Roberta Wilkins, daughter of Glen and Alberta Blackburn and wife of Howard, is now the mother of twins, as of Sept. 8. Friends of the former South High School graduate might like to send congratulatory cards to the Wilkins so we asked the proud grandma for the address. Here 'tis: 1441 E. 84th-av, Denver 29, Col.

Grandma Flys

The grandmother should have seen the twins by now, as she was planning to fly right out to be with her daughter. The resident of 756 Jaeger-st thinks the unexpected twins will be named Tracy and Terry (one is a girl, one a boy).

Host and hostess Dick and Loretta Luzader were expecting from 85 to 100 relatives for the Cordle reunion last Sunday, Sept. 13, at their home, 2821 Fairwood-av.

The young couple has already hosted the Luzader reunion this year. A rather unusual thing about the birthdays in the Luzader household, both Loretta and Dick share Aug. 31 as a natal day. Dick laughingly says they both have the same birthday and the same wedding anniversary.

Final Vacations

The last weeks of vacation found the Johnson clan, 241 E. Moler-st, visiting relatives in Frazeysburg. O. Barbara and Billy, the Johnson children, had the fun of showing a cousin the activities of Ohio's capital city upon the family's return home. The youngster was Charles McNaught of Frazeysburg.

Returning Charles home again the neighborhood playmate of Barbara and Billy, David Wiechers, 236 E. Moler-st, accompanied them on the short trip.

September is trotting right along, bringing birthdays to many of the area youngsters. Celebrants this week are Brenda Blair, 142 E. Welch, Sept. 17; Pamela Moore, 394 E. Morrill, Sept. 18; George Keeney, 429 Hanford-st, Sept. 23; James Adams, 120 Hanford, Sept. 18; Wendell Fellure, 1653 S. Fourth-st, Sept. 19; Robert Binder, 349 Sheldon, Sept. 20; Paul Fillinger, 268 Jenkins, Sept. 19; Janet Smith, 56 Frebis, Sept. 21; Leslie Henson, 1337 Bruck-st, Sept. 22.

The Jolly Joe Club will meet tonight at 7:30 in the home of Betty Murray, 899 Mohawk-st.

The ailing list for the week includes Joan Sickles who is in Mercy Hospital as we wrote this, and Ann Padovani 336 E. Moler-st. Lot of rest will be the destiny of well-known, well-liked Charles "Mike" Mileusnich, 1290 Moler-rd, in the months to come.

The insurance agent who has been active in South Side organizations and athletics, is now a patient at Benjamin Franklin Hospital. We would like to be able to give his room number at the hospital, but we are unable to do so. We called the hospital for this information, but we were informed that his mail would reach him if sent in care of the hospital.

Dirty Trick

The heat played a dirty trick on the vacationing Canter family. Russ, Cleo, Barb Sengel and the two little girls were headed for Florida and a ten-day vacation, but the heat made the vacation too warmish for comfort.

A sudden change of plans saw the three generations do an about-face and head for Michigan where the mercury in the thermometers doesn't climb so high.

PEBS No. 2 will meet Tuesday, Sept. 22, for a dessert luncheon in the home of Mrs. Roy Horcher, 826 E. Stewart-av.

Belated birthday greetings to Dick Rothwell, 140 E. Morrell-av, for achieving his 16th birthday late in August. Mary Kay Gilmore, 822 Thurman-av, will have a birthday on Sept. 19. Mrs. Angelo Felice, 212 Jenkins, will have a Sept. 21 birthday, and Isabel Dunkle, 93 E. Frebis, celebrates on the 23rd of the month. Bob and Ann Nolan chalk up a new year of wedded life on Sept. 22.

School time for college-age students finds these older teenagers getting used to new schedules and new schools: Richie Hugoniot is studying at Central Washington School of the Bible in Selah, Wash. "Sib" Dicke enters as a freshman and Bonnie Thomas is continuing her studies at Cincinnati Bible Seminary.

Mrs. Donald Ryan, 816 S. 17th-st, will be hostess to Trudeau Guild 12, Tuesday, Sept. 22, for a brunch meeting.

Cards In Order

Cherry cards are in order for Carrie Miller, 90 E. Gates-st, and Mrs. Schrader, Sheldon-av., who is now home from Mt. Carmel Hospital. Also convalescing from recent illnesses are Mary Westrich, 486 Melrose-av, and "Bert" Corcoran, 1158 Lockbourne-rd. The last two ladies are employes of a Whittier-st 5 & 10c store.

The Reich family traveled to Virginia Beach this last weekend to visit Bill Reich, who is in the Navy. Bill is a South High graduate of 1958. Lily Reich, his mother, is the efficient clerk of Southwood School.

All Trudeau Guild members are naturally working hard on the up-coming kick-off ball, held Friday, Sept. 25, at Valley Dale and the four South Side guilds are no exception. Guilds 10, 12, 19 and 25 are those with South Side origins. The dance will be held at Valley Dale from 9 to 1, with Chuck Selby's orchestra furnishing the music. For reservations call Mrs. James Fenneman, HI. 4-2297. Patients of Benjamin Franklin Hospital will benefit from the profits of the project.

Winner of the grand award, a week's vacation at beautiful Timberlane Acres, Pigeon Lake, Ontario, Canada, will be announced soon.

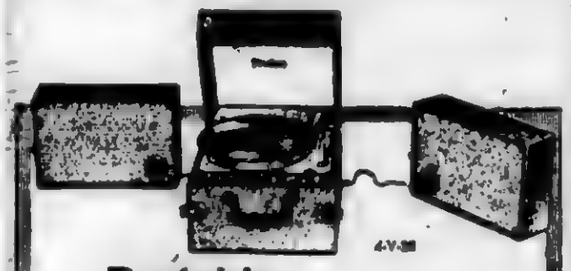
There are several interesting comments we should make about this year's Derby. First, there were some real giants entered in the contest. The winning crappie weighed just one ounce short of two pounds, and was 15 inches long.

The top bluegill was a ten and one-half incher and scaled a pound and seven ounces. The catfish category drew the most entries and several excellent fish were scored—the winner was 37 and one-half inches in length and weighed 27 pounds.

The second comment is that the Derby brought out again the fact there is mighty good fishing close to home. The winning walleye came from Rocky Fork Lake and the first catfish from the Muskingum River, but virtually all other winners were from local waters.

Big Walnut and Big Darby Creeks figured high in the smallmouth bass and carp classes. Hoover Dam scooped the largemouth bass category. Other winners came from the Scioto and Deer Creek. It would seem that Big Walnut and Hoover Dam are the most popular fishing waters in this area.

A lesson that might be learned from the Derby is that many of the winning entries came in during the last half of the contest. Spring is the traditional fishing season and probably more fish are caught then than at any other time. But this year most of the big ones were picked up after July 4.



Bass fishermen did not break any records, although there were many nice entries. You might expect the largemouth bass winner to top five pounds, but a four and a half-pounder took the honors. There were a lot of smallmouth bass entered that were caught in Lake Erie—a nationally famous spot for these fish. But local waters produced the winners, except one of the fish tied for third place.

All in all it was a tremendously successful Derby, and many thanks are due the official weighing stations. Congratulations to the winners, and we hope everyone else has better luck next time. Watch for the announcement of the winner of the free week's vacation in Canada!

SPORTALK

Final Column Finds Old Sport 'Retiring'

The abbreviated six-week series of Sportalk columns will come to a close this week. Just like the weary race hors that devotes his young life to doing his best—but never receiving the credit for his merits, the Ol' Sport too will be retired to that lovely looking greener pasture on the other side of the fence.

In this case, however, the "retiring" has been voluntary. Because of this, The Sport will devote his final muttereings to volunteering information and ideas as, he sees it, to the happenings in the world of sports—both amateur and professional—this season.

To say all there is to say in this final space would take all day, so to eliminate much of the usual wordiness we will list all our ramblings by category and department.

Best Idea: The formation of the South Side Saturday Independent Slo Pitch League.

Second Best Idea: The start of the annual South Side Community Nights in Jet Stadium.

Best Finish: Don's Inn to win the third round title in the SSSISPL.

Second Best Finish: That made by the Jets in the final IL standings.

Worst Finish: Toronto and Montreal tie for finishing out of the IL playoffs for the first time in over a decade.

Best Job Well Done—Proessional: Cal Ermer in leading those "dead" July Jets to their best finish in 11 years.

Best Job Well Done—Amateur: The organizers of the South Side's Saturday Independent Slo Pitch League.

Best Backing: Sponsors of teams in both the South Side Old Timers League and the SSSISPL.

Best Loser: Casey Stengle.

Worst Loser: Any poor sport in any kind of competition.

Biggest Kick: Pat Summerall' 49-yarder that led the New York Giants to victory over the Cleveland Browns in Yankee Stadium last December.

Worst Kicks: Those made by Jones Park wrestlers both during and after their bouts.

Best Organizers: Cap Hoover, Jim Wagner and Howard Henry of the South Side YMCA in their work with local youngsters.

Worst Organizers: Managers who moan when they have too few or too many players at a given contest.

Best Promoter: The South Side's Bob Rogers.

Best Promotion: Stan Lyons, Ohio State's All-American pole vaulter and a former Hartley Newspaper employe, to the position of Director of Recreation in Tehran, Iran.

Best Fans: Those on the South Side, of course.

Biggest Wish: to see The Sport's successor, whoever it may be, follow up the promotion of South Side sports.

Biggest Thanks: to all those who have cooperated in the conception of a Leader Sports Page.

In their 14 years in professional football, the Cleveland Browns have won their divisional title 12 times and copped their league championship seven times.

Landmark Blasts Kelleys; Win Title

Kirby's 3-Run Double Ices 14-7 Victory At Southwood

A long, bases loaded double with two out in the bottom of the fourth inning by Don Kirby proved the potent blow of the ballgame Saturday at Southwood Field as Landmark Cafe defeated Kelleys Tavern 14-7 to win the first South Side Saturday Independent Slo Pitch championship.

Kirby's drive, which handcuffed Kelley centerfielder Bill Bembow, scored what proved to be the winning runs and climaxed a big four-run fourth inning for the Landmarks.

Final game totals saw the Landmark score their 14 runs on 26 hits and one error. Kelley's blasted out 15 hits to score their seven runs.

Hitting star of the game was Young Tom Duckworth, 23-year-old centerfielder for the Landmark. Duckworth blasted a homerun, triple, and three singles in five trips to the plate, scored four runs and drove in one other.

Ike Boling, Ted Koetz, Glen Belcher, Ivor Boling and Jack Embelton divided 15 hits among them to aid in the new champ's attack.

Embelton's two-run homer in the second inning preceded the solo blast by Duckworth to give Landmark an early 6-5 lead after two innings.

The back-to-back blasts were the only homeruns hit in the wild contest.

Ray Berry and J. Moore slapped out six hits between them to lead the Kelley attack.

Kelleys tied the game at six-all in the top of the third on back-to-back doubles by D. Gibson and Jack Kelley. Landmark pitcher Old Tom Duckworth, buckled down following the two-bagger by Kelley to pitch shutout ball the remaining five and two-thirds innings.

Landmark went ahead for good in the fourth on six hits and a walk. Embelton and Young Duckworth singled and Ike Boling walked to load up the pads. Koetz and Belcher both forced runners at the plate on grounders to the infield to set the stage for Kirby's blast.

Kirby lined the third pitch deep to straight-away center for what looked like a sure three or four-base hit. Bembow, however, made a back-to-the-plate catch of the ball after a long run, only to see it drop from his glove after almost making what would have been the play of the day.

Boling, Koetz and Belcher, all on the run at the crack of the bat, scored easily on the hit.

A fine Landmark defense halted any would-be Kelley rallys following the fourth, and for all practical purposes the game was over.

Landmark added insult to injury in the bottom of the eighth however, when they scored four more times to turn the game into a route.

"Our outfield won that game" Landmark Manager Buck Santanich said following the game. "We made only one error, and in this kind of game that's really something."

Santanich agreed that Kirby's three-run double in the fourth inning was the turning point of the game. "If Bembow would have caught that drive there's no telling who would have gone on to win," Santanich added.

Only players on both teams not to get a hit during the wild 41-hit contest were Craycraft, Conley and Bembow — all of Kelleys.

Both teams gathered for a victory party at OLC following the game. Several fans were heard in passing to comment on the wonderful sportsmanship shown by the entire Kelley team in their losing effort.

HERE COMES WINNING RUN — Landmark's Ike Boling plates the lead run during a fourth inning rally of the Landmark-Kelleys championship game while Ted Koetz races in what proved to be the Landmarks' eighth and winning run of the game following a long double to centerfield by Don Kirby. Looking dejectedly at home plate is Kelly catcher J. Grady.

Duckworth Plumbers Flush Milo-Roc 20-0 In Opener

The Duckworth boys received the opening kickoff and marched 60-yards in 10 plays, all on the ground. Rick Anderson skirted the last 10 yards for the initial score. Anderson also plunged for the extra point.

The Milo-Roc boys refused to quit, however, as they stiffened their defense and held Duckworth scoreless for the rest of the first half.

The Plumbers displayed more power in the third quarter as Anderson hit left guard from the 5-yard line to score again, which climaxed a 35-yard drive. The drive started as Rocky Roshon blocked a punt.

It was nip and tuck again till the waning minutes of the game when Milo-Roc tried to pass from their own 10 yard line only to have Linebacker Mike Seum intercept and wiggle his way 20 yards to paydirt.

Fred Hammler hit right guard for the extra point.

Duckworth was able to show 13 first downs rushing to 4 for Milo-Roc. Coaches Bob Bateman and Don Strawser of Duckworth were able to clear the bench in the last quarter as they used all of their 35 players. Coaches Rod Buccila and George Bobst also substituted freely as most of the Milo-Roc boys got into the game.

Bulldogs, Red Raiders Start Fall Campaigns

Marion-Franklin gets off to an early start Thursday night and South plays a lone hand Friday as the lid prepares to blow off this year's football season.

The Raiders, playing a day early because of a Central Ohio teachers meeting Friday, will battle what promises to be the best Mifflin team in several years.

In fact, the visiting Cowpunchers haven't tasted victory since 1957 when they beat Marion-Franklin in their first game.

South will be the only Columbus team in action on the home front Friday night hosting Upper Arlington in a traditional fray.

The Bulldogs prepared for Friday's clash by scoring the only points Saturday night in the City League Preview at North.

After holding defending City League champions Linden, to a no-score standoff, the Bulldogs bounced back to down North, 6-0. The score came on a 27 yard pass by Jim Cordell to Phil Hopkins with 55 seconds remaining.

Marion-Franklin broke even in two preview quarters at Franklin Heights Saturday night. The Raiders started the evening by tripping St. Charles when Don Mosley scored the only points by sprinting nine yards into the end zone. Host Heights then took the measure of M-F on a 22-yard pass from Mike Holman to End Gary LeCaptain.

City To Dedicate New Marion Area Fire Station

New $150,000 Facility Open To Public Sunday

What probably represents Columbus' most important investment in the old Marion Township area will be dedicated to public use this Sunday afternoon.

Fire Station No. 22, built at the cost of $150,000 at Parsons and Southgate-avs, will be welcomed into the city's growing fire-fighting system with official ceremonies at 2 p.m. An open house will follow lasting until 6 p.m.

During the dedication, keys to the building will pass from Leland F. Brubaker, representing the architectural firm of Brown, Brubaker and Brandt which designed the structure, to Service Director Floyd Redick.

The keys will then be passed to Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner, who will turn them over to Safety Director Leo Phillips. The keys will become the possession of the city's Fire Department when Phillips gives them to Fire Chief Walter Strickfaden.

Many other civic officials and industrial leaders will be present at the affair including Police Chief George Scholer. Chairman of the dedication committee is Councilman William Hoermle.

Free refreshments will be available at the station during the day.

They will be served by "Miss Firefighter," the department's offical hostess.

Also taking part in the program will be Rev. Paul C. Kaefer, pastor of St. Paul's E. and R. Church, and the Right Rev. F. T. Riehl, of St. Ladislas.

Boy Scouts from Troop 243 of Benfield Avenue Church of Christ will participate in the flag raising ceremony. The new flag for the station was donated by Earl Wilson on behalf of the Great Southern Business Association.

Visitors will get a chance to inspect the three pieces of equipment which will be stationed at the new building. They include a 750-gallon pumper, a tanker and an inhalator squad car.

Men who will be added to the Fire Department's staff to help equip the new station when it is opened Oct. 1 are currently under training at Port Columbus. Only a few of these men, Chief Strickfaden said, will be assigned to one station with experienced men filling the remainder of the positions.

Hilltop Fisherman Is Derby Winner

By Rod Cochran

Right now an area fisherman, namely Lando Eblin, 160 S. Warren-st, is planning a fishing vacation on Pigeon Lake, Ontario. Decision of the judges was announced Saturday. Grand Award winner Eblin entered the two largest Walleyes in the Hartley Newspapers Fishing Derby which ended Labor Day.

Rules of the Derby permitted Eblin to win only one of the fishing tackle prizes — even though his second largest Walleye beat out other entries. The second Walleye division prize went to John P. Devore, 383 S. Ohio-av.

For the outstanding and spectacular feat of completely scooping the Walleye category, Eblin goes to beautiful Timberlane Acres for a free week's vacation next year.

Eblin's two Walleyes were 25 and 24 inches long—the larger weighed five pounds, 12 ounces, the smaller scaled five pounds, one ounce. The two

EUB Church Pays Honor To Minister

Washington Avenue EUB Church members held a special reception Wednesday night to honor Rev. Boyd C. Rife, who was celebrating his 25th anniversary as minister of the congregation.

While attending Otterbein, he served as pastor of the little Peachblow Church near the Perkins Observatory just south of Delaware.

A former district leader of his denomination for 17 years, Rev. Rife is president of the Ohio Southeast Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren board of trustees.

Church members who have been active in the congregation for 25 years or more were also honored at the reception.

Guessperts First Test Comes This Weekend

Football fans leaning forward with their eyes glued to the television set might well describe the position many Hartley Newspaper readers will find themselves taking this weekend.

They will be the many private pigskin guessperts who are taking part in the weekly Football Guessing Contest.

A new contest is staged each week giving every football fan who thinks he knows how things stack up this year—or feels unusually lucky—to qualify for prizes.

The first contest was held last week with readers making predictions about games to be played this weekend. When the results come off the scoreboard and become part of history, winners of the contest will be determined and announced in next week's issue of the newspaper.

This week's big contest is outlined complete with all the rules on a full page adverstisement within this newspaper.

Entries in the contest must be received at the Hartley Newspaper office by 12 noon the Tuesday after the blank appears in the newspaper. Mailed entries must be postmarked no later than the same time.

Winners of last week's contest will be eligible to receive, in the order of their finish, $10 in cash, a free dinner at Mohawk Grill and a bowling bag from Moose Lodge.

This week's contest winners will be offered, in the order of their finish, $10 in cash, one free haircut from Curt's Barber Shop of a world-wide globe from Steelton Jewelers.

KING FOOTBALL IS BACK . . .

King Football returned to the high school sports spotlight Friday night as the scholastic athletes took over the sports pages despite the redhot National League pennant race.

For the many who last November said "Wait until next year!" this is it. The hopes of many fans, players and coaches were dashed on opening night, though, if their team happened to lose.

Winning is important, and should remain paramount, too. The U. S. is what it is today because through the years it has had men who didn't know what it meant to lose

But athletics are a little different. They are not a do or die proposition, but rather a means to provide an outlet for youthful energy and to teach boys and girls to be humble in winning; good sports in losing.

It matters not too much if a team won, if that squad, its people, or both, were sportsmanlike in doing so. We have seen many winning teams lose their respect because of poor sportsship; we have seen losers who won the heart of everyone because of their conduct.

Let's all back our favorite team during this season — win or lose. Your team deserves your support.

Two Special Days Remain On Beulah Park Fall Card

Swinging into the second half of its fall meeting, Beulah Park has numerous special events coming up which promise to add considerably to the interest in the sport.

One of these is the annual "Appreciation Day" which is scheduled for Tuesday, Sept. 29. On this occasion, admission to the grandstand area will be free as a token of the track's appreciation to the public for its support at this and other meetings.

Free admission cannot be granted to the clubhouse because of the limited facilities in that area.

Meanwhile preparations are going forward for a big race on Saturday, Oct. 3, final day of the meeting. This will be the 15th running of the Ohio Championship, richest event on the Beulah Park calendar each year.

The purse is $10,000 added and the distance is a mile and a sixteenth. Horsemen in many racing areas have been contacted and it appears that the field will be one of the most representative in recent seasons.

A year ago there was a thrilling finish in the Championship when April Fool Farm's Clark came charging through the stretch to nip Darby Dan Farm's Land O'Peace in the final yards to gain the verdict.

BIBLE COMMENT:

New Church Holds Lesson For Everyone

The newly constructed church in the French fishing town of Fecamp on the English Channel is a marvel of modern religious architecture.

The public section of the church is perfectly round, with walls of stained glass. The ceiling is so high that an inflated balloon carried workmen to its heights when the building was under construction.

Tourists from all over Europe and America mingle with the local fishing folk during mass—to admire the grandeur of the modernistic glass and design of the church.

One old, visiting priest addressed the assembled crowds one Sunday morning:

"My friends," he said, "your church has attracted people from many nations who come to admire and be fascinated by the glory that man has produced.

"But let us not forget that beside the works of God, this church is but a pile of dust and straw."

So we, too, must not forget that man's work are finite and temporary compared to the lasting majesty of the construction of God's universe.

Lest, in our vanity, we grow too large in our own eyes, let us look beyond our modest achievements to God's perfect triumph of living creation.

The World Series in color! Baseball fans will be interested to know that all color set dealers in Columbus will have available a limited number of invitations to see the Series' colorcasts in the showroom of The Electric Company. All you have to do is go in and ask for them.

WLW-C will carry the entire Series. We are fairly certain at this writing that the first two games will be played in an American League park (presumably Chicago) on Wednesday, Sept. 30 and Thursday, Oct. 1 at 12:45 p.m. (Columbus time). From there on your guess is as good as ours.

Between Nikita S. Khrushchev, the World Series and the multitudinous new shows that are appearing on all three networks this season, TV programming has become a little difficult to say the least.

The Soviet Premier will bid his TV farewell to America at 6 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 27. His one-hour talk, a colorcast, will be an exclusive presentation by the NBC-Television and Radio networks and will recall another "NBC Exclusive" a quarter of a century ago — the first radio broadcast from Soviet Russia.

Just prior to Mr. Khrushchev's talk, Channel 4 will program locally "Columbus Looks at Khrushchev," with WLW-C news director Hugh DeMoss heading a half-hour of interviews and films.

The telecasts of the Soviet Premier's visit have been interesting from many angles. The NBC News coverage of his arrival in Washington on Sept. 15 was one of the biggest, most complex remote TV operations ever seen in the nation's capital. A total of 19 TV cameras from all three networks was used in the "pool" coverage of the arrival at Andrews Air Force Base of the mammoth TU-114 jet and the motor cavalcade into Washington.

The TV signals were fed into the NBC News control room in Washington to form the pool picture used by all three networks. Engineers from A. T. and T. had worked a week on the huge network of cables and microwave relays necessary for the coverage.

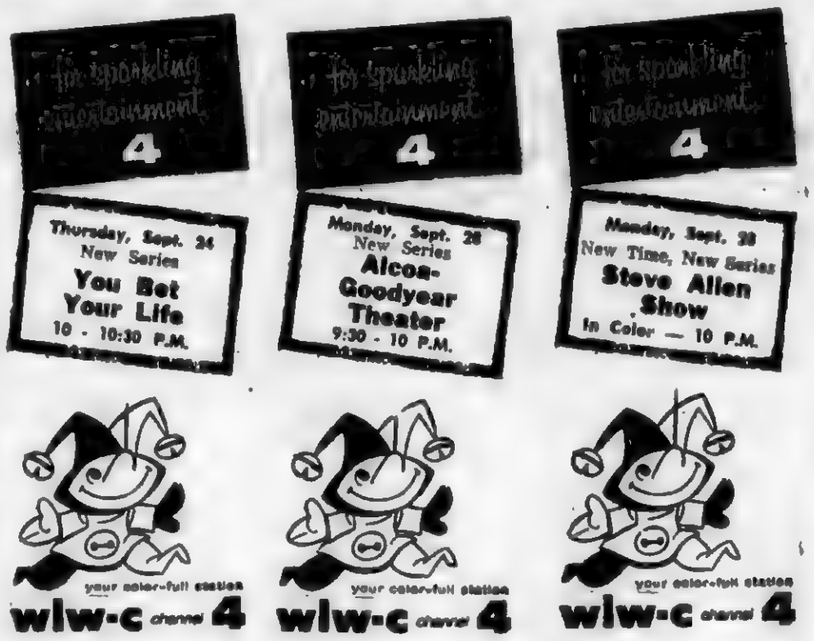
NBC News also chartered a Convair 440 to serve as a "flying newsroom" to "leap-frog" ahead of the Premier on his American tour. The 18-man news crew traveled at night during the hours Mr. Khrushchev was resting, thereby landing at each city ahead of him to permit complete coverage starting with his arrival.

It's 10 for 10! Congratulations are in order for WBNS-TV whose tenth anniversary comes up this week. In honor of the event, a special anniversary show will be carried on Channel 10 at 10:30 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 25.

With football fever in the air, Channel 6 has arranged to have its viewers meet the coaches of all Ohio State's opposing teams when they play here in Columbus. "The Opposite Bench" will be seen Friday nights at 11:15 before each OSU game. And the famous Fighting Irish will be seen on the TV screen every Sunday, beginning Sept. 27 when Channel 4 starts carrying one-hour telecasts of the games the day after they are played by Notre Dame.

Dr. John F. Baxter will meet his first class in Modern Chemistry at 6:30 on the morning of Monday, Sept. 28 when "Continental Classroom" begins its second TV season on WLW-C. Colleges in this area which have already decided to give credit for the course are Ohio State University, St. Mary of the Springs and Ohio U. at Athens. For explicit information regarding registration and credit, those who are interested should contact one of the schools in question.

Photogenic and crew-cut, Dr. Baxter will be the regular teacher of the two-semester course to be telecast in color from coast to coast. He promises that his "students" will meet "some of our major prophets." Fifteen of the nation's outstanding scientists will be guest lecturers from time to time during the first semester. Among them will be two Nobel prize winners in chemistry, Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg and Dr. Harold C. Urey.



Last year's "Continental Classroom," the course in Atomic Age Physics, will be rerun by the network this season and will be carried on a delay by WOSU-TV, Channel 34, sometime around the dinner hour in the evenings. Dr. Harvey White's physics course won nine distinguished awards last year, including the Sylvania and Peabody.

Several old favorites will return this week and others will change time. Steve Allen comes back on Monday nights at 10, Perry Como on Wednesdays at 8, and Ernie Ford, Thursdays at 9:30 — all on Channel 4 and all in color.

Channel 10 finds "To Tell the Truth" moving to Thursdays at 7:30 p.m. and "December Bride" holding down a daytime spot while Betty Hutton begins a new series on Thursdays at 8 instead.

Thursday nights seem to be quite busy, for Channel 6 listings show Gale Storm returning at 7:30 and Pat Boone at 9. Pat's appearance at this time makes "Beaver" move to Saturday at 8:30 beginning Oct. 3.

Desi and Lucy start their new season on Friday, Sept. 25 at 9 p.m. on WBNS-TV, with "Uncle Miltie" as their guest, and will be followed at 10 on WLW-C by the "Schnozzola," Jimmy Durante, in a special hour-long comedy colorcast. His guests will be Lawrence Welk, Sal Mineo, Gisele MacKenzie, Bobby Darin and Ginny Tiu, five-year-old pianist from Hong Kong. It sounds like quite an evening.

WHO'S FOOLING WHO?

PARSONS LIBRARY NEWS

Books On Satelites Shelved To Meet Space-Age Curiosity

To meet the increasing demand for books in the general subject field of space flight, publishers in recent months have brought out a flood of books on earth satellites, space exploration, rockets and other related subjects. Many of these titles are available at the Parsons Avenue Library, according to Librarian Margaret Bausch.

"Russia's Sputniks and the satellites put in orbit by the U.S. have boomed interest in rockets and space travel," the librarian said.

Among recently-published books are three which describe programs of Russia and the United States in layman's terms. David Woodbury, a well-known science popularizer, has written "Around the World in 90 Minutes," while Martin Caidin covers the satellite story in "Worlds in Space."

Still other books describe the man-made moon programs and tells how they may be used as springboards to interplanetary flight.

Older titles which give basic information about the earth satellite programs include "Making of a Moon," by Arthur Clarke; "Vanguard," by Martin Caidin, and "Space flight and Satellite Vehicles," by R. B. Beard.

Problems and hazards to be faced in space flight and how the space age may affect our lives are discussed in other books published recently. One of the best of the current books is "Spacepower," by Donald Cox and Michael Stoiko. The authors tell how the space age will affect our job, home, mode of living, and world peace.

Numerous other space guides have also been published recently. Some of the additional titles are the revised "Tomorrow—the Moon," by Marcus and Marcus; "Satellites and Spaceflight," by Eric Burgess; "Rocket to the Moon," by Bergaust; "Man into Space," by Herman Oberth, and many other books on spaceflight.

Jehovah's Witnesses Slate Showing Of Convention Film

Dean G. Bourne, presiding minister of the south congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses announced this week that he has arranged for a free showing of the hour and a quarter color film "Divine Will International Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses," at Kingdom Hall, 1705 S. High-st, Thursday, Oct. 1, at 7:30 p.m.

Public press, newsreels and other news channels gave worldwide attention to this assembly last summer, acclaiming it as the world's largest Christian convention. For eight days it packed both Yankee Stadium and the Polo Grounds in New York City.

A quarter-million delegates from 123 lands were present at the climax of the event to hear Nathan H. Knorr, Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society's president, speak on the subject "God's Kingdom Rules—Is The World's End Near?"

Opening sequences of the film picture the Bible words, "They shall beat their swords into plowshares," carved on the United Nations headquarters building.

Packed with action throughout, scenes include the mass baptism of more than 7,000 persons at one of New York's beaches. An audience of 194,000 unanimously adopted a vow to maintain peace and unity in their ranks. Foreign-language sessions held in 20 languages. Two giant cafeterias serving 1,000 meals a minutes, operated by 12,000 workers.

Adding a fungicidal chemical to asphalt varnish used in painting tree wounds prevents growth of fungi that cause decay in shade trees, U.S. Department of Agriculture research has shown.

trophy fish came from Rocky Fork Lake, near Hillsboro, and were of tremendous size for downstate Walleyes.

Walleye fisherman Eblin will have a chance to try his hand on Canadian Walleyes next summer, according to Maurley E. Sutton, 185 Binns-blvd., owner of Timberlane Acres. "In addition to Walleyes," says Sutton, "we have good fishing for bass muikellunge and northern pike in our waters.

"We'll do everything possible to see that Mr. Eblin gets to the good fishing spots and enjoys himself while a guest of Timberlane Acres. He will stay in a waterfront cottage, which is completely modern, and will look out of a large picture window on the beautiful scenery we have up there."

With the prospect of a fishing trip of a lifetime ahead, we wouldn't blame Eblin if he started packing his bag and fishing gear anytime now.

Judges of the Derby were: John Z. Pelton, 276 E. Como, chief of fishery improvements section, Ohio Division of Wildlife; Fred Schob, 1214 Sandlin-av, wildlife patrolman; and Ted Lee, 966 Wilson-av, prominent Ohio sportsman and education chairman of the League of Ohio Sportsmen.

All three stated they were amazed at the size of a lot of the fish entered, and that except for the winning Walleye and the first catfish, weighing 27 pounds from the Muskingum River, the winners were from local waters.

They asked that this fact be brought out again — that there is good fishing right here at home for those who go after it. Most local catches were reported from Hoover Dam and Big Walnut Creek.

The judges were not pleased, however, to find that very few of the entries were caught by women or youngsters. A search of the entries revealed only two boys, and to stimulate interest in fishing in the younger generation, they proclaimed both boys as honorable mention winners—their loot will be a selection of lures.

Winners are Jay Potts, Reese Station, and James Yates, 120 Thurman-av.

So, with the awarding of the Grand Prize, and two honorable mentions, the Hartley Fishing Derby is over for another year. It is our sincere hope, however, that you will continue to enjoy fishing and the outdoors all year long, and especially the youngsters to whom outdoor sports are great adventure.

Don't Discard Your Plants, Send Them To A Hospital

"A thoroughly enjoyable three weeks" was the happy (but tired!) verdict of four Columbusites after their trip to the west coast recently.

Taking the north route going, and the south route returning, the four vacationers crammed as much sight-seeing as possible into their long trip. The four travellers were Mr. and Mrs. Al Pfeiffer, 372 Stewart-av, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pfeiffer, also of Columbus. While in Los Angeles, Calif., the visitors spent their time with Margie (Pfeiffer) Blackridge, who is the daughter of Ed and the niece of Al. One of the thrills for the Columbusites was their visit to the movie lot where Desi Arnaz makes many of his TV productions.

Two young cousins celebrate birthdays just three days apart in September. Nancy Reuter, 1576 Oakwood-av, was seven years old yesterday, the 23rd, and Bonnie Althen, 1560 Oakwood-av, will be sweet sixteen on Saturday, the 26th. Bonnie has been spending her "free" time in such a worthwhile fashion we'd like to tell about it. This young majorette of Marion-Franklin is a volunteer at the Hearing and Speech Center and spent her entire vacation working at the center. Her mother and aunt were pleasantly surprised, to say nothing of Bonnie's amazement, when she was presenjed a 200-hour service pin at a recent meeting of the group that does volunteer work for the center.

When we hear of youngsters like Bonnie, the thought always comes to us "why can't the good deeds of juveniles be given as much recognition as the delinquent acts of the minority?" It's worth thinking about.

Tomorrow's the night for the Trudeau Guild Kick-Off Ball, held from nine to one at Valley Dale. Chuck Selby's orchestra will play for the dancing. A South Sider, Mrs. James Fenneman is in charge of reservations. The number to call is HI. 4-2297.

The Fidelis Class, Southwood Church of Christ, will hold a 6:30 pot luck at the church this Saturday, Sept. 26.

It's birthday time for these youngsters . . . Lyman Golden, 416 E. Jenkins-av, Sept. 29; Merle Sunday, 78 Woodrow-av, Sept. 25; Beverly Preston, 32 E. Innis-av, Sept. 28; Ronald Burton, 1723 S. Sixth-st, Sept. 28; William Johnson, 241 E. Moler-st, Sept. 30; Susan Larrimer, 130 Woodrow-av, Sept. 24; Gary Preston, 32 E. Innis-av, Sept. 29; Janice Prater, 373 Southwood-av, Sept. 24; Maryann Rice, 1741 S. Sixth-st, Sept. 27; Sharon Dreizigacker, 1522 S. High-st, Sept. 26; Mike Miller, 494 Hanford-st, Sept. 23; Penni Sue Colmery, 638 Frebis-av, Sept. 15; Danny O'Hara, 2476 Lockbourne-rd, Sept. 22; Kenny Yunker, 158 E. Morrill-av, Sept. 22; Rose Ann DiGioia, 3216 Parsons-av, Sept. 13.

We always feel that the fall season of the year is officially here when the kind ladies of St. Ladislas parish tell us about their annual Spaghetti Dinner, so we'll expect the leaves of the trees to start changing color any day now! It's always so pleasant to visit our friends at 277 Reeb-av. The annual Spaghetti Dinner will be held this Sunday, Sept. 27, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Adult tickets are $1.25, children's tickets, 65 cents. To make the dinner even nicer, there is free baby-sitting service, and a carry-out service. You needn't worry about buying tickets beforehand, for they are available at the door. The public is cordially invited.

This is an eventful week for quite a few folks we know, so happy anniversaries to Virg and Vivian Lenox, on Sept. 25 and to Betty and Wally Dean, 898 Studer-av, on Sept. 30. It's birthday time for Mary DeMatteo, 1582 Studer-av and Wanda Haney, Sept. 26 celebrants; on Sept. 27, Father Time spins the time wheel a click for Mabel Trigg, 160 E. Gates-st, Darrel Itskin, 1713 S. Third-st, and Frank LaRue, September 28 is the birthday for Aretas Grozinger, 1511 Wilson-av, and Sept. 29 brings a new year to Imogene Brown.

Cloverleaf Clubs Two and Nine will be meeting within the week. Cloverleaf Two will meet at 8 p.m. Sept. 29, at the home of Mrs. Walter Holden, 1295 Studer-av. Cloverleaf Nine will have Mrs. Elmer Stehle, 247 Sycamore-st, as hostess, at 8 p.m., on Sept. 30.

Every time the phone rings and Mary Merritt is the one calling, we never know what strange request she'll ask of ye Gadabout. (Secretly, we have always enjoyed the odd favors she's asked of us, but don't tell her so.) Once she asked us to be a panellist on the "What Was My Line" at Ben Franklin; another time she appointed us to be one of the five MC's to fill in for Nita Hutch's program, and now she's done it again . . . Mary, that is! We went to WCOL recently, with some of the other Trudeau Guild members where we recorded spot announcements for that radio station, anent the Trudeau Dance. Our unsolicited comment is that everyone should have a Mary Merritt-type friend, to put spice into life! While thinking of Benjamin-Franklin Hospital, we'll pass along a brain storm we had too late last year, with hopes something could be done this year. In a chat with Irene Mart, special services director at the hospital, she told us how much enjoyment the patients received from tending plants and flowers. At that time, Jack Frost had already nipped the plants in flower boxes, etc., so it was a little too late to do much about it. If you are just planning to let your porch and flower-box pretties succumb to the frost this year, won't you think of the long-time patients who get such a pleasure in watching a pretty plant grow on their window sill? The common plants come readily to mind, as geraniums, begonias, coleus, even petunias, etc. It would be preferred not to have the plants "giant" in size as they would be too unwieldy for the cleaning staff. We've cleared the idea with Mrs. Mart, so we know the patients will be glad to have them.

Perhaps you have another hospital in mind, such as Alum Crest, etc, but the main thing is to pass the plants on where someone else can enjoy them instead of letting them become frost-killed. Our "spider-plant" has been most co-operative in growing this year. We hope to start some for the patients. Mrs. Mart told us about one man who had reached a standstill in his recovery, when someone gave him an African Violet. Tending his plant gave him a new interest and a quickened recovery.

Morale is one of the main items in the return to health for a tubercular, and the disease is of longer duration than the ordinary type. If you're interested in donating to the patients, we'll have the Irishman drive us round to pick them up. Just call HI. 4-1051. (And don't forget the "Gifts For Giving" we'll soon be conducting for the fifth year).

St. Mary's PTA and PCCW are co-sponsors for the monthly euchre party, Tuesday, Sept. 29, 8:30 p.m. at the high school, 685 Mohawk-st. Admission is 50 cents for an evening of fun and door prizes.

Boy Scout Troop 31, of South Methodist Church, had a week-end camping trip in Hocking County last weekend. Richard Luzader is the Scoutmaster for the troop.

A family celebration will mark the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stoneburner, 906 Linwood-av. The Stoneburners are life-long Columbus residents.

Mark McFayden, 40 E. Moler, will celebrate his first birthday this week.

Juvenile Center Holds Teenager In Sunday 'Joke'

A Truro Township youth who claims he terrorized a neighboring family Sunday night as a practical joke was held under formal delinquency charges this week at Juvenile Center.

The youth, Denny Foor, 17, of 2500 Noe-Bixby-rd has admitted entering a home at 5100 Refugee-rd with a gunny sack over his head and terrorizing Mrs. Roy T. Richards and her three daughters.

Mrs. Richards fired three shots at the youth and then he fled. The youth however, denies Mrs. Richards' accusation that he also fired at her, according to Sheriff's Lt. Ellsworth Beck.

Area Residents Do Well In TB Seal Contest

Hartley Newspaper readers distinguished themselves Sunday afternoon at the annual contest to design the national TB Christmas Seal for 1961. The event is sponsored by the TB Society and Columbus Art School.

Ned Moore, 178 Guernsey-av, advertising artist received $100 as top award for his rag doll and toy soldier peeping out of Christmas stockings.

Second place was taken by Terry Smith, Reynoldsburg, who won a $50 art scholarship for his children building a Christmas tree of blocks, and fifth award went to Dorothy Schreiber, 645 E. Seymour-av. She received a family membership to Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts.

Another design by Smith, one by Mrs. Mary Holcomb, 2895 Sullivant-av, and a third by Laud Poe Jr., 90 Delray-rd, were accorded honorable mention.

Seventy-six designs, most of them by commercial artists, competed.

All will hang in the Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts until Friday morning when they will be sent to the National Tuberculosis Association to compete in October with similar entries from throughout the country. Winning designer will receive $500.

The national Christmas seal is always selected two years prior to use and is reproduced eight billion times. Income from its sale produces approximately $26 million to support 3000 TB associations throughout the United States and its possessions.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Fruits—Apples, grapes, pears, canned fruit cocktail, frozen orange juice.

Vegetables—Potatoes, spinach, squash, canned tomatoes.

Protein Foods—Medium eggs, chicken, small turkeys, frozen ocean perch, rib-end pork roast, cheese.

SAVE NOW ON CANNED GOODS

This is the time of year when you can often make big savings in canned goods. During the past few weeks retailers have been offering "specials" on canned fruits and vegetables. The processing industry, made up of canners, brokers, distributors, wholesalers and retailers, put on a big promotional effort in September and early October.

How Savings Are Passed On—Processors have been hard at work packing this year's crop of fruits and vegetables. Because the canning season is short, supplies mount up rapidly. In order to start the new pack through distribution channels, price concessions are often made along the lines down to the food shopper. Then, too, carryover stocks of last year's pack on some canned items may be greater than normal, and in order to make room for the new pack prices are lowered.

Another form of savings may come in the lesser known labels. These are labels you may never have seen before. Many local brands show up in the fall and early winter and can be as good in quality as nationally advertised brands.

Labels Tell a Story—Find out what is inside the can by developing the habit of label reading. Let the label serve as a "window" to help you select the best product for your intended needs. Labels are backed by laws and standards established by the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act for foods that cross the state line. The requirements make sure that you know what you are paying for if you read carefully all the information on the label.

Quality Varies—Most homemakers say they rely on brand names to get the quality they want. It is rare to find a label bearing a U.S. grade in the present day food market. Many stores and packers use different brand names to denote quality. While the brand name is a reliable buying guide, it is important also to keep these things in mind:

(1) Top grade is not always the best buy. Choose with use in mind. Top grades may be desirable for salads which call for large whole fruit pieces, while lower grades would do just as well for pies, etc.

(2) Grades do not denote the nutritive value of a food.

(3) Recent studies show that while price is some indication of quality, it is not an infallible guide.

EXPERIENCE IS THE BEST TEACHER

According to Mrs. Loren Crumley, Groveport, president of the Home Demonstration Clubs in Columbus and Franklin County, approximately 400 club members have decided to learn "what's inside the cans" before they buy. Mrs. Crumley says the clubs are having interesting sessions at their September meetings where different brands of the same product are opened for the group to examine and compare. This way the cost of examining many brands are not prohibitive. Would this be a worthwhile activity for your club?

Second Half Mistakes Hurt Stumbling South

Stumbling South High gridders lost their footing in the second half Friday night as a saddened Mahaffey Stadium crowd watched Upper Arlington take advantage of two big breaks in notching a 22-8 decision.

Trailing 8-6 at halftime, the Golden Bears were given their first scoring opportunity early in the third period when a bad pass from center sailed over the head of South quarterback Jim Cordell.

With Cordell downed on his own 11, Arlington waited three plays before Ron Clawson sliced over left tackle for the tie breaking tally.

A Bulldog rally in the final stanza saw Cordell complete a 51-yard pass to Phil Hopkins giving South a first down on the Golden Bear 16. Fading to pass again, Cordell had the ball stolen by Arlington's Lance Chilton.

Given possession on the host's 30, the Bears started a 70-yard touchdown march sparkplugged by Kent Jones who galloped 70 yards on one play. Chilton dived over for the score from the four.

Arlington's other score came following the opening kickoff when the Golden Bears marched 72 yards to paydirt with Chilton shooting around right end for the tally.

South staged a vigorous comeback with Hopkins returning the kickoff to the Bulldog 46. Two plays later, Jerry Meinrod raced 35 yards on an outside belly play for the score. Cordell passed to Hopkins for the extra point and South led 8-6 with 3:30 remaining.

Y Inter-Church Program Slated

Participants in the Horseshoe Leagues and managers and coaches in the South Side YMCA Inter-Church Athletic Program will hold a laymen's round-up, Saturday, Oct. 3, at Y-Park from 3 to 8 p.m.

A horseshoe exhibition match will open the program at three o'clock with a discussion on "Church Athletics" scheduled from 7 to 8 p.m.

Any South Side Church wishing to participate in the roupd-up is urged to contact Howard Henry at the South Side Branch YMCA, HI. 4-2151, or at his home, HI. 3-6629.

Walt Whitman's "Leaves of Grass" and Henry W. Longfellow's "Hiawatha" were both published in 1855.

Jones Park Wrestling Will Continue On Sunday Nights

Two disqualifications marred an otherwise happy weekend for Jones Park matmen who braved cold weather two nights to give fans a healthy serving of grappling action.

Jones Park starts a new wrestling schedule this weekend ending the Friday night matches and scheduling cards for Saturday and Sunday nights.

Friday night action saw Sunny Boy Karns, the All-American Boy, being virtually knocked out of breath before Chuck Stanley was disqualified for diliberate choking.

Following Stanley and Karns into the ring were the sensational Cherokee Indian star Ray Fleetfoot and Ralph "Tiger" Whaley. Fleetfoot ended the match with a Boston crab on Whaley in 10:05.

In the tag team match, Whaley and Stanley teammed up on Fleetfoot and used rough tactics to aggrevate a back injury. Whaley scored the first fall in 10 minutes applying a back breaker to the stunned Indian.

When the Indian returned to the ring, he couldn't make it back to his corner before Whaley applied the painful pressure again to win another fall. Fleetfoot's back had to be snapped back into place in the dressing room.

Whaley returned Saturday night battling to a 45 minute draw with Sunny Boy Hiles. Neither man scored a fall.

Sonny Boy Karns, substituting for the injured Jim Geedy won over Glenn Redman in the second match with a back breaker.

In the main event, Whaley and Hiles, having tremendous respect for each other, asked promoter Bob Rogers if it would be possible for the pair to team up. After Rogers gave his approval, Whaley turned in the fastest fall in Jones Park history pinning Fleetfoot in 35 seconds.

Fleetfoot evened the score later by whipping Sonny Hiles in 10:45 to square the match. Lowell Palm then tried some rough stuff with "innocent" Whaley and was disqualified giving Hiles and his teammate the match.

The Saturday night card this week sends "Jumping Jack" Lowell Palm against Ray Fleetfoot and Frank Pichen against the Obets sensation Jim Geedy. There will also be a four man tag team match.

Sunday night will be something special. The girls will perform on the mat with the Masked Outlaw wrestling Judy Weyrick in the feature bout.

In other action, Ralph Whaley will meet Lowell Palm. Jack "Blondie" LaMont, the French Canadian Giant, will meet the wrestling iron worker Chuck Stanley in a grudge match.

Mifflin Bows To Marion In Opener

Mifflin's Cowpunchers, who haven't won a game in two years, held Marion-Franklin at bay for three quarters before admitting defeat Thuraday night on the Red Devil turf, 14-12.

Hop Smith and Jim White tallied markers in the first and third periods respectively for Mifflin giving the Cowpunchers a 12-8 edge when the fourth period got underway.

Facing defeat, the Red Devils staged a comeback drive with Larry Crabtree plunging over from the one for the deciding tally.

The victory margin was provided by Everett Field after a first period score by Danny Hall when he ran for two extra points.

Red Devil defensive standouts were Danny Hall and Gary Stover.

Mifflin's last victory was a decision over the Marion-Franklin Red Devils in the first game of 1957.

Mifflin	6	0	6	0	—12
M. Franklin	8	0	0	6	—14

Scoring: Mifflin — Touchdowns—Smith, White; Marion-Franklin — Touchdowns — Hall, Crabtree. Conversion — Fields (run).

Duckworth Plumbers Drown Reynoldsburg In TD Torrent

Duckworth Plumbers showed both power and depth in downing Reynoldsburg 56-0 at Reynoldsburg last Sunday, as they won their second victory in as many starts.

Six boys scored in the parade of touchdowns. Rocky Roshon started things off early in the first period by scampering 25 yards for his first of three touchdowns. His others came on runs of 15 and 18 yards respectively. Roshon was able to chalk up 20 points before he quit for the day.

Not to be outdone, his younger brother, Dick, scored a touchdown, bulling his way from five yards out.

Next in the parade of touchdowns, the Plumbers went to the air as Jerry Robison tossed over the middle to Roger Harper, who outdistanced the Reynoldsburg boys as he raced from the 35-yard line to paydirt.

The other two touchdowns were scored by Skeeter Ellis and Fred Hamler as both boys hit pay-dirt from the five-yard line in the last quarter.

Extra points were chalked up by Rocky Roshon, Marc Borst, Rick Anderson, Skeeter Ellis and Tex Rife.

The defensive play of linemen Mark Rhoades, Jim Osborn and Andy Pocrik was outstanding.

All-Stars Nip Landmark In Playoffs

Landmark might be the champion of the South Side Sunday Afternoon Independent Slow Pitch League, but it can't beat the best of the loop combined into a single team.

That was proven Sunday when the All-Stars gathered 24 hits in downing Landmark, 16-11.

Bob Bender (Olympian Club) and Ron Blaum (Omars) both rapped home runs and singles for the winners. Jack Moore (Kelly's Inn) pounded out a triple and two doubles while teammate Duck Henry (Corner Kids) slammed three singles and a double.

Three singles apiece were hammered out by Don Kreighbaum (Don's Inn). Jim Fallon (Don's Inn) and Dick Hall of (Omars).

Landmark was paced by Glenn Belcher who had a great afternoon hitting two singles, two doubles and a home run.

Jack Embelton and Roger Hackett also contributed round trippers with the latter also adding a double. Ray Ellis accounted for three triples.

Partridge, Pheasant, Quail Readied For Sportsmen As Ramblin Acres Game Farm Opens Near Darbydale

By John Poeppelmeyer

"A picturesque 200-acre Ohio flatland grain farm stocked with large ringneck pheasants, quail and partridge to afford an ideal hunting paradise," is how the owner and operator described it

And that apt description truly fills the bill

Ramblin Acres Game Farm located at Opposum Run-rd, one-half mile from Darbydale, opened at the beginning of this month, for what the owners feel will be a successful undertaking

The men responsible for the newest sporting enterprise in the south-western area are Hugh "Bud" McKinley and Gene Harbage Both have been interested in outdoor game activity for most of their lives

Free To Roam

According to them, guests will be free to "roam through fields of clover, across corn fields and along fence rows" hunting for game. "It is a natural habitat for upland wild game," McKinley stated

Combined with this rich bountiful game land is the concern of propagation of wild life and the conservation of natural resources The men worked in cooperation with the wildlife division and the Franklin County Soil Conservation Service McKinley pointed out.

500 Birds

Some 500 game birds are now on hand for hunters to contend with The season opened Sept 1 and will continue through March 15. Hunters will be allowed on the property from sun-up to sun-down every day but Sunday.

An Ohio hunting license is required to seek out the prey Guides and dogs will be available upon request

"We also board and train dogs here," Harbage said, "if owners are interested enough in having their dogs learn to hunt game."

Fee is $12 per person per day for shooting two pheasants or partridge or three quail, Harbage stated. Additional birds run $5 per pheasant and $3 per quail. No limit has been set

Rabbits Free

During Ohio open season, rabbits may be taken at no additional charge, the owners said Reservations must be made in advance, both men stated

Only modern shotguns in good condition are permitted on the hunting area Upland bird shot, number six or seven and a half, should be used for pheasants. Cylinder bore guns and number eight or nine for quail McKinley explained.

Ducks should be ready to fire upon next season, he said

McKinley was National Doubles Trap Shooting champ in 1955 He has twice been a member of the All-American Trap Shooting Team, in 1951 and 1955

Harbage operated a farm for some nine years near West Jefferson He has been interested and worked with outdoor sports for most of his life

GAME GALORE—Some 500 birds are presently stocked in these pens at Ramblin Acres Game Farm on Opossum-rd near Darbydale. Fred Dingis looks over the recent shipment of game birds that includes pheasants, quail and partridge. The picturesque 200-acre hunting land opened at the beginning of September.

READY AND RARIN'—All set to lend hunters a hand when they arrive for some outdoor activity are Gene Harbage and his short-haired German pointer, Heinrich. Gene holds a pheasant in his arms, ready to let loose at the beck and call of any hunter.

Rain May Stop Some City Smells

Storm sewers with massive cases of halitosis—brought on by the long dry spell, more than likely caused the odors that brought complaints from Mrs Carl E. Brown of 1234 S Fourth st

That's the belief of Richard D Schafer, the city's smoke abatement chief

The dry spell evaporated water in sewer traps, similar to, but much larger than traps in kitchen sinks, Schafer said

"We received complaints from bad odors from sewers all over the city," he said. "A darn good rain would fill up the traps and eliminate the odors"

Mrs Smith complained that several times during the summer she noticed the odors and that once she had to keep her windows closed on a Saturday evening when the mercury hit 99 degrees

In answering her complaint Schafer listed as other possible sources of the odors the city sewage treatment plant, the Frank-rd city dump and the privately-owned Columbus rendering plant But, he said, it is unlikely odors from those places bothered Mrs Brown because of the distance of her home from the three facilities

UPSETS JAR CONTESTANTS

Pigskin Winners Revealed

Three big upsets, one each in the high school, college and professional football circuits, threw the best of guesser efforts to the wind and made this week's Hartley Newspaper football contest a free-for all.

Westerville, Indiana and Green Bay, defying all predictions (including our own guesserts), battered their favored opponents into submission and served notice on the football world.

On the other hand, nearly every participant correctly tabbed Ohio State, Heidelberg and Grandview to finish in the victor's circle.

Winners in the contest were Adeline Rhodes, 88 E. Mithoffst; Dorsel Santee, 400 E. Hinman-av, and Mrs. C. K. Wilson, 978 S. Front-st, in that order

They will have their choice, in the order of their finish, of $10 in cash, a free dinner at Mohawk Grill and a bowling bag from Moose Lodge.

Entries are already in for games which will be played this weekend Prizes in that contest are $10 in cash, one free haircut from Curt's Barber Shop or a world-wide globe from Steelton Jewelers

There will be a contest each week of the football season in Hartley Newspapers. Full details along with an entry blank for a brand new contest are contained in a full page advertisement inside this newspaper.

Prizes to be offered for winners guessing games to be played two weeks from now are $10 in cash, a front-end alignment from C&E Shell Service or an oil change and lube job from Owen D. Wurtz

Dems Plan Two Meets In District

Thirteen sectional meetings two on the South Side, have been scheduled by the Franklin County Democratic Executive Committee during October.

Arrangements for the meetings, designed to give every voter of Franklin County an opportunity to hear an open and frank discussion of the issues, were made under the guidance of ward committeemen and the Democrat Central Committee.

Each meeting encompasses a number of wards which party officials hope will bring the Democratic party's campaign to as many people as possible All meetings will begin at 8 p m

Meetings on the South Side are scheduled for Wednesday Oct 21, at the Stewart Avenue School and Tuesday, Oct 20, at Marion Franklin High School 1547 Koebel-av

At each of the meetings, the four council candidates and three nominees for the judicial will be introduced

Mayor M E Sensenbrenner candidate for reelection, will be in attendance at many of the meetings to discuss the issues and his opposition

Kiwanis Fair Trip Helps Patients Back

Experienced fair-goers who have walked many weary miles across the Ohio State fairgrounds year after year have been turning jaundiced eye and ear to the spectacle of pumpkins, pigs, and merry-go-round. They ask for more that's new

Not so with those who have little opportunity for fun and entertainment of any kind. The fair still offers a lot of fun of the old-fashioned variety.

Patients from Columbus State Hospital were among those who applauded the 1959 fair's programs in limited numbers they were taken the rounds of the midway, barns, agricultural displays, etc., by groups of persons cooperating with the Volunteer Service Council of the hospital

Eyes and ears made dull by illness saw and heard it all again noise made by people color made by people, commercial spiel, laughter and loud speakers. If the short-lived unique tent city is tiresome for some it's also restorative for others

The Volunteer Service Council, in coordination with Columbus Kiwanis Clubs, made the trips possible Southern Kiwanis Club was one of those participating in the program.

Trips to the fair are one phase of a program being stepped up at the request of physicians They encourage excursions away from the hospital to places of interest such as museums, ball games, concerts and churches. Kiwanis Clubs began a spearhead cooperation last winter and are placing emphasis on mental health service projects

This activity is not exclusive to a Kiwanis activity, however. Interested groups, service clubs and even individuals can help with the job. The fair trips were typical a bus is rented, spending money (moderate amount) is provided and a trip planned.

Extraordinary fetes are best, but quiet trips to the zoo or museums are equally welcome

Southern Kiwanis' excursion was managed by Otto M[illegible] r, vice president, and chairman of the public and business affairs committee

The Volunteer Service Council, whose office is at the hospital 1960 W Broad-st has plans for an increased civic program, more craft, picnic and athletic entertainment

A die has been cast so to speak Ohio's mental health program has been geared to heal and quickly return patients to their families and natural society

Barrett Junior High Tries New Grouping

Like the other schools in Columbus, Barrett Junior High School is trying to make it as easy as it can be for each student to improve himself the most that he can.

One way to make this easier for the student is to have him in class with others of the same sort of ability that he has.

There are at least three basic groups when students are divided according to ability:

First, the big, average group, to which most of us belong, who can reasonably be expected to do an ordinary amount of school work and do it ordinarily well;

Second, a somewhat smaller number who can do much more than ordinary, average work and do it better than ordinarily well

Third, another number of students who can do honest, substantial work with less than average ability.

During the past summer, Barrett's Principal Kenneth Olbert and Vice-Principal Ruth Castner, with the help of School Secretary Ruth Benedict have been writing schedules for all Barrett pupils, putting them into classes according to their ability groups—average, low and high.

To decide on the proper grouping they used intelligence test scores, subject matter test scores, teacher recommendations, grades earned last year, and the students' record of health and attendance.

These groups may change as pupils show more or less ability and performance.

School has been in session for nearly the first month After this kind of schedule writing some differences in learning are already to be seen, school officials say

Great Southern Has Birthday

The best place in town to find special bargains today and the next two days is at the Great Southern Shopping Center at 3800 S. High-st

The merchants have gone all out to offer special values during the three days while they mark the center's second birthday

The center plays an important part in the lives of the thousands of persons who have moved into the numerous new homes that have sprung up recently on the South Side of Columbus.

South Side Churches Set 'Round-Up'

The first Laymen's Round-Up for the South Side churches will be held at Y-Park Saturday, October 3, from 3 to 8 p.m.

Christian fellowship and exchange of ideas are two of the principal reasons for the round up which the South Side YMCA hopes to make an annual affair

Schedule for the initial effort is as follows

BIBLE COMMENT:

Find Meaning Of Good Will In Small Town

As mere printed words in the Bible, the phrase "good will among men" means nothing. It is only in application that the words take on significance.

Only when we stop to consider the meaning of the phrase are we rewarded for our reading of the Bible.

Sometimes it takes an example in our own lives to bring home the import of the term good will.

This was the case with two American soldiers on leave, returning to their base in La Rochelle, France.

They had 10 miles to walk with their baggage to the border station where they had hopes of obtaining a ride to the French capital.

As they walked, they met a fellow traveler, a Belgian named Claus, on his way to look for work in the nearby coal mines.

As night approached, Claus suggested they stop to eat. With the last few francs he had in his pocket he bought bread, milk and jam for his American companions and himself

He explained that he was pleased to do something for them because he had been well treated when he was in America as a merchant seaman during World War II.

Following their roadside meal, he obtained a ride for the Americans to the border

The last the soldiers saw of Claus was through the rear window of an ancient auto, waving as he walked along until the car left him out of sight.

For the Americans this was their lesson in good will.

HARTLEY NEWSPAPERS

DIAL-oques

BY BETTY SHEPHERD

"Operation Ventilation" . . . "Don't Let Carbon Monoxide Kill You!" is being heard frequently these days on television and radio. Newspaper stories are warning readers about carbon monoxide poisoning, and TV programs and interviews are cautioning viewers to beware of the "silent killer."

This campaign stems from a concerted community effort backed by the City of Columbus, the Columbus Academy of Medicine, the Gas Company and the communications media (newspapers, radio and television) to establish in people's minds the danger of carbon monoxide and the necessity of checking all heaters, flues, and chimneys to be sure they are properly vented and not stopped up.

The Academy of Medicine advises us that any combustible material that burns without enough oxygen, develops carbon monoxide, or CO. CO has a two to three hundred times greater affinity to the hemoglobin of the blood than does oxygen. In a matter of seconds its damage can be done.

CO is odorless, tasteless and non-irritating — therefore its great danger. The first symptoms of its poisoning are sleepiness and headache — but if the concentration of CO in the atmosphere is too great, unconsciousness develops immediately. Death can be very close.

Therefore . . . this week, which has been set aside by Mayor Sensenbrenner as "Operation Ventilation Week," and before cold weather sets in, is a good time to get to that space heater, water heater and chimney to be sure that there is enough draft going through. Maybe a bird's nest has fallen down the chimney during the winter, or maybe some pigeons have toppled over and died in there. You don't want your family to have the same fate just because some unfortunate birds have died

Or, in old houses, maybe an accumulation of dust, soot and mortar has finally reached that "point of no return" which signals danger for all. If you are in doubt yourself, check with a reputable service man. If you are in dire need, and it is really an emergency, the city officials will be glad to help. It only stands to reason they can't check every home in Columbus. There isn't the manpower available to do it. So don't call them if you are in any way able to help yourself or hire a service man. But regardless . . . get to it before the calendar gets any more advanced

Columbus-born Tom Poston (remembered as Steve Allen's forgetful man-on-the-street), has become one of the busiest stars in TV. He is emcee of Channel 4's new afternoon audience participation show, "Split Personality,"; he is starring in the new play, "Golden Fleecing," necessitating his daily commuting to Philadelphia; and continues as panelist every Thursday night on "To Tell The Truth" on Channel 10. Next spring he will co-star with Maurice Evans in Shakespeare's "The Tempest" on "Hall of Fame."

With football fever in the air, fans can take their choice of games. "NCAA's Game of the Week" will be seen every Saturday on WLW-C (many of them in color), as will be hour long re-plays of the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame each Sunday afternoon from 1 to 2. Sundays will also be replete with Pro Football on WBNS-TV and telecasts of the Cleveland Browns League games on WTVN-TV, along with an hour-long program of Ohio State's game of the preceding day. OSU football may also be seen on WOSU-TV on Thursday nights at 8:30, with the official films being given play-by-play by John Schmidt.

Several favorite summer shows have bowed off the air. Andy Williams bade his adieu last Thursday with Johnny Mercer as a special guest, and a cleverer bit of harmonizing we have never seen, with Andy singing Mercer's songs from "A to Z." Garry Moore returns at this time on Channel 10

Bert Parks ended "Masquerade Party's" run with an hilarious ending, insisting that the whole show would still be there at 10:30 on Thursday nights even though NBC-TV and its affiliates were programming something else. Channel 4 will carry "The Phil Silvers Show" in that spot beginning Oct. 8.

Mike Wallace put the period after the question mark in "Who Pays?" on Thursday nights on WLW-C, and "Bat Masterson" will take over this week. Wallace said, in his last telecast, that he would continue his interview series on another network.

Watch for the World Series in color and three specials on Channel 4 this week — Art Carney on Oct. 2; Startime on Oct. 6 and Bob Hope on Oct. 8.

Plumbers Extend Unbeaten String

With sponsor Tom Duckworth pacing the sidelines giving encouragement to the boys, Duckworth Plumbers won its third victory, to remain undefeated in the Ohio Bearcat League. The fast improving Rams from W. Mound-st. put up a terrific struggle before succumbing to the Plumbers.

The first quarter ended in a scoreless deadlock. Shortly after the second quarter started, Duckworth marched 64 yards in eight plays, with Marc Borst climaxing the drive, going over from the seven yard line. Fred Hamler plunged for the extra point. The Rams came back strong but had a pass intercepted on the Duckworth 20 as the half ended.

In the third quarter, the Plumbers scored again, as Rick Anderson ran off tackle from the 10 yard line. Borst ran around end for the conversion.

The last quarter started with Duckworth in front 16 to 0 but the Rams were not to be denied, however, as they marched 50 yards in 10 plays to score their touchdown. Goodin plowed through from the one yard line for the score. Duckworth players needed one more touchdown for insurance, so they put on another drive of their own.

This last touchdown was set up by a 60 yard run by Fred Hamler who ran from his own 20 yard line to the Rams 20 before being downed from behind. Tex Rife added the extra point.

This ended the scoring for the day but the entire Ram defensive line is to be commended for putting up a good clean, hard fight. Roger Harper and Gary Kipp of Duckworth did a fine job defensively. Jerry Robison, Duckworth's fine quarterback, did his usual good job of leading his team to victory. Duckworth goes against the hard hitting Beatty Lions at East High's Harley Field, Sunday at 1:30 p.m.

Two South High Athletes On Lutheran Grid Squad

Two South High School graduates are listed on the roster of the 1959 Fighting Lutherans at Capital University.

Darryl Sutorius, son of Rev. and Mrs. Carlton Sutorius, 70 E. Markison-av, and Charles Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mason, 1357 S. High-st, have earned varsity positions.

Darryl, who weighs 214 pounds, is a returning letterman and according to Head Coach Jack Landrum, will start at right tackle position this year. He saw limited varsity action last season, but has used this experience to reach a starting berth.

Darryl is a junior and goes by the nickname "Big Sut" by his friends. During his high school career, he participated in football and track. He won the Agonis Award in 1957 while at South.

Chuck (165) is only 5 ft. 10 in. in height, but can do a swell job at the center position. According to Landrum, he will see limited varsity action, but will play a lot of first string Jayvee ball in order that he will gain experience toward next year.

M F Gridders Pick Queen Candidates

By Elizabeth Smith
HI. 3-1184

The football team at Marion-Franklin has nominated 10 girls for homecoming queen.

The school voted for the top five Monday, and then the queen and her court will be introduced at the Homecoming game on Friday, Oct. 9 with North High School.

Leota and Walter Roseberry and their grandson, Mike, spent last week on a motor trip to the northern part of the state. They had a nice trip and enjoyed stopping at different places and visiting with relatives.

Dennis Boren was among the boys who took part in the Boy Scout Fall Camporee in Hocking County. Dennis was awarded a neckerchief, presented by the Optimist Club.

Mrs. Freda Pearrell returned home from the hospital on Sunday, and is feeling some better.

Boy Scout Troop 243 of Benfield Avenue Church was very proud and honored to take part in the dedication of the new fire house on Sunday afternoon. The boys had the flag raising ceremony.

Mrs. David Franklyn (Carol Shaw) has been visiting with her parents. Carol and Dave are living in Memphis, Tenn., where Dave is with the Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Starnes and family of Portsmouth, visited with Ralph and Barbara Boren the past weekend.

Mrs. Elmer Mitchell of Baldwin Park, Calif., has been visiting with Marie Harvey and other Columbus relatives. She is now visiting relatives in Zanesville.

David Boren had a recitation in the program part of the reception for Rev. Herbert at the Ohio Avenue Evangelical Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Roseberry are the proud parents of a new daughter.

Pat Dodson and Grace Hune were honored at a luncheon on Tuesday. Pat's birthday was Tuesday and Grace had hers on Wednesday. Those attending were Mrs. Frank Carter, Mrs. Jack Carter, and Mrs. Ralph Boren, and of course the tiny tots of all these mothers were there.

We need to give a neighborhood welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carter, who have just moved into their new home on Rumsey-rd. The Carters have three small children.

Forty-one youth and adults took part in the Fall Retreat at the South Side Y Park the past weekend. The youth were able to get their complete program planned for the year.

They enjoyed the fellowship and recreation and then were inspired by a communion service on Saturday evening.

Pete Trott from Burgess Avenue Evangelical Church gave them a fine message on Sunday morning in their worship service.

The afternoon and evening services and program sponsored by the South Side Youth Council was attended by 22 of these same youth and adults.

They were a weary group of boys and girls and adults too, when they returned home on Sunday evening, but they all agree the experiences of a Retreat are long to be remembered.

Anna Marie Roseberry, or as she is known to her friends, "Grandma" Roseberry, spent the weekend with her granddaughter, Elvera and her husband, Bob, while Elvera's parents, Albert and Othell Roseberry spent the weekend in a very successful fishing trip at Lake Erie.

From 11 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. on Sunday they caught over 100 fish.

Among them were 81 keepers, some sheephead, white bass, and perch.

The most excitement was when Albert hooked something and found it was a rod and reel.

So he just baited it up and caught two sheephead with the newly hooked rod and reel.

When Albert and Othell stopped at Elvera's to get "grandma" and bring her home, "grandma" fell as they were bringing her out the door and now has both arms bandaged.

Elvera Wheeler and Othell had lunch with Mrs. Bishop, 1610 Frebis-av on Wednesday.

Rosary Society Sponsors Euchre Party Saturday

Mrs. Andrew Theado is chairman of the affair. The public is cordially invited. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Next regular meeting of the Altar Society will be held Tuesday evening, Oct. 6 in the school hall at 8 p.m. Members will meet in the church for the recitation of the Rosary at 7:45 p.m.

New Speech Aid Program Is Planned

Development of a new program to assist school-age speech-handicapped children, who do not have speech therapy facilities available at school, has been announced by Samuel M. Cohen, executive director of the Hearing and Speech Center of Columbus and central Ohio.

Development of the program was made possible by the appointment to the staff of Toby M. Horowitz, 20 E. 11th-av, as one of the center's speech and hearing therapists.

Miss Horowitz received a bachelor of arts degree at Ohio State University in June and was employed by the OSU Speech and Hearing Clinic during the summer months. She has worked with many types of speech problems, including articulatory disorders, cleft palate and stuttering. At Ohio State University she was active in Sigma Alpha Eta, the honorary speech and hearing society, and the Hillel Foundation Student Council.

Persons interested in having their children enrolled in the program must first call the center, a United Appeal agency, to arrange an appointment for a speech evaluation. The center is located at 209 S. High-st and may be reached by calling GA. 1-1396.

SATURDAY NIGHT BEDLAM

Death Match Will Highlight Jones Park Wrestling Card

Things may get nasty Saturday night at Jones Park—and nobody is keeping quiet about it.

That is especially true of Jack "Blondie" Lamont and Chuck "Iron Worker" Stanley who have kept their lips blistering all week about what they are going to do to the other in the grudge-prompted Texas Death Match set to start the evening's show at 8:30 regardless of weather.

Main event Saturday will be the introduction of the two most spectacular international wrestler, the Giant Germans. Combining 500 pounds of wrestling advantage stripped, the two roughies will tackle Boy Fleetfoot and Sonny Boy Karns in a tag team match.

In the other matches, Pancho Villa will do double duty wrestling first against Jan Silvers and later Jim Geedy. Rounding out the program is a one-fall 60-minute bout pitting Fleetfoot against Glenn Redman.

Last Saturday night, Fleetfoot defeated Jan Silvers in 15:30 with a Cherokee leg special. Redman overpowered Sonny Boy Karns with a body press.

In the tag team match, Silvers and Redman outlasted Fleetfoot and Stanley when referee Lamont disqualified the Iron Worker.

Stanley, after protesting vigorously, claimed Lamont had used a fast count on him. After the argument started to really get rough, promoter Bob Rogers rematched the pair for a special Texas Death Match this Saturday.

There is no time limit in a death match and any hold is legal.

Bedlam kept a grip on Jones Park Sunday night when a grudge match between Lamont and Stanley ended in 15 minutes which the boys spent throwing body blocks off the ropes.

Someone misjudged, however, and they ran into each other head first. Stanley sprawled out on the canvas and failed to regain his feet by the count of 10. Lamont barrelled out the ring and was still there when the referee counted 20. The bout was called no contest and added even more emphasis on Saturday night's match.

In the girls' match, the Masked Outlaw was disqualified for choking Judy Wernick in 15:12.

When the tag team match had gone one fall apiece Geedy had successfully put Palm in a pinning position when teammate Fleetfoot started through the ropes and had to be dispelled by referee Silvers. Lamon then entered the ring while the referee's back was turned and viciously pulled Geedy off Palm by his hair. By the time the referee got turned around, Palm had pinned Geedy and the match was over.

Five South Siders Baptized At Jehovah Witness Meeting

Five South Side people were among 53 baptized Saturday at the circuit convention of Jehovah's Witnesses held at the Clark County fairgrounds at Springfield, according to Dean G. Bourne, presiding minister of the South congregation.

Highlight of the three-day meet was the public lecture on Sunday by New York official A. A. Catanzaro, "When Is God's Will to Be Done on Earth?" which was attended by 2127 from 40 central Ohio cities.

"Not by converting nations to Christianity, not by armies of so-called Christian nations or by the United Nations will God's will come to pass," stated Catanzaro, "but by the battle of Armageddon. Heavenly armies led by Christ will clear heaven and earth of all wicked defilement and God's kingdom will enforce God's will on earth."

Figures released at the meet revealed the 18-congregation Ohio circuit No. 4 has 1,744 ministers, 61 of whom are full-time workers—the balance being ministers by profession, bricklayers, carpenters, salesmen, housewives, etc., by vocation.

Bourne, 1268 Fairwood-av, served as assistant convention manager for the meet.

Those baptized from this area were Barbara Sammet, 929 S. Front-st; Robert Shook, 1049 Jackson-pk; Love Baker, 1943 S. Bruck-st; Carolyn Penner, 260 Delray-rd, and Leland Berry, 3203 Lee Ellen-pl.

Those submitting themselves to immersion are expected to preach the tenets of their faith thereafter, and in fact such constitutes legal ordination or ordination to a 1953 ruling of the U.S. Supreme Court, Catanzaro pointed out.

Great Southern Shopping Center Marks 2nd Birthday

What does a shopping center do to show its appreciation to the thousands of customers who have patronized it for two years?

In the case of the Great Southern Shopping Center — which today begins a three-day observance of its second birthday—it offers very special bargains.

Earl H. Wilson, president of the Great Southern Shopping Center Association, said everyone of the more than 40 stores in the center will have very special bargains in appreciation of the patronage of the last two years.

The bargains will be offered today, tomorrow and the next day—Oct. 1-3.

"The Great Southern Shopping Center shies away from 'gimmicks' to attract customers and concentrates on good, sound values in merchandise and services," Wilson said.

"We know the best way to build business is to give sound values day after day, and the merchants have gone out of the way to offer extra special values for our birthday celebration."

The center has become known as a place where the entire family comes to shop, and also to meet friends. It numbers among its customers persons from as far away as Chillicothe and Portsmouth to the south. It is the closest shopping center for the Lockbourne Air Force Base which is adding 400 Capehart housing units to the 600 already there for airmen living on the base.

It is located on U.S. 23—S. High-st—near Williams-rd about 5½ miles south of Broad and High in downtown Columbus.

Stores and shops in the center take up 300,000 square feet of merchandising space and there is room for 5,000 automomiles to be parked at one time in the well-lighted, blacktopped area.

The center covers 40 acres of land, and another 40 acres are available for future expansion.

The variety of shops and services the center offers makes it one of the most complete regional one-stop shopping centers in the country.

They include two food markets, a dry cleaner, jeweler, pizza shop, dress shop, optometrist, dentist, barber shop, bank, five eating establishments, two hardwares, a paint store, shoe stores, carryout, state liquor store, pet shop, drug store, two variety stores, a junior department store, radio and television sales and service, greeting card shop, laundromat, photo studio, camera shop, hobby shop, bakery and other establishments.

SHOPPING AT CENTER IS FAMILY AFFAIR

When the John D. Sergent family of 2645 Shelly-dr, Scioto Village, goes shopping, it's a family affair as it is in so many cases at the Great Southern Shopping Center.

The Sergents usually shop at night. "We buy practically everything at the center," Mrs. Sergent said. She added she likes the convenience of shopping in her neighborhood and the bright new stores and their fine merchandise.

The South Side Leader photographer followed the family as it shopped in various stores recently, including Penney's, the W. T. Grant Co., Crosby Shoes, Zettler's Hardware and Lares TV Sales & Service. Pictures of the family in these stores are on other pages.

The Sergents have lived in Scioto Village for 11 months. He makes TV tubes at the Kimble Glass Co. and in his spare time is a painting contractor.

Scioto Village is one of several residential areas that have sprung up on the rapidly-growing South Side since the Great Southern Shopping Center opened two years ago.

Waiting for Prescription Means Druggist Is Precise

Did you ever wonder why you have to wait at the prescription counter?

Jack MacLean, manager of the Gray Drug Store at the Great Southern Shopping Center, says the main reason is so you get exactly what the doctor ordered. He is seconded by Robert Hickel, assistant manager.

Interprets it with extreme care.

Contacts the doctor if the prescription is a refill and requires his authorization.

Prepares a label containing proper directions and, if necessary, additional precautionary labels.

Makes sure the drugs specified are of the proper potency, stability and quantity.

Measures and mixes the ingredients exactly and thoroughly.

Places the drugs in the proper container. Prices the prescription fairly and scientifically. Rechecks everything he has done.

Then he files the prescription as a permanent record.

The store, which has 25 employes, has many departments—paints, tools, hardware, home supplies, electrical supplies, magazines, and so forth.

Sign At Center Tells Distances To Major Cities

How far is it from the Great Southern Shopping Center to Honolulu, the capital of our newest state?

The answer — 4,536 air miles —is found on a sign on the international mile post at the shopping center.

The 32-foot pylon has signs telling exact air miles and directions to many important cities of the world.

Some of the air distances are 1,997 miles to Los Angeles, 4,125 to Paris, 571 to Ottawa, 10,314 to Melbourne, Australia; 4,607 to Berlin, 8,396 to Tokyo, 10,252 to Hong Kong, 9,924 to Manila, 1,795 to Mexico City, 1,067 to Miami, 3,929 to London, 2,486 to Panama and 4,225 to Nome, Alaska.

Military Men Find Center Is Convenient

Major military base in the greater Columbus area is Lockbourne Air Force Base which has a military population of 15,000.

The Great Southern Shopping Center is the closest regional marketing center for the airmen and their families. Some live on the base, others in nearby communities.

Ohio 665 provides direct access from the base to U.S. 23 and the shopping center, which is on U.S. 23 (S. High-st near Williams-rd.

The center serves an area in which 350,000 persons live.

Use a permanent inked laundry pen to mark children's clothes — boots, rubbers, raincoat, jacket, sweaters, etc. — when they attend school, say extension home management specialists at the Ohio State University.

SHOPPING WITH EASE

Penney's Store Has Items Meeting South Side Needs

One key to successful merchandising is offering items that meet specific needs of persons living in the area a store serves.

Earl H. Wilson, manager of Penney's at the Great Southern Shopping Center, says his store has some items not available in the six other Penney stores in Columbus.

"We buy merchandise to meet the specific needs we find in the vast area we serve," he said on the eve of the shopping center's second birthday. Wilson is president of the shopping center association.

When you talk about gift departments, Wilson's eyes light up. He'll tell you confidently:

"We have the best gift department among any of the Penney stores in the city."

A glance through the department and its attractive displays of merchandise leads one to believe he has good reason for his confidence.

For many years Penney's has been noted for its white goods. But it is a junior department store offering everything from toys to occasional chairs.

A trip through the toy department shows the effect the emphasis on science is having on the younger generation. You can get a radar scope, a visible man which shows the human body from skin to skeleton, a giant telescope or an interceptor missile defense setup. For the less scientific minded youngsters there are bicycles, play gyms, games, a real soda fountain, a Bat Masterson Indian fighter set and stuffed animals.

The small appliance department features well - known brands — Sunbeam, Toastmaster, General Electric and Westinghouse. There even is a flashlight, complete with compass.

Penney's in November will have a complete Christmas home decorations shop, where everything from a Christmas tree to the smallest decoration will be offered.

The Great Southern Shopping Center is marking its second birthday. Wilson has been at the center since it opened.

FIT COUNTS AT RICHMAN'S

Special Suit Will Help Richman's Mark Birthday

The second anniversary of the Great Southern Shopping Center precedes the 80th anniversary of Richman's by five days.

Richman's, the nation-wide clothing company, will introduce a special anniversary suit on its anniversary date. George Robinson, manager of the Richman store at the center, got permission to introduce the suit ahead of time — on the center's birthday today.

It is an all-wool dark suit offered at a special low price.

Robinson, who has worked in every Richman Store in Columbus, opened the Richman Store at the center. The assistant manager is Tom O'Shell, who has two brothers working for Richman. Paul is Richman manager at Great Western Shopping Center and Daniel holds the same position at Graceland Shopping Center.

"We have had very good support from the community and want to take the occasion of the center's birthday to express our thanks," Robinson said. "Our aim is to satisfy every customer."

Richman's has its own tailoring department, in charge of Hans Orendi of Williams-rd. His wife, Ruth, is the store cashier.

The store has in stock a complete line of fall suits, hats, topcoats, sportswear and accessories for men and boys. It employs five fulltime workers and three part-time workers.

KRESGE'S OFFERS NEW COAT

Kresge's At Great Southern Has Wide Variety of Items

John Rowady, manager of Kresge's in the Great Southern Shopping Center, boasts his store has "the most complete assortment of merchandise of any Kresge store in Columbus."

The store is at 3661 S. High-st. It takes 50 persons to keep the store, which has 26,000 square feet of floor space humming.

Rowady has three assistant managers helping him operate the store which is one of the largest with but one sales floor in the entire Kresge system. They are Fred Peluso, Ron Johnston and Joseph Bonaca.

"We're consistently exceeding our expectations on sales volume," Rowady says. "We receive new merchandise every day — from local concerns as well as national ones and those across the seas."

The store is as old as the Great Southern Shopping Center, which is marking its second birthday. Rowady has been the manager since the store opened its doors to the public. He was transferred from the store at Williamsport, Pa.

Rowady is a native of Kentucky. He has been in business 11 years. Married, he lives at 2828 S. High-st.

The Kresge firm is an expanding one, he said, and now is setting up operations in Puerto Rico.

Parents Must Help Set Child On Right Path Vocationally

By GEORGE J. HECHT
Publisher, Parents' Magazine

Today when there are crying shortages of skilled help — draftsmen, laboratory technicians — when, on the other hand, there are fewer teachers than are needed to meet the challenge of our schools — it is our duty both as parents, interested in the welfare of our children, and as citizens, interested in the welfare of our country, to help set our youngsters on the right track.

As parents, we have a two-fold responsibility: To cooperate with the school authorities in informing our children about new and expanding occupational fields, and to help our children relate their own abilities to these careers.

Can Be Started Early

Such vocational guidance can be started very early in a child's life by introducing him to people in varied fields of work, by giving him career books suitable for his age level, taking him on field trips, even choosing toys that will forward his career.

Bear in mind, that a child's career should not be imposed upon him. We should keep our own ambitions for our children in check if we want our children to be happy in their chosen work.

There are some 40,000 different jobs in our economic structure. Each is important, no matter whether it is administrative, professional, clerical, skilled, semi-skilled or unskilled. No one particular type should be overemphasized to a child. His personality will lead him to the work he thinks he will like.

Some Excellent Help

Some excellent help for parents trying to assist their children in finding and developing career interests, has been developed by George Davenal, placement director of Queens College.

He points out that we are not born with occupational interests, we learn them; and that to demand of a child what he wants to be when he grows up is unrealistic unless we have encouraged him all along the way, to try to find out.

He advises that the child be encouraged to reveal his potential during the growing up period, through home-school cooperation, testing techniques, try-out work experiences, and participation in extra curricular school programs and community activity.

SWEATERS GO BULKY

A handsome innovation in the fall sweaters for young men are those in a bulky knit, having the appearance of sweaters hand-knit of large yarns. Much use is made of bold Scandinavian patterns.

Yep, a really live wire usually has connections.

Schools Reflect Fast Growth Of South Side

The South Side of Columbus is growing so rapidly that the Board of Education can't keep building schools fast enough to accommodate all the new children in the area.

That word comes from Francis Rudy, executive assistant to Harold H. Ebling, city superintendent of schools.

"We know that the growth of the South Side has been tremendous," he says, "especially during the last year. Despite the construction of Stockbridge School, remodeling of Fornof School and remodeling of Scioto Trail School, we have found it necessary to rent four houses adjacent to Clarfield School."

The houses were rented last year for classrooms and it was felt school improvements would handle increased enrollments. But too many people moved in during the summer.

Columbus voters will have before them a $29,000,000 bond issue at the Nov. 3 election. The money would be spent over a five-year period in a program that includes many South Side projects.

School officials from their studies of the South Side believe these schools will be necessary during the next five years:

An elementary school near Parsons-av and Southgate-dr, an addition to the Livingston Ave-School, a new elementary school near Watkins-rd and Fairwood-av, an addition to the just completed Stockbridge School, another small elementary school adjacent to Southgate Manor, possibly new classrooms for the Heimandale School which was built in 1955, probably additional classrooms in the Market-Mohawk area and a new junior high school in the Southgate-S. High-st area, near the Great Southern Shopping Center.

Since 1948 Columbus has been building schools and making improvements at the rate of $5,000,000 a year. Much of the work has been done on the South Side, in both older and newer areas.

Newest school is the $235,000 Stockbridge School at 3350 S. Champion-av, completed this year. It has 12 classrooms and can be expanded easily.

Work on the George C. Beery Junior High School and Marion-Franklin High School began before the areas they serve became part of Columbus. The Beery school at 2740 Lockbourne-rd, was completed in 1957 and Marion-Franklin was constructed in 1953. All of Marion-Franklin was weatherstripped in 1956.

The entire school construction program for the South Side since 1949 amounted to $7,000,000, including $2,000,000 on schools before they became part of the Columbus system.

Other improvements listed by Rudy include:

South High School—enlarging and relocating industrial arts and instrumental music areas in 1957.

Barrett Junior High School—adding two science rooms and an auditorium and gymnasium, making space available for eight classrooms. Work done in 1954 and 1958.

Hey! Elementary School—addition of eight classrooms in 1955.

Deshler School—original 12 classrooms built in 1953 and another 12 added since.

Stewart Avenue School—completely remodeled in 1953.

Southwood School—completely remodeled in 1950.

Reeb Avenue School—completely remodeled in 1954.

Lincoln Park School—addition of eight classrooms in 1952.

Siebert School—completely remodeled in 1952 and four classrooms added in 1957.

Beck School—completely remodeled in 1953 and eight classrooms added in 1958.

Livingston School—completely remodeled in 1953.

Fulton School—old section remodeled in 1954.

Main Street School—completely remodeled in 1954 and an annex of eight classrooms built in 1959.

Ohio Avenue School—completely remodeled in 1952 and four classrooms added in 1956.

Lares Predicts Big Spurt In Sale Of Color TV Sets

Sales of radio sets slumped right after the advent of television. But now the radio business really is back in its own, says Bill Lares, owner of Lares TV Sales and Service at Great Southern Shopping Center.

Lares sells both television sets and radios. "The radio business has really picked up in the last few years," he said. "People have to have both television and radio."

He predicts there will be a big spurt in color television sales soon because more color television programs are now on the air. Gaining in popularity are portable TV sets, with many families buying them as second sets, he said.

Lares sells RCA, Admiral, Philco, Motorola and Zenith television sets, and also carries tape recorders, hi-fi and stereo equipment and chord organs.

He operates his own service department which is staffed by four full-time trained technicians and one part-time worker.

Lares' shop repairs car radios and record players besides house radios and [illegible].

Catalog Department Added To Great Southern Grant's

The W. T. Grant Co., which has a large store in the Great Southern Shopping Center, today began serving customers with a catalog department.

The catalog lists 190 items not carried in stock which can be delivered to customers in a maximum of two weeks.

Anthony Castelli, manager of the Grant Store at the shopping center, said appliances and other heavier items are listed in the catalog.

The Grant store is one of the original ones in the Great Southern Shopping Center, which today began a three-day celebration of its second birthday. Castelli, who has been with the store since February, has been with the Grant organization six years.

The store employs 40 persons, 14 of whom have worked there since it opened. It has 31 departments that feature everything from crocheting and knitting supplies to sportswear. Castelli is proud of his stock of dresses and sportswear for women at popular prices.

The Grant company will celebrate its 53rd anniversary with a nine-day sale that will begin Oct. 8 and new merchandise for that event is coming in now.

The Grant Company has offered credit to customers for 10 years, the plan offering continuous credit as payments are made.

"Everything for the home and family can be yours without expending ready cash—just say charge it," Castelli says of the credit plan. "You can budget your payments out of income and get continuous credit as you make your payments."

Entire families visit the Grant store in the Great Southern Shopping Center on buying expeditions, Castelli says some customers come from as far away as Portsmouth and Chillicothe, to buy anything from long aluminum extension ladders to toys.

The store recently set up an American Express money order department which has become a popular feature of the store.

During the first six months of this year 31 new Grant stores were established, including 27 in shopping centers. Castelli said the company expects to open 35 or 40 more stores during the last half of the year, more than 14,000 items at a

WINTER IS COMING SOON

WINTER'S ON WAY — Tom Forsythe, manager of the Western Auto store at Great Southern Shopping Center, holds tire with winter tread and gallon containers of anti-freeze he has started to sell customers.

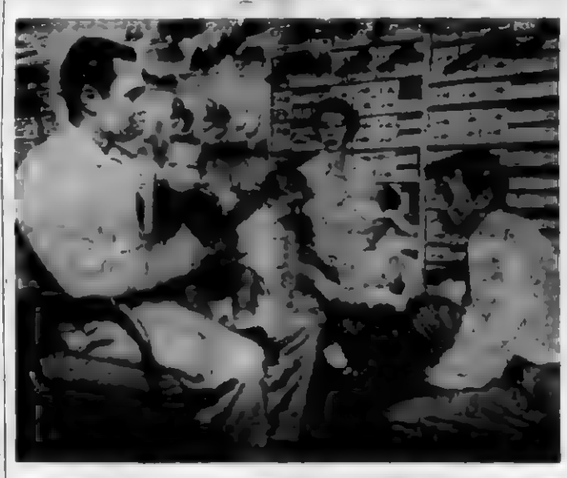
Western Auto Man's Idea Adopted By Entire System

Last winter Tom Forsythe, manager of the Western Auto Store in the Great Southern Shopping Center, had an idea for improving service to his tire customers.

The idea was so good that it has become a part of the service policy of every Western Auto store.



Forsythe, who has managed the store since its opening two years ago, thought his customers for winter tread tires would appreciate store personnel putting their regular tires back on in the spring.

He was right. So now, if you buy one or more winter tread tires at any Western Auto store, come spring employes of any store will replace them with your regular tires.

Snow tires, anti-freeze and all the other cold-weather driving necessities now are on hand at Forsythe's store, which is marking the second anniversary of the shopping center and Western Auto's 50th anniversary.

Western Auto started as a mail order firm for automobile parts. But today you can buy more than 14,000 items at a Western Auto store — refrigerators ranges, freezers, washing machines, hi-fi sets, television sets, typewriters, numerous household articles, chord organs and, of course, automobile parts.

Western Auto handles its own charge accounts.

VICKY TRIES ON NEW SHOES

Crosby Shoes Headquarters Of Famed Red Goose Shoes

Crosby Shoes at the Great Southern Shopping Center is the home of the famous Red Goose shoes for children.

The store is one of the original ones in the center, which is marking its second birthday with special values offered by merchants.

Joseph Donaldson, manager of the store for the last 18 months, said the squash or spool heel is expected to be one of the fall favorites for women. This short heel is found both on pointed and modified toe shoes.

Charles Springer is assistant manager of the store and Mrs. Jeannette Medley is the cashier.

Shoes for the entire family are handled, as well as hosiery, handbags to match shoes, polishes and slippers.

Cooked Chicken Item At Center

The Tasty Bird Farms store in the Great Southern Shopping Center has a full line of French fried and barbecued chicken, besides its fresh poultry and eggs.

Jerry Matheny is manager of the store, one of the original ones in the center.

"Our poultry is fed scientifically and we feel we have a product that is as good or a little better than can be found elsewhere," Matheny says. "We handle only first class lines of chickens and eggs over the counter."

Select potatoes which are firm, bright and have few spots. A green color on potatoes may indicate that they have been exposed to light and are likely to have a bitter flavor.

Shopping Center Once Was Part Of Big Farm

Great Southern Shopping Center was developed on the north section of the vast Hartman Estate on U.S. 23, about five and one-half miles south of downtown Columbus.

Zoning restrictions were eased to permit construction of the center. This paved the way for a large housing development in the immediate area.

WINTER IS COMING SOON

WINTER'S ON WAY — Tom Forsythe, manager of the Western Auto store at Great Southern Shopping Center, holds tire with winter tread and gallon containers of anti-freeze he has started to sell customers.

Parents Urged To Help Child Develop Clear Handwriting

Active support of parents in a concerted effort to help set children on the correct path toward good and legible penmanship is urged as the school term progresses.

The urge comes from the Handwriting Foundation, actively supported by business men as well as educators, in a renewal of a continuing crusade to encourage a greater awareness of the importance of handwriting in all walks of life.

Almost unlimited instances of inconvenience, irritation and actual loss of time and vast sums of money, in addition to obvious career handicaps, can be cited to stress the universal importance of good, clear handwriting.

Check Lower Grades

School papers written in long hand, though accurate and well phrased, sometimes suffer because teacher finds it difficult to decipher them. Lower grades result. Job opportunities sometimes are lost because of poor penmanship. Letters and packages go astray and telephone messages cannot be deciphered.

The Handwriting Foundation goes beyond the point of urging awareness of the problem. It has a scholarship program available to assist hard working teachers who bear down on the matter. It publishes a booklet entitled the "Second R," in which six simple steps to legible writing — principles that will be useful to parents as well as the children — are set forth.

A Family Project

Parents can help their school age children by following through at home in support of teachers who stress instruction in handwriting.

A good plan is to make it an informal family project, utilizing the booklet which is available free by writing the Handwriting Foundation.

Foundation Surveys have shown that the best way to improve handwriting quickly — and most everyone can do this — is to write slowly. Fast scrawls lead to trouble. Legibility is paramount. Individual style of writing can be maintained and should be.

It should always be remembered that someone else must be able to read what you have written.

SLACKS SUMMARY

Favored for back-to-school, this fall, are trim tapered slacks with back buckle straps and without pleats in whipcords, flannels and cotton Chinos. Color-wise, the medium tones will be most popular.

PLAYS STEREO RECORDING

TUNES GALORE—Reed Davie, manager of the Great Southern Harmony House, plays a recording for a customer on a Motorola Stereo hi-fi set with two speakers.

Harmony House Has Records To Suit Everyone's Taste

Just name the tune, and the chances are excellent that you will find it at the Great Southern Harmony House, on the corner of the Mall at the Great Southern Shopping Center.

The store is one of three owned by Arthur J. MacKenzie. The others are Marshall's at 46 N. High-st and Graceland Shopping Center Harmony House.

"We have a wide selection of recordings," says manager Reed Davie. "You'll find popular, country, exotic, contemporary, show tunes and classics. And we also sell hi-fi and stereo equipment."

Davie, who lives at 4580 Parsons-av, has been in the merchandising business 10 years. He joined the store in June of 1958.

The store features an especially wide selection of greeting and specialty cards, carrying the Hallmark, Gibson and Norcross lines.

Also in stock are musical instruments, gifts, gift wrapping paper, stationery, costume jewelry, ballpoint pens, regular pens and harmonicas.

Howald Manager Of Branch Bank

John J. Howald, who has been with the Ohio National Bank for more than 20 years, is the manager of the branch office in the Great Southern Shopping Center.

He and William L. Bighouse, assistant manager with more than 30 years' banking service, invite South Siders to come in and discuss any of the bank's 49 services, which range from loans to safety deposit box rentals.

Pure Oil Station Has Special Service for Center Shoppers

Customers of the Great Southern Shopping Center like the special service they can get at the Pure Oil service station operated by Ed Dramon near the north end of the center.

They can leave their cars for servicing while they shop. Someone from the station will drive them to the center then pick them up after repairs are done.

A mechanic is on duty at all times. The station opens at 7 a.m. and closes at 10 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays and is open from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Sundays.

Damron has been in garage and service station business for four years. He formerly was service manager for a Chevrolet garage at Gilbert, W.Va. One of his mechanics, Ray Stepp, formerly worked there.

Dramon's Pure Oil station features a full line of batteries and tires. All merchandise is fully guaranteed. Mechanics will balance wheels and reline brakes and do everything except major repairs.

The station has eight gasoline pumps, plenty of space and enough help to avoid waiting for gasoline and oil or a lubrication.

Offered for winter driving is the "one bill, one fill" antifreeze plan which guarantees that any antifreeze lost during the winter will be replaced free.

Help Teacher Get Off To Good Start In Her Job

Now that some school systems have as high as 30 percent of their staff new to their jobs each year, the American Association of School Administrators has published a little booklet of suggestions on how to get the new teacher off to a good start.

Though primarily intended for school administrators, the booklet also points out that parents and all citizens have a stake in the objective. Knowing that parents are interested in their work and stand ready to help, the booklet points out, is a source of encouraging satisfaction to the new teacher.

Many authorities in the field urge parents to become friendly with teachers, volunteer help in special activities, and to participate in civic functions aimed at improving the stature of, and respect for teachers.

Cha-Cha Boot Good Seller At Thom McAn Shoe Store

Hottest thing at Thom McAn's these days is the cha-cha boot, says Rufus Logan, manager of the store in the Great Southern Shopping Center.

"We call it the boot with a beat, and we have it in styles for every member of the family. It is one of our best sellers," Logan says.

Logan lives not far from the store, at 3359 S. Sixth-st. Working with him are two fulltime salesmen, Al Pruden and Richard Wilson.

Logan has been with the company five years, working in stores in Dayton, Portsmouth and Hamilton. At one time he traveled for the company, setting up new stores.

Thom McAn shoes for children have been awarded the Good Housekeeping seal.

"We are proud of those shoes," Logan said. "Children's shoes must be well made on lasts designed according to up-to-date research specifications, and must fit properly for feet to grow strong and healthy. The workmanship and materials in Thom McAn children's shoes and the Thom McAn fitting service conform to the highest standards."

The shoes are checked for length, width, heel, ball of foot and grow room before they show up on the shelves.

Great Southern Barber Shop Features Convenient Hours

Whether you work day or night, you can get a haircut at your convenience at the Great Southern Barber Shop in the Mall of the Great Southern Shopping Center.

The four-man shop, of which Robert Dunigan is assistant manager, is open from 8 a.m. until 8:30 p.m. every day except Sunday.

The other barbers are Robert Kelley, who operated a barbers' college for 25 years and who lives near the shop; Raymond Jackson and James D. Rains. Dunigan lives at nearby Hartman Farms.

The shop is one of the original ones in the center. When it first opened there were only two chairs. Plans are to add a fifth chair.

"We specialize in haircuts for children of any age," Dunigan said. "We also cut ladies' hair and do quite a business in flat tops for men, both young and old. Good grooming pays off in both the social and business worlds. And good grooming is our business."

Dunigan opened the shop in the center which now is marking its second birthday. Before that he worked at a shop in the Great Eastern Shopping Center.

The shop is located near two special permanent attractions of the center — the aquaterrarium and the modern fountain of youth.

Father And Son Are Developers Of Big Centers

The father-and-son team of Don M. Casto Sr. and Don M. Casto Jr. of Columbus which dominates the highly-specialized shopping center field conceived and built the multi-million dollar Great Southern Shopping Center.

The center, which is two years old, is marking its anniversary with a parade of special values for its customers.

Casto senior built his first neighborhood shopping center in 1921. Seven years later he started construction of the Grandview Shopping Center, first of the regional shopping centers.

Casto junior joined his father in the construction business after World War II, beginning with a construction crew. Father and son work closely together in operating Casto shopping centers in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Missouri, Illinois and Indiana.

DUANE STORE REMODELED

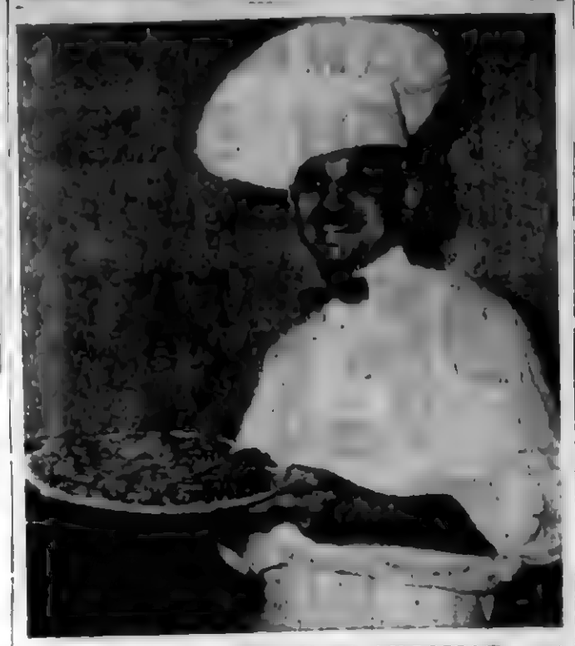
Correct Fit Is Emphasized By Staff At Duane's Shoes



If the shoe does not fit, you can not buy it at Duane's Shoes, says Robert Dublin, manager of the store in the Great Southern Shopping Center.

"We carry quality shoes in all sizes and we pay particular attention to seeing that shoes fit our cusomers," he said. Dublin and his two assistants, Pat McLoughlin and Mrs. Mary O'Dowd, have had a total of 25 years experience in selling shoes.

The store recently was remodeled. One of the original shoe stores in the center, it formerly was known as Weiss Shoes. The changeover came a year ago last July.

Brands offered customers are Rand, Randcraft, Trim-Trod, Vitality and Poll-Parrot. The store also has a stock of Ball rubber footwear.

The pointed toe shoe still is stylish, but Dublin finds there also is a large demand for the modified toe.

NICK'S SMILE WARMING

Spices Add Special Flavor To Food At Cardo's Pizza

What's the secret of "real" Italian food?

Nick Malagreca, who with his wife, Genevieve, operates Cardo's Pizza at the Great the Great Southern Shopping Center, says the secret lies in the spices used.

And he knows what spices create the magic of "real" Italian food because he learned of them in recipes that have been in his family for years.

His mother, a native of Southern Italy, turned over the cooking secrets to him.

A native of Pittsburgh, Malagreca has been in the food business 14 years. He has lived in Columbus the last four years and he is buying a home on Lockbourne-rd. He is the father of three girls—Terry, 6; Janice, 5; and Sharon, three.

He has operated Cardo's Pizza for the last year.

"I want to thank everyone who has patronized us during the last year," he said on the eve of the second birthday of the Great Southern Shopping Center.

Cardo's Pizza is open from noon to 1 a.m. on Fridays and Saturdays. It opens at the same time but closes two hours earlier other days. The wall mural was painted by Steve Whitaere, a South High student.

Cardo's Pizza features gondola and meat ball sandwiches. It has booth service and also prepares spaghetti and ravioli to be eaten off the premises.

A gondola sandwich is made with three kinds of Italian meat and a special Italian cheese and is topped with a special dressed salad.

Albers Has 6,000 Items At Great Southern Store

The Albers Store in the Great Southern Shopping Center handles about 6,000 items in its various departments and has seven checkout counters to provide speedy service for its customers.

One of the original stores in the shopping center, which is marking its second birthday, Albers is managed by Robert Hall. Frank L. Smith is the assistant manager.

The store is open from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m. every day except Sunday. It takes 40 employes to keep the store operating efficiently.

One of the fastest growing departments is the home center. Other departments include groceries, produce, meats, drugs, dairy and frozen food.

Customers now are engaged in the Albers Name the Rooster contest, which runs through the close of business Oct. 17. The rooster is Albers' insignia.

Customers can enter as many names as they wish. Entry blanks are at the Albers Store and can be deposited at the store. Officials say the contest is making a hit with shoppers.

FEATURES ART SUPPLIES

Lowe's Paints Will Display Art Work By South Sider

Forest Knight, who manages the Lowe Brothers Paint Store at the Great Southern Shopping Center, is working on a showing at his store. Interested artists can see him at the store, 3767 S. High-st, or telephone him at HI. 3-3050.

His store handles Craftint supplies for artists — brushes, colors, sketch pads, charcoal pencils and other materials. It also stocks Pitman art books.

Knight, who is assisted in the store by Robert Bartling, Jr., recently added Armstrong Excelon floor tile to the line of products he sells. He has a stock of unpainted furniture and is getting in a larger supply of pine chests, desks, children's furniture and other items.

The Lowe store is one of the newest in the shopping center, which is marking its second birthday. The store was opened May 15 by Knight, who has been with the company since 1957. He was employed by North American Aviation before joining the paint store.

The store carries a complete line of wallpaper and floor finishes, and, of course, paint. Best seller in the paint line, says Knight, is High Standard genuine Shingle N Shake exterior paint. Coming in second and third in popularity are Mello-Tone and Mello-Gloss.

Knight is a native of Columbus. He and his wife and their three children live at 2657 Azelda-dr. He met his wife, Denise, when they were attending Mifflin High. Their children are Karen, eight, Gary, six, and Jeff, two.

One three-ounce serving of poultry provides 30 percent of the protein, 25 percent of the iron, and 10 percent of the riboflavin recommended for the daily diet of a normally active man.

Hobby Den Offers Variety Of Crafts

Don Shultz, who has 20 years' experience as a modeler, operates the Hobby Den at the Great Southern Shopping Center.

Shultz says he intends to have on hand everything the hobbyist needs. His store carries gasoline model plane engines and on Sundays Shultz demonstrates radio control flying.

All types of craft items as well as some toys can be found in the store.

Kroger Store Wins Award In Competition

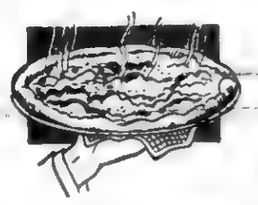
Last year the store won the president's cup in a competition with other Kroger stores.



Kroger customers can drive right up to the door and pick up their groceries. The store stocks about 7,000 items and is considered one of the most modern in the Kroger chain.

Entire Family Often Shops At Schiff's For Footwear

The manager of Schiff's Shoe Store at the Great Southern Shopping Center, Robert Freedman, has been in the shoe business for 22 years. Much of that time was with the Schiff organization.

"Entire families shop here for shoes," said Freedman, who has lived in Columbus for 40 years. "We guarantee that shoes will fit and we feature prompt service."

Patrick Quinn is assistant manager and Harmon McDaniel a salesman at the store. There is extra sales help evenings and Saturdays.

A popular feature of the store is the self-service hosiery bar. The store also stocks handbags.

Dream Step shoes in pointed and modified toe designs are carried for women, as well as Friskies sport shoes. There are Blue Bird shoes for children and infants, and Madison Square shoes for men and boys.

Schiff's also stocks acid-resistant work shoes for farmers and shoes for factory workers.

Commenting on the growth of business at the center since it opened two years ago, Freedman said, "It has been tremendous for a new shopping center."

Quality, Reasonable Cost Mark Olan Mills Portraits

If all the photographic film used each year by Olan Mills were placed end to end, it would reach from Springfield to Cleveland.

The widespread photographic organization opened a studio last Aug. 3 in the Great Southern Shopping Center. Its aim is to make available to the general public a quality portrait at reasonable cost.

Not only people get their pictures taken at Olan Mills, says Mrs. Betty Parkinson, manager of the shopping center studio. She has been in photographic work eight years.

"Not long ago we photographed a pet monkey," she said. "Lots of people bring their pets in for pictures. Our photographer, Mrs. Frances Brown, loves to take pictures of animals."

The studio specializes in pictures of babies, and Mrs. Parkinson said excellent pictures of very young infants are possible. Both color and black and white film are used.

Olan Mills photographers make several camera studies of each subject and pride themselves on being able to obtain natural expressions and proper composition.

Mrs. Mary Friend is the proof consultant at the shopping center studio. She helps customers make selections of photographs they wish to order.

Kuenning's Adds Dining Room

Kuenning's Restaurant at the Great Southern Shopping Center is expanding its dining facilities, and in about a week a new dining room that will accommodate 70 persons should be ready.

Robert McClean, manager since the restaurant opened last Feb. 1, said a large archway will connect the present and new dining rooms.

HOW VALUABLE

...Is Community Newspaper Advertising To Community Business Firms

Here's what the American Bankers Magazine, a publication that represents a traditionally conservative profession, has to say:

"No business man or woman in any locality should allow a newspaper to go to press without his or her name being mentioned somewhere in its columns.

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented there . . . it's the best possible community advertiser. The man or woman who does not advertise does an injustice to himself or herself and definitely to the town."

HARTLEY NEWSPAPERS

"There's No Substitute for Circulation"

What's going on in YOUR Community?

What's happening in the area in which your interest is highest—your community? Are the Boy Scouts planning a car wash? Is the Sewing Society to have a bake sale? Is one of the churches welcoming a new pastor? What civic improvements are being planned? What do the stores of the community offer for sale? Has one of your neighbors received a noteworthy appointment? How are the Little Leaguers of your area doing? What about those plans to rezone a nearby plat?

These are just samplings of the type of stories which appear each week in your community newspaper. No, not a word about the irrigation project in Oregon, the condition of measles-infected Sultan of Lahore, or the stock market quotations. No, to report these happenings we leave to other types of periodicals. The only reason for our existence is to focus attention to items of interest to the people in the communities we serve. Honest, progressive publicity can be of tremendous help to your community.

MANY CAMERAS IN STOCK

Camera Shop Has Specialty Of Speedy Service on Film

Because the Great Southern Camera Shop has its own laboratories, it can give speedy services to developing and printing black and white film.

The Cordle brothers own and operate Fast Photo Service at 15th and N. High-st. That is where they develop and print black and white film brought into their shop in the shopping center.

If the black and white film is brought in before 9 p.m., Foster said, it will be ready for the customer by 4 p.m. the next day. It takes three or four days for color film to be developed and printed.

The camera shop has a large selection of still and moving picture cameras—Kodak, Ansco, Rolleiflex, Keystone, Argus, Polaroid, Yashica, Minolta and Petri.

It also has a fine selection of accessories—light meters, flashguns, viewers, splicers, developing outfits, tripods, movie screens, carrying cases. In addition, the shop carries a complete line of darkroom supplies.

"We have just about everything the photographer—amateur or professional — needs," Foster said. "If we don't have it, we can get it in a hurry."

Grown Ups May Outnumber Kids In Classrooms

There's good chance that more adults will be going back to school this fall and winter than all of the children who will be enrolled in kindergarten, elementary and secondary schools combined.

Arthur P. Crabtree, a vice-president of the Adult Education Association of the United States, wrote recently in the New York Times that "in the nation as a whole some 35,000,000 grown ups are learning anew about this business of living more intelligently."

They are enrolling in all manner of classes to study everything from citizenship to home decoration, literature and the arts, as well as trade.

Add to these the number of business executives who will be taking special courses in management; professional men going to lectures on progress in their field, skilled mechanics going to class to expand their knowledge of developments in their fields, and it seems just about everybody will be going back to school some time, somewhere, during this coming year.

PAINTS FOR THE PAINTER

Great Southern Zettler's Features Furnace Filters

Now's the time to change the filters on your furnace, says James McConaha, manager of Zettler's, one of the original stores at the Great Southern Shopping Center.

That hardware store has a complete line of filters in stock, says McConaha, who has been with the company for more than 10 years. He formerly was manager of the Zettler store in the Town and Country Shopping Center.

Zettler's is a Hanna paint dealer and also carries Kem-Tone and Kem-Glo paints as well as all painting supplies.

Besides stocking a complete hardware line, Zettler's also has numerous kitchen utensils, waxes and cleaners, larger toys such as bicycles, wagons and hobby horses, small electrical appliances, fireplace screens, electric heaters, clothes hampers and many other items.

The do-it-yourself enthusiast can find plenty of materials to keep him busy, and the man who likes to make things out of aluminum can get the easy-to-work Reynolds aluminum at Zettler's.

Six of the seven Zettler stores are in shopping centers.

Manager of the Isaly store at the Great Southern Shopping Center is Russ Pancurak, who has been with the company since 1946. Pancurak has worked in several of the 14 other Isaly stores in Columbus.

The store features bulk and packaged ice cream in a large variety of flavors as well as lunch meats, butter, eggs and cheese. It also has a cafeteria service and you can accommodate about 70 persons at one [illegible]

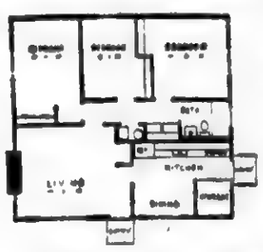
There is Something Special About Living in...

"America's Original Natural Gasland"...

Perhaps you've heard Ohio is one of seven states which comprise "America's Original Natural Gasland" and that you have special advantages because you live in this area.
Why? Because Nature, and the ingenuity of the gas industry, have been combined to give the people of Ohio the finest natural gas service — at rates that are among the lowest in the nation!
It was in "America's Original Natural Gasland" that gas was first discovered in its natural form, in this country, and first put to use in home and industry.
It was here that many of the techniques used to provide modern gas service were tried, tested, and perfected.
One of the most important of these techniques is underground storage — the gas company's way of readying comfort for you on a cold winter day.
In some areas of Ohio, Nature provided underground rock formations with the ability to hold vast quantities of natural gas. During summer great volumes of gas piped here from the Southwest are stored in these huge natural "warehouses." The gas is withdrawn from storage as needed, in winter, to help meet increased heating demands.
On cold winter days, more than half the gas used by Ohio Fuel customers comes from underground storage.
It's easy to understand, then, why underground storage is the heart of natural gas service in Ohio. Because of it, customers enjoy the convenience of an available supply at moderate cost — day in and day out — the year around.



The Columbia Gas System's dramatic sound, color movie, "The Underground Story of Natural Gas" is available for showings for schools, churches, club groups, and other organizations. Call your local Ohio Fuel Gas Company office about it.

Storm Hits South Side

Wind, Rain Plague Area On Monday

A quarter of an inch of rain fell in 20 minutes in the first storm and .39 of an inch in the second. Monday, according to officials at the Port Columbus Weather Bureau.

Main force of the storm which struck at 2 p.m. appeared to be concentrated on the South and West Sides.

Two sections of the South Side were without electrical service after the storm hit. Traffic lighs were out of service for a long period after the storm.

Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co. spokesmen said lines were short circuited when Municipal Light Plant lines snapped and fell across them.

The first break blacked out an area east to Parsons-av and south to Hosack-st.

The second cut service in an area bounded by High-st, Twenty-second, Sycamore and Molerstz.

Part of a roof at 361 Miller-av was blown off by the stiff guests in the first storm.

Firemen listed eight sets of lines downed by the storm that recorded winds up to 39 miles per hour.

Unbeaten Devils Are Defeated By South High

Quarterback, Jim Cordell passed South High School to its first victory this season, Friday night at Mahaffey Stadium with a 28-14 score, defeating the unbeaten Marion-Franklin High School.

Cordell accounted for one touchdown and passed for three others as South built up a 22-0 lead.

With the game half over and the Red Devils with no score they finally came to life and made a game out of it. Marion-Franklin tallied in the third period on a march of 75 yards and in the fourth period on a 41 yard march with quarterback, Larry Crabtree scoring

FIRST OF A SERIES

Bicycle Club Sponsors Race Event At Schiller

Franklin County Bicycle Club sponsored the first of a series of bicycle races before a crowd of more than 100 Sunday afternoon at Schiller Park.

There were six classes in the afternoon event with attractive trophies being presented to the winners of each class.

The trophies were presented to the club by the Amateur Bicycle League of America. On hand to present the trophies to the children were Herman "Doc" Crary, president of the Franklin County Bicycle Club, and Gus Husse, president of the Amateur Bicycle League of America.

The Franklin County Bicycle Club was organized at the Central YMCA in 1934 and holds a charter in the State of Ohio and National Amateur Bicycle League of America, Inc., as a non-profit organization.

It was organized to promote bicycle touring and racing. The club promoted three national championships held in Franklin Park in 1939, 1946 and 1951.

One of its former members, Eugene McPherson, director of WBNS-TV, still holds the United States record for going from coast to coast in 14 days on a bicycle.

The present officers of the club are Herman "Doc" Crary, president, 231 Deshler-av, Clayton Swingle, vice-president; Mrs. Herman Crary, secretary-tressurer, advisor and trustee, Gus Husse, president of the Amateur Bicycle League of America.

In the recent state-wide competition Mike Crary placed first in the junior division, James Rogers placed second and Terry Swingle placed third. Bonnie Husse took top honors in the Women's Division.

The purpose of this club is to encourage all ages in this sport for health, in conjunction with the government's new policy of the "Youth Fitness Program" now under the direction of Dr. Shane McCarthy, Washington, D.C.

The Franklin Bicycle Club, in cooperation with the recreational centers, is trying to promote interest in bicycle racing in order to build up the amateur bicycle racing groups in Columbus.

Residents interested in this type of sport can get a chance to enter the state finals that are held each year at Franklin Park. The three top winners from the state finals are then eligible to enter the National Bicycle Races that are held at a different location in the nation each year. This is sponsored by the Amateur Bicycle League of America.

There will be another race scheduled for Schiller Park in the next few weeks. All children are encouraged to attend this and the general public is cordially invited.

St. Leo's Plans Reparation Week

Beginning on Sunday, Oct. 11 and continuing through Oct. 16, St. Leo Church will sponsor "A Week of Reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus."

There will be a Holy Hour of Reparation each evening at 7:45, during which service, Father Vincent J. Forde, S.J., National Director of the Apostleship of Prayer will be the speaker. Masses will be offered daily at 6:15, 7:00 and 11 a.m.

This is the first time that such a "Week of Reparation" has been offered in the city of Columbus.

'BILL HESS DAY'

Anglers Honor Ohio Coach

A group of Right-Angle members journeyed to the Kent State-Ohio University football game Saturday, Oct. 3, to mark a memorable occasion with the group. They declared this as a "Bill Hess" Day" among themselves.

Hess, a former South High School graduate and member of the Right Angler Club is now coach at Ohio University. The day started off to a start with Ohio University romping over Kent State 46-0.

A presentation was intended for Coach Hess at the game but due to lack of time in preparation has been delayed to a later date.

Immediately following the game the group of Right-Anglers along with Coach and Mrs. Hess and faculty members gathered in the 1808 room of the Faculty Club on the campus. The group had planned this as a treat to the Hesses, however, the tables turned unexpectedly, and ended in a banquet dinner with Hess as the host.

The menu featured pork, baked rice and cheese, vegetable plate, lobster and shrimp salad, coffee, milk and hot rolls. The closing of the dinner brought a toast to Coach Hess for a successful day in marking another win for his team.

Bill Hess, one of the oldest members of the Right Anglers Club, was known as one of the smallest members of the club. Since then he has developed into one of Ohio's top athletes. The Right-Angle Club, a service group of the South Side YMCA, one of their many projects is the building of log cabins at YMCA parks.

This club is one of the oldest and most highly recognized groups in the YMCA field. Their work has provided many well-filled camping hours for youth associated with the YMCA's around the country.

Sanitary Sewer Bid Accepted

One firm was apparent low bidder Tuesday on two southeast sewer projects, as bidding was opened by the City of Columbus Service Department.

Thompson Conie Co. offered to construct the Marion No. 3 sanitary sewer for $134,050.70 and the Clarfield sub-trunk sewer for $7,913.73.

The Marion sewer will terminate at Fairwood-av and Watkins-rd, extending north in the area west of Fairwood to Refugee-rd.

The second lowest bidder for the Marion project was registered by Cenci Excavating Co., $139,049.20.

Clarfield sewer is in answer to petitions from residents in an area east of Groveport-pk, midway between Watkins and Williams-rds.

Bids on both projects are being tabulated and should be ready for council action in the next few days. However a holiday (Columbus Day, Oct. 12) which falls on the regular council day may stall the wards a week or two.

By approving taking of bids for a $75,000 sub trunk sewer to serve Greenfield Acres on the South Side, city council Monday opened the way for residents of a 270-acre tract to convert from outside toilets and septic tanks.

The subdivision was established several years ago when it was part of the county and sanitary sewers were not available.

The 3,500-foot sub trunk sewer will flow into the Parsons-av sewer. It will vary in diameter from 18 to 24 inches, running from Parsons-av to Eagle-av.

Numerous requests from the area resulted in plans to build the sewer, the sewer department said. After the sewer and connecting lateral sewers are in homes, these streets can be served: Belleview-av, Lawndale-av, Lewis-av, Koebel-av, Glendower-av, Eagle-av and Wilson-av.

Local Slum Project Now Under Study

The Urban Renewal Administration in Washington said today Columbus' application for the Children's Hospital slum clearance project is still in the Chicago regional office.

Most of the processing on such projects is done in regional offices, and their recommendation for approval virtually assures final approval in Washington.

The city has asked for $2 million in federal funds for the project, and since the housing bill has been passed by Congress, speedy action on the project is expected. URA reported earlier it could act on the project providing it is received soon from Chicago.

OES Chapter 467 Will Hold Monthly Meeting

Monthly meeting of the Maree Social Club of the Southern Way Chapter No. 467 OES will be held Thursday, Oct 15 at 12 noon, at the South Gate Temple, 850 Studer-av. There will be a luncheon with Mrs. Lera Moore, vice-president serving as hostess.

Siebert PTA Hold Member Drive

Siebert PTA will hold its annual membership drive Oct. 12 to 16. In charge of the drive will be Mrs. Phillip Arnold.

A room mothers' tea will be held Oct. 13 by the PTA with Mrs. Ronald Quickel in charge of arrangements. At the tea the mother's will get a chance to meet their children's teachers and discuss plans for the coming year.

Cub Scout Pack 114 Will Sponsor Dance

Cub Scout Pack 114 of St. Timothy's Lutheran Church is sponsoring a round and square dance, Friday, Oct. 16, from 8 until 11 p.m. at South Franklin School, 2090 Frank-rd. Music will be furnished by the Dove Ellis Orchestra. Soft drinks, hot dogs and potato chips will be sold. Admission is 50 cents per person.

South High PTA Plans Open House

Mrs. Paul Barton, president, South High School PTA, assisted by the officers, chairmen of the board and the recently appointed room mothers will join H. Delbert Swain, principal, and the faculty in welcoming the parents and friends of South High School to the first PTA meeting and Open House, Oct. 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

The invocation will be given by a South High School graduate, who also had the honor of being drum major, Rev. Wayne Fowler of Laurelville EUB Church. He is now studying at the Seminary of Capital University. The theme for this year is "Meeting the Challenge of a Changing World."

There will be a short business meeting followed by the speaker of the evening, David Shackne, architect for the Columbus Public Schools who will speak on the Bond and Levy Issue. He will then show a film entitled "Where the Future Begins." The musical number for the evening will be a mixed choir directed by Miss Mary Winchester. After the program there will be a room visitation period, where the parents and teachers will meet and "talk it over."

Illinois' Win Staggers Contestants

Surprise was spelled Illinois Saturday in the Hartley Newspaper Football Guessing Contest, with the Illini rebounding from a first-game loss to spill highly-touted Army.

Hardly an entrant in the contest connected the Big Ten team with victory over the Black Knights, rated as one of the top teams in the East.

Many more saw through Ohio State's opening game win over Duke and correctly predicted Southern California's easy win over the baffled Buckeyes.

Winners in this week's contest are Mary Fehlow, 314 Woodrow-av; Jerry Ray, 1087 Innis-av; and Mrs. Basil Logsdon, 793 S. Third-st.

They are eligible, in the order of their finish, to receive $10 in cash, a free haircut from Curt's Barber Shop or a world wide globe from Steelton Jewelers.

There will be a contest each week for the remainder of the football season. Complete rules for this week's contest are contained in a full page advertisement inside today's newspaper.

Winning contestants in this contest will receive, in the order of their finish, $10 in cash, a free lube and oil change from Russell Kelly or a free set of brake shoes from Automotive Parts Co.

Guessperts have already contributed their predictions on games to be played this weekend.

Here's how entrants judge some of the top games:

Ohio State to rebound against Illinois; Indiana to smear Marquette; Iowa to upset Michigan State; Purdue to remain unbeaten against Wisconsin; Capital to up-end Kenyon; East to drub West; and Notre Dame to surprise California.

UA Workers Organized For Residential Canvass

"It All Depends On You" is announced as the theme for the ninth Annual United Appeal campaign which opened officially Monday, Oct. 5.

Women who will play leading roles in the residential solicitation will start their big day on Oct. 13 with coffee parties in the homes of their captains, during which time they will view a TV show specially produced for them over WLW-C, at 9:45 a.m., as part of their briefing for the solicitation.

More than 200 women were guests of the residential chairman, Mrs. Robert B. Greene, at the captains' tea in the Town and Country Room of the Neil House, Oct. 1. The program included a color movie of the United Appeal project, group singing of the theme song for the campaign "It All Depends On You," and a humorous skit showing the problems of solicitors. Tea and reception followed the program.

More than 3,000 women organized with area chairmen, colonels and captains, have volunteered for the solicitation. A residential luncheon has been scheduled for Oct. 21 at the Southern Hotel, at which time reports in progress will be made. Culmination of the cam-

Gladden Staff Appreciates Aid

Mr. C. C. Hartley:

"On behalf of the board and staff and the West Side community, we wish to express our sincere and deep appreciation to Hartley Newspapers for the wonderful cooperation they have given in the development of the program at Gladden Community House during the past several months.

"The outstanding press coverage that the West Side News and Hilltop Record gave in this social service project has never been exceeded to my knowledge by any newspaper in the city of Columbus.

I have worked with many newspaper people throughout the country, but Mr. Marc Orr of your editorial staff is head and shoulders above any of them in cooperativeness, accuracy and interest in a support rendered to this United Appeal agency of Gladden Community House. All of the staff of your newspaper is to be commended for their fine work. Without your cooperation I am sure that our job would have been a much more difficult one than it has been.

"I hope for your continued service to the West Side because it is evidently one of the main contributions to the well-being of this community."

Sincerely,
A. M. Wilder
Executive Director

BIBLE COMMENT:

Rest Promise Supports Us In Adversity

"Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

With these words of Jesus in Matthew 11:28, the promise of eternal rest is made to all men.

God's creatures may hold wealth and power. Their worldly assets may be immense. Their lives may be replete with pleasure; but there is one commodity that cannot be purchased on this earth—rest.

This is one item that everybody must have. Millionaires and peasants must lie down to rest. Yet the rest that we enjoy in sleep is but a poor facsimile of the rest that awaits us in the kingdom of God.

In his promise, Jesus touched the very heart of man's most fundamental desire.

Can there be anything comparable to the rest that awaits those who ascend into God's arms?

Driven as we are by fears—fears of poverty, starvation, loss of prestige or death, any number of the thousands of threats that plague our lives—how comforting to us is this assurance that someday we will discover freedom from anxiety.

It is the knowledge of this promise that allows men to bear the burdens of hard labor, illness, persecution and torment. Someday men will enter into that complete rest which they will inherit from the bountiful mercy of God.

Strictly Fresh

Youngsters certainly do brighten a home . . . you've never yet seen one turn off an electric light.

Two kinds of men never get very far . . . those who can do nothing that they are told and those who can do nothing else.

Looking for something hard to find? You'll find all sorts of interesting offers in today's classified page.

Cheer up—in a few weeks, the leaves will cover the garden tools, and you won't have to pick them up until spring.

Food Markets This Week

by Mrs. Estelle B. Franks

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Fruits — apples, cider, canned cling peaches.

Vegetables — Brussels sprouts, potatoes, cello packed greens, turnips, canned corn.

IT'S APPLE TIME AGAIN

This year's apple harvest is under way. The crop looks good. Ohio production alone will run just under three million bushels. Marketing specialists say the total U. S. apple crop is likely to total nearly 119 million bushels. This is about six per cent smaller than last year's crop, but is nine per cent larger than the average production during the last ten years.

Flavor is tops in freshly picked apples. They are tart and firm. What about the color? Yes, the hot dry weather this season affected the color on Delicious, Jonathan, McIntosh, and other fall varieties of apples here in Ohio. Color of some of the later apples has improved with the arrival of cooler weather recently. While color may be off a little, indications point to better eating quality this year than last, and that's what really counts.

Choosing Apples — Family taste varies, and because of this some like one kind of apple better than another. When you buy, remember that good all-purpose apples include Jonathans, Staymans, and McIntosh. They are not equally good for cooking, baking or eating raw. Golden Delicious and Courtlands are good as apple salad, since they do not brown easily and are crisp. Sweet apples, such as Red Delicious, are best for eating fresh.

During the harvest period it is often possible to buy culls and drop apples at low prices. To make sure you have a real bargain, stop and consider how you will use the fruit. Bruises and skin breaks mean waste, and apples damaged this way are poor risks for home canning. Best uses for them are in jelly, applebutter or cider.

Pound or Bushel?—When buying apples in large quantities, sample a few first, to see whether they have the flavor and texture you want. Apples are noted for good keeping qualities, but it takes a little care to hold them at their best in home storage.

Good apples will keep up to two weeks in a cool place. If you have plenty of cool or cold storage space, where the temperature remains constant and the air is rather moist, you can probably save money by buying autumn-picked apples and storing them. If apples are put in storage for you they'll cost more when you buy them.

HONEY APPLE CRISP

Four cups sliced apples, one-fourth cup sugar, one tablespoon lemon juice, one-half cup honey, one-half cup flour, one-fourth cup brown sugar, one-fourth teaspoon salt, one-fourth cup butter and one-fourth cup walnuts (if desired.)

Spread sliced apples in a shallow baking dish, sprinkle with sugar and lemon juice and pour honey over all. In a bowl mix flour, brown sugar and salt, and work in the butter as for biscuits, making a crumbly mixture. Spread these crumbs evenly over the apples and bake in a modern oven 375 degrees for 30 to 40 minutes; or until apples are tender and crust crisply browned. Serve warm, with plain cream, or whipped cream topped with a dash of powdered cinnamon.

Tailgate It At Your Next Football Outing

Gridiron fans dig into tailgate lunch

By Dorothy Maddex

Football fans get hungry, too. So why not pack up a special lunch to serve them from the tailgate of your car while waiting for the kickoff.

Here's a good, easy-to-carry tailgate menu. Separate plastic bags and boxes and a refrigerated chest keep foods fresh and cold.

Tailgate Menu

Swiss-egg sandwich; tuna chili sandwich; baked beans; potato chips; olives, pickles; cole slaw; assorted cup cakes; coffee.

Tuna Chili Sandwich Filling (Yield: ½ cup of filling for 3 sandwiches)

One-third cup drained, flaked tuna, 1 tablespoon chopped celery, ⅛ teaspoon chili powder, ⅛ teaspoon oregano, 2 tablespoons tomato sauce.

Combine tuna, celery, chili powder, oregano and tomato sauce.

Swiss-Egg Sandwich Filling (Yield: ¾ cup filling or enough to spread 4 sandwiches)

One-half cup grated Swiss cheese, tightly packed, 7 tablespoons chopped hard-cooked egg, ¼ teaspoon dry mustard, ⅛ teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons mayonaise or salad dressing, few grains paprika, 1 tablespoon finely chopped green pepper.

Combine cheese, eggs, mustard, salt, mayonnaise, paprika and green pepper.

Submarine Sandwich

This tangy sandwich gets its name from its unique shape. Cut the full length of a whole loaf of Italian bread lengthwise. Spread each side with mustard. On one half arrange lettuce leaves, covered with thin slices of tomato and American cheese and top with about 10 whole Norway sardines (½ can). Press the second half firmly on top and serve with cold beverage.

A family of four, using cistern water for laundry and bath only, need a 10,000 gallon cistern, Ohio State University Extension agricultural engineers point out.

Ohio State University Extension economists expect continued expansion in the general economy at least through 1960.

Poor Fish Face Sunday Temptation

Blue gills will no longer be protected by a blue law. Nor will any other poor fish in Ohio streams.

Effective Thursday, Oct. 1, anyone who wishes to fish on Sunday may do so without fear of arrest if he has an Ohio fishing license. A House Bill, passed by the recent General Assembly, has made it legal to dangle bait on the sabbath.

Actually, according to the Division of Wildlife, the "blue law" on fishing has not been enforced in recent years.

The new bill does not affect the hunter's plight, however. Sunday shooting is still taboo.

Gun, Relic Group Plans Exhibition

Capital City Gun and Indian Relic Collectors Association will be host at another of its popular exhibitions Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 10 and 11 at Haubrich Armory, 4094 Sullivant-av.

All types of guns, Civil War items, Indian relics and Western gear will be displayed by collectors from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Members of similar organizations and their friends and guests are invited, said H. T. Bishop, 302 Derrar-rd. The association will hold its sixth show at the armory on Dec. 5 and 6. Ohio Gun Collectors Association will hold a large exhibition Nov. 21 and 22 at the new Veterans Memorial Building, W. Broad-st.

Sidewalk Art To Be Seen At Schiller

Folks with a flair for art from all around town will hold a Greenwich Village-style sidewalk show at Schiller Park, Sunday, Oct. 11 from 2 to 6 p.m.

Sunday Painters, a group of commercial and amateur artists, plan to put up the exhibition on the walks along Deshler-av, south of the shelter house.

The public is invited to enter ceramics, photography, sculpture and carvings as well as works in water colors, oil, charcoal and pastel. A nominal entry fee will be charged and there will be no admission cost.

Entries may be registered with Sandra Bayes, AM. 8-0429. Mrs. Rachel McCall will be hostess.

In case of rain the show will be held on the shelter house porch.

Schools Begin Clothing Drive

Schools of Hamilton Township District will begin their drive for World Clothing Week, Oct. 19 through 23. The clothing that is to be collected in large bags from every pupil will go to children all over the world.

This drive is sponsored by the World Christian Children's Fund.

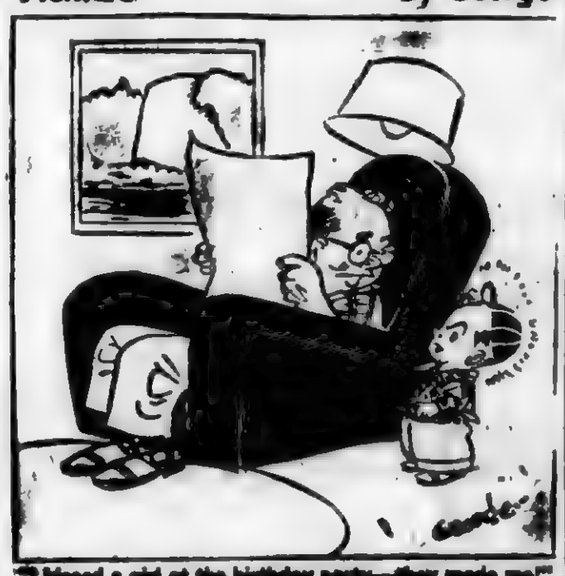
Seven County Ponds Stocked During Year



Farm pond owners in Franklin Soil Conservation District have recently received fish for stocking their ponds. These fish are supplied by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Seven ponds in the county have been stocked this year on District cooperator's farms. The new stocking ratio is 1,000 bluegills and 200 bass per acre, according to David C. Brooks, Soil Conservationist with the U. S. Soil Conservation Service.

This new stocking ratio has been adopted as a result of research and field work of Dr. George Morgan of Denison University and Paul Handwerk of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, according to Granville Smith, field biologist, with the soil Conservation Service in Columbus. This new rate of stocking ponds involves more bass and bluegills than were previously used and will provide better odds for maintaining proper fish balance than any ratio used so far, Smith states.

Appealing through a newspaper ad to the pickpocket who stole his wallet in Madrid, Spain, writer Ernest Hemingway asked for the return of his wallet, which was a gift. "As for the 9,000 pesetas ($150) it contained," he added, "your skill deserves that prize as a reward."

Fishermen Tempted By Smallmouth Bass

Fishing season is a long way from being over.

Water temperature governs the activity of the fish, and when I checked it last weekend it had barely dropped been here this fall. This serves below 70 degrees. When the water temperature is between 60 and 70 fish appetites seem to be at their peak and smallmouth bass are spoiling for a fight as the water cools.

There are some disadvantages to fall smallmouth fishing. Falling leaves cover the water just as they cover the land at this time of year. Quiet pools in streams in this area are likely to have their blankets of leaves, and this makes fishing difficult. It is best to concentrate your efforts on stretches of water where the current cleans away the debris.

Another thing — the creeks are apt to be low as they have to collect the fish into pockets and pools, but it will also make some of your favorite waters too low to fish. Many a boulder that harbors a bass in normal times, will be stranded high and dry. The fact that water levels are low means that fall float fishing is impractical except on the larger streams.

Float Fishing Is Fun

Floating for smallmouth bass in a canoe or row boat is one of the most delightful ways to fish in Ohio. At this time of year you can watch the panorama of autumn colors as you float along. You will, no doubt, see some squirrels, and it's fun hunt them from a canoe if the bass aren't hitting regularly. If you are lucky you may see a deer as you make your silent way downstream. Autumn float fishing has many bonuses—but make sure you have plenty of water before you schedule a trip at this season.

Baits to use on fall smallmouths are about the same as you would use at any other time of year. Nightcrawlers will provide some strikes for you now, and as the water temperature cools minnows will be the choice of many expert bass fishermen. Artificial lures are good, but remember to work them slower and slower as the water temperature approaches 60 degrees.

"Jumpers" Active Now

Another thing to look for toward the end of October is the catching of some big smallmouths. Right now the "jumpers" provide a lot of action, those little rascals that go crazy on the end of your line but seldom scale more than 12 inches. As the pace slows, bigger bass will be caught.

This is perhaps the best month for sportsmen. The weather is mild, and the outdoors is beautiful. Hunters can choose their quarry from ducks, squirrels, woodcock and grouse. Fishing is still good, especially smallmouth bass fishing. There is not the hurried or crowded atmosphere of the opening of the rabbit and pheasant season in November. October is a month to relax, and enjoy Indian Summer days outdoors.

Smallmouth bass are hitting well, is the report from Bill Krack of Bill's Baits, 262 N. Central-av. The fish are being caught in the Olentangy, the Scioto north of Columbus, Big Darby and Big Walnut. "They are not of large size," says Bill, "but there are good ly numbers of bass about a foot long being taken."

M-F Chooses Homecoming Queen Court

By Elizabeth Smith
HI. 3-1184

The students at Marion-Franklin chose their homecoming court this past week. The five girls are Jerilyn Miller, Vicki Hess, Kit Edwards, Pat Smith and Diana Wisecarver.

Now they have a long week of waiting and guessing ahead of them for they will not know which one of the five will reign as the queen until it will be announced at the half time show at the game this Friday night. The queen and her court will be honored at the dance following the game.

Mrs. Louis West of Southgate-dr. fell down some steps this past week and she is now a patient at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Mrs. Melvin Strawser has been under a doctor's care for the past couple of weeks, but is now beginning to feel better.

Mrs. Henry Scheiderer has had her father visiting with her the past week.

Jessie and Harley Port celebrated their wedding anniversary on Sept. 26, as did Thelma and Duke Southall. This was a double wedding in the Logan Perry family.

Our deepest sympathy goes to the family of Clarence Lewis who died this past week from a heart attack, while at work.

Happy birthday to Karen Rieber who was 18 Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Imhoff visited with their daughter and her family in Tulsa, Okla.

Russell Evans spent several days at Mt. Carmel Hospital the past week, and must go back Monday for more X-rays.

Several from Columbus spent Sunday renewing acquaintances at the McQuiniff-Nauman reunion at Austin, O., in Ross County.

Yours truly with Mrs. Henry Scheiderer will be attending all the sessions of the PTA convention this week as the delegates from Marion-Franklin High School. Attending some of the conferences will be Mrs. Robert Miller, Mrs. Lawrence Gutridge, Mrs. Paul Berger, Mrs. Carl Weber, Mrs. John Nippert, and Edwin Gearhart.

The members of the South High EUB Church will have their first service in their new sanctuary on this Sunday, Oct. 11 at 9:15 a.m., with the adult choir singing and the evening services will be a Communion service with the youth choir singing.

Open house will be held on Oct. 14 at the city schools. This evening gives the parents an opportunity to meet with the teachers and to visit the schools and see where their children spend their daytime hours. This opportunity to talk with the teachers lets the teachers know just how interested we are in our children at school.

My news must be written and ready for pickup by Sunday evening after this, so if we are to have a column, I will have to be called during the week, but don't forget that I will be at convention this week until Thursday, and will be glad to take your calls when I return home, so don't forget my number, and do help me make a column for the coming week.

The youth of the South High Church will be out for "Pennies for UNICEF" again this year. The pennies you give to them means milk and medicine for the boys and girls around the world.

Sunday School will convene at 10:30 a.m., with classes for all ages. A contest, "Race For Space," is now in progress.

The Youth Fellowship will be conducted at 6 p.m. for those ages 12 to 24.

The Sacrament of Holy Communion will be observed in the evening service at 7:30. The youth choir will sing and the pastor will speak on the theme, "Sacrifice Sublime."

The new church building is a contemporary structure with an open chancel and a seating capacity of 300 in the nave. The building is also composed of a lounge, cry room, church offices, social and educational facilities.

Dedication services have been set for Nov. 15.

Hiker's Paradise Said To Be Ready By Spring

"By next spring we will have mapped a system of trails through Zaleski State Forest, Vinton and Athens Counties, that could keep an ardent hiker busy for two weeks," according to Bill Price, chief naturalist, Ohio Division of Parks.

"By checking in and camping in the area available at Lake Hope State Park, an avid hiker could avail himself of some of the roughest and most beautiful trails that Ohio has to offer.

The trails, as we are mapping them, will interconnect in such a way that it would not be necessary to re-hike but very small parts of them during a two-week stay. The parts re-hiked would only be where they cross.

(Mary Anderson, in her South High School days, was Mary Knapp). While Mary was sight seeing in the Skyline Drive on her own vacation, she saw south siders Aretas and Carl Groezinger, 1511 Wilson-av, and Aretas' mother. Two small tables became one large one, so the Floridians and the Ohioans could visit while dining. As Dorothy said "It's a small world!"

Feeling that we, as Americans, should constantly keep before us the image of our country's heritage, we wrote to the Ohio Historical Society, and asked if they would kindly keep up informed of activities in that society. Robert S. Harper, public information officer answered us quickly and pleasantly in return, enclosing a news release we could use, so here 'tis: The final event of the Lincoln Sesquicentennial Celebration will be in the form of a voluntary contest for school children in grades 10, 11 and 12, in an examination covering Abraham Lincoln's life. A state prize of $250, and five district prizes of $100 each have been posted by the Ohio Historical Society and the Lincoln Committee. In addition, 100 book prizes will be distributed state-wide. It's the last minute for entering the contest, so interested high-schoolers have only till Oct. 9, to notify their principals or teachers.

Ethel Weber, 3366 Groveport-pk, is visiting a niece in northern Ohio currently.

We received a few responses to our plea for plants that would otherwise be allowed to freeze when cold weather comes, and we're grateful to those who responded. If given to ye Gadabout, the plants will be taken to Ben Franklin Hospital. Since we don't plan to take them until the last minute ourselves, we know that others want to enjoy their plants as long as possible also. When that time comes, won't you gvie them to a shut-in, a hospital or somewhere where they can continue brightening someone's life? Those wanting to give their plants to Ben Franklin may do so by calling us at HI. 4-1051. (The Irishman's had a birthday, but he can still navigate himself and his car so he cheerfully helps us with the project.)

Councilman Hoermle Gains Respect Handling City Affairs

If you want to find out how a city councilman is getting along with his work, you make inquiries around city hall.

When you ask specifically about Democratic City Councilman William P. Hoermle, Sr., who has been a city father since early this year, you get this overall impression:

A man dedicated to his work of making Columbus a better place in which to live. A man willing to take on tough and unpopular assignments, using a judicious approach.

City hall sources say Hoermle, a businessman who for many years has been interested in civic affairs, is very well respected for the manner in which he conducts city business.

They point to his "judicious manner" and studious approach to city problems. His appreciation of the need for economy and efficiency in running the city's business. And his knowledge of the needs of the average citizen.

"Bill represents the viewpoint—a very necessary one—of the small businessman who has lived in the community all his life," is the way one city hall source put it. "He is responsive to the needs of the small businessman. And because he has dealt with working people all the time, he knows of their needs as well."

Hoermle was appointed a councilman early this year. He was successful in the May primary and now is one of eight candidates for four council seats that will be filled in the Nov. 3 general election.

Hoermle served on council's water investigating committee—an assignment some regarded as unpopular—and lined up with the committee chairman, Democrat Robert Smith, in submitting a majority report. The candidate came out with definite recommendations for bettering the water supply to various sections of the city.

He hopes the city is able to come up with enough proof to convince the state supreme court that the recent Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co. rate increase was excessive in some cases.

"I don't think the city got a fair break," he commented. "In many cases the rates paid by small commercial users went up almost 50 per cent, while we were told the increase would be 15 per cent."

Hoermle has words of praise for city officials concerned with financial matters in the Sensenbrenner administration.

William P. Hoermle

"M. D. Portman, the finance director, is doing a terrific job of saving money for the taxpayers by buying short-term treasury notes," he commented. "He puts the temporarily idle city funds and work and they're earning interest at the rate of $350,000 a year. That's all due to the cooperation among the mayor, Portman, John Price, the city auditor and Fred Wile, the city treasurer."

Hoermle is owner of Hoermle's Appliances at 1894 Parsons-av. His two sons, William P. Hoermle, Jr., and John R. Hoermle, are associated with him in the store.

While the councilman is 57 years old, he easily could pass for a man 10 years younger. He was born and reared on the South Side.

After attending St. Mary's Grade School and the old Commerce High School, he joined Heaton's Music Store. He left Heaton's to start his own business on Parsons-av in 1925. Since then he has been a successful merchant. First he sold pianos, phonographs and records. Then radios became popular and he stocked them. Still later came appliances, paints and housewares.

You can still buy guitar strings and picks at Hoermle's—as well as records.

Bill organized a 75-piece boys band when he started in business for himself. He always has been interested in boys and for a long time worked with domestic relations court with boys who needed guidance.

Active many years in Scouting, he once was on the central committee for Scouting. He was chairman of the advancement committee in the southeast district of Columbus. For a long time he was active in Troop 2, second oldest in Columbus, which had its meeting place at South Side Settlement House.

Hoermle thas been chairman of Selective Service Board No. 39 for 19 years, which covers the years of World War II and the Korean Conflict. During the second World War he had to work nights and Sundays on the board which takes in south and southeast Columbus.

He is a past president of the Southeast Lions Club which, through the sale of special editions of Hartley Newspapers, has raised thousands of dollars for musical instruments for public and parochial schools on the South Side.

Hoermle also formerly headed the South Side Business and Industrial Assn. and the Columbus Appliance Dealers Assn. Fraternally, he belongs to the Knights of Columbus, Columbus Maennerchor, Press Club, Moose and Eagles.

He and his wife, Hazel, live at 2434 Beverly-pl. They are active members of Christ the King parish.

Hello!

It's an exciting thrill for the new mother in the hospital to receive a gift of flowers. The worst is over, the darling little baby is here; but the hospital does not allow many visitors. The flowers express your congratulations, bring happiness and cheer into the room, and help the long hours to pass more quickly. Delight new parents with a charming arrangement of cut flowers in a baby novelty, a planter of greenhouse plants, or a blooming plant.

Our congratulations to new parents, Mr. & Mrs. Richard Stickle and Mr. & Mrs. John Leist who have daughters, and Mr. & Mrs. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dick, Mr. & Mrs. Russell Hall, Mr. & Mrs. William Weldon and Mr. & Mrs. Donald Heidtman who have new sons. The People's Mayor . . .
THE MAN

A MAYOR WHO WORKS FOR HIS CITY

"A man's fitness for public office can be judged by the means he uses trying to get and keep it."

Mayor Jack Sensenbrenner is a FULL time mayor, working for our city as:

. . . a good-will ambassador
. . . an on-the-job manager
. . . a community speaker
. . . a listener among the voters
. . . a working boss of city employees
. . . a Mr. Columbus Average Man

This is a man who has proven he can do the job of guiding the growth and progress of the Columbus he knows and loves.

Mayor Gives Plans, Tells Work Done

Editor's Note — What has the administration of Mayor M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner done in the last six years and what are the mayor's plans for the next four, if Sensenbrenner is re-elected Nov. 3? The mayor answers these questions in a report to the people presented in a series of articles in the Hartley Newspapers. The first follows.

Mayor M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner is seeking re-election on his record.

The list of achievements speaks for itself, says the mayor, who added he wants another four-year term so he can complete his program for Columbus.

"Columbus in the last six years as achieved more progress in its city government than it did in more than a century," the mayor said in a report to the people on his administration. "Columbus has met the challenge of tremendous population and land growth."

Civic progress this year brought Columbus the "All American City" award.

Friends of the mayor say that, judging from his past accomplishments, his program for the future will be accomplished. The mayor says he has a detailed program for the future.

During the last three years the cost of city government rose, along with the cost of a number of things. Sensenbrenner said he is proud that his administration carried on the city's capital improvements program, gave wage increases and expanded services under the existing revenue-producing system.

There has been a substantial surplus in the city general fund every year since 1955 says the city's finance director, M. D. Portman.

City council in 1948 provided a finance department and since then the city has earned more than $300,000 by investing its inactive bank deposits in short-term U.S. Treasury bills and in the city's own notes.

The city's capital improvements budget, which plans financially as well as physically for the city's future needs, was perfected under Sensenbrenner.

"This plan is working," Sensenbrenner said. "It has placed the city's future plans on a businesslike, orderly basis."

The finance department's inventory control system in its first year saved thousands of dollars for taxpayers, says Sensenbrenner.

Operation of Columbus Zoo concessions and Port Columbus parking has been taken away from private interests, saving the city thousands of dollars, in the opinion of the mayor.

Sensenbrenner is proud of the city's accomplishments in building expressways.

"Just look around you and see what has been done," he invites. "The Spring-Sandusky traffic interchange has been finished. The Long Street extension from Olentangy River to Civic Center Drive is in operation. The Mound Street throughway from Scioto River to Front Street is completed.

"The Goodale Street expressway is almost completed. By the end of the year, the Third Street Viaduct spanning the railroad yards will be finished. Here are others in the program: The Sandusky Street leg of the innerbelt, Southwest Freeway, the North Freeway Expressway which will link Columbus with northern Ohio, the Mound Street Bridge over the Scioto River."

Elimination of dangerous railroad crossings has occupied the Sensenbrenner administration. The Hudson Street underpass is in operation and the East Fifth Avenue underpass is being rushed to completion and should be ready for traffic in December. Plans are being completed for the East North Broadway underpass.

Plumbers Retain Tie For First In 'Cat League

Duckworth Plumbers held on to a tie for first place, in the Ohio Bearcat League by downing the fast improving Beatty Lions, 28 to 6.

The two teams could not get a sustained drive started and had to exchange punts twice in the first six minutes. Things were even until Fred Hamler of the Plumbers broke off right tackle and raced 40 yards for the first touchdown. Marc Borst ran around end for the conversion.

In the second quarter the Plumbers drove from their own 30 to the Beatty 25, from where Rick Anderson hit pay dirt on a smash off tackle. Then they took to the air on their next drive and Jerry Robison pitched a perfect pass to Bill Foraker who raced 35 yards to score. At the half the score stood 20 to 0 in Duckworth's favor. In the third quarter the Beatty defense really stiffened and neither team could score.

B-47 Stratojets To Zoom Over Chosen U.S. Targets

From 40,000 to 50,000 feet altitude, crews from Lockbourne Air Force Base will fly B-47 Stratojets over selected targets in the United States in the Strategic Air Command's "World Series" of bombing, navigation and air refueling.

Aiming points might be a smokestack in an industrial complex, or the corner of a building. These points are virtually indistinguishable on a radar screen.

Radar target prediction, however, gives a method of finding their aiming points. And SAC's radar bomb scoring (RBS) procedures determine bombing accuracy down to a matter of a few feet.

Radar target prediction shows a simulated photo of the target area. Using distinctive reflection, such as rivers, large structures or hills, bomb crews can determine their aiming points in each city and compute where the "bomb" must be released. This same method is employed to locate aiming points in SAC's emergency war plans.

Radar scoring units will be stationed near the aiming point in each city. Following bomb-ers by tracking radar, and marking the exact point at which the nonexistent bomb is released, RBS personnel compute quickly the point of impact and circular error margin from the aiming point.

As past RBS figures show, SAC bombardiers seldom miss by more than a few feet. Frequently, they register direct hits — nicknamed "shacks" by men of the command.

Crews from Lockbourne Air Force Base's two bomb wings, the 301st and 376th, are still competing to find the best from each wing. Each wing will send two crews and one aircraft to the competition, in addition to maintenance and ground support personnel.

For the units which combine top maintenance, accurate bombing and navigation and smooth aerial refueling hookups in the best mixture, there will be trophies in recognition of expertly performed missions.

Highest award is the Fairchild Trophy, presented each year to the bomb wing with the best combined scores in all three phases of the competition.

Deshler Parents Group To Meet

First meeting of the Deshler School Parent-Education discussion group will be Oct. 13 at 1:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of Deshler Elementary School.

Miss Hortensia Dyer from the Columbus Board of Education will speak on "Understanding grading." (A B C's versus S and U.) A question and answer period will follow.

Baby sitting will be furnished and all parents are urged to attend.

Girl Scout Leaders To Meet At Church

Schiller Neighborhood Girl Scout Leaders and Committee members will meet at 7:30 p.m., Oct. 12 at the Thurman-av Methodist Church.

Mrs. Mabel Christ will preside over the business meeting.

Mrs. Gaines A. Gatwood, interviewer for first class and curved bar ranks, will hold consultation on badge work.

Pvt. Donald Neymeyer Completes Radar Course

Army Pvt. Donald E. Neymeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Neymeyer, 485 Sycamore-st, recently completed the radar electronics course while serving with the 24th Infantry Division in Germany.

Neymeyer, a radar specialist in Headquarters Battery of the division's 24th Division Artillery, entered the army in April, 1958, and received basic combat training at Fort Knox, Ky. He was stationed at Fort Sill, Okla., before arriving in Europe in September, 1959. The 18-year-old soldier attended St. Mary's High School.

Zed Peters says of Zol Klinger: As a citizen I respect him, as a friend I like him, as a neighbor I watch him.

UA Drive—

paign is a victory dinner for all workers on the last official day of the campaign, Oct. 26, also at the Southern Hotel.

Despite busy lives of their own, all the women donate their time and efforts to the door-to-door solicitation; and often their devotion to the project means returning more than once to a residence so as to be sure no one has been missed, due to absence from home when the volunteer calls.

United Appeal serves 63 agencies and saves multiple solicitations for its social and health agency members, as all campaigns for the member agencies are combined in the one annual effort which begins Oct. 5 and ends officially on Oct. 28. United Appeal is so organized that you can help your favored agency through UA's 63-in-one campaign. The goal this year is $3,373,507; of this sum the women's residential solicitation has assumed responsibility for $160,000.

Mrs. George Hickcox is the South Side chairman, and Mrs. Robert A. Waibel is vice-chairman. South area quota is $1,500.

Mrs. Hickcox and Mrs. Waibel will be assisted by Mrs. Michael Holleran, Mrs. Charles Schneider, Mrs. Robert W. Weathers, Mrs. Bessie Cunningham, Mrs. Orie Frye, Mrs. Newton T.
